eyes look upon upon the [1]truth? [a]thou hast stricken them, but they were not grieved; thou hast consumed them, [d]but they have refused to receive [2]correction: [e]they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return. 4 Then Therefore I said, Surely these are poor: poor; they are foolish: foolish: [f]for they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgement judgment of their God: God. 5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for they know have known the way of the LORD, and the judgement judgment of their God: God. [g]But these with one accord have have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bands. bonds. 6 Wherefore [k]a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and a [m]wolf of the [3]*evenings shall spoil them, [o]a leopard shall watch over their cities, cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their [r]backslidings † are increased. 7 [s]How can shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, [t]and sworn by them that are no gods: [v]when I had [4]fed them to the full, [w]they then committed adultery, [x]and assembled themselves in by troops at in the harlots' houses. 8 They were as fed horses [5]in the morning: [z]every one neighed [b]after his neighbour's wife. 9 [c]Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 [e]Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; [y]but make not a full end: take away her branches: battlements; for they are not the LORD'S. 11 [g]For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD. 12 They have denied belied the LORD, and said, It is not he; [b]neither shall evil come upon us; [c]neither shall we see sword nor famine: 13 and the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them. 14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD, the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, behold, [g]I will make my words in thy mouth [h]fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them. 15 [i]Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is [6]a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, [l]neither understandest what they say. 16 [n]Their quiver is as [p]an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men. 17 [q]And they shall eat up thine harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees: they shall [7]beat down impoverish [u]thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustest, trustedst, with the sword. 18 But even Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD, [y]I will not make a full end with you. 19 And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, [a]Wherefore hath the LORD our doeth the LORD God done our God all these things unto us? then shalt thou say unto answer them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, [d]so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours.

20 Declare ye this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, 21 Hear now this, [f]O foolish people, and without [8]‡understanding; [h]which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not: 22 [i]Fear ye not

6 1 Flee for safety, [a]ye children O ye children of Benjamin, gather of Benjamin, yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in [c]Tekoa, and raise set up a signal on [d]Beth-haccherem: for evil looketh forth [e]from appeareth out of the north, and a great destruction. 2 The comely and great I have likened the delicate one, [g]the daughter of Zion, will I cut off. daughter of Zion to a ‖comely and delicate woman. 3 [h]Shepherds The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; [j]they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place. 4 [4k]Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up [m]at noon. Woe unto us! for the day declineth, goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. 5 Arise, and let us go [up] by night, and let us destroy her palaces. 6 For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, [p]Hew ye down [5]trees, and [q]cast [up] a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be [t]visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her. 7 [u]As a well fountain [6]casteth forth out her waters, so she [6]casteth forth out her wickedness: [w]violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is sickness grief and wounds. 8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, [y]lest my soul be alienated ††depart from thee; lest I make thee [z]a desolation, desolate, a land not inhabited.

9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, [b]They shall throughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn again back thine hand as a grapegatherer [7]into the baskets. 10 [d]To whom shall I speak and speak, testify, give warning, that they may hear? [f]behold, their ear is uncircumcised, [h]and they cannot hearken: behold, [i]the word of the LORD is become unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.

11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; [a]I am weary with holding in: I will [b]pour it out upon the children in the street, abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: [g]for even the husband with the wife [i]shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days. 12 [j]And their houses shall be turned unto others, their with their fields and their wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD. 13 [l]For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one [n]is given to covetousness; and from [p]the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. 14 They have healed also the [1*]hurt of the daughter of [2]my people lightly, slightly, saying, [s]Peace, peace; [t]when there is no peace. 15 [3v]Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: [x]at the time that I visit them they shall [4]be cast down, saith the LORD.

16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways ways, and see, and ask for [a]the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, [d]and ye shall find rest for your souls: but souls. But they said, We will not walk therein. 17 [f]And Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to [g]the sound of the trumpet; but trumpet. But they said, [h]We will not hearken. 18 Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them. 19 Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, [n]even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words; and as for words, nor to my law, they have but rejected it. 20 [c]To what purpose cometh there to me [d]frankincense incense from [e]Sheba, and the [f]sweet [5]cane from a far country? [h]your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices pleasing sweet unto me. 21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, [k]Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people: people, and the fathers and the sons together shall stumble against fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

22 Thus saith the LORD, [m]Behold, a people cometh [o]from the north country; country, and a great nation shall be stirred up raised from [q]the uttermost parts sides of the earth. 23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are [r]cruel, and have no mercy; [u]their voice roareth like the sea, sea; and they ride upon horses; every one horses, set in array, array as a man to the battle, for war against thee, O daughter of Zion. 24 We have heard the fame thereof; thereof: [w]our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and [y]pangs pain, as of a woman in travail. 25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for there is the sword of the enemy, enemy and [z]terror fear is on every side. 26 O daughter of my people, [b]gird thee with sackcloth, and [c]wallow thyself in ashes: [e]make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation; lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us. 27 I have made thee set thee for a [6]tower and [i]a fortress among my people; people, that thou mayest know and [j]try their way. 28 [k]They are all grievous revolters, going about walking with slanders; slanders: they are [m]brass and iron; iron; they all of them deal corruptly. are all corrupters. 29 The [m]bellows [7]blow fiercely; are burned, the lead is

7 1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2 [g]Stand in the gate of the LORD'S house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD. 3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, [k]Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. 4 [l]Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, the The temple of the LORD, the The temple of the LORD, are these. 5 For if ye throughly [k]amend your ways and your doings; if ye throughly [p]execute judgement judgment between a man and his neighbour; 6 if ye [q]oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, [r]and shed not innocent blood in this place, [r]neither walk after other gods to your own hurt: 7 [s]then will I cause you to dwell in this place, [w]in the land that I gave to your fathers, from of old even for for ever and evermore. ever. 8 Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit. 9 [a]Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and [b]swear falsely, [c]and burn incense unto Baal, [r]and walk after other gods whom ye have not known, know not; 10 and come and stand before me in this house, [1]†[j]which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered; delivered that ye may to do all these abominations? 11 [f]Is this house, [j]which is called by my name, [g]become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I, even I, have seen it, saith the LORD. 12 But go ye now unto [c]my place which was in Shiloh, [d]where I caused my name to dwell set my name at the first, and [e]see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel. 13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and [f]I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and [h]I called you, but ye answered not; not; 14 therefore will I do unto [i]the this house, [j]which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, [e]as I have done to Shiloh. 15 [i]And I will cast you out of my sight, [m]as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed [n]of Ephraim.

16 Therefore [o]pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee. 17 Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, [t]and the women knead the their dough, to [u]make cakes to [v]the ‡queen of heaven, and [x]to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, [y]that they may provoke me to anger. 19 [z]Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD; themselves, LORD: do they not provoke themselves [d]to the confusion of their own faces? 20 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, [e]mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; [k]and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

20 The harvest is past, the [1]summer is ended, and we are not saved. 21 For the hurt of [c]the daughter of my people am I hurt: hurt; [f]I am [2]black; astonishment hath taken hold on me. 22 Is there no [g]balm in Gilead? Gilead; is there no physician there? why then is not the [3]health of the daughter of my people [4]*recovered?

9 1 †[h]Oh that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of [c]the daughter of my people! 2 [5]Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all [n]adulterers, an assembly of [p]treacherous men. 3 And [q]they bend their tongue as it were tongues like their bow for falsehood; and lies: but they are grown strong in the land, but not for [6]truth; not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, [s]and they know not me, saith the LORD. 4 [t]Take ye heed every one of his ‡neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every [v]brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour [x]will go about walk with slanders. 5 And they will [7]§deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies; lies, they and weary themselves to commit iniquity. 6 Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; [z]through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, [cc]I will melt them, and [e]try them; for how else should I do, because of shall I do for [c]the daughter of my people? 8 [g]Their tongue is a deadly arrow as an arrow shot out; [a]it speaketh deceit: [b]one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but ‖in his heart [d]he layeth wait for him. his wait. 9 [e]Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for [i]the pastures †habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, [j]because they are ‡‡burned up, so that none passeth can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; §§[k]both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled, fled; they are gone. 11 [l]And I will make Jerusalem heaps, [m]a and dwelling place of jackals: a den of dragons; [o]and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, *desolate, without an inhabitant. 12 [r]Who is the wise man, that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it? wherefore is the land perished [u]and it, for what perisheth and is burned up like a wilderness, [so] that none passeth through?

14 Thus saith the LORD against all [a]mine evil neighbours, [b]that touch the inheritance which [e]I have caused my people Israel to inherit; Behold, I will pluck them up from off out of their land, and will pluck up out the house of Judah from among them. 15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them up out I will return return, and have compassion on them; them, [i]and I will will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land. 16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, [j]to swear by my name, As the The LORD liveth; even as they taught my people to swear by Baal; [k]then shall they be built up in the midst of my people. 17 [m]But if they will not hear, then will I obey, I will utterly pluck up that nation, plucking up and destroying it, and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

13 1 Thus said saith the LORD unto me, Go, Go, and buy get thee a linen [p]girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water. 2 So I bought got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it upon on my loins. 3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, 4 Take the girdle that thou hast bought, got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, [t]go to Euphrates, and hide it there in [u]a hole of the rock. 5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me. 6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take [p]the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there. 7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took [p]the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was [c]marred, it was [d]profitable for nothing. 8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 9 Thus saith the LORD, [f]After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great [g]pride of Jerusalem. 10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, [h]which walk in the stubbornness *imagination of their heart, and are gone walk after other gods gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is [d]profitable good for nothing. 11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; [l]that they might be unto me for a people, and [n]for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear. 12 Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word: word; Thus saith the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, [o]Every [1]bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every [1]bottle shall be filled with wine? 13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, [q]Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even [r]the kings that sit [2]upon David's throne, and [s]the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. 14 And I will [v]dash them †one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have compassion, that mercy, I should not ‡but destroy them.

14 1 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning k[the drought. dearth.

2 [l]Judah mourneth, and [m]the gates thereof languish, languish; they sit in are black upon unto the ground; and [o]the cry of Jerusalem is gone up. 3 And their nobles send have sent their [10]little ones [11]to the waters: they come came to the pits, and find found no water; they return returned with their vessels empty: empty; they are were [q]ashamed and confounded, and [r]cover covered their heads. 4 Because of the ground which is [12]chapt, for that [s]no rain hath been there was no rain in the land, earth, the plowmen are were ashamed, they cover covered their heads. 5 Yea, [u]the hind also in the field calved in the calveth, field, and forsaketh her young, forsook it, because there is was no grass. 6 And [v]the wild asses did stand on in the bare heights, high places, they pant for air snuffed up the wind like [13]jackals, dragons; their eyes did fail, because there is was no herbage. grass.

7 Though O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, work thou do thou it [z]for thy name's sake, O LORD sake: [a]for our backslidings are many; [b]we have sinned against thee. 8 [c]O thou the hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in the time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a sojourner stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that [14]turneth aside to tarry for a night? 9 Why shouldest thou be as a man astonied, [g]as a mighty man that cannot save?

yet [a]thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and [*b]we are called by thy name; [d]leave us not.

10 Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Even so Thus have they loved to wander; wander, they have not refrained their feet: feet, [f]therefore the LORD doth not accept them; now will he he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins. 11 And the Then said LORD said the LORD unto me, [j]Pray not for this people for their good. 12 When they fast, I will not hear their cry; [l]and when they offer burnt offering and an [1]oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them [n]by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence. 13 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, the prophets [q]say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you [2†]assured peace in this place. 14 Then the LORD said unto me, The [t]prophets prophesy lies in my name: [u]I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake I spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a lying false vision, vision [y]and divination, and a thing of nought, and [z]the deceit of their own heart. 15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and [u]I sent them not, yet they say, [n]Sword and famine shall not be in this land; land; [d]By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed. 16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; [g]and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them. 17 And Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them, them; [c]Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease; cease: for the virgin [e]daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, [g]with a very grievous wound. blow. 18 [h]If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! [h]and if I enter into the city, then behold [3]them that are sick with famine! [k]for yea, both the prophet and the priest [4‡]go about [5]in the into a land and have no knowledge. that they know not.

19 [m]Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul loathed lothed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, [o]and there is no healing for us? [p]We we looked for peace, but no good came and there is no good; [p]and for a the time of healing, and behold dismay trouble! 20 [r]We [6]acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers: [r]for we have sinned against thee. 21 Do not [7]abhor us, [s]for thy name's sake; sake: do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: [v]remember, break not thy covenant with us. 22 Are there any among [w]the vanities of the heathen Gentiles [x]that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee; thee: [a]for thou hast [8]made all these things.

15 1 Then said the LORD unto me, [b]Though [c]Moses [e]and Samuel [f]stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth. 2 And it shall come to pass, when if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD: LORD; [h]Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and vessel *that he made of the clay was [a]marred in the hand of the potter, potter: so [c]he [†]made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 6 O house of Israel, [g]cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. [i]Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel. 7 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, [o]to pluck up, up, and to break down, pull down, and to destroy it; 8 if that nation, concerning which, against whom I have spoken, pronounced, [q]turn from their evil, [r]I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them. 9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, [o]to build and to plant it; 10 if it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them. 11 Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; LORD; Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: [y]return ye now every one from his evil way, and [z]amend, make your ways and your doings, doings good. 12 But And they say, said, [b]There is no hope: for but we will walk after our own devices, and we will do, every one after, every one do [d]the stubbornness, imagination of his evil heart.

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD; LORD: [e]Ask ye now among the nations, heathen, who hath heard such things; things: the virgin of Israel hath done [g]a very horrible thing. 14 Shall Will a man leave fail [‡]the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold waters [1]that flow down from afar, flowing waters that come from another place be [2]dried up? forsaken: 15 [b]For Because my people hath forgotten me, they have burned incense to [d]vanity; vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways, [c]in ways from the ancient paths, to walk in bypaths, paths, [f]in a way not cast up; 16 to make their land [h]an astonishment, desolate, and [h]a perpetual hissing; [j]every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, [k]and shake wag his head. 17 [l]I will scatter them [m]as with an east wind before the enemy; [n]I will [3]look, shew upon their them the back, and not their the face, in the day of their calamity.

18 Then said they, [p]Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; [s]for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. [t]Come, and let us smite him [§]with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

19 Give heed to me, O LORD, and [u]hearken to the voice of them that contend with me. 20 [v]Shall evil be recompensed for good? for [w]they have digged a pit for my soul. [x]Remember how that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy fury, wrath from them. 21 Therefore [a]deliver up their children to the famine, and give them over to the power, ‖pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives become childless, be bereaved of their children, [c]and be widows; and let their men be slain of death, and put to death; let their young men smitten of, be slain by the sword in battle. 22 [f]Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them: for [w]they have digged a pit to take me, [h]and hid snares for my feet. 23 Yet, LORD, [i]thou knowest all their counsel against me to slay

21 1 The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent unto him [g]Pashhur Pashur the son of Malchijah, Melchiah, and [h]Zephaniah the son of [j]Maaseiah the priest, saying,
2 [k]Inquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; [m]for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us: peradventure us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to [q]all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.
3 Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah: 4 Thus saith the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, Israel; [r]Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans Chaldeans, which besiege you, you without the walls, [v]and I will gather assemble them into the midst of this city. 5 And I myself will fight against you [w]with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even [z]in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.
6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence. 7 And afterward, saith the LORD, [c]I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, even and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; [a]he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy. 8 And unto this people thou shalt say, [d]Thus saith the LORD: LORD; Behold, [e]I set before you the way of life life, and the way of death. 9 He that abideth in this city shall die [f]by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and [i]falleth away to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, [l]and his life shall be unto him for a prey.
10 For [n]I have set my face upon against this city for evil, and [o]not for good, saith the LORD: [p]it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.
11 And touching the house of the king of Judah, hear say, Hear ye the word of the LORD: LORD; 12 O house of David, thus saith the LORD, LORD; *[s]Execute judgement judgment [t]in the morning, and deliver him that is the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, [u]lest my fury go forth out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of [1]your doings.
13 [x]Behold, I am against thee, [y]O [2]†inhabitant of the valley, [3]and of the rock of the plain, saith the LORD; [ye] which say, [a]Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations? 14 and But [b]I will ‡punish you according to [d]the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: [e]and I will kindle a fire in her forest, the forest thereof, [e]and it shall devour all that is things round about her. it.

there this word, 2 and say, [a]Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates. 3 Thus saith the LORD: [c]Execute ye judgement and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and [d]do no wrong, do no violence, [e]to the stranger, [c]the fatherless, nor the widow, neither [h]shed innocent blood in this place. 4 For if ye do this thing indeed, [j]then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting [1]* upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people. 5 But if ye will not hear these words, I [l]swear by myself, saith the LORD, that [m]this house shall become a desolation. 6 For thus saith the LORD [2]concerning the house of the king of Judah: Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of [q]Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, [s]and cities which are not inhabited. 7 [t]And I will [3]prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons: [w]and they shall cut down thy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire. 8 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, [y]Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city? 9 [a]Then they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

10 [d]Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him: [e]but weep sore for him that goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country. 11 For thus saith the LORD touching [4]Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, [b]which went forth out of this place: He shall not return thither any more; 12 but [b]in the place whither they have led him captive, he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, there shall he die, and he shall see this land no more.

28 1 And it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of [j]Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of [l]Azzur Azur the prophet, which was of [m]Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, 2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, [p]I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. 3 [r]Within *[s]two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD'S house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon: 4 and I will bring again to this place [u]Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the †captives of Judah, that went to, into Babylon, saith the LORD: [p]for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon. 5 Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD, 6 even the prophet Jeremiah said, [b]Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD'S house, and all them of the captivity, that is carried away captive, from Babylon unto, into this place. 7 Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people: people; 8 [e]The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. 9 [i]The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, [1]that the LORD hath truly sent him. 10 Then Hananiah the prophet took the [k]bar, yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it. 11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, [n]Thus saith the LORD: LORD; [o]Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon within two full years from off the neck of all nations. from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way. 12 Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, Jeremiah the prophet, after that [t]Hananiah the prophet had broken the bar, yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 13 Go, Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD: LORD; Thou hast broken the bars, yokes of wood; but thou shalt make in their stead bars, for them yokes of iron. 14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Israel; I have put [v]a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, [w]that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: [x]and I the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, saying, [a]Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book. 3 [d]For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD, [e]that I will turn, bring again [f]the captivity of my people [g]Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: [j]and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning [g]Israel and concerning Judah. 5 For thus saith the LORD: LORD; We have heard a voice of trembling, [2*]of fear, and not of peace. 6 Ask ye now, and see whether †a man doth travail with child: child? [p]wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, [p]as a woman in travail, and [q]all faces are turned into paleness? 7 Alas! for [s]that day is great, [t]so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it. 8 And For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will [x]break his [y]yoke from off thy neck, and will [x]burst thy bands; bonds, [bb]and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him: 9 but they shall serve the LORD their God, and [e]David their king, whom I will raise up unto them. 10 [f]Therefore fear thou not, [h]O Jacob my servant, my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, [f]I will save thee from afar, [i]and thy seed from the land of their captivity; [f]and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet in rest, and at ease, be quiet, and none shall make him afraid. 11 [b]For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: [b]for though I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have scattered thee, but I will yet will I not make a full end of thee: [b]but I will [c]correct thee with judgement, in measure, and will in no wise not [3]leave thee altogether unpunished.

12 For thus saith the LORD, [h]Thy hurt bruise is incurable, [i]and thy wound is grievous. 13 There is none to plead [4]thy cause, [5]‡that thou mayest be bound up: [k]thou hast no healing medicines. 14 [l]All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not: not; for I have wounded thee with the wound of [m]an enemy, with the chastisement [n]of a cruel one; one, for the [6]greatness multitude of thine iniquity, iniquity; [o]because thy sins were increased. 15 [h]Why criest thou [7]for thy hurt thine affliction? [h]thy pain is incurable: sorrow is incurable for the [6]greatness multitude of thine iniquity, iniquity: [o]because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee. 16 [r]Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and [u]all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; [v]and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, [w]and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey. 17 [z]For I will restore [a]health unto thee, and [c]I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD; because [d]they have called thee an outcast, Outcast, saying, [d]It This is Zion, whom no man [8]seeketh after. 18 Thus saith the LORD: LORD; Behold, [g]I will turn bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have compassion mercy on his dwelling places; dwellingplaces; and the city shall be builded upon [j]her own [9]§heap, and the palace shall [10]remain after the manner thereof. 19 [k]And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry: [l]and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, 23 [o]Behold, [p]the tempest / whirlwind of the LORD, even his fury, is gone forth, a [2]sweeping tempest / whirlwind: it shall [†]fall with pain / burst upon the head of the wicked. 24 [q]The fierce anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, / done it, and till / until he have performed the intents of his heart: [u]in the latter days ye shall understand / consider it.

[1] [w]At that / the same time, saith the LORD, [y]will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people. 2 Thus saith the LORD, The people which were left of the sword [3]found grace in the wilderness; [a]even Israel, [4]when I went to cause him to rest. 3 The LORD hath appeared [5]‡of old unto me, saying, Yea, [d]I have loved thee with an everlasting love: [f]therefore [6]§with lovingkindness [g]have I drawn thee. 4 [i]Again will I / I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: [t]again shalt thou / thou shalt again be adorned with thy ‖tabrets, and shalt go forth in [m]the dances of them that make merry. 5 [o]Again shalt thou / Thou shalt yet plant vineyards / vines upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall [7]enjoy the fruit / eat them as common things. 6 For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon [b]the hills of / mount Ephraim shall cry, [c]Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God. 7 For thus saith the LORD, LORD; [e]Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout [8]for / among [f]the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, [h]O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel. 8 Behold, I will bring them [j]from the north country, and [k]gather them from [m]the uttermost parts / coasts of the earth, and with them [n]the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall they return hither. / thither. 9 [r]They shall come with weeping, [s]and with ††supplications will I lead them: I will [9]cause them [t]to walk by the rivers of waters, / waters [v]in a straight way, / way, wherein they shall not stumble: for [x]I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is [z]my firstborn.
10 Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, / off, and say, He that scattered Israel will [k]gather him, and keep him, [b]as a shepherd doth his flock. 11 [c]For the LORD hath ransomed / redeemed Jacob, and redeemed / ransomed him from [e]the hand of him that was stronger than he. 12 And / Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, [h]and shall flow together [i]unto / to the goodness of the LORD, [k]to the corn, / for wheat, and to the / for wine, and to the / for oil, and to / for the young of the flock and of the herd: [n]and their soul shall be as a watered garden; [p]and they shall not sorrow any more at all. 13 [q]Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, and the / both young men and the old together: for [a]I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow. 14 [d]And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.

15 Thus saith the LORD; [e]A voice was heard in [f]Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; [g]Rachel weeping for her children; she refuseth to be comforted for her children, [i]because they are not. 16 Thus saith the LORD; Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD; and [n]they shall come again from the land of the enemy. 17 [p]And there is hope for thy latter end, saith the LORD, and that thy children shall come again to their own border. 18 I have surely heard [q]Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: [u]turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God. 19 Surely after that [w]I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, [y]I smote upon my thigh: [z]I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth. 20 [q]Is Ephraim my dear son? [c]is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: [e]therefore my bowels [1*]are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.

21 [g]Set thee up waymarks, make thee guide-posts: [g]set thine heart toward the highway, [i]even the way by which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities. 22 [b]How long wilt thou go hither and thither, about, [c]O thou backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall encompass a man.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Yet again they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, [h]when I shall [2]bring again their captivity: [j]The LORD bless thee, [k]O habitation of justice, O mountain of holiness. 24 [m]And Judah and all the cities thereof and in all the cities thereof together, shall dwell therein together; husbandmen, and they that go about with flocks. 25 For I have [o]satiated the weary soul, and every sorrowful soul have I replenished. 26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me. 27 [r]Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that [s]I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with [t]the seed of man, and with the seed of beast. 28 And it shall come to pass, that [v]like as I have watched over them, [x]to pluck up, and to break down, and to overthrow, and to destroy, and to afflict; [v]so will I watch over them, [a]to build, and to plant, saith the LORD. 29 [b]In those days they shall say no more, [b]The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge. 30 [d]But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 [f]Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make [h]a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: 32 not according to the 32 [1]The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD [i]in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, [k]which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar. 2 Now at that time For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet [m]was shut up in [n]the court of the guard, prison, which was in the king of Judah's house. 3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, [s]Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; 4 [s]and Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, [w]but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes; 5 and [x]he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the LORD: [z]though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper?

6 And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 7 Behold, Hanamel Hanameel the son of [b]Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, [d]Buy thee my field that is in [g]Anathoth: [h]for the right of redemption is thine to buy it. 8 So Hanamel Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me in [n]the court of the guard prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in [c]Anathoth, which is in the land (country) of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. 9 And I bought the field that was in [c]Anathoth of Hanamel mine uncle's son, of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and [k]weighed him the money, even *seventeen shekels of silver. 10 [m]And I †subscribed the deed, evidence, [n]and sealed it, [o]and called (took) witnesses, and [k]weighed him the money in the balances. 11 So I took the deed (evidence) of the purchase, both that which was sealed, sealed [1]according to the law and custom, and that which was open: 12 and I delivered (gave) the deed (evidence) of the purchase unto [s]Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, Maaseiah, in the presence (sight) of Hanamel Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of [t]the witnesses that subscribed the deed (book) of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in [v]the court of the guard (prison). 13 And I charged [s]Baruch before them, saying, 14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Israel; Take these deeds, evidences, this deed (evidence) of the purchase, both that (which) is sealed, and this deed (evidence) which is open, open; and put them in an earthen vessel; vessel, that they may continue many days. 15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Israel; Houses and [z]fields and vineyards shall yet again be bought (be possessed again) in this land.

16 Now after (when) I had delivered the deed (evidence) of the purchase unto [b]Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying, 17 Ah Lord GOD! behold, [c]thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and by [a]thy stretched out arm (arm, and): [b]there is nothing [‡]too [2]hard for thee: 18 [d]which (Thou) shewest mercy (lovingkindness) unto thousands, [a]and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers [e]into the bosom of their children after them: the great, (Great,) [f]the mighty (Mighty) God, [g]the LORD of hosts (hosts), is his name (name), 19 [h]great in counsel, and [i]mighty in [§]work: [j]whose (for thine) eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men (men): [l]to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings: 20 which didst (hast) set [p]signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, [3]both (and) in Israel (Israel), and among other men; [q]and madest (hast made) thee a name, as at this day; 21 [r]and didst (hast) bring (brought) forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and [a]with a stretched out arm, [r]and with great terror; 22 and gavest (hast given) them this land, [u]which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, [u]a land flowing with milk and honey; 23 and they came in, and possessed it; [w]but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them: 24 behold [x]the ‖mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and [y]the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans (Chaldeans), that fight against it, [a]because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it. 25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord GOD, [d]Buy thee the field for money, [e]and call (take) witnesses; whereas (for) [y]the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, 27 Behold, I am the LORD, [c]the God of all flesh: [d]is there any thing too hard for me?

28 Therefore thus saith the LORD: LORD; [f]Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it: 29 and the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, [i]shall come and set this city on fire, fire on this city, and burn it, it [k]with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, [k]and poured out drink offerings unto other gods, [n]to provoke me to anger. 30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done that which was evil in my sight evil before me [p]from their youth: for the children of Israel have only [n]provoked me to anger [s]with the work of their hands, saith the LORD. 31 For this city hath been to me as *a provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; [w]that I should remove it from before my face: face, 32 because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, [y]they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 33 [b]And they have turned unto me the †back, and not the face: and though I taught them, [d]rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened [e]to receive instruction. 34 But they set [g]their abominations in the house house, which is called by my name, to defile it. 35 And they built the high places of Baal, [a]which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, [b]to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; [e]which I commanded them not, neither came it into my [1]mind, that they should do [g]this abomination; abomination, [h]to cause Judah to sin.

36 And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, [j]It is given shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: pestilence; 37 [l]Behold, I will gather them out of all the countries, [m]whither I have driven them in [o]mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, [q]and I will cause them to dwell safely: 38 [r]and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: 39 [t]and I will give them one heart heart, and one way, that they may fear me ‡for ever; ever, [u]for the good of them, and of their children after them: 40 [v]and I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away [2]§from them, to do them good; [x]and but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me. 41 [z]Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, [a]and I will plant them in this land [3]‖assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul. 42 For thus saith the LORD: LORD; [c]Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them. 43 [f]And fields shall be bought in this land, [gg]whereof ye say, It is desolate, desolate without man or beast; [h]it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. 44 Men shall buy fields for money, and [b]subscribe the deeds, evidences, and [b]seal them, and [b]call witnesses, witnesses [c]in the land of Benjamin, [c]and in the places about Jerusalem, [c]and in the cities of Judah, [c]and in the cities of the hill country, mountains, [c]and in the cities of the lowland, valley, [c]and in the cities of the South: south: for [e]I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

33 1 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet [g]shut up in the court of the guard, prison, saying, 2 Thus saith [h]the LORD that doeth it, the maker thereof, the LORD that formeth it, formed it, to establish it; *[j]the LORD is his name: name; 3 [k]Call unto me, and I will answer thee, [l]and will shew thee great things, and and †mighty 1difficult, things, [l]which thou knowest not. 4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are broken down thrown to make a defence against by [p]the mounts, and against by the sword; 5 They come [r]to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain [s]in mine anger and in my fury, [u]and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city. 6 [x]Behold, I will bring it 2health and cure, and I will cure them; them, and I will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth. 7 [o]And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, [z]and will build them, [b]as at the first. 8 And [c]I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; [f]and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned against me, and whereby they have transgressed against me. 9 [a]And this city it shall be to me for a name of joy, for a praise and for a glory, an honour, before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them, them: and they shall [d]fear and tremble for all the good goodness and for all the peace prosperity that I procure unto it. 10 Thus saith the LORD: Yet again LORD; Again there shall be heard in this place, [f]whereof which ye say, It is waste, say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, man, and without inhabitant, inhabitant, and without beast, 11 [i]the voice of joy, joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, [m]Give thanks to Praise the LORD of hosts, hosts: for the LORD is good, good; for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that shall bring sacrifices of [n]thanksgiving the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. [o]For I will cause the captivity of the land to return to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the LORD. 12 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: [g]Yet again shall there be hosts; Again in this place, which is waste, desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be [t]an habitation of shepherds [v]causing their flocks to lie down. 13 [w]In the cities of the hill country, mountains, [w]in the cities of the lowland, vale, [w]and in the cities of the South, south, [w]and in the land of Benjamin, [w]and in the places about Jerusalem, [w]and in the cities of Judah, [y]shall the flocks again pass pass again under the hands [a]of him that telleth them, saith the LORD.

Judah. 15 In those days, and at that time, will I cause a the [a]Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgement judgment and righteousness in the land. 16 In those days shall Judah be saved, [b]and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name whereby wherewith she shall be called, *[d]The LORD is our righteousness. 17 For thus saith the LORD; LORD: 1†[e]David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel; 18 [h]neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to burn 2oblations, kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually. 19 And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying, 20 [j]Thus saith the LORD: LORD; [k]If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, [m]so and that there should not be day and night in their season; 21 [o]then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers. 22 As [p]the host of heaven cannot be numbered, [p]neither the sand of the sea measured; measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me. 23 And Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, 24 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD did choose, hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? thus do they despise they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them. 25 Thus saith the LORD: LORD; [u]If my covenant of day and night stand not, be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; 26 then will I also cast away the seed of Jacob, and of David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: [c]for I will 3cause their captivity to return, and will have mercy on them.

fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against [b]Lachish Lachish, and against [c]Azekah Azekah: [d]for these alone defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah [as] [g]fenced cities.

8 The This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah [j]had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, [a]to proclaim liberty unto them;
9 [k]that every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; [l]that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother: brother.
10 and Now when all the princes princes, and all the people obeyed, people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more; more, then they obeyed, and let them go: go.
11 but afterwards But afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, [k]whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids: handmaids.
12 therefore Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel: Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that [r]I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of [1]bondage, bondmen, saying,
14 [t]At the end of seven years ye shall let let ye go every man his brother that is an Hebrew, which [2*]hath been sold unto thee; thee, and when he hath served thee six years, [k]thou shalt let him go free from thee: but [w]your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.
15 And ye were [†]now turned, and had done that which is right in mine eyes, my sight, in [a]proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and [e]ye had made a covenant before me in the [f]house [‡]which is called by my name:
16 but ye turned [h]and profaned polluted my name, and [i]caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, [i]whom ye he had let go free set at liberty at their pleasure, to return; and ye return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids.
17 Therefore thus saith the LORD: LORD; Ye have not hearkened unto me, [a]to proclaim in proclaiming liberty, every man one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: [m]behold, I proclaim unto you a liberty, a liberty for you, saith the LORD, [n]to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and [o]I will make you [§]to be [3]tossed to and fro among removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.
18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of [e]the covenant which they had made before me, [4]when [p]they cut the calf in twain, twain, and passed between the parts thereof; thereof,
19 the princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, [q]the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf;
20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, [s]and into the hand of them that seek their life: [u]and their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.
21 And [v]Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, [x]which are gone up from you. 22 Behold, [a]I will command, saith the LORD, and [b]cause them to return to this city; [b]and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: [c]and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, [d]without desolation an inhabitant.

35 1 The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of [e]Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, Josiah king of Judah, saying, 2 Go unto the house of the [g]Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of [i]the chambers, and give them wine to drink. 3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, Habaziniah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites; 4 and I brought them into the house of the LORD, into [i]the chamber of the sons of Hanan Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, [l]the a man of God, which was by [i]the chamber of the princes, which was above [i]the chamber of [m]Maaseiah the son of [n]Shallum, [o]the keeper of the [1*]door: 5 and I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine. 6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for [q]Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons, sons for ever: 7 neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; [t]that ye may live many days in the land wherein where ye be sojourn. strangers. 8 And we have Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters; 9 nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: 10 but we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. 11 But it came to pass, [f]when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of [h]the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of [h]the army of the Syrians; Syrians: [j]so we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, 13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Israel: Go, Go and say to tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, [k]Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD. 14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons, sons not to drink wine, are performed, and performed; for unto this day they drink none, for they but obey their father's commandment: but notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, [p]rising up early and speaking; and but ye have not hearkened hearkened not unto me. 15 I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, [p]rising up early and sending them, saying, [r]Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and [s]go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: [u]but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me. 16 Forasmuch as Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, father, which he commanded them, them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me; me: 17 therefore thus saith the LORD, the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel; Israel: Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: [d]because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; [d]and I have called unto them, but they have not answered. 18 And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Israel: Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you; you: 19 therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Israel: *Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man [h]to stand before me for ever.

36 1 And it came to pass in the [i]fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2 Take thee [a]a roll of a book, and [l]write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and [m]against Judah, [n]and against all the nations, [p]from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day. 3 [f]It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; [g]that they may return every man from his evil way; [u]that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin. 4 Then Jeremiah called [b]Baruch the son of Neriah; Neriah: and [b]Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon [a]a roll of a book. 5 And Jeremiah commanded [b]Baruch, saying, [c]I am [1]shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD: 6 therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD'S house [e]upon [2]the fast fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities. 7 [f]It may be [3]†they will present their supplication before the LORD, [g]and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people. 8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD'S house.

9 Now And it came to pass [j]in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, Josiah king of Judah, [k]in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem, [o]proclaimed a fast before the LORD. went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, [a]all the princes sat there, even [b]Elishama [a]the scribe, and [c]Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and [c]Elnathan [d]the son of Achbor, and [c]Gemariah the son of [g]Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of [h]Hananiah, and all the princes. 13 Then Micaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. 14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of [j]Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them. 15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears. 16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both turned in fear one toward another, and said unto Baruch, [q]We will surely tell the king of all these words. 17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth? 18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, [r]and I wrote them with ink in the book. 19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be. 20 And they went in to the king into the court; but they court, had laid up the roll in [t]the chamber of Elishama the scribe; and they scribe, told all the words in the ears of the king. 21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of the chamber of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king. 22 Now the king sat in [e]the winter house winterhouse [f]in the ninth month: and there was a fire in on the brasier hearth burning before him. 23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four [1]leaves, that he the king cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was in on the brasier, hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was in on the brasier. hearth. 24 [i]And Yet they were not afraid, [k]nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words. 25 More- Never- over theless [l]Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had [m]made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them. 26 And But the king commanded Jerahmeel [2]the [*]king's son *of son, Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and [o]Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take [p]Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them.

saith the LORD concerning of Jehoiakim king of Judah; Judah: [b]He shall have none [c]to sit upon the throne of David: [d]and his dead body [e]shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. 31 [f]And I will *punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, them; but they hearkened not. 32 Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to [k]Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who [l]wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many †like words.

37 1 [o]And king Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned as king, instead of [p]Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, [r]whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. 2 [s]But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake ‡by the prophet Jeremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the king sent [x]Jehucal the son of [y]Shelemiah, Shelemiah and [z]Zephaniah the son of [a]Maaseiah the priest, priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, [g]Pray now unto the LORD our God for us. 4 [d]Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: [e]for they had not put him into prison. 5 [f]And Then Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when [gg]the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, [a]they brake up departed from Jerusalem. 6 Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Israel: Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that [g]sent you unto me to inquire of me; Behold, [h]Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, [i]shall return to Egypt into their own land. 8 And [j]the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city; city, and they shall take it, and burn it with fire. 9 Thus saith the LORD; LORD: Deceive not [1]§yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart. 10 [m]For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but [2]‖[n]wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and [j]burn this city with fire.

11 And it came to pass, pass, that when [q]the army of the Chaldeans wasbroken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, 12 then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into [t]the land of Benjamin, ††[u]to receive his separate portion [3]there, himself thence [v]in the midst of the people. 13 And when he was in [w]the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of [b]Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he laid hold on took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, [c]Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans. 14 Then said Jeremiah, It is ‡‡false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans; Chaldeans. but But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah laid hold on took Jeremiah, and brought him to [h]the princes. 15 And Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, [i]and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison. 16 [b]When Jeremiah was come into the [1]dungeon house, and into the *cells, cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days; 17 then Zedekiah the king sent, and fetched him took him out: and the king asked him [d]secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is. He said also, [g]Thou is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon. 18 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, Wherein What have I sinned offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, [i]that ye have put me in prison? 19 [j]Where now are are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land? 20 And now hear, Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: †[n]let my supplication, I pray thee, [2]be accepted before thee; [p]that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there. 21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded, and commanded that they committed should commit Jeremiah into [v]the court of the guard, and prison, and that they gave should give him daily a loaf piece of bread out of the bakers' street, [x]until all the bread in the city was were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in [v]the court of the guard. prison.

38 1 And Then Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, Pashur, [y]and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and [z]Pashhur Pashur the son of Malchijah, Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah spake had spoken unto all the people, saying, 2 Thus saith the LORD, [a]He that abideth remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: [a]but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live, and his life shall be unto him live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and he shall live. 3 Thus saith the LORD, [c]This city shall surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he king of Babylon's army, which shall take it. 4 Then Therefore the princes said unto the king, [e]Let this man, we We beseech thee, pray thee, let this man be put to death; [f]forasmuch as death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not [h]the ‡welfare of this people, but the hurt. 5 And Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: [k]for the king is not he that can do any thing against you. 6 Then took they Jeremiah, [l]and cast him into the [3]dungeon of Malchijah Malchiah [4]the king's son, son §of Hammelech, that was in [m]the court of the guard prison: and they let down Jeremiah [o]with cords. So the captain of the guard gave him [3]victuals and a present, reward, and let him go. 6 Then went Jeremiah unto [e]Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to [f]Mizpah, Mizpah; and dwelt with him [h]among the people [i]that were left in the land.

7 [k]Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that [m]the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, [4]and of [p]the poorest poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon; 8 then they came to Gedaliah to [f]Mizpah, even [r]Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and [s]Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and [u]Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, a Maachathite, they and their men. 9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not §to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, [w]and it shall be well with you. 10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at [f]Mizpah Mizpah, [x]to stand before serve the Chaldeans, which shall will come unto us: but ye, [z]gather ye wine wine, and summer fruits fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken. 11 Likewise when all the Jews that were in [a]Moab, 13 Moreover [h]Johanan the son of Kareah, and [i]all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 and said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that Baalis the king of [n]the children of Ammon Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah *to take thy life, slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not. 15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he take thy life, slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, [s]and the remnant of Judah in perish? 16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

1 [v]Now it came to pass 41 in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and one of the chief officers princes of the king, and even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to [f]Mizpah; and there they did [w]eat bread together in Mizpah. 2 [b]Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, [d]whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. 3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah, at [f]Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, even and the men of war. 4 And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it, 5 that there came certain from [j]Shechem, from [k]Shiloh, and from [l]Samaria, even fourscore men, having [m]their beards shaven shaven, and [o]their clothes rent, and [m]having cut themselves, with [1]oblations offerings and frankincense incense in their hand, [p]to bring them to the house of the LORD. 6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from [q]Mizpah to meet them, †[r]weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. 7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, [t]and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him. 8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have ‖stores hidden treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. this abominable thing that I hate. 5 [a]But they hearkened not, [a]nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods. 6 [d]Wherefore my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; [g]and they are wasted and desolate, as it is at this day. 7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Israel; Wherefore commit ye this great evil [i]against your own souls, to cut off from you [k]man and woman, [k]infant child and suckling, *out of the midst of Judah, to leave you none remaining to remain; 8 [l]in that ye provoke me unto anger wrath with the works of your hands, [n]burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to sojourn dwell, that ye may be cut might cut yourselves off, and that ye may might be [f]a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? 9 Have ye forgotten the †wickedness of your fathers, and [q]the wickedness of the kings of Judah, [r]and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, [t]and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? 10 They are not ‡humbled even unto this day, [x]neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers. 11 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Israel; [a]Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, even and to cut off all Judah. 12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have [b]set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed; [b]in the land of Egypt shall they fall. consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; [b]they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine famine: they shall die, [e]from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: [e]and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, [f]and a curse, and a reproach. 13 [h]For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: 14 [j]so that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, [m]that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they [1]§have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return save but such as shall escape.

15 Then all the men which knew that [p]their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great assembly, multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in [s]Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, 16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, [u]we will not hearken unto thee. 17 [v]But we will certainly perform every word that do whatsoever thing is gone goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto [w]the ‖queen of heaven, [y]and to pour out drink offerings unto her, [z]as we have done, we we, and our fathers, our kings kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of [2]victuals, and were well, and saw no evil. 18 But since we left off to burn incense to [w]the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, [a]and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine. 19 And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, [b]and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to [1]worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, [e]without our husbands? *men 20 Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, [g]to the men, and to the women, even and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying, 21 [i]The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, [l]did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind? 22 [n]so that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of [p]the abominations which ye have committed; [q]therefore is your land become [s]a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, [t]without an inhabitant, as it is at this day. 23 Because ye have burned incense, [u]and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; [x]therefore this evil is happened unto you, as it is at this day.

24 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, [c]all Judah that are in the land of Egypt: 25 thus Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: saying; [a]Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and with fulfilled with your hands have fulfilled it, hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, [e]to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: establish then ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows. 26 Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, [c]all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Egypt: [d]Behold, I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, [f]that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, [h]saying, As the The Lord GOD liveth. 27 [j]Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: [k]and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them. 28 [m]And they Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, [o]few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, [r]shall know whose word words shall stand, [†]mine, or theirs. 29 And this shall be the a sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that [v]my words shall surely stand against you for evil: 30 thus Thus saith the LORD: LORD; Behold, I will give [w]Pharaoh Hophra Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, [y]and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave [z]Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life.

Thus Against Moab thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Israel; Woe unto [j]Nebo! for it is laid waste; spoiled: [k]Kiriathaim is put to shame, it is confounded and put to shame confounded and taken: [2]‡Misgab is [3]broken down. dismayed. 2 The There praise of Moab is no more; shall be no more praise of Moab: in [m]Heshbon they have devised evil against her, Come, it; come, and let us cut her it off [o]from being a nation. Thou also, O [q]Madmen, shalt be brought to silence. Also thou shalt §be cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall ‖pursue thee. 3 The sound of a cry A voice of crying shall be from [s]Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction! destruction. 4 Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. 5 [s]For by in the ascent going up of Luhith with continual weeping shall they go up; for [s]in the going down of Horonaim they the enemies have heard the distress of the a cry of destruction. 6 Flee, save your lives, and be like ††[w]the heath in the wilderness. 7 For, For [y]because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures, thou also shalt shalt also be taken: and [a]Chemosh [b]shall go forth into captivity, captivity with [e]his priests and his princes together. 8 [f]And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape; escape: the valley also shall perish, and [i]the plain shall be destroyed; destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken. 9 Give wings unto Moab, [4]that she it may fly flee and get her away: and her for the cities shall become a desolation, thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein. 10 [c]Cursed be he that doeth [e]the work of the LORD [5]negligently, ‡‡deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood. 11 Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he hath [g]settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste §§remained remaineth in him, and his scent is not changed. 12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him them that [6]pour off, and they wanderers, that [6]pour him off; cause him to wander, and they shall empty his vessels, and break their [7]bottles in pieces. 13 And [n]Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as [p]the house of Israel was ashamed of [r]Beth-el their confidence. 14 How say ye, We are mighty men, and valiant strong men for the war? 15 [t]Moab is laid waste, spoiled, and [8]they are gone up into out of her cities, and *his chosen young men are [u]gone down to the slaughter, saith [v]the King, [v]whose name is the LORD of hosts. 16 The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast. 17 All ye that are round about him, [x]bemoan him, him; and all ye that know his name; name, say, [z]How is the strong [9]staff broken, and the beautiful rod! 18 O thou Thou daughter that [10]dwellest in dost inhabit [c]Dibon, [d]come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab is come up against shall come upon thee, he hath destroyed and he shall destroy thy strong holds. 19 O [11]†inhabitant of [g]Aroer, [h]stand by the way, [h]and espy; espy: ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth; escapeth, and say, What hath been is done? 20 Moab is put to shame, confounded; for it is [1]broken down: [a]howl and cry; tell ye it in [b]Arnon, that [c]Moab is laid waste, spoiled, 21 And judgement, judgment is come upon [c]the plain country; upon Holon, and upon [f]Jahzah, Jahazah, and upon [g]Mephaath; Mephaath, 22 and upon [h]Dibon, and upon [i]Nebo, and upon Beth-[k]diblathaim; Beth-diblathaim, 23 and upon [l]Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon [m]Beth-meon; Beth-meon, 24 and upon [n]Kerioth, and upon [o]Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near. 25 [q]The horn of Moab is cut off, and [r]his arm is broken, saith the LORD. 26 [s]Make ye him drunken; drunken: [t]for he magnified himself against the LORD: and Moab, Moab also shall [s]wallow in his vomit, [w]and he also shall be in derision. 27 [y]For was not Israel a derision unto thee? [a]was he found among thieves? for as often as, since thou speakest, spakest of him, [c]thou *waggest the head, skippedst for joy. 28 O ye inhabitants of, that dwell in Moab, [d]leave the cities, and dwell in the rock; rock, and be [f]like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth. 29 [g]We have heard of the pride of Moab, that he is very (he is exceeding proud; proud) his loftiness, and his pride, arrogancy, and his arrogancy, pride, and the haughtiness of his heart. 30 I know his wrath, saith the LORD, that it is LORD; but it shall not nought, †[k]his boastings have wrought nothing. be so; lies shall not so effect it. 31 [m]Therefore will I howl for Moab; yea, Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab: for the men of [o]Kir-heres shall they Moab; mine heart shall mourn for the men of mourn. 32 With more than the weeping of Kir-heres. O vine of Sibmah, I will weep [q]Jazer will I weep for thee, [r]O vine of [s]Sibmah: for thee with the weeping of Jazer: [u]thy branches, plants are gone passed over the sea, they reached, reach even to the sea of [q]Jazer: *upon thy summer fruits and upon the spoiler is fallen upon thy, thy vintage the spoiler is fallen. 33 [w]And summer fruits and upon thy vintage. gladness and joy is taken away, from joy and gladness the fruitful field, plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to cease, fail from the winepresses: none shall tread with shouting; the, their shouting shall be no shouting. 34 [d]From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, Jahaz have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even unto [j]Horonaim, [2]to Eglath-shelishiyah: as an heifer of three years old: for the waters of Nimrim also, also of Nimrim shall become [3]‡desolate. 35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, him that offereth in [p]the high place, places, and him that burneth incense to his gods. 36 Therefore mine heart soundeth, shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart soundeth, shall sound like pipes for the men of [u]Kir-heres: [v]therefore, because the abundance, riches that he hath gotten is, are perished. 37 [x]For every head is, shall be bald, and every beard §clipped: [z]upon all the hands are, shall be cuttings, and [b]upon the loins sackcloth. 38 On all the, There shall be housetops of Moab and in the streets thereof lamentation generally upon all the housetops there is lamentation every where: of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like [e]a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD. 39 How is it broken down! [4]how They shall howl, saying, How is do they howl! it broken down! [h]how hath Moab turned the ‖back with shame! so shall Moab [i]become, be a derision and a dismaying to all that are round, them about him. 40 For thus saith the LORD; LORD: Behold, [j]he shall fly as an eagle, [l]and shall spread out his wings against, over Moab. 41 [5][n]Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and [p]the heart of the mighty, mighty men of, men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of [t]a woman in her pangs. 42 And Moab shall be [v]destroyed from being a people, because [i]he hath magnified himself against the LORD. 43 [x]Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD.

concerning against [l]Elam in the beginning of the reign of [n]Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, 35 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; hosts: Behold, I will break [q]the bow of [l]Elam, the chief of their might. 36 And upon [l]Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither [1]the outcasts of [l]Elam shall not come. 37 And
For I will cause [l]Elam
[v]to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life: and I will bring evil upon them, even [x]my fierce anger, saith the LORD; [z]and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them:
38 and I will set my throne in [l]Elam, and will destroy from thence the king and the princes, saith the LORD. 39 But it shall come to pass in the latter days, [e]that I will bring again the captivity of [l]Elam, saith the LORD.

For she hath seen that [b]the heathen are entered into her sanctuary, Concerning whom thou didst command that [e]they should not enter into thy congregation.
11 All her people [i]sigh, [j]they seek bread;
They have given their [l]pleasant things for [m]meat ‡to refresh relieve the soul:
See, O LORD, and behold consider; for I am become vile.
12 §Is it nothing to you, all [n]ye that ‖pass by?
[p]Behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me,
[5]Wherewith [q]the LORD hath afflicted me in [r]the day of his fierce anger.
13 From on high above hath he [u]sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them:
[v]He hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back; back:
[y]He hath made me desolate and faint all the day.
14 [z]The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand; hand:
They are knit together, they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck; neck: he hath made my strength to [6]fail: fall,
The Lord hath delivered me into their hands, [7]against whom from whom I am not able to stand. rise up.
15 The Lord hath set at nought trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me; me:
He hath called a solemn an assembly against me to crush my young men:
[f]The Lord hath trodden as in the a winepress the virgin daughter of virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a Judah. winepress.

[d]Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth [e]as honey for sweetness.

4 And he said unto me, [p]Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them. 5 For thou art not sent to a people 1‡of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel; 6 not to many peoples (people) §of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. ‖ [e]Surely, (if) had I sent thee to them, they would (have hearken hearkened) unto thee. 7 [g]But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are [i]of an hard forehead (impudent) and of a stiff heart. (hardhearted.) 8 [j]Behold, I have made thy face (strong) hard against their faces, and thy forehead (strong) hard against their foreheads. 9 As [l]an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: [m]fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house. 10 Moreover he said unto me, [p]Son of man, [r]all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive [s]in thine heart, and hear with thine ears. 11 And go, get thee to [u]them of the captivity, unto [w]the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, [x]Thus saith the Lord GOD; [y]whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 [a]Then the spirit (lifted took) me up, and I heard behind me (a) voice of [b]a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place. 13 (And I heard I heard also) the noise of the wings of [cc]the living creatures (as they that) ††touched one another, and the noise of the wheels (2beside over against) them, (even the and a) noise of [b]a great rushing. 14 [a]So the spirit lifted me up, and took me (away: away,) and I went ‡‡in bitterness, in the §§heat of my (spirit, [f]and spirit; but) the hand of the LORD was strong upon me. 15 [g]Then I came to [u]them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that [1]dwelt [a]by the river of Chebar, [2]and [to where they 1 dwelt; I sat where they sat,] and [c]I sat [remained] there [d]astonied [astonished] among them [g]seven days.

16 [h]And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 17 [y]Son of man, [i]I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and [l]give them warning from me. 18 [m]When I say unto the wicked, [n]Thou shalt surely die; [l]and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man [r]shall die in his iniquity; [s]but his blood will I require at thine hand. 19 [u]Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; [w]but thou [x]hast delivered thy soul. 20 [z]Again, [when] When a righteous man doth turn from his *righteousness, and commit iniquity, [b]and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die: [l]because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, [z]and his [righteous deeds] righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; [s]but his blood will I require at thine hand. 21 Nevertheless [l]if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he [took warning; and] is warned; also thou [x]hast delivered thy soul.

22 [j]And the hand of the LORD was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth into [k]the [3]plain, and [l]I will there talk with thee. 23 Then I arose, and went forth into the [3]plain: and, behold, [e]the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I saw [b]by the river of Chebar: [e]and I fell on my face. 24 [f]Then the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my [feet; feet,] and [he] spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house. 25 But thou, O son of man, behold, [k]they shall [lay] put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them: 26 and I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that [o]thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them †a reprover: [p]for they are a rebellious house. 27 [q]But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, [t]Thus saith the Lord [GOD: GOD;] [v]He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: [p]for they are a rebellious house.

4 1 Thou also, [y]son of man, [a]take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and pourtray upon it [a the] city, even Jerusalem: 2 [c]and lay siege against it, [d]and build [forts a fort] against it, [e]and cast [up] a mount against it; set [camps the camp] also against it, [f]and [plant set] ‡battering rams against it round about. 3 [And Moreover] take thou unto thee §an iron [4]pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: [g]and set thy face [toward against] it, and it shall be besieged, [h]and thou shalt lay siege against it. 8 [1]And it came to pass [d]in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, [f]as I sat in mine house, and [g]the elders of Judah sat before me, that [i]the hand of the Lord GOD fell there upon me. [2] Then I beheld, and, lo, and lo [k]a likeness as the appearance of fire; fire: [k]from the appearance of his loins and even downward, fire; fire: and from his loins and even upward, as the appearance of brightness, [l]as the colour of [o]amber. [3] And [p]he put forth the form of an hand, and [r]took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up [t]between the earth and the heaven, and [u]brought me in [v]the visions of God to Jerusalem, [w]to the door of the gate of the inner court inner gate that looketh toward the north; [a]where was the seat of the [bb]image of jealousy, [c]which provoketh to jealousy. [4] And, behold, [ee]the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the [2]appearance vision that I saw [g]in the plain. [5] Then said he unto me, [b]Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward of at the gate of [h]the altar this [bb]image of jealousy in the entry. [6] And he said He said furthermore unto me, [b]Son of man, [j]seest thou what they do? even [e]the great abominations that the house of Israel do commit committeth here, [3][n]that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but [4]thou shalt again turn thee yet again, see yet other great and thou shalt see greater abominations. [7] And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall. [8] Then said he unto me, [b]Son of man, [c]dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door. [9] And he said unto me, Go in, and see behold [e]the wicked abominations that they do here. [10] So I went in and saw; and behold [h]every form [j]of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, [l]pourtrayed upon the wall round about. [11] And there stood before them [m]seventy men of [n]the elders ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of [q]Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and [s]the odour of the a thick cloud of incense went up. [12] Then said he unto me, [b]Son of man, hast thou seen what [n]the elders ancients of the house of Israel do [x]in the dark, every man [y]in his chambers of the chambers of his imagery? for they say, [z]The LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the [5]earth. [13] He said also unto me, [d]Thou shalt again see yet other Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see great greater abominations which that they do. [14] Then he brought me to [f]the door of the gate of the LORD'S house which was toward the north; and, and behold, there sat the women weeping for Tammuz. [15] Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O [b]son of man? [d]thou shalt again see yet turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these. [16] And he brought me into [i]the inner court of the LORD'S house, and, and behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, [k]between [l]the porch and [m]the altar, were about five and twenty men, [o]with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped [p]the sun toward the east. [17] Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O [b]son of man?

*Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit [b]the abominations which they commit here? for [d]they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again / returned [f]to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose. 18 Therefore [h]will I also deal in fury: [j]mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: [k]and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

9 1 Then he cried / He cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, [1]Cause ye them that have charge over the city to draw near, even [p]every man with his destroying weapon in his hand. 2 And / And, behold, six men came from the way of [r]the upper / higher gate, †which lieth toward the north, every man / and every man ‡a [2]slaughter weapon in his hand; and [t]one man in the midst of / among them was clothed in / with linen, with a writer's inkhorn [3]§by his side. / side: And / and they went in, and stood beside [w]the brasen altar. 3 And [x]the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon it / he was, to [z]the threshold of the house: and / house. And he called to [t]the man clothed in / with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn [3]by his side. / side: 4 And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and ‖[b]set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that [c]sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof. 5 And to [e]the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye through the / after him city after him, / through the city, and smite: [v]let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity: 6 [a]slay [4]††utterly the old man, / old and the young man and the maiden, / young, both maids, and little children / children, and women: but [c]come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and [e]begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at [g]the [5]ancient men which were before the house. 7 And he said unto them, [i]Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and smote / slew in the city. 8 And it came to pass, while they were smiting, / slaying them, and I was left, [l]that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, [m]Ah Lord GOD! [n]wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel [o]in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem? 9 Then said he unto me, [q]The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, [s]and the land is ‡‡full of blood, and the city full of [6]wresting of judgement: / §§perverseness: for [u]they say, The LORD hath forsaken the [7]earth, and the LORD seeth not. 10 And as for me also, [v]mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, [y]but I will bring / recompense their way upon their head. 11 And / And, behold, [t]the man clothed in / with linen, which had the inkhorn by his side, *reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

10 1 Then I looked, and / and, behold, [a]in the firmament that was over / above the head of the cherubim, / cherubims there appeared above / over them [d]as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. 2 And he spake unto [f]the man clothed in / with linen, and said, Go in between [g]the whirling wheels, / wheels, even under the cherub, and fill both †thine hands / hand

And he went in [d]in my sight. 3 Now the cherubim cherubims stood [e]on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and [f]the cloud filled [g]the inner court. 4 And Then [h]the glory of the LORD [i]mounted *went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house [f]was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of [n]the brightness of the LORD'S glory. 5 And [o]the sound of the wings of the cherubim cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, [o]as the voice of [2]God Almighty the Almighty God when he speaketh. 6 And it came to pass, that when he had commanded [t]the man clothed in with linen, saying, [u]Take fire from between [i]the whirling wheels, wheels, from between the cherubim, that cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside a wheel. the wheels. 7 And the one cherub [†]stretched forth his hand from between the cherubim cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubim, cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of [t]him that was clothed in linen, with linen: who took it it, and went out. 8 And there appeared in the cherubim cherubims [z]the form of a man's hand under their wings. 9 [a]And I looked, and behold, when I looked, behold the four wheels beside by the cherubim, cherubims, one wheel beside by one cherub, and another wheel beside by another cherub: and [d]the appearance of the wheels was [e]as the colour [f]of a [3]beryl stone. 10 [d]And as for their appearance, appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been [4]within in the midst of a wheel. 11 [i]When they went, they went [5]upon their four sides: sides; [k]they turned not as they went, [l]but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went. 12 [b]And their whole [‡]body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had. 13 As for the wheels, §it was cried unto them they were called in my hearing, [i]the whirling wheels. O wheel. 14 [k]And every one had four faces: [l]the first face was the face of the a cherub, and the second face was [m]the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle. 15 [p]And the cherubim mounted up: this cherubims were lifted up. This is [q]the living creature that I saw by [r]the river of Chebar. 16 [s]And when the cherubim cherubims went, the wheels went beside by them: and [s]when the cherubim cherubims lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them. 17 [v]When they stood, these stood; and when they mounted were lifted up, these mounted lifted up with them themselves also: for the spirit [6]‖of the living creature was in them. 18 [w]And Then [x]the glory of the LORD went forth departed from over off the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim. cherubims. 19 [y]And the cherubim cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth [b]in my sight sight: when they went forth, out, and the wheels the wheels also were [7]beside them: them, and they every one stood at the door of [c]the east gate of the LORD'S house; and [x]the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. 20 [q]This is the living creature that I saw [g]under the God of Israel by [h]the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim. the cherubims. 21 [j]Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and [m]the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. 22 [n]And as for the

1 [e]Moreover the spirit II lifted me up, and brought me unto [g]the east gate of the LORD'S house, which looketh eastward: and behold, behold, at the door of the gate [i]five and twenty men; and I saw in the midst of them among whom I saw Jaazaniah [j]the son of Azzur, Azur, and [k]Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. 2 And he said Then said he unto me, [o]Son of man, these are the men that devise iniquity, mischief, and that give wicked counsel in this city: 3 [q]which say, [1r]The time It is not near near; to let us build houses: [s]this city is the caldron, and we be the flesh. 4 Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man. 5 And [u]the spirit Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and he said unto me, Speak, Speak; Thus saith the LORD: LORD; Thus have ye said, O house of Israel; Israel: [v]for I know the things that come into your mind. mind, every one of them. 6 [x]Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain. 7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD: GOD; [y]Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, [s]they are the flesh, and [s]this city is the caldron: but [2]ye shall be brought I will bring you forth out of the midst of it. 8 [b]Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring the a sword upon you, saith the Lord GOD. 9 [c]And I will bring you forth out of the midst thereof, and [dd]deliver you into the hands of strangers, and [d]will execute judgements judgments among you. 10 [g]Ye shall fall by the sword; [d]I will judge you in the border of Israel; [f]and ye shall know that I am the LORD. 11 [b]This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but [d]I will judge you in the border of Israel: Israel: 12 [f]and ye shall know that I am the LORD: [†]for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither have ye executed my judgements, judgments, [h]but have done after the [3]ordinances manners of the nations heathen that are round about you. 13 And it came to pass, when I prophesied, [l]that [m]Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. [n]Then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, [n]Ah Lord GOD! [p]wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

14 And Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 15 [t]Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy [4]kindred, and all the house of Israel, Israel all of them, wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, [w]Get you far from the LORD: LORD: unto us is this land given for a possession: possession. 16 therefore Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD: GOD; Whereas Although I have removed cast them far off among the nations, heathen, and whereas although I have scattered them among the countries, [5]yet [z]will I be to them a sanctuary for a as a little little while sanctuary in the countries where they are shall come. 17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD: GOD; [a]I will even gather you from the peoples, people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, [a]and I will give you the land of Israel. 18 And they shall come thither, [c]and they shall take away [ff]all the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from thence. 19 [h]And I will give them one heart, and [i]I will put a new spoken a lying divination, [a]whereas ye say, The LORD saith it; albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, [c]I am against you, saith the Lord GOD. 9 And mine hand shall be against upon the prophets [e]that see vanity, and [e]that divine lies: they shall not be in the [1]council *assembly of my people, [i]neither shall they be written in the [2]writing of the house of Israel, [k]neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; [l]and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD. 10 Because, even because they have seduced my people, [d]saying, Peace; and there is there was no peace; and when one buildeth up [3]†a wall, behold, and, lo, others daubed [b]they daub it with untempered mortar morter: 11 say unto them [b]which daub it with untempered mortar, morter, that it shall fall: [p]there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it. 12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it? 13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; [p]I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; [p]and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in my fury to consume it. 14 So will I break down the wall that [b]ye have daubed with untempered mortar, morter, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered: discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: thereof: [y]and ye shall know that I am the LORD. 15 Thus will I accomplish my fury wrath upon the wall, and upon them [b]that have daubed it with untempered mortar; morter, and I will will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it; 16 to wit, the prophets of Israel which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, [d]and which see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord GOD.

[1] Then came certain of 14 [i]the elders of Israel unto me, [i]and sat before me. [2] And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, [3] [j]Son of man, these men have [2]taken up set their idols into in their heart, and put [l]the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: [m]should I be inquired of at all by them? [4] Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; GOD: Every man of the house of Israel that taketh up setteth his idols into in his heart, and putteth [l]the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet; [p]I the LORD will answer him [3]therein that cometh according to the multitude of his idols; [5] [r]that I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because [t]they are all estranged from me through their idols. [6] Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD: GOD; [y]Return ye, Repent, and turn [†]yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations. [7] For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger strangers that sojourn sojourneth in Israel, [t]which separateth himself from me, and taketh up setteth his idols into in his heart, and putteth [l]the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the a prophet to inquire of concerning me; [e]I the LORD will answer him by myself: [8] and [d]I will set my face against that man, and [b]will make him an astonishment, for a sign and a proverb, [d]and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; [f]and ye shall know that I am the LORD. [9] And if the prophet be [5]deceived when he hath spoken a thing, and speaketh a word, [h]I the LORD have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel. [10] And they [k]shall bear the punishment of iniquity [6]their iniquity: the punishment iniquity of the prophet shall be even as the punishment iniquity of him that seeketh unto him; [11] that the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither be polluted defile themselves any more with all their transgressions; [o]but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord GOD. 15 [1] And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, [2] [t]Son of man, what is [c]the vine tree more than any tree, the vine or than a branch which [4]is among the trees of the forest? [3] Shall wood be taken thereof to make any work? or will men take [b]a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon? [4] [d]Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire hath devoured both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned; is it profitable for any work? [5] [f]Behold, when it was whole, it was [5]‡meet for no work: how much less, when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned, shall it yet be [5]meet for any work? [6] Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; [h]As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, [d]which I have given to the fire for fuel, so [6]will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. [7] [i]And I will set my face against them; [j]they [7]shall go forth out from the one fire, but the and another fire shall devour them; [l]and ye shall know that I am the LORD, [i]when I set my face against them. I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant. 61 [b]Then (shalt thou / thou shalt) remember thy ways, [d]and be ashamed, when thou shalt receive [e]thy sisters, thine elder (sisters) and thy younger: and I will give them unto thee [f]for daughters, but not by thy covenant. 62 [h]And I will establish my covenant with thee; [i]and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: 63 [b]that thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and [j]never open thy mouth any (more, / more,) because of thy (shame; / shame,) when I (have forgiven thee / am pacified toward thee for) all that thou hast done, saith the Lord GOD.

17 1 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 2 [l]Son of man, [m]put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel; 3 and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [p]A great eagle [q]with great (wings and long pinions, / wings, longwinged,) [q]full of feathers, which had *divers colours, came [s]unto Lebanon, [t]and took the (highest branch / top) of the cedar: 4 [t]he cropped off the (topmost of the top of his) young twigs (thereof), and carried it into [1]a land of (traffic / traffick); he set it in a city of merchants. 5 He took also of the seed of the land, [e]and †planted it in [2]a fruitful (soil / field); he placed it (beside [3]many waters; / by great waters,) (he / and) set it as a willow tree. 6 And it grew, and became [b]a spreading vine [d]of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs. 7 [g]There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: [g]and, behold, this vine did bend (its / her) roots toward him, and shot forth (its / her) branches toward him, from [4]the beds of its plantation, that he might (that he might water it by the furrows of her water it. / plantation.) 8 [c]It was planted in a good [4]†soil by [3]many great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine. 9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord (GOD; / GOD;) [g]Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it (may wither; that all its fresh springing leaves may wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her wither; / spring,) even without great power or (much / many) [5]people to pluck it up by the roots (thereof? / thereof.) 10 Yea, behold, being planted, [g]shall it prosper? [k]shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in [4]the (beds / furrows) where it grew.

11 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 12 Say now to [n]the rebellious house, [o]Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, [r]the king of Babylon (came / is come) to Jerusalem, and (took / hath taken) the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and (brought / led) them (to / with) him to Babylon; 13 [u]and (he took / hath taken) of the (seed royal, / king's seed,) [v]and made a covenant with (him; / him, and hath §taken an oath of him:) [w]he also brought him under an oath, [x]and took away (hath also taken) the mighty of the land: 14 that the kingdom might be [6][y]base, that it might not lift itself up, ‖but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand. 15 [a]But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors [c]into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. came unto me, saying, 9 [a]Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD; Say, [c]A sword, a sword, it is sharpened, and also furbished: 10 [e]it is sharpened that it may make a slaughter; [e]it is furbished that it may to make a sore be [f]as lightning: glitter: [h]shall we then make mirth? should [i]the rod of my son, it contemneth every tree. 11 [e]And it is given he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: [e]the sword, it is sharpened, this sword yea, and it is furbished, [k]to give it into the hand of the slayer. 12 [l]Cry and howl, son of man: for it is shall be upon my people, it is shall be upon all the princes of Israel: [2]they are terrors delivered over to by reason of the sword with shall be upon my people: [o]smite therefore upon thy thigh. 13 For there is a trial; and [3]what if even the rod that contemneth even the rod? it shall be no more? saith the Lord GOD. 14 Thou therefore, [r]son of man, prophesy, and [s]smite thine §hands together; and let the sword be doubled [u]the third time, the sword of the deadly wounded slain: it is the sword of the great one that is deadly wounded, which [4]entereth into their privy chambers. 15 I have set the [5]‖point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt, faint, and their stumblings ruins be multiplied: ah! it is made as lightning, bright, [w]it is wrapped up for the slaughter. 16 [6]Gather thee together, go to the right; set thyself in array, go to the left; [7]whithersoever thy face is set. 17 I will also [s]smite mine hands together, [a]and I will [8]satisfy my fury cause my fury to rest: [b]I the LORD have spoken it.

18 The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying, 19 Also, thou [r]son of man, appoint thee two ways, that [b]the sword of the king of Babylon may come; they come: both twain shall come forth out of one land: and mark out choose thou [d]a [9]place, mark it out choose it [d]at the head of the way to the city. 20 Thou shalt appoint Appoint a way, [g]for that the sword to may come to Rabbah Rabbath of the children of Ammon, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced. 21 For the king of Babylon stood [j]at the ††parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he shook the made his §§arrows to and fro, bright, he consulted [m]the teraphim, with *images, he looked in the liver. 22 In At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, [n]to set battering rams, appoint †captains, to open the mouth [10]in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set appoint battering rams against the gates, [q]to cast up mounts, a mount, and to build forts. a fort. 23 And it shall be unto them as a vain false divination in their sight, [t]which have sworn oaths unto them: ‡to them that have sworn oaths but he bringeth iniquity to remembrance, will call to remembrance the iniquity, [v]that they may be taken.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, [v]ye shall be taken with the hand. 25 And thou, O deadly wounded profane [x]wicked one, the prince of Israel, [y]whose day is come, [z]in the time of the when [11]iniquity of the end; shall have an end, 26 Thus thus saith the Lord GOD; [12]Remove the mitre, diadem, and take off the crown: this shall be [13]no more not be the same: [c]exalt that which is him that is low, and abase that which is him that is high. 27 [14]§I will overturn, overturn, overturn,

11 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 12 [f]Son of man, [g]take up a lamentation for [h]the king of Tyre, Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou sealest up the [2]sum, [j]full of wisdom, and [k]perfect in beauty. 13 Thou wast in [l]Eden the garden of God; [m]every precious stone was thy covering, [p]the [3]†sardius, the topaz, and the diamond, the ‡beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, [m]the [4]§emerald, and the [5]carbuncle, and gold: [s]the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee; [v]in the day that thou wast created they were prepared. 14 Thou art the anointed [x]cherub that covereth; and I have set thee, so that thou wast upon [z]the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. 15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways [b]from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee. 16 By the multitude of [d]thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of [z]the mountain of God; and I have destroyed thee, [x]O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. 17 [g]Thine heart was lifted up because of [h]thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I have laid thee before kings, that they may behold thee. 18 By the multitude of thine iniquities, in the unrighteousness of thy traffic, thou hast profaned my sanctuaries: therefore I have brought forth a fire from the midst of thee, it hath devoured thee, and I have turned thee to ashes upon the earth [e]in the sight of all them that behold thee. 19 All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: [i]thou shalt become a ‖terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

24 And [a]I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put [c]my sword in his hand: but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, Pharaoh's arms, and he shall groan before him with [i]the groanings of a deadly wounded man. 25 And But [a]I will hold up strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; [j]and they shall know that I am the LORD, [k]when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt. 26 [m]And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them through among the countries; [j]and they shall know that I am the LORD.

31 1 And it came to pass [q]in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 2 [s]Son of man, say speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to [t]his multitude; [u]Whom art thou like in thy greatness? 3 Behold, [w]the Assyrian was [x]a cedar in [y]Lebanon with fair branches, and [z]with a shadowing shroud, and [a]of an high stature; and his top was among [c]the ³thick boughs. 4 The waters ††nourished made him him, great, the deep made him to grow: ‡‡set him up on high with [e]her rivers ran running round about her plantation; his plants, and she sent out her channels §§little rivers unto all the trees of the field. 5 Therefore [f]his stature height was exalted above all the trees of the field; field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long by reason because of ⁴[h]many the multitude of waters, *when he shot them forth. 6 [i]All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations. 7 Thus was he [c]fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: [d]for his root was by [1]many great waters. 8 [e]The cedars [f]in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the [plane] chesnut trees were not [as] like his branches; nor [was] any tree [f]in the garden of God [was] like unto him in his beauty. 9 I [have] made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that [f]all the trees of [j]Eden, that were [f]in the garden of God, envied him.

10 Therefore thus [2said] saith the Lord GOD; Because [l]thou [art exalted] hast lifted up thyself in [stature,] height, and he hath [set] shot up his top among the [3]thick boughs, and [m]his heart is lifted up in his height; 11 I [will even deliver] have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the [nations] heathen; *he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness. 12 And [r]strangers, [r]the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: [t]upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all [v]the [watercourses] rivers of the land; and [x]all the [peoples] people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him. 13 [y]Upon his ruin [shall] all the fowls of the heaven [shall dwell,] remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches: 14 [a]to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves [in] for their [stature,] height, neither [set] shoot up their top among the thick boughs, [nor that] neither their [mighty ones] trees †stand up in their height, even all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, [a]to the [b]nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when [g]he went down to [4]hell the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the [rivers] floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused [h]Lebanon [5]‡to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. 16 [i]I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, [g]when I cast him down to [4]hell with them that descend into the pit: [k]and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of [h]Lebanon, all that drink water, [were] shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth. 17 They also went down into [4]hell with him [o]unto them that be slain [by] with the sword; [yea,] and [p]they that were his arm, [q]that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the [nations.] heathen.

18 [s]To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness [k]among the trees of Eden? [u]yet shalt thou be brought down with [k]the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: [w]thou shalt lie in the midst of the [uncircumcised,] uncircumcised [o]with them that be slain by the sword. [s]This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

face of the earth; earth, [a]and there was none that did search or seek after them. 7 Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD; LORD; 8 [d]As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely forasmuch as because [e]my sheep flock became a prey, [f]and my sheep flock became meat to all the beasts every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, [a]neither did my shepherds search for my sheep, flock, but [h]the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my sheep flock; 9 therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD; 10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; GOD; [l]Behold, I am against the shepherds; and [m]I will require my sheep flock at their hand, and [n]cause them to cease from feeding the sheep flock; [p]neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; [q]and for I will deliver my sheep flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them. 11 For thus saith the Lord GOD; GOD; Behold, [r]I myself, even I, I, [s]will search for both search my sheep, and will seek them out. 12 *As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered abroad, scattered; so will I seek out my sheep; sheep, and I will will deliver them out of all places whither where they have been scattered in [1][v]the cloudy and [w]dark day. 13 And I will bring them out from the peoples, people, [y]and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into to their own land; land, and I will feed them upon [a]the mountains of Israel, Israel by the watercourses, rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country. 14 [c]I will feed them with in a good pasture, and upon the mountains of the height of high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: [e]there shall they lie down in a good fold, and on in a fat pasture shall they feed upon [a]the mountains of Israel. 15 [i]I myself will feed my sheep, flock, [e]and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord GOD. 16 [b]I will seek that which was lost, [c]and will bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: and [g]the fat and the strong I will destroy; but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them in judgement. with judgment. 17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord GOD; GOD; Behold, [i]I judge [j]between †cattle and cattle, as well between the rams as and [k]the ‡he goats. 18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have fed upon eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture pastures? and to have drunk of [o]the clear deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet? 19 And as for my sheep, flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet, feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD unto them; them; Behold, [i]I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle. 21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and [t]push pushed [u]all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad; 22 therefore will I save my flock, and [x]they shall no more be a prey; [i]and I will judge between cattle and cattle. 23 And [z]I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even [b]my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. 24 And [d]I the LORD will be their God, and [b]my servant David a prince prince among them; [f]I the LORD have spoken it. 25 And [g]I will make with them a covenant of peace, and [h]will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: [j]and they shall garden of Eden; [a]and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are fenced become fenced, and are inhabited. 36 Then [c]the nations heathen that are left round about you shall know that I the LORD have builded build the ruined places, and [d]planted plant that which that was desolate: [f]I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it.

37 Thus saith the Lord GOD: For this moreover will yet for this [i]will I be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them; [k]I will increase them with men like [l]a flock. 38 As the [1]flock for sacrifice, *holy flock, [m]as the flock of Jerusalem in her appointed solemn feasts; so [k]shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men: [p]and they shall know that I am the LORD.

1 [q]The hand of the LORD was upon me, and [r]he carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of [u]the valley; and it valley which was full of bones; bones, 2 and he caused me to pass by them round about: and, and behold, there were very many [2][u]in the open [†]valley; and, and lo, they were very dry. 3 And he said unto me, [h]Son of man, [x]can these bones live? And [y]I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest. 4 Again he said unto me, [g]Prophesy over upon these bones, and say unto them, [a]O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. 5 Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones: bones; Behold, [c]I will cause [3][e]breath to enter into you, and ye shall live. live: 6 [f]And and I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and [f]cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; [hh]and ye shall know that I am the LORD. 7 So I prophesied [n]as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a [4]noise, and behold [b]an earthquake, a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone. 8 And I beheld, and when I beheld, lo, there were the sinews upon them, and flesh came and the flesh came up upon up, them, and the skin covered them above: but [e]there was no breath in them. 9 Then said he unto me, [g]Prophesy unto the [5][‡]wind, prophesy, [h]son of man, and say to the [5]wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; GOD; Come from [j]the four winds, O [6]breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. 10 So I prophesied [n]as he commanded me, and [o]the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army. 11 Then he said unto me, [h]Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried up, dried, and [s]our hope is lost; lost: [t]we are clean cut off. cut off for our parts. 12 Therefore [s]prophesy, prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD: GOD; Behold, O my people, [v]I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, O my people; and [w]I will bring you into the land of Israel. 13 And [z]ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and caused you to brought come you up out of your graves, O my people. 14 And and I will shall put my [5]spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I will shall place you in your own land: and ye shall then shall ye know that [d]I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

15 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, 16 And Moreover, thou, thou [h]son of man, [g]take thee one stick, and write upon it, For [i]Judah, and for [j]the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other. other door. 25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, [a]cherubim cherubims and [a]palm trees, [c]like as were made upon the walls; and there were [f]thick beams of wood planks upon the face of [g]the porch without. 26 And there were [h]closed narrow windows and [a]palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of [g]the porch: thus were porch, and upon [j]the side-chambers side chambers of the house, and the [f]thick beams. planks.

1 [l]Then he brought me forth into [n]the outer utter court, [o]the way toward the north: and he brought me into [n]the chamber that was over against [p]the separate place, and which was over against before [q]the building toward the north. 2 Before the length of [r]an hundred cubits was the north door, and [s]the breadth was fifty cubits. 3 Over against [t]the twenty cubits which belonged to were for the inner court, and over against [n]the pavement which belonged to was for the outer utter court, was [u]gallery against gallery [2]in the third story. three stories. 4 And [v]before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, [x]a way of [3]one cubit; and [v]their doors were toward the north. 5 Now the upper chambers were shorter: for [u]the galleries *took away from higher than these, *were more than from the lower and than the middlemost, †than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building. 6 For they were in three stories, and they but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the uppermost building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground. 7 And [c]the [4]wall that was without by over the side of against the chambers, toward the outer utter court before on the forepart of the chambers, [d]the length thereof was fifty cubits. 8 For the length of the chambers that were in the outer utter court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before [b]the temple were [d]an hundred cubits. 9 And ‡from under these chambers was [5]c the entry on the east side, ||as one goeth into them from the outer utter court. 10 In The chambers were In the thickness of [i]the [4]wall of the court toward the east, before over against [k]the separate place, and before over against [k]the building, there were [l]chambers. building. 11 And [m]the way before them was like the appearance of the way of the chambers which were toward the north; [5]according to their length so was north, as long as they, and as broad their breadth: as they: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to [m]their doors. 12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before [i]the [4]wall toward the east, as one entereth into them. 13 Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before [k]the separate place, they be the holy chambers, [w]where the priests that are near approach unto the LORD [y]shall eat [z]the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and [z]the meal meat offering, and [a]the sin offering, and [a]the guilt trespass offering; for the place is holy. 14 When the priests enter in, therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer utter court, but there [b]they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy: holy; and [b]they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that those things which pertaineth to are for the people.

he brought me forth by the way of toward [b]the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about. 16 He measured on the east [1*]side with [f]the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about. 17 He measured on the north [1]side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about. 18 He measured on the south [1]side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed. 19 He turned about to the west [1]side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. 20 He measured it [2]on by the four sides: it had [k]a wall round about, [l]the length five hundred, five hundred reeds long, and [l]the breadth five hundred, five hundred broad, [m]to make a separation between that which was holy the sanctuary and that which was common. the profane place.

43 1 Afterward he brought me to [n]the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east: 2 and and, behold, [p]the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and [q]his voice was like the sound a noise of many waters: and [r]the earth shined with his glory. 3 And [s]it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw †[u]when I came to destroy the city: city; and the visions were like [v]the vision that I saw [w]by the river Chebar: Chebar; and [s]I fell upon my face. 4 And [p]the glory of the LORD [y]came into the house by the way of [n]the gate whose prospect is toward the east. 5 And So [z]the spirit took me up, and brought me into [a]the inner court; and, behold, [d]the glory of the LORD filled the house. 6 [e]And I heard one him speaking unto me out of the house; and [a]a the man stood by me. 7 And he said unto me, [c]Son of man, this is [d]the place of my throne, and [e]the place of the soles of my feet, [g]where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever: and the house of Israel shall no ever, my holy name, shall the more [h]defile my holy name, house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, and nor by the carcases of their kings [3]in their high places; 8 in places. 10 Thou, Thou [c]son of man, [o]shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the [4]§pattern. 11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, [o]make known unto shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and [t]the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof, thereof: and write it [x]in their sight: sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them. 12 This is the law of the house: upon house; Upon the top of [b]the mountain [c]the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, [b]as he (doth / did) on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate. 13 And [d]thou (Thou) shalt (prepare a lamb / daily prepare a) of the first year without blemish for a burnt (burnt offering unto the LORD of a lamb *of the offering unto the LORD daily: morning by morning (first year without blemish: thou shalt prepare it) shalt thou prepare it. 14 And [e]thou shalt prepare a (meal / meat) offering (with / for) it (morning by / every) morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of an hin of oil, to [1]moisten (temper with) the fine flour; a (meal / meat) offering (unto the / continually) (LORD continually / by a perpetual ordinance. / by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD.) 15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the (meal / meat) offering, and the oil, (morning by morning, / every morning,) for [f]a continual burnt offering.

16 Thus saith the Lord (GOD / GOD): If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, (it is his inheritance, it / the inheritance thereof) shall (belong to / be) his (sons / sons'); it (is / shall be) their possession by inheritance. 17 But if he give [j](of his inheritance a gift / a gift of his inheritance) to one of his servants, (then /) it shall be his to [m]the year of liberty; (then / after) it shall return to the (prince / prince): but (as for /) his (inheritance, it / inheritance) shall be (for his sons. / his sons' / for them.) 18 Moreover [n]the prince shall not take of the people's (inheritance, / inheritance by oppression,) [o]to [2]thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give (inheritance to / his sons) (his sons / inheritance) out of his own possession: that my people be not [s]scattered every man from his possession.

19 (Then / After) he brought me through the entry, which was [t]at the side of the gate, into [v]the holy chambers (for / of) the priests, which looked toward the north: (and / and,) behold, there was a place on the (hinder part / two sides) westward. 20 (And he said / Then said he) unto me, This is the place where the priests [h]shall boil the (guilt / trespass) offering and the sin offering, where [a]they shall bake the (meal / meat) offering; that they (bring / bear) them not (forth / out) into the (outer / utter) court, [c]to sanctify the people. 21 Then he brought me forth into the (outer / utter) court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; (and / and,) behold, [‡]in every corner of the court there was a court. 22 In the four corners of the court there were courts [3]inclosed, [§]joined of forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four (in the / ‖) corners were of one measure. 23 And there was a row of building round about in them, round about (the / them) four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about. 24 Then said he unto me, These are the (boiling / places) (houses, / of them that boil,) where [g]the ministers of the house [h]shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

47 1 (And / Afterward) he brought me (back / again) unto [i]the door of the house; (and / and,) behold, [k]waters issued out from under [l]the threshold of the house (eastward, / eastward:) for the forefront of the house (was toward, / stood toward) the (east: / east,) and the waters came down from (under, / under) from the right side of the house, (on / at) the south side of [p]the altar. 2 Then brought he me out (by / of) the way of [q]the gate northward, and led me (round by / about) the way without unto [r]the (outer gate, / utter gate) by the way (of the gate / toward the east; and / eastward; and,) behold, [k]there [4]ran out waters on the right side. 3 (When / And when) [u]the man (went forth eastward with the line in his hand, / that had the line in his hand went forth eastward,) he measured a thousand cubits, and he (caused me to pass / brought me) through the (waters, / waters; waters that / waters; the waters) were to the (ankles. / ancles.) 4 Again he measured a thousand, and (caused me to pass / brought me) through the (waters, / waters; waters that / waters; the waters) were to the knees. THE BOOK OF

DANIEL.

1 In the third year of [a] the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it. 2 And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of [d] the vessels of the house of God; and he carried them into [g] the land of Shinar to the house of his god: [i] and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god. 3 And the king spake unto Ashpenaz [k] the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in certain of the children of Israel, even of the king's seed, and of [l] the nobles; 4 youths in whom was no [m] blemish, but well favoured, and [n] skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the learning and the tongue of the [p] Chaldeans. 5 And the king appointed for them a daily portion of [f] the king's meat, and of [h] the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years; that at the end thereof they might [s] stand before the king. 6 Now among these were of the children of Judah, [t] Daniel, [u] Hananiah, [u] Mishael, and Azariah: 7 Unto whom [k] the prince of the eunuchs [v] gave names unto them: for unto Daniel he gave the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego. 8 But Daniel [c] purposed in his heart that he would not [e] defile himself with the portion of [f] the king's meat, nor with [h] the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not [e] defile himself. 9 [j] Now God had brought Daniel into favour and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs. 10 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse liking than the youths which are of your own age? so should ye make me endanger my head to the king. 11 Then said Daniel to [2] the steward, Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, [q] ten days; and let them give us [3] pulse to eat, and water to drink. 13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the youths that eat of the portion of [f] the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants. 14 So he before the king, except [a]the gods, [c]whose dwelling is not with flesh. 12 For this cause the king was angry and [f]very furious, and [g]commanded to destroy all [j]the wise men of Babylon. 13 So / And the decree went forth, and / forth that the wise men were to / should be slain; and they sought [l]Daniel and his companions / fellows to be slain. 14 Then Daniel returned answer / *answered with counsel and prudence / wisdom to [m]Arioch the [†o]captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon / Babylon: 15 he answered and said to [m]Arioch the king's captain, Wherefore / Why is the decree [p]so urgent / hasty from the king? Then [m]Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. 16 And / Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would [1]appoint him a / give him time, [2]and / that he would shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to [s]Hananiah, [s]Mishael, and [s]Azariah, his companions: 18 [u]that they would desire mercies [‡]of the [w]God of heaven concerning this secret; [§]that Daniel and his companions / fellows should not [x]perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. 19 Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in [y]a vision of the night. / night vision. Then Daniel [a]blessed the [w]God of heaven. 20 Daniel answered and said, [d]Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: [e]for wisdom and might are his: 21 and [g]he changeth the times and the seasons: [h]he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: [j]he giveth wisdom unto the wise, [j]and knowledge to them that know understanding: 22 [b]he revealeth the deep and secret things: [b]he knoweth what is in the darkness, [d]and the light dwelleth with him. 23 [e]I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou [h]God of my fathers, [i]who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast now made known unto me now what [k]we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter. 24 Therefore Daniel went in unto [n]Arioch, whom the king had appointed / ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then [n]Arioch brought in Daniel before the king [q]in haste, and said thus unto him, [‖]I have found a man [r]of the children of the captivity / captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation. 26 The king answered and said to Daniel, [t]whose name was Belteshazzar, [v]Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof? 27 Daniel answered before / in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded can neither / cannot the wise men, [z]enchanters, the astrologers, the [z]magicians, nor the [bb]soothsayers, shew unto the king; 28 but [c]there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and he hath made known / ††maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar [f]what shall be in the latter days. revealeth secrets hath made maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.
30 But [b]as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, *but to the intent that the interpretation may be made known for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that [g]thou mayest mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.
31 Thou, O king, †sawest, and behold a great image. This image, which was great mighty, and image whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the aspect form thereof was terrible.
32 As for this image, his This image's head was of fine gold, [j]his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and [j]his ‡thighs of brass, 33 [k]his legs of iron, his feet part of iron, iron and part of clay.
34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out §[l]without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and [m]brake them in to pieces.
35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, [m]broken in to pieces together, and became [n]like the chaff of the summer threshing-floors threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that [q]no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became [r]a great [1]mountain, [t]and filled the whole earth.
36 This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.
37 Thou, O king, art [w]king of kings, unto whom a king of kings: for [x]the God of heaven [y]hath given the thee a kingdom, the power, and the strength, and the glory; glory.
38 and And wheresoever the children of men dwell, [a]the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee to rule ruler over them all: thou all. Thou art [c]the this head of gold.
39 And after thee shall arise [a]another kingdom inferior to thee, thee; and another third kingdom [e]of brass, [d]which shall bear rule over all the earth.
40 And [e]the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron [f]breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that crusheth breaketh all these, shall it [f]break in pieces and crush. bruise.
41 And whereas thou sawest [h]the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it shall be a the kingdom divided kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the [e]strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with [2]miry clay.
42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly [3]‖ broken.
43 And whereas thou sawest the iron mixed with [2]miry clay, they shall mingle themselves [4]with the seed of men: men; but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron doth is not mingle mixed with clay.
44 And in ††the days of those these kings shall [o]the God of heaven set up [p]a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed, nor shall the sovereignty ‡‡kingdom thereof destroyed: and shall not be left to another people; other people, but [s]it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and [p]it shall stand for ever.
45 Forasmuch as [u]thou sawest that [r]a the stone was cut out of the mountain §§without hands, and that [s]it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the [z]great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass *hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

commanded that they should [b]offer an oblation and [c]sweet odours unto him. 47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your [e]God is the a God of gods, and [g]the a Lord of kings, and [h]a revealer of secrets, seeing thou hast been able to couldest reveal this secret. 48 Then the king made Daniel a great, a great man, and gave him many great [j]gifts, and made him to rule ruler over the whole [k]province of Babylon, and to be [l]chief chief of the governor governors over all the wise men of Babylon. 49 And Then Daniel requested of the king, and he [m]appointed set [n]Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of [k]the province of Babylon: but Daniel was sat [1]in [o]the gate of the king.

3 [1]Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in [t]the plain of Dura, in [u]the province of Babylon. 2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together [w]the satraps, princes, the deputies, governors, and [x]the governors, captains, the [2]judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the [3]sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. 3 Then [w]the satraps, princes, the deputies, governors, and the governors, captains, the [2]judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the [3]sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. 4 Then the an herald [c]cried *aloud, To you [†]it is commanded, O [a]peoples, people, nations, and languages, 5 that at what time ye hear the [d]sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, [4]‡dulcimer, and all kinds of music, musick, ye [f]fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up: 6 and whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour [i]be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. 7 Therefore at that time, when all the peoples people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, musick, all [a]the peoples, people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. 8 Wherefore at that time certain [p]Chaldeans [q]came near, and brought accusation against accused the Jews. 9 They answered spake and said to Nebuchadnezzar the king, the king Nebuchadnezzar, [r]O king, live for ever. 10 Thou, O king, [s]hast made a decree, that every man that shall [v]hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, musick, [v]shall fall down and worship the golden image: 11 and whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that [i]shall he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. 12 There are certain Jews whom thou hast [y]appointed set over the affairs of [u]the province of Babylon, [z]Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, §[a]have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. 13 Then Nebuchadnezzar [b]in his rage and fury commanded to bring [z]Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king. 14 Nebuchadnezzar

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. The And the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of [l]the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my *father brought out of Judah? Jewry? 14 I have even heard of thee, that [m]the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that [n]light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee. 15 And now [o]the wise men, the enchanters, astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but [p]they could not shew the interpretation of the thing. thing: 16 [q]But And I have heard of thee, that thou canst ‖give make interpretations, and [r]dissolve doubts: [s]now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, [t]thou shalt be clothed with purple, scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, [u]and shalt [2]be the third ruler in the kingdom. 17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, [v]Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; nevertheless yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation. 18 O thou king, the [w]Most High most high God [x]gave [y]Nebuchadnezzar thy father [z]the a kingdom, and greatness, majesty, and glory, and majesty honour: 19 and because of the greatness for the majesty that he gave him, [a]all the peoples, people, nations, and languages languages, [b]trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew, slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he raised up, set up; and whom he would he put down. 20 But [c]when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was mind hardened that he †in dealt proudly, pride, [d]he was ‡‡deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: 21 [e]and he was driven from the sons of men; and §§his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses; he was fed asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven: [f]until he knew that the heaven; till [g]Most High most high God ruleth ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he setteth up appointeth over it whomsoever he will. 22 And thou his son, O [h]Belshazzar, [i]hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this; 23 but hast lifted up thyself against [j]the Lord of heaven; and they have brought [k]the vessels of his house before thee, and thou thou, and thy lords, thy wives wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; [d]and thou hast praised the [e]gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: [g]and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and [h]whose are all thy ways, [i]hast thou not glorified: 24 then was [j]the part of the hand sent from before him, him; and this writing was inscribed. written. 25 And this is the writing that was inscribed, written, 1MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. 26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and brought it to an end. finished it. 27 TEKEL; [m]thou Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting. 28 2PERES; thy Thy kingdom is divided, and given to [n]the Medes and [p]Persians. 29 Then commanded [q]Belshazzar, and [r]they clothed Daniel with purple, scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation a proclamation concerning him, [s]that he should 3be the third ruler in the kingdom. 30 [v]In that night [q]Belshazzar was the [x]Chaldean king was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain. 31 And [x]Darius [n]the Mede received Median took the kingdom, *being †about threescore and two years old.

6 1 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom [z]an hundred and twenty [b]satraps, princes, which should be throughout over the whole kingdom; 2 and over them these [a]three presidents, presidents; of whom Daniel was one; first: that these [b]satraps the princes might give account accounts unto them, and that the king should have no damage. 3 Then this Daniel was [d]distinguished preferred above [a]the presidents and [b]the satraps, princes, because [f]an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought [g]to set him over the whole realm.

4 Then [a]the presidents and [b]the satraps princes [c]sought to find occasion against Daniel as touching concerning the kingdom; [f]but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, [f]neither was there any error or fault found in him. 5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God. 6 Then these [a]presidents and [b]satraps princes 4‡assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, [k]King Darius, live for ever. 7 All the [a]presidents of the kingdom, the deputies governors, and the satraps, princes, the [l]counsellors counsellors, and the governors, captains, have consulted together 5to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong firm §interdict, decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any god God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. 8 Now, O king, establish §the interdict, decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to [t]the law of [u]the Medes and Persians, [w]which 6‖altereth not. 9 Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and §the interdict. decree. 10 And Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; (and now his windows were being open in his chamber [aa]toward Jerusalem;) and Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees [bb]three times a day, and prayed, and [c]gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime. 11 Then these men assembled together, and found Daniel making petition and praying and making supplication before his God. 12 Then they [e]came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's §interdict; decree; Hast thou not signed [h]an interdict, a decree, that every man that shall make petition unto (ask a petition of) any god (God) or man within thirty days, save unto (of) thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of [d]the Medes and Persians, [d]which [1]altereth not. 13 Then answered they and said before the king, That [f]Daniel, which is [g]of the children of the captivity [f]of Judah, [j]regardeth not thee, O king, nor [k]the interdict (decree) that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition [m]three times a day. 14 Then [n]the king, when he heard these words, [n]was sore displeased, (displeased with himself,) and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to rescue (deliver) him. 15 Then these men assembled together unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that it (the) is a law of the Medes and Persians, that (Persians is, That) no [k]interdict (decree) nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed. 16 [q]Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, [b]Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee. 17 [s]And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; [v]and the king sealed it [x]with his own signet, and with the signet of his [y]lords; [2]that nothing might (the purpose might not) be changed concerning Daniel. 18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: [c]neither were [3]*instruments of music (musick) brought before him: and [d]his sleep fled (went) from him. 19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions. 20 And when he came near unto the den to Daniel, (to the den,) he cried with a lamentable voice (voice:) unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of [a]the living God, [b]is thy God, whom thou servest continually, [c]able to deliver thee from the lions? 21 Then said Daniel unto the king, [e]O king, live for ever. 22 My God [h]hath sent his angel, [i]and hath shut the lions' mouths, (and that) they have not hurt me: forasmuch as [l]before him innocency was found in me; [l]and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt. 23 Then was the king exceeding glad, (glad for him,) and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. *power of the lions. 28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in [a]the reign of [b]Cyrus the Persian.

7 1 In the first year of [d]Belshazzar king of Babylon [f]Daniel 1 †had a dream and [i]visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the ‡matters. 2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, [m]the four winds of the heaven brake forth upon the great sea. 3 And four great beasts [p]came up from the sea, diverse one from another. 4 The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, §and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand upon two feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it. 5 And behold [u]another beast, a second, like to a bear, and 2 ‖it raised up itself on one side, and three ribs were in his mouth between his teeth: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh. 6 After this I beheld, and lo another, like a [x]leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and [z]dominion was given to it. 7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold [c]a fourth beast, 3terrible and 3powerful, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: [d]it devoured and brake in pieces, [d]and stamped the residue with his feet: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and [f]it had ten horns. 8 I considered the horns, and, behold, [g]there came up among them another horn, a little one, [g]before which there were three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and [c]a mouth speaking great things. 9 I beheld till the [e]thrones were 4placed, and one that was [g]ancient of days did sit: [k]his raiment was white as snow, and [j]the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flames, and [k]his wheels as burning fire. 10 [l]A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: [n]thousand thousands [o]ministered unto him, [n]and ten thousand times ten thousand [q]stood before him: the [r]judgement was set, and [s]the books were opened. 11 I beheld because of the voice of [c]the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till [t]the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, [t]and he was given 5to be burned with fire. 12 As for the rest of the beasts, [v]their dominion was taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time. 13 I saw in the night visions, and, [w]behold, there came with the clouds of heaven one like unto a son of man, and he came even to the [g]ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. 14 [y]And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all [e]peoples, nations, and languages, should serve him: [b]his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 As for me Daniel, my spirit was grieved in the midst of 6my ††body, and [e]the visions of my head troubled me. 16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the

8 1 In the third year of the reign of [n]king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, [o]after that which appeared unto me [o]at the first. 2 And I saw in [a]the vision; now it was so, that when I saw, and came to pass, when I saw, that I was in at [r]Shushan in the [5]palace, which is in the province of [s]Elam; and [t]I saw in [a]the vision, [t]and I was by the river of [u]Ulai. 3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river [v]a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than [§]the other, and the higher came up last. 4 I saw [w]the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that and no [x]beasts [y]could might stand before him, [z]neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but [b]he did according to his will, and [c]magnified became himself. great. 5 And as I was considering, behold, an [d]he-goat he goat came from the west over on the face of the whole earth, and [6]‖touched not the ground: and the goat had [d]a

1 [i]In the third year of 10 Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, [l]whose name was called Belteshazzar; and [m]the thing was true, [even a great warfare but the time appointed was ‖long]: and [k]he understood the thing, and [k]had understanding of the vision. 2 In those days I Daniel was mourning [q]three [whole full] weeks. 3 I ate no [††]pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I [s]anoint myself at all, till [q]three whole weeks were fulfilled. 4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was [w]by the side of the great river, [y]which is [6]Hiddekel, Hiddekel; 5 [Then] [z]I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold [‡‡][b]a [certain] man clothed in linen, whose loins were [c]girded with [pure fine] [d]gold of Uphaz: 6 his body also was like [e]the beryl, and his face [f]as the appearance of lightning, and [k]his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and [j]his feet like in colour to [burnished polished] brass, and [j]the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. 7 [m]And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, [and so that] they fled to hide themselves.

8 [So Therefore] I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and [b]there remained no strength in me: for my [§§]comeliness was turned in me into corruption, [d]and I retained no strength. 9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: [f]and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I [fallen into in a] deep sleep on my face, [f][with and] my face toward the ground. 10 And, behold, [ha an] hand touched me, which [7][*]set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands. 11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, [f][thou †a] man greatly beloved, [k]understand the words that I speak unto thee, and [‡][n]stand [upright: upright:] for unto thee [o]am I now [sent: and sent. And] when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling. 12 Then said he unto me, [p]Fear not, [Daniel: Daniel:] for from the first day that thou didst [r]set thine heart to understand, and to [r][humble chasten] thyself before thy God, [t]thy words were [heard: heard,] [u]and I am come for thy [words' sake. words.] 13 But [v]the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me [x]one and twenty [days; days:] but, lo, [a]Michael, [§]one of the chief princes, came to help [me: me;] and I [s]remained there with the kings of Persia. 14 [u]Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people [g]in the latter days: for [‡][the vision is yet yet the vision is] for many days. 15 And when he had spoken unto me according to these words, such words unto me, [k]I set my face toward the ground, [l]and [I was became] dumb. 16 And, behold, [n]one like the similitude of the sons of men [o]touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and [spake spake,] and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by reason of the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and [c]I retain / have retained no strength. 17 For how can [*]the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither was / is there breath left in me. 18 Then there [e]touched me again / came again and touched me [e]one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me. / me, 19 And he said, [g]O man greatly beloved, [h]fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he spake / had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me. 20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I am come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the [j]prince of Persia: and when I go / am gone forth, lo, the [k]prince of [1]Greece / Grecia shall come. 21 But I will tell / shew thee that which is inscribed / noted in [l]the writing / scripture of truth: and there is none that [2]†holdeth with me [3]against these, / in these things, but [n]Michael your prince. 1 And as for me, / Also I [o]in the first year of [o]Darius the Mede, even I, / I, stood up to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee [q]the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and when he is waxed strong / by his strength through his riches, / riches [4]he shall stir up all against the realm of [1k]Greece. / Grecia. 3 And [s]a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and [t]do according to his will. 4 And when he shall stand up, [a]his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided [a]toward the [b]four winds of heaven; but / and [d]not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion wherewith / which he ruled; / ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside these. / those. 5 And the king of the south [5]shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, [f]and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. 6 And at / in the end of years [i]they ‡shall join themselves together; and for / and the daughter of the king / king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make [6]§§an agreement: but she shall not retain the strength / power of her / the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm; / arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and ‖he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in those / these times. 7 But out of a shoot from / branch of her roots shall one stand up in his [7]place, / estate, which shall come [8]unto the army / with an army, and shall enter into the [m]fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail: 8 and also / shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their [9]molten images, / princes, and with ††their goodly / precious [p]vessels of silver and of gold, shall he carry captive gold; into Egypt; and he shall [10]refrain some / continue more years from / than the king of the north. 9 And he shall come into the realm of the king of / So the king of the south shall come into his the south, but he / kingdom, and shall return into his own land. 10 And / But his sons ‡‡shall be stirred up, / war, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces, [11]which / forces: and one shall come on, / certainly come, [r]and overflow, and pass through: and [12]they shall / §§then shall he return, / return, and be stirred up, / war, even to his [m]fortress. 11 And the king of the south shall be [u]moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the 45 And he shall plant the tents tabernacles of his palace [2]between the sea and seas in the [*]glorious holy mountain; [g]yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

12 1 And at that time shall [j]Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and [l]there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, [o]every one that shall be found written in the book. 2 And many of them that [r]sleep in [s]the dust of the earth shall [s]awake, [t]some to everlasting life, and [t]some to shame and everlasting [3]contempt. 3 [v]And [4]they that be [†]wise [w]shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and [y]they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. 4 But thou, O Daniel, [a]shut up the words, and [b]seal the book, even to [d]the time of the end: [e]many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

5 Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the one on [‡]the brink of the river on this this side of the ‡bank of the side, river, and the other on the brink that side of the river on that side. bank of the river. 6 And one said to [c]the man clothed in linen, which was above §upon the waters of the river, [c]How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? 7 And I heard [c]the man clothed in linen, which was above upon the waters of the river, when [f]he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and [h]sware by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a [i]time, times, and ‖an half; and when they have made an end of breaking in pieces he shall have accomplished to scatter [k]the power of [k]the holy people, all these things shall be finished. 8 And I heard, [m]but I understood not: then said I, O my lord, Lord, what shall be the [5]issue end of these things? 9 And he said, [n]Go thy way, Daniel: [p]for the words are shut closed up and sealed till the time of the end. 10 [q]Many shall purify be themselves, purified, and make themselves made white, and be refined tried; but [u]the wicked shall do wickedly; wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; understand: [v]but [4]they that be the wise shall understand. 11 And from the time that [x]the continual burnt offering daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and [z]the abomination that [††]maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days. 12 [c]Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days. 13 [f]But go thou thy way till the end be: [‡‡g]for thou shalt rest, and shalt stand in thy lot, lot at [h]the end of the days.

HOSEA.

1 THE word of the LORD that came unto Hosea the son of Beeri, [a]in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of [c]Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 When the LORD spake at the first [1]by Hosea. And the LORD said unto Hosea, [f]Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredom and [h]children of whoredoms: for [i]the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD. 3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son. 4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and [o]I will [2]*avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and [q]will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel. 5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that [r]I will break the bow of Israel [s]in the valley of Jezreel. 6 And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And [the LORD] said unto him, [w]Call her name [3]†Loruhamah: for ‡[x]I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel, that I should in any wise pardon them. 7 But [z]I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and [d]will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen. 8 Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son. 9 Then said [God], [b]Call his name [4]‖Loammi: for [d]ye are not my people, and I will not be [5]your God.

10 Yet [e]the number of the children of Israel shall be [g]as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and [j]it shall come to pass, that, [6] [k]in the place where it was said unto them, [d]Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, [l]Ye are the sons of [m]the living God. 11 Then shall [n]the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and [p]they shall appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

2 1 Say ye unto your brethren, [7]††[t]Ammi; and to your sisters, [8]‡‡[u]Ruhamah.

2 Plead with your mother, plead: for [v]she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: and let her therefore put away [y]her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts; 3 lest [a]I strip her naked, and set her as [b]in the day that she was born, and [c]make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with [a]without [1]understanding heart: they call unto [b]Egypt, they go to [c]Assyria.

12 When they shall go, [d]I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven: heaven; [h]I will chastise them, [2][i]as their congregation hath heard. 13 [j]Woe unto them! for they have wandered fled from me; mo: [*]destruction unto them! for because they have trespassed transgressed against me: [m]though I would redeem have redeemed them, yet [o]they have spoken lies against me. 14 And [p]they have not cried unto me with their heart, but when [s]they howl howled upon their beds: [3]they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me. 15 Though [t]I [†]have [4]taught bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me. 16 They [w]return, but not to him that is on high; the most High: they are [y]like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for [a]the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision [b]in the land of Egypt.

8 1 5 Set [d]the trumpet to [‡]thy mouth. [e]As an eagle he cometh He shall come as an eagle against the house of the LORD: LORD, because [h]they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law. 2 They Israel shall cry unto me, [l]My God, we Israel know thee. 3 Israel hath cast off that the which is thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him. 4 [n]They have set up kings, [o]but not by me; me: [6][p]they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off. 5 [c]He Thy hath cast off thy calf, O Samaria. calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: [t]how long will it be ere they attain to innocency? 6 For from Israel is even this; was it also: the workman made it; it and therefore it is no not God: yea, but [c]the calf of Samaria [f]shall be broken in pieces. 7 For [g]they sow have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: [7]he It hath no standing corn; §stalk: the blade bud shall yield no meal: meal: if so be it yield, the [k]strangers shall swallow it up. 8 [l]Israel is swallowed up: now are they shall they be among the nations Gentiles as [n]a vessel wherein is no pleasure. 9 For [q]they are gone up to Assyria, [r]like a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath hired [8]‖lovers.
10 Yea, though they hire have hired among the nations, now will I gather them; them, and [u]they [9]begin to be shall minished by reason of sorrow ††a little for the burden of the [10][v]king of princes. 11 Because Ephraim [x]hath multiplied made many altars to sin, altars have been shall be unto him to sin.
12 [11]Though [z]I write for I have written to him my law in ten the great things thousand precepts, of my law, but they are were counted as a strange thing. 13 As [‡‡]They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, [c]they sacrifice flesh and eat it; but the LORD accepteth them not: [f]now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins; sins: [g]they shall return to Egypt. 14 For [i]Israel hath forgotten [j]his Maker, and [k]builded [12]palaces; builded temples; and [i]Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but [m]I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the [13]castles palaces thereof.

9 1 Rejoice not, O Israel, [14]for joy, like the peoples; as other people: [15][q]for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God, [r]thou hast loved a reward hire §§upon every cornfloor.

calves of [a]Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and [1]* the priests thereof that rejoiced [over on] it, for [c]the glory thereof, because it is departed from it. 6 [f]It [also shall be shall be also] carried unto Assyria for a present to [h]king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed [i]of his own counsel. 7 [2]As for Samaria, [j]her king is cut [off, off] as [the] [3]foam upon †the water. 8 The high places also of [a]Aven, [m]the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: [p]the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and [r]they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us. 9 O Israel, thou hast sinned [4]from [u]the days of Gibeah: [5]there they [stood; 6that stood:] the battle [in Gibeah] against the children of iniquity [should did] not overtake them [in Gibeah]. 10 [v]When it is It is in my [desire, I will desire that I should] chastise them; and the [peoples people] shall be gathered against them, ‡when they [are shall] [7]bound [8]to bind themselves in [d]their two [transgressions. furrows.] 11 And Ephraim [is is as] [g]an heifer that is taught, [that and] [i]loveth to tread out the corn; but I [have] passed over upon §her fair neck: I will [set a rider on make Ephraim to ride]; [k]Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods. 12 [m]Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap [according to in] mercy; [o]break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and [9p]rain righteousness upon you. 13 [r]Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of [10]lies: [for because] thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

14 Therefore [b]shall a tumult arise [11]among thy [12]people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as [d]Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle: [e]the mother was dashed in pieces [with upon] her children. 15 [13]So shall [g]Beth-el do unto you because of [l]your great wickedness: [at daybreak in a morning] shall the king of Israel [be utterly utterly be] cut off.

II 1 [k]When Israel was a child, then [l]I loved him, and [n]called [o]my son out of Egypt. 2 [q]As they called them, so they went from them: [s]they sacrificed unto [the] Baalim, and burned incense to graven images. 3 Yet [t]I taught Ephraim to go; [14]I [I taught Ephraim also to go, took taking] them [on my by their] arms; but they knew not that [v]I healed them. 4 [w]I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of [love; love:] and [x]I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and [a]I laid meat [before unto] them. 5 [b]He shall not return into the land of [Egypt; Egypt,] but [c]the Assyrian shall be his king, [e]because [f]they refused to return. 6 [h]And the sword shall [15fall upon abide on] his cities, and shall consume his [bars, branches,] and devour them, [j]because of their own counsels. 7 And my people are bent [l]to backsliding from me: though [n]they [call called] them to [him that the] is on high, ††none at all [will would] [16]exalt him. 8 How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? [q]how shall I make thee [s]as Admah? how shall I set thee [s]as Zeboim? [t]mine heart is turned within me, my [compassions repentings] are kindled together. 9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return

JOEL.

1 THE word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

2 [c]Hear this, [d]ye old men, and give ear, [d]all ye inhabitants of the land. [f]Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers? 3 [g]Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation. 4 *That which [1][j]the palmerworm hath left hath [1][k]the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath [1][m]the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath [1][o]the caterpiller eaten. 5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and [r]howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of [t]the sweet wine; for it is cut off from your mouth. 6 For [u]a nation is come up upon my land, [u]strong, and without number; [w]his teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the jaw teeth of a great lion. 7 He hath laid my vine waste, and [2]†barked my [y]fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it [3]away; the branches thereof are made white. 8 Lament like a virgin [a]girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth. 9 [c]The meal offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; [p]the priests, [p]the LORD'S ministers, mourn. 10 The field is wasted, [a]the land mourneth; for [b]the corn is wasted, [b]the new wine is [4]‡dried up, the oil languisheth. 11 [5][e]Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen, husbandmen; howl, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; [h]for because the harvest of the field is perished. 12 The vine is [4]withered, dried up, [i]and the fig tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field are withered: [h]for because [l]joy is [4]withered away from the sons of men. 13 [n]Gird yourselves with sackcloth, and lament, [p]ye priests: [q]howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, [n]lie all night in sackcloth, [p]ye ministers of my God: [s]for the meal offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God. 14 [v]Sanctify ye a fast, [v]call a §solemn assembly, gather [x]the [6]old men and [x]all the inhabitants of the land unto into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD, 15 Alas for the day! [z]for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from [7]the Almighty shall it come. 16 Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, [b]joy and gladness from the house of our God? 17 [d]The seeds [8]rot ‖seed is rotten under their clods; the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken

LORD, weep [a]between the [b]porch and the [d]altar, and let them say, [e]Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the nations should [1]*rule over them: [f]wherefore should they say among the peoples, Where is their God?

18 [j]Then was the LORD will the LORD be jealous for his land, and [m]had pity on his people. 19 And Yea, the LORD answered and said unto his people, Behold, [o]I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, [o]and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations: 20 but I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, [2]his forepart with his face [3]into [t]the eastern toward the east sea, and his hinder part [3]into [u]the western sea; toward the utmost sea, and [v]his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because [†]he hath done great things.

21 Fear not, O land, land; be glad and rejoice: rejoice: for [z]the LORD hath done will do great things. 22 Be not afraid, [b]ye beasts of the field: field: for [c]the pastures of the wilderness do spring, [c]for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and [e]the vine do yield their strength. 23 [g]Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and [g]rejoice in the LORD your God: for he giveth hath given you [‡][i]the former rain [4]in just measure, §moderately, and he causeth will cause to come down for you the rain, [i]the former rain, rain and [k]the latter rain, rain [5]in the first month. 24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil. 25 And I will restore to you the years that [o]the locust hath eaten, [o]the cankerworm, and [o]the caterpiller, and [o]the palmerworm, [p]my great army which I sent among you. 26 And [c]ye shall eat in plenty plenty, and be satisfied, and shall praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people [g]shall never be ashamed. 27 [h]And ye shall know that I am [i]in the midst of Israel, and that [k]I am the LORD your God, [l]and there is none else: and my people [g]shall never be ashamed.

28 [n]And it shall come to pass afterward, that [p]I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and [q]your sons and [r]your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: 29 and [s]also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit. 30 And I will shew [w]wonders in the heavens [w]and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. 31 [x]The sun shall be turned into darkness, [y]and the moon into blood, [a]before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come. 32 And it shall come to pass, that [d]whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: [f]for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those that escape, deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and [6]among in [h]the remnant those whom the LORD doth shall call.

[g]Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of [h]Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before [i]the earthquake.

2 And he said, [j]The LORD shall will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and [l]the 1 pastures habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the [n]top of [o]Carmel shall wither.

3 Thus saith the LORD: LORD; [p]For three transgressions of [q]Damascus, yea, *and for four, [q]I will not 2 †turn away [3]the punishment thereof; because they have threshed [r]Gilead with threshing

the palaces of [u]Ben-hadad. 5 And I I will [v]break will break also the bar of [q]Damascus, and cut off [4]the inhabitant from ‡the valley plain of [5]y Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from 6 §the house of [z]Eden: and the people of [a]Syria shall go into captivity unto [c]Kir, saith the LORD.

6 Thus saith the LORD: LORD; [p]For three transgressions of [b]Gaza, yea, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because [f]they ‖carried away captive [7]the whole people captivity, to deliver them up to Edom: 7 but I will send a

8 and I will cut off the inhabitant from [f]Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon; Ashkelon, and I will turn mine hand against Ekron, Ekron: and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord GOD.

9 Thus saith the LORD: LORD; [k]For three transgressions of [m]Tyre, yea, Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away
the punishment thereof; because they delivered up [7]the whole people captivity to Edom, and remembered not 8 the brotherly covenant:
10 but I will send a fire on the wall of [m]Tyre, and it Tyrus, which shall devour the

they go captive with the first that go captive, and the revelry / banquet of them that stretched themselves shall pass away / be removed. 8 [a]The Lord GOD hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD, / LORD the God of hosts / hosts, I abhor [c]the [1]excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: [e]therefore will I deliver up the city with all *that is therein. 9 And it shall come to pass, [g]if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die. 10 And when a man's [2]uncle shall take him up, even / and he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is in / by the innermost / sides parts of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No / No.; then / Then shall he say, [j]Hold thy peace / tongue: for †we may not make mention of the name of the LORD. 11 For, behold, the LORD commandeth, and [3]the great house shall be smitten / he will smite the great house with ‡breaches, and the little house with clefts. 12 Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? [n]that / for ye have turned judgement / judgment into [o]gall, [n]and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood / hemlock: 13 ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, [q]Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength? 14 For, / But, behold, [s]I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD, / LORD the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the [v]entering in of Hamath / Hemath unto the brook / §river of [x]the Arabah / wilderness.

7 1 [f]Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed me: / unto me; and, behold, [y]he formed ‖locusts / ‖grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings. 2 And it came to pass / pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee: [b]how / by whom shall Jacob stand / arise? for he is small. 3 [d]The LORD repented concerning / for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

4 [f]Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and, behold, the Lord GOD called [h]to contend by fire / fire; and it devoured the great deep, and would have eaten up the [4]land / did eat up a part. 5 Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee: [b]how / by whom shall Jacob stand / arise? for he is small. 6 [d]The LORD repented concerning / for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD.

7 [f]Thus he shewed me: and, behold, the Lord stood [5]beside / upon a wall made by [k]a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand. 8 And the LORD said unto me, [m]Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. 10 Then Amaziah [t]the priest of Beth-el sent to [u]Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath [w]conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words. 11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and [z]Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his / their own land. 12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, [a]O thou seer,

OBADIAH.

[1] THE vision of Obadiah.

Thus saith the Lord GOD [a]concerning Edom; (Edom:) [b]We have heard a rumour (tidings) from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, (nations, saying,) Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle. [2] Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen (nations): thou art greatly despised. [3] [f]The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, (thou) thou that dwellest in the clefts of [1]the rock, whose habitation is high; [j]that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground? [4] Though thou exalt (mount on high) thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest (thy nest be set) among the stars, (I will) thence will I bring thee down, (from thence, down,) saith the LORD. [5] If [n]thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen (steal) till they had enough? if the [n]grapegatherers came to thee, would they not leave [*]some gleanings (gleaning) grapes? [6] [q]How are [2]the things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden things (treasures) sought up! [7] All the men of thy confederacy have [3]brought thee on the way, (on thy way,) even to the border: [†]the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; [4][‡][t]they that eat thy bread have laid (lay) a wound (snare) under thee: [u]there is none understanding [6][§]in him. [8] [w]Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of [c]the mount of Esau? [9] And thy mighty men, [d]O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one may be cut off (may be cut off from [c]the mount of Esau) by slaughter. [10] [e]For the violence done to (against) thy brother Jacob shame shall cover thee, [g]and thou shalt be cut off for ever. [11] [h]In the day that thou stoodest [7]on the other side, [i]in the day that the strangers [‖]carried away his (captive his) substance, and foreigners entered into his gates, [k]and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them. [12] [l]But []thou (look not thou) shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother in [9]the day of his disaster, [m]and that he became a stranger; neither (rejoice not) thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; [o]neither (speak) shouldest thou have [††]spoken proudly in the day of distress. [13] [p]Enter (Thou shouldest) not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; [p]yea, (look not thou) thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, [r]neither (neither lay ye) nor have laid hands on their [‡‡]substance in the day of their calamity. [14] [s]And (Neither) stand (shouldest) thou (not) have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; (and deliver not) neither shouldest thou have [§§]delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress. [15] For [v]the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen (nations): [x]as thou hast done, it

JONAH.

1 Now the word of the LORD came unto ‖[a]Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, 2 Arise, go to [b]Nineveh, that [c]great city, and cry against it; [d]for their wickedness is come up before me. 3 But Jonah [e]rose up to flee unto [f]Tarshish from the presence of the LORD; LORD, and he went down to [i]Joppa, Joppa; and he found a ship going to [f]Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto [f]Tarshish [k]from the presence of the LORD. 4 But [l]the LORD 5 sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was ††like [m]to be broken. 5 Then the mariners were afraid, and [g]cried every man unto his god; god, and [n]they cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it unto of them. But Jonah was gone down into the innermost parts sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep. 6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, [g]call upon thy God, [h]if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not. 7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us [j]cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah. 8 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; what What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou? 9 And he said unto them, I am an

10 Then were the men †exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, What is this that Why hast thou hast done? done this? For the men knew that [f]he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.
11 Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea ‡may be calm unto us? for the sea grew more and more §wrought, and was tempestuous.
12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: [k]for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.
13 Nevertheless the men ‖rowed hard to get them back bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea grew more and more wrought, and was tempestuous against them.
14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and [o]lay not upon us innocent blood: [p]for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.
15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: [t]and the sea ceased from her raging.
16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly; exceedingly, [u]and they ††offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, [v]and made vows.
17 And Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah; Jonah. [z]and And Jonah was in the ‡‡belly of the fish three days and three nights.

was [1] [a]an *exceeding great city, city of three days' journey. [4] And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and [e]Nineveh shall be overthrown. [5] [f]And So the people of Nineveh believed God; God, [h]and they proclaimed a fast, and [i]put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. [6] [2]And the tidings reached For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and [k]he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, [l]and sat in ashes. [7] And he made proclamation caused it to be proclaimed and [3]†published through Nineveh [m]by the decree of the king and his ‡nobles, saying, Let neither man nor [n]beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water: [8] but let them man be covered with sackcloth, both man and [n]beast, and beast be covered with sackcloth, and let them cry mightily unto God: yea, [p]let them turn every one from his evil way, and from [r]the violence that is in their hands. [9] [t]Who knoweth whether God can tell if will not God will turn and repent, [u]and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not? [10] And God saw their works, [w]that they turned from their evil way; [w]and God repented of the evil, which he said that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not. [1] But

4 it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and [x]he was very angry. [2] And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? [z]Therefore I [4]hasted to flee fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that [b]thou art a gracious God, and full of compassion, merciful, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy, of great kindness, [b]and repentest thee of the evil. [3] [c]Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; [d]for it is better for me to die than to live. [4] And the LORD said, Then said the LORD, [5]§[g]Doest thou well to be angry? [5] Then So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there [j]made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city. [6] And the LORD God prepared a [6]‖gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his evil case. grief. So Jonah  was exceeding glad because of the gourd. [7] But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd, gourd that it withered. [8] And it came to pass, when the sun arose, did arise, that God prepared a sultry ††vehement [o]east wind; [q]and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he [s]fainted, and requested for wished in himself that he might to die, and said, [d]It is better for me to die than to live. MICAH.

1 THE word of the LORD that came to [a]Micah [b]the Morashtite [d]in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw [f]concerning [h]Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 *[i]Hear, ye peoples, all of you; all ye people: [k]hearken, O earth, and [1]†all that therein is: and [n]let the Lord GOD be witness [2]against you, [o]the Lord from his holy temple. 3 For, behold, [p]the LORD cometh forth out of [s]his place, and will come down, and [u]tread upon the high places of the earth. 4 And [v]the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down ‡a steep place. 5 For [x]the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. [z]What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not [h]Samaria? and what are [b]the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem? 6 Therefore I will make [h]Samaria [d]as an heap of the field, and as the plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof [g]into the valley, and I will [h]discover the foundations thereof. 7 And [i]all her graven images shall be beaten to pieces, and all her hires shall be burned with the fire, and all her idols will I lay desolate: for of the hire of an harlot hath she gathered it, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot. 8 [c]For this will I wail and howl, I will go [g]stripped and naked: I will make a wailing [j]like the jackals, and a mourning [l]like the ostriches. 9 [m]For ‖her wound is incurable; for it is come even unto Judah; it reacheth unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem. 10 [q]Tell it not in Gath, weep not at all: [r]at Beth-le-Aphrah roll thyself in the dust. 11 Pass ye away, ††thou [5]‡‡inhabitant of Shaphir, [w]having thy shame naked: the [5]inhabitant of §§Zaanan is not come forth; the wailing of Beth-ezel shall take from you his standing. 12 For the [5]inhabitant of Maroth †waited anxiously for good: but evil is come down [y]from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem. 13 Bind the chariot to the swift steed, O [5]inhabitant of Lachish, bind the chariot to the [a]swift beast: she is the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion: for [cc]the transgressions of Israel were found in thee. 14 Therefore shalt thou give presents to [e]Moresheth-gath: the houses of §[f]Achzib shall be [8]a deceitful thing unto the kings of Israel. 15 Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O [5]inhabitant of [f]Mareshah, [j]he shall possess thee: the glory of Israel shall come even unto [k]Adullam. 16 [l]Make thee bald, and poll thee for the children of thy delicate

[8] But [h](I truly truly I) am full of power [2]by the spirit of the LORD, and of (judgement, judgment,) and of might, to declare unto Jacob [l]his transgression, and to Israel his sin. [9] [m]Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and (rulers princes) of the house of Israel, [p]that abhor (judgement, judgment,) and pervert all equity. [10] [q]They build up Zion with §blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity. [11] [s]The heads thereof judge for reward, and [v]the priests thereof teach for hire, and [w]the prophets thereof divine for money: [x]yet will they lean upon the LORD, ‖and [z]say, Is not the LORD (in the midst of among) us? NAHUM.

1 [a]THE [1]burden of [b]Nineveh.
The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

2 [d]The LORD is a jealous God and avengeth.
*God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth;
the LORD avengeth, revengeth and †is full of wrath, furious;
[f]the LORD taketh, will take vengeance on his adversaries, and [g]he reserveth wrath for his enemies. 3 [i]The LORD is slow to anger, and [j]great in power, and [k]will by no means clear the guilty, not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD [l]hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet. 4 [o]He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: [q]Bashan languisheth, and [r]Carmel, and the flower of [q]Lebanon languisheth. 5 [s]The mountains quake at him, and [v]the hills melt; melt, and the earth is upheaved, burned at his presence, yea, [w]the world, and all that dwell therein. 6 [y]Who can stand before his indignation? and who can ‡abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury [c]is poured out like fire, and [e]the rocks are broken asunder, thrown down by him. 7 [g]The LORD is good, [i]a §strong hold in the day of trouble; and [j]he knoweth them that put their trust in him. 8 But [l]with an overrunning flood he will make a full end, an utter end of the place thereof, and [n]will pursue his enemies into darkness, shall pursue his enemies darkness. 9 What [o]do ye imagine against the LORD? [p]he will make a full end, an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time. 10 For though while they be [c]like tangled, folden together as thorns, and be drenched as it were in their drink, while they are drunken as drunkards, [e]they shall be devoured [2]utterly as stubble, as dry stubble, fully dry. 11 There is one gone forth, come out of thee, [h]that imagineth evil against the LORD, [3]that counselleth ‖a wicked [4]wickedness, counsellor. 12 Thus saith the LORD; LORD: Though they be in full strength, quiet, and likewise many, [m]even so, yet thus shall they be ††cut down, and when he shall pass away, through. [5] [n]Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more. 13 And For now [p]will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder. 14 And the LORD hath given commandment, a commandment concerning thee, [t]that no more of thy name be sown: out of [u]the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image; image: [x]I will make thy grave; [z]for thou art vile. 15 [a]Behold, Behold, upon the mountains [b]the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! [d]Keep O Judah, thy feasts, O Judah, ‡‡keep thy solemn feasts, [f]perform thy vows: [h]for [6]§§the wicked one shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

1 *[k]He that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: [m]keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily. 2 For [q]the LORD

HABAKKUK.

1 [a]THE [9]burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

2 O LORD, [d]how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear? I hear! even cry out unto thee [f]of violence, and thou wilt not save, save! 3 [g]Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and [10]look upon perverseness, cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling [f]and violence are before me: and there is strife, and contention riseth up, are that raise up strife and contention. 4 [b]Therefore the law is slacked, and judgement, judgment [11]doth never go forth: [c]for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore judgement goeth forth perverted, wrong judgment proceedeth. 5 [e]Behold ye among the nations, heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: [h]for [12]I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, believe though it be told you. 6 For, lo, [i]I raise up the Chaldeans, that peoples people shall spoil thee; [a]because of men's *blood, and [a]for the violence done to of the land, to the city of the city, and to of all that dwell therein.

A.V. * Heb. breadths. † Or, from them shall proceed the judgment of these, and the captivity of these. ‡ Heb. sharp. § Or, the supping up of their faces, &c., or, their faces shall look toward the east. Heb. the opposition of their faces toward the east. ‖ Heb. rock.  Heb. founded. †† Or, grievance. ‡‡ Or, moving. §§ Or, fine net. • Or, dainty. Heb. fat. † Heb. fenced place. ‡ Or, in me. § Or, when I am argued with. Heb. upon my reproof, or, arguing. (*) Or, How much more. (†) Or, Ho, he.

9 [d]Woe to [e]him that †getteth coveteth an evil gain for covetousness to his house, [h]that he may [i]set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the ‡hand power of evil! 10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house, house [k]by cutting off many peoples people, and [l]hast sinned against thy soul. 11 For [o]the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the §beam out of the timber shall ‖answer it.

12 [d]Woe to him [p]that buildeth a town with *blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity! 13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that [t]the peoples people shall labour for in the very fire, and the nations people shall weary themselves for very vanity? 14 [u]For the earth shall be filled ††with the knowledge of [w]the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

15 [d]Woe unto him [z]that giveth his neighbour drink, that [1]addest puttest thy [2]venom bottle to him, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look [b]on their nakedness! 16 Thou art filled ‡‡[c]with shame for glory: [d]drink thou also, and [3]be as one unlet thy foreskin circumcised be uncovered: [d]the cup of the LORD'S right hand shall be turned unto thee, and [c]foul shame shall be upon shameful spewing shall be on thy glory. 17 For [g]the violence done to of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the destruction spoil of the beasts, [4]which made them afraid; afraid, [g]because of men's blood, and for the violence done to of the land, to the city of the city, and to of all that dwell therein.

18 [l]What profiteth the graven image, image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and [b]the a teacher of lies, that §§the maker of [5]his work trusteth therein, to make [c]dumb idols? 19 [f]Woe unto him [g]that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise! Shall this teach? Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and [j]there is no breath at all in the midst of it. 20 But [m]the LORD is in his holy temple: [6]*[n]let all the earth keep silence before him.

3 [1] A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, set to prophet †upon Shigionoth.

2 O LORD, [q]I have heard [7]the ‡thy report of thee, and [8]am speech, and was afraid:
O LORD, §[r]revive [s]thy work in the midst of the years,
In the midst of the years make it known;

His glory covered the heavens,
And the earth was full of his praise.
4 [a]And his brightness was as the light;
He had [10]rays (†)horns coming forth [11]from out of his hand:
And there was the hiding of his power.
5 [f]Before him went the pestilence,
[i]And [12]fiery bolts (‡)burning coals went forth [j]at his feet.
6 He stood, [k]and [13]measured the earth; earth:
He beheld, and drove asunder the nations: nations;
And the [m]eternal everlasting mountains [n]were scattered,

ZEPHANIAH.

1 THE word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, Hizkiah, [c]in the days of [d]Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

2 *[e]I will utterly consume all things from off †the face of the ground, land, saith the LORD. 3 I will consume [h]man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and [h]the fishes of the sea, and [k]the ‡stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will [m]cut off man from off the face of the ground, land, saith the LORD. 4 And I will I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; [p]and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the §Chemarim Chemarims with the priests; 5 and [t]them that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops; and [u]them that worship, which worship and that swear to §by the LORD, and that swear by [1x]Malcam Malcham; 6 and [y]them that are turned back from following the LORD; and [a]those that have not sought the LORD, nor inquired after for him.

7 [c]Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord GOD: for [d]the day of the LORD is at hand: for [f]the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath [h]sanctified ‖bid his guests. 8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD'S sacrifice, that [k]I will 2 punish the princes, and the king's sons, children, and [a]all such as are clothed with foreign strange apparel. 9 And in that day I will In the same day also will I 2 punish all those [b]that leap over on the threshold, which fill their master's house masters' houses with violence and deceit. 10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from [f]the fish gate, and [g]an howling from [i]the 3second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills. 11 [j]Howl, ye inhabitants of 4Maktesh, for all 5[l]the people merchant of Canaan people are undone: cut down; all they that were laden with bear silver are cut off. 12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that [n]I will search Jerusalem [o]with 6candles; candles, and I will 2punish the men [q]that are 7††settled on their lees, lees: [r]that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil. 13 And Therefore their wealth goods shall become [v]a spoil, booty, and their houses a desolation: yea, [w]they shall they shall also build houses, but shall not inhabit them; and [z]they shall plant vineyards, but shall not drink the wine thereof. 14 [b]The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, near and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD; LORD: [e]the mighty man crieth shall cry there bitterly. 15 That day is [g]a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of [i]wasteness and desolation, [j]a day of darkness and gloominess, [j]a day of clouds and thick darkness, 16 [l]a

R.V. [1] Or, helped for evil. [2] Or, shall yet overflow with prosperity [3] Or, dwell [4] Or, After the glory, he hath &c.
A.V. [*] Heb. good.

LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee. 12 [a]And the LORD shall inherit Judah [as] his portion in the holy land, and shall [yet] [e]choose Jerusalem [again]. 13 [f]Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is [waked] [raised] up out of [*]his holy habitation.

3 1 And he shewed me [j]Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, [k]and [1†]Satan standing at his right hand [‡]to [be his adversary.] [resist] him. 2 And the LORD said unto Satan, [m]The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; [yea,] [even] the LORD that hath [p]chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this [q]a brand plucked out of the fire? 3 Now [j]Joshua was [r]clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel. 4 And he answered and spake unto [u]those that stood before him, saying, [v]Take [away] the filthy garments from [off] him. And unto him he said, Behold, [x]I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and [y]I will clothe thee with [rich apparel.] [change of raiment.] 5 And [2]I said, [z]Let them set a fair [3]mitre upon his head. So they set a fair [3]mitre upon his head, and clothed him with [garments; and] [garments.] And the angel of the LORD stood by. 6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto [j]Joshua, saying, 7 Thus saith the LORD of [hosts:] [hosts;] If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt [d]keep my [§]charge, then thou [also shalt] [shalt also] [e]judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee [4]a place of access [‖]places to walk among [g]these that stand by. 8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, [thou] [thou,] and thy fellows that sit before [thee;] [thee:] for [j]they are []men [which are a sign] [wondered at]: for, behold, I will bring forth [b]my servant [c]the [6]Branch. BRANCH. 9 For [behold.] [behold] [d]the stone that I have [set] [laid] before Joshua; upon one stone [are] [shall be] [g]seven eyes: behold, I will [h]engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and [i]I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. 10 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour [l]under the vine and under the fig tree.

4 1 And [m]the angel that talked with me came again, [o]and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his [sleep.] [sleep,] 2 And [he] said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have [seen,] [looked,] and [behold,] [behold,] [s]a candlestick all of gold, [††]with [its] [a] bowl upon the top of it, and [its] [his] [t]seven lamps [thereon;] [thereon,] 7 [there are] [each of the] [the seven] [‡‡]seven pipes to lamps, which are upon the top thereof: 3 and [w]two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof. 4 [And] [So] I answered and spake to [m]the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord? 5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, [a]Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord. 6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto [b]Zerubbabel, saying, [c]Not by [§§]might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts. 7 Who art thou, [f]O great mountain? before [b]Zerubbabel [h]thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth [i]the [head] [headstone] [stone] [thereof] with [shoutings of] [shoutings, crying,] Grace, [grace] [grace] unto it. 8 Moreover the word

And I said, No, my lord. 14 Then said he, [q]These are the two sons of anointed ones, that stand by [s]the Lord of the whole earth.

5 1 Then I turned, and again I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, and behold a flying [t]roll. 2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying [t]roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits. 3 Then said he unto me, This is [v]the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for ††every one that [w]stealeth shall be purged out cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that [x]sweareth shall be purged out cut off as on that other side according to it. 4 I will cause it to go bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of [c]him that sweareth falsely by my name: and [d]it shall abide remain in the midst of his house, and [g]shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

MALACHI.

1 [a]THE [2]burden of the word of the LORD to Israel †by [3][c]Malachi.

2 [e]I have loved you, saith the LORD. [f]Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? [4]Was not Esau [g]Jacob's brother? saith the LORD: yet [h]I loved Jacob; 3 but Esau I hated, And I hated Esau, and [i]made laid his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to and his heritage waste for the jackals dragons of the wilderness. 4 [5]Whereas Edom saith, We are [6]beaten down, impoverished, but we will return and build the waste desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; down: and men they shall call them them, The border of wickedness, and and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever. 5 And [n]your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will [7]be magnified [8]beyond ‡from the border of Israel.

6 [q]A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be [r]a father, where is mine honour? and if I be [s]a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, [t]O priests, that despise my name. [f]And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name? 7 § [v]Ye offer polluted [w]bread upon mine altar. altar; [f]And and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, [b]The table of the LORD is contemptible. 8 [d]And when if ye offer the blind ‖for sacrifice, it is no evil! is it not evil? and when if ye offer the lame and sick, it is no evil! Present is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee? thee, or will he accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts. 9 And now, I pray you, [f]intreat the beseech favour of God, God that he may will be gracious unto us: this hath been 9 ††by your means: [k]will he [10]accept any of regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts. 10 [l]Oh that there were one Who is there even among you that would shut the doors, doors for that ye might not nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar in vain! for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, [m]neither will I accept an offering at your hand. 11 For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same [o]my name is shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place [12]incense is shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for [o]my name is shall be great among the Gentiles, heathen, saith the LORD of hosts. 12 But ye profane have profaned it, in that ye say, [u]The table of the LORD is polluted, polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible. 13 Ye say said also, Behold, [x]what a weariness is it! ‡‡and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and [b]ye have brought that which was taken by violence, or torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye bring the brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD. 14 But cursed be the deceiver, *which hath in his flock [f]a male, and [g]voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a blemished or corrupt thing: for [i]I am a great king, or King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is [l]terrible or dreadful among the Gentiles or heathen.

2 1 And now, [m]O ye priests, [n]this commandment is for you. 2 [o]If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, then will I I will even send [q]the a curse upon you, and I will curse [r]your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart. 3 Behold, [s]I will rebuke [1]the seed for †corrupt your your sake, seed, and [t]will ‡spread dung upon your faces, even [v]the dung of your [2]sacrifices solemn feasts; and §ye one shall be taken take you away [3]with it. 4 And ye shall know that I have sent [x]this commandment unto you, that [y]my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts. 5 My covenant was with him of life and [z]peace; and I gave them to him [b]that he might fear, and for the fear wherewith he feared me, and stood in awe of was afraid before my name. 6 [d]The law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness or iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and uprightness, or equity, and did [f]turn many away from iniquity. 7 For [h]the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is [j]the messenger of the LORD of hosts. 8 But ye are turned aside or departed out of the way; [a]ye have caused many to ‖stumble in or at the law; ye have corrupted [c]the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts. 9 Therefore [d]have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but  [e]have had respect of persons been partial in the law.

10 Have we not all [h]one father? hath not [j]one God created us? why do we [k]deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers? 11 Judah [k]hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for [p]Judah hath profaned the [4]holiness of the LORD which he loveth, or ††loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god. 12 The LORD will cut off [to] the man that doeth this him that this, or ††the waketh master and him that answereth, or the scholar, out of the tents or tabernacles of Jacob, [u]and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts. 13 And this [5]again ye do: [w]ye cover have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, or crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, neither or receiveth it with good will at your hand. 14 [a]Yet ye say, Wherefore? putting away, saith the LORD, the God of Israel, LORD, the God of Israel, saith *that he hateth and him that †putting away, for one covereth his garment violence with violence, his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye [e]deal not treacherously.

17 [e]Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. [f]Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? In that When [h]ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or [i]where or, Where is the God of judgement? judgment?

3 1 [l]Behold, I will send [m]my messenger, and [o]he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, [p]whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple; [1]and temple, even [r]the [2]messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in, in: behold, he cometh, shall come, saith the LORD of hosts. 2 But [t]who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for [u]he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: 3 and he shall sit [w]as a refiner and purifier of silver, silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver; and silver, that they shall may offer unto the LORD [y]offerings an offering in righteousness. 4 [a]Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in ancient ‡former years. 5 And I will come near to you to judgement judgment; and I will be [e]a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers; swearers, and against those [g]that §oppress the hireling in his wages, [h]the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts. 6 For [l]I the LORD am the LORD, I change not; [a]therefore ye, O ye sons of Jacob, Jacob are not consumed.

7 [b]From Even from the days of your fathers ye have turned aside are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. [d]Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. [g]But ye say, said, Wherein shall we return? 8 Will a man rob God? yet Yet ye have robbed rob me. [g]But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? [i]In tithes and [3]offerings. 9 [k]Ye are cursed with the curse; a curse: for ye have robbed rob me, even this whole nation. 10 [n]Bring ye all the whole tithe tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and [q]prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you [s]the windows of heaven, and ‖pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. 11 And I will rebuke [v]the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts. 12 And [x]all nations shall call you happy blessed: for ye shall be [z]a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts.

13 [b]Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD. [c]Yet ye say, Wherein What have we spoken so much against thee? 14 Ye have said, [d]It is vain to serve God: and [f]what profit is it that we have kept ††his charge, ordinance, and that we have walked ‡‡mournfully before the LORD of hosts? 15 And now we call [i]the proud happy; yea, [i]they that work wickedness §§are built set up; yea, [f]they they that tempt God, and are God are even delivered. 16 Then they that feared the LORD [k]spake one with often one to another: and the LORD

APPENDIX.

The American Old Testament Revision Company, while recognizing the cordial acceptance given to many of their suggestions, present the following instances in which they differ from the English Company, as of sufficient importance to be appended to the Revision in accordance with the original agreement.

CLASSES OF PASSAGES.

I. Substitute the Divine name "Jehovah" wherever it occurs in the Hebrew text, for "the LORD" and "GOD" and omit the marg.* to "the LORD" at Gen. ii. 4, and "Heb. Jehovah" from the marg. at Ex. iii. 15; also substitute "Jehovah" for "the LORD" or "Jah" wherever the latter occurs in the Hebrew text, and retain or insert "Heb. Jah" in the marg.; where "Jehovah" immediately follows, viz. in Is. xii. 2, xxvi. 4, read "Jehovah, even Jehovah" and omit "Jehovah" from the marg.

II. Substitute "Sheol" wherever it occurs in the Hebrew text, for the renderings "the grave" "the pit" and "hell" and omit these renderings from the marg.

III. Substitute "a" for "an", "my" for "mine" and "thy" for "thine" wherever followed by "h" aspirated.

IV. Substitute "who" or "that" for "which" when used of persons.

V. Substitute "are" for "be" in the present indicative, and omit "for" before infinitives.

VI. Omit from the margin all renderings from the LXX., Vulgate, and other ancient Versions or "authorities"

VII. The following substitutions are preferred, with the necessary inflectional variations:

"adder" for "basilisk"

"annul" for "disannul"

"ascent" for "going up" when used as a noun.

"astonished" for "astonied"

"a year old" for "of the first year"

"base man" for "man of Belial" or "son of B."; "base woman" for "daughter of Belial"; "base men" for "men of Belial" "sons of B." or "children of B."

"before" for "afore"; also for "or ever" except in Ps. xc. 2; Eccl. xii. 1, 2, 6

"blow the trumpet" for "blow with (or, "blow up") the trumpet"

"boil" "boiled" for "seethe" "sod" "sodden"

III. 21 For "for that" read "because"

IV. 1 For "unto me shalt thou return:" read "if thou wilt return unto me;"

10 For "soul" read "life"

13 For "spoiled" read "despoiled;" So in ver. 30; ix. 19; x. 20.

20 For "spoiled" read "laid waste" (twice) So in xlix. 3; Zech. xi. 2, 3 (twice)

29 For "The whole city" read "Every city"

V. 6 For "over" read "against"

VI. 14 For "lightly" read "slightly" So in viii. 11.

27 Let marg. [6] ("trier") and the text exchange places.

VII. 24 Add marg. to "went backward" Or, turned their back and not their face

VIII. 14 Add marg. to "gall" Or, poison So in ix. 15; xxiii. 15.

IX. 26 For "polled" read "cut off" So in xxv. 23; xlix. 32.

X. 5 Omit marg. [4] except "Or, pillar"

8 Marg. [7] For "it is" read "the stock is"

24 For "with judgement" read "in measure" Add marg. Heb. judgment So in xxx. 11; xlvi. 28.

XI. 20 For "let me see" read "I shall see"

XIII. 12 For "know" read "certainly know"

21 Read "when he shall set over thee as head those whom thou hast thyself taught to be friends to thee"

XIV. 3 For "pits" read "cisterns"

12 For "oblation" read "meal offering" from margin. So read "meal offerings" in xvii. 26; xxxiii. 18; xli. 5.

XVI. 4 For "die of" read "die"
XVII. 11 Substitute marg. [6] ("sitteth on eggs which she hath not laid") for the text.
XVIII. 15 For "caused them" read "been made"
17 Substitute the marg. ("show them the back and not the face") for the text.
XX. 5 For "which shall spoil them" read "and they shall make them a prey"
7 For "deceived" read "persuaded" (twice)
10 For "enticed" read "persuaded"
XXI. 5 For "wrath" read "indignation" So in xxxii. 37.
XXII. 17 For "to shed" read "shedding"
XXIII. 15 For "profaneness" read "ungodliness"
XXVI. 2 For "keep not back" read "diminish not"
18 For "Micaiah" read "Micah" Add marg. Heb. Micaiah
19 Omit "at all"
XXVIII. 13 For "shalt make" read "hast made"
XXXI. 20 For "pleasant" read "darling"
For "are troubled" read "yearn"
XXXIII. 6 For marg. "Or, healing" read "Heb. a bandage"
XXXVIII. 11 For "cast" read "cast off" So in ver. 12.
XLI. 5 For "certain" read "men"
14 For "cast about and returned" read "turned about and came back"
XLVI. 3 For "Order" read "Prepare"
8 For "the city" read "cities"
17 Add margin to "but" etc., Or, destroyed
XLVIII. 3 For "spoiling" read "laying waste"
28 For "in the sides of the hole's mouth" read "over the mouth of the abyss"
39 For "dismaying" read "terror"
XLIX. 5 For "wandereth" read "fleeth"
10 For "spoiled" read "made a prey"
39 Add marg. to "bring again" Or, return to So in Ezek. xxix. 14; Hos. vi. 11; Joel iii. 1; Am. ix. 14; Zeph. iii. 20.
L. 7 For "offend not" read "are not guilty"
10 For "spoil . . . spoil" read "prey . . . prey upon"
LI. 5 Add margin to "forsaken" Or, widowed
14 Add margin to "Surely" Or, Though I have filled
Add margin to "and" Or, yet
34 For "delicates" read "delicacies"
55 For "spoileth Babylon" read "layeth Babylon waste"
LII. 23 Marg. [4] for "four" read "four"

LAMENTATIONS.

I. 12 For "done unto" read "brought upon"
II. 19 For "top" read "head" So in iv. 1; Nah. iii. 10.

EZEKIEL.

I. 4 For "colour" read "look" So in verses 7, 16, 22, 27; viii. 2; x. 9.
For "amber" read "glowing metal" So in 27; viii. 2. Substitute "Or, amber" for marg. [4] 18 For "rings" read "rims" (twice)
V. 13 For "satisfy my fury" read "cause my wrath to rest" and omit the marg. So in xvi. 42; xxi. 17; xxiv. 13.
VI. 9 For "whorish" read "lewd"
VII. 26 For "ancients" read "elders"
IX. 6 For "ancient" read "old"
X. 21 Omit "apiece"
XIII. 5 For "made up the fence" read "built up the wall" So alter "make up the fence" in xxii. 30.

XIII. 6 For "and the LORD" read "but Jehovah"
10 Add margin to "untempered mortar" Or, whitewash So in xxii. 28.
XIV. 15 For "noisome" read "evil"
XVI. 7 For "the bud of" read "that which groweth in"
43 For "fretted" read "raged against"
XVII. 9 For "even without" etc., read "and not by a strong arm or much people can it be raised from the roots thereof"
XX. 3 For "Are ye come" etc. read "Is it to enquire of me that ye are come?"
XXIII. 3 For "bruised" read "handled" So in ver. 8, and "handling" in ver. 21.
For "teats" read "bosom" So in verses 8, 21.
XXIV. 13 For "purged" read "cleansed" (3 times)
XXVII. 9 For "ancients" read "old men"
For "occupy" read "deal in"
27 For "occupiers of" read "dealers in"
XXVIII. 3 For "they can hide" read "is hidden"
XXIX. 5 For "leave thee thrown" read "cast thee forth"
18 For "peeled" read "worn"
XXX. 3 For "near, a day" etc. read "near; it shall be a day of clouds, a time" etc.
XXXVIII. 22 Read ": and with pestilence and with blood will I enter into judgment with him"
XLII. 12 For "in the head" read "at the head"
XLIII. 14 Substitute marg. [4] ("ledge") for the text. So in ver. 20 and xlv. 19.
XLV. 15 Put marg. [4] ("well watered") in the text.

DANIEL.

IX. 25, 26 Substitute for marg. to "the anointed one" Heb. Messiah
25 Read "seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: it shall be" etc. from marg. [15], and put text in margin.
26 Substitute marg. [1] ("the end thereof") for the text.
27 Substitute marg. [2] ("in the midst of") and marg. [5] ("desolate") for the text.

HOSEA.

VIII. 11 For "to sin" read "for sinning" (twice)
12 Substitute marg. [11] ("I wrote for him the ten thousand things of my law, but they" etc.) for the text.

OBADIAH.

20 For "captivity" read "captives" (twice)

MICAH.

I. 4 For "molten" read "melted"
16 For "poll thee" read "cut off thy hair"
II. 11 Transpose text and margin [10]
IV. 6 For "halteth" read "is lame" So in Zeph. iii. 19.
7 For "halted" read "was lame"
13 For "thou shalt" read "I shall" and omit marg.

NAHUM.

I. 10 Read "For entangled like thorns and drunken as with their drink they are consumed"
II. 1 For "munition" read "fortress"
4 For "justle one against another" read "rush to and fro"

II. 7 Let marg. [3] ("And it is decreed; she is" etc.) and the text exchange places.
For "tabering" read "beating"
9 For "pleasant" read "goodly"
III. 2 For "jumping" read "bounding"
19 For "bruit" read "report"

ZECHARIAH.

II. 8 For "spoiled you" read "made you a spoil"
III. 5 For "fair" read "clean" (twice)
IV. 7 For "head" read "top"
14 For "sons of oil" read "anointed ones"
V. 3 For "purged out" read "cut off" (twice)
XIV. 10 For "Arabah" read "plain"
21 Omit marg. "Or, trafficker"

MALACHI.

II. 3 For "sacrifices" read "solemn feasts" and omit margin.
III. 3 For "purge" read "refine"
15 For "are delivered" read "escape"

THE

OUR LORD AND SAVIOUR

JESUS CHRIST

R.V.] TRANSLATED OUT OF THE GREEK:

become known only within the last two centuries; some of the most important of them, indeed, within the last few years. Their publication has called forth not only improved editions of the Greek Text, but a succession of instructive discussions on the variations which have been brought to light, and on the best modes of distinguishing original readings from changes introduced in the course of transcription. While therefore it has long been the opinion of all scholars that the commonly received text needed thorough revision, it is but recently that materials have been acquired for executing such a work with even approximate completeness.

2. The character of the Translation itself will be best estimated by considering the leading rules under which it was made, and the extent to which these rules appear to have been observed.

The primary and fundamental rule was expressed in the following terms:—'The ordinary Bible read in the Church, commonly called the Bishops' Bible, to be followed, and as little altered as the truth of the Original will permit.' There was, however, this subsequent provision:—'These translations to be used, when they agree better with the text than the Bishops' Bible: Tindale's, Matthew's, Coverdale's, Whitchurch's, Geneva.' The first of these rules, which was substantially the same as that laid down at the revision of the Great Bible in the reign of Elizabeth, was strictly observed. The other rule was but partially followed. The Translators made much use of the Genevan Version. They do not however appear to have frequently returned to the renderings of the other Versions named in the rule, where those Versions differed from the Bishops' Bible. On the other hand, their work shews evident traces of the influence of a Version not specified in the rules, the Rhemish, made from the Latin Vulgate, but by scholars conversant with the Greek Original.

Another rule, on which it is stated that those in authority laid great stress, related to the rendering of words that admitted of different interpretations. It was as follows:—'When a word hath divers significations, that to be kept which hath been most commonly used by the most of the ancient fathers, being agreeable to the propriety of the place and the analogy of the faith.' With this rule was associated the following, on which equal stress appears to have been laid:—'The old ecclesiastical words to be kept, viz. the word Church not to be translated Congregation, &c.' This latter rule was for the most part carefully observed; but it may be doubted whether, in the case of words that admitted of different meanings, the instructions were at all closely followed. In dealing with the more difficult words of this class, the Translators appear to have paid much regard to traditional interpretations, and especially to the authority of the Vulgate; but, as to the large residue of words which might properly fall under the rule, they used considerable freedom. Moreover they profess in their Preface to have studiously adopted a variety of expression which would now be deemed hardly consistent with the requirements of faithful translation. They seem to have been guided by the feeling that their Version would secure for the words they used a lasting place in the language; and they express a fear lest they should 'be charged (by scoffers) with some unequal dealing towards a great number of good English words,' which, without this liberty on their part, would not have a place in the pages of the English Bible. Still it cannot be doubted that they carried this liberty too far, and that the studied avoidance of uniformity in the rendering of the same words, even when occurring in the same context, is one of the blemishes in their work.

A third leading rule was of a negative character, but was rendered necessary by the experience derived from former Versions. The words of the rule are as follows:—'No marginal notes at all to be affixed, but only for the explanation of the Hebrew or Greek words which cannot without some circumlocution so briefly and fitly be expressed in the text.' Here again the Translators used some liberty in their application of the rule. Out of more than 760 marginal notes originally appended to the Authorised Version of the New Testament, only a seventh part consists of explanations or literal renderings; the great majority of the notes being devoted to the useful and indeed necessary purpose of placing before the reader alternative renderings which it was judged that the passage or the words would fairly admit. The notes referring to variations in the Greek Text amount to about thirty-five.

Of the remaining rules it may be sufficient to notice one, which was for the most part consistently followed:—'The names of the prophets and the holy writers, with the other names of the text, to be retained, as nigh as may be, accordingly as they were vulgarly used.' The Translators had also the liberty, in 'any place of special obscurity,' to consult those who might be qualified to give an opinion.

Passing from these fundamental rules, which should be borne in mind by any one who would rightly understand the nature and character of the Authorised Version, we must call attention to the manner in which the actual work of the translation was carried on. The New Testament was assigned to two separate Companies, the one consisting of eight members, sitting at Oxford, the other consisting of seven members, sitting at Westminster. There is no reason to believe that these Companies ever sat together. They communicated to each other, and likewise to the four Companies to which the Old Testament and the Apocrypha had been committed, the results of their labours; and perhaps afterwards reconsidered them: but the fact that the New Testament was divided between two separate bodies of men involved a grave inconvenience, and was beyond all doubt the cause of many inconsistencies. These probably would have been much more serious, had it not been provided that there should be a final supervision of the whole Bible, by selected members from Oxford, Cambridge, and Westminster, the three centres at which the work had been carried on. These supervisors are said by one authority to have been six in number, and by another twelve. When it is remembered that this supervision was completed in nine months, we may wonder that the incongruities which remain are not more numerous.

The Companies appear to have been occupied in the actual business of revision about two years and three quarters.

Such, so far as can be gathered from the rules and modes of procedure, is the character of the time-honoured Version which we have been called upon to revise. We have had to study this great Version carefully and minutely, line by line; and the longer we have been engaged upon it the more we have learned to admire its simplicity, its dignity, its power, its happy turns of expression, its general accuracy, and, we must not fail to add, the music of its cadences, and the felicities of its rhythm. To render a work that had reached this high standard of excellence still more excellent, to increase its fidelity without destroying its charm, was the task committed to us. Of that task, and of the conditions under which we have attempted its fulfilment, it will now be necessary for us to speak.

II. The present Revision had its origin in action taken by the Convocation of the Province of Canterbury in February 1870, and it has been conducted throughout on the plan laid down in Resolutions of both Houses of the Province, and, more particularly, in accordance with Principles and Rules drawn up by a special Committee of Convocation in the following May. Two Companies, the one for the revision of the Authorised Version of the Old Testament, and the other for the revision of the same Version of the New Testament, were formed in the manner specified in the Resolutions, and the work was commenced on the twenty-second day of June 1870. Shortly afterwards, steps were taken, under a resolution passed by both Houses of Convocation, for inviting the co-operation of American scholars; and eventually two Committees were formed in America, for the purpose of acting with the two English Companies, on the basis of the Principles and Rules drawn up by the Committee of Convocation.

The fundamental Resolutions adopted by the Convocation of Canterbury on the third and fifth days of May 1870 were as follows:—

'1. That it is desirable that a revision of the Authorised Version of the Holy Scriptures be undertaken.

'2. That the revision be so conducted as to comprise both marginal renderings and such emendations as it may be found necessary to insert in the text of the Authorised Version.

'3. That in the above resolutions we do not contemplate any new translation of the Bible, or any alteration of the language, except where in the judgement of the most competent scholars such change is necessary.

'4. That in such necessary changes, the style of the language employed in the existing Version be closely followed.

'5. That it is desirable that Convocation should nominate a body of its own members to undertake the work of revision, who shall be at liberty to invite the co-operation of any eminent for scholarship, to whatever nation or religious body they may belong.'

The Principles and Rules agreed to by the Committee of Convocation on the twenty-fifth day of May 1870 were as follows:—

'1. To introduce as few alterations as possible into the Text of the Authorised Version consistently with faithfulness.

'2. To limit, as far as possible, the expression of such alterations to the language of the Authorised and earlier English Versions.

'3. Each Company to go twice over the portion to be revised, once provisionally, the second time finally, and on principles of voting as hereinafter is provided.

'4. That the Text to be adopted be that for which the evidence is decidedly preponderating; and that when the Text so adopted differs from that from which the Authorised Version was made, the alteration be indicated in the margin.

'5. To make or retain no change in the Text on the second final revision by each Company, except two thirds of those present approve of the same, but on the first revision to decide by simple majorities.

'6. In every case of proposed alteration that may have given rise to discussion, to defer the voting thereupon till the next Meeting, whensoever the same shall be required by one third of those present at the Meeting, such intended vote to be announced in the notice for the next Meeting.

'7. To revise the headings of chapters and pages, paragraphs, italics, and punctuation.

'8. To refer, on the part of each Company, when considered desirable, to Divines, Scholars, and Literary Men, whether at home or abroad, for their opinions.'

These rules it has been our endeavour faithfully and consistently to follow. One only of them we found ourselves unable to observe in all particulars. In accordance with the seventh rule, we have carefully revised the paragraphs, italics, and punctuation. But the revision of the headings of chapters and pages would have involved so much of indirect, and indeed frequently of direct interpretation, that we judged it best to omit them altogether.

Our communications with the American Committee have been of the following nature. We transmitted to them from time to time each several portion of our First Revision, and received from them in return their criticisms and suggestions. These we considered with much care and attention during the time we were engaged on our Second Revision. We then sent over to them the various portions of the Second Revision as they were completed, and received further suggestions, which, like the former, were closely and carefully considered. Last of all, we forwarded to them the Revised Version in its final form; and a list of those passages in which they desire to place on record their preference of other readings and renderings will be found at the end of the volume. We gratefully acknowledge their care, vigilance, and accuracy; and we humbly pray that their labours and our own, thus happily united, may be permitted to bear a blessing to both countries, and to all English-speaking people throughout the world.

The whole time devoted to the work has been ten years and a half. The First Revision occupied about six years; the Second, about two years and a half. The remaining time has been spent in the consideration of the suggestions from America on the Second Revision, and of many details and reserved questions arising out of our own labours. As a rule, a session of four days has been held every month (with the exception of August and September) in each year from the commencement of the work in June 1870. The average attendance for the whole time has been sixteen each day; the whole Company consisting at first of twenty-seven, but for the greater part of the time of twenty-four members, many of them residing at great distances from London. Of the original number four have been removed from us by death.

At an early stage in our labours, we entered into an agreement with the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge for the conveyance to them of our copyright in the work. This arrangement provided for the necessary expenses of the undertaking; and procured for the Revised Version the advantage of being published by Bodies long connected with the publication of the Authorised Version.

III. We now pass onward to give a brief account of the particulars of the present work. This we propose to do under the four heads of Text, Translation, Language, and Marginal Notes.

1. A revision of the Greek text was the necessary foundation of our work; but it did not fall within our province to construct a continuous and complete Greek text. In many cases the English rendering was considered to represent correctly either of two competing readings in the Greek, and then the question of the text was usually not raised. A sufficiently laborious task remained in deciding between the rival claims of various readings which might properly affect the translation. When these were adjusted, our deviations from the text presumed to underlie the Authorised Version had next to be indicated, in accordance with the fourth rule; but it proved inconvenient to record them in the margin. A better mode however of giving them publicity has been found, as the University Presses have undertaken to print them in connexion with complete Greek texts of the New Testament.

In regard of the readings thus approved, it may be observed that the fourth rule, by requiring that 'the text to be adopted' should be 'that for which the evidence is decidedly preponderating,' was in effect an instruction to follow the authority of documentary evidence without deference to any printed text of modern times, and therefore to employ the best resources of criticism for estimating the value of evidence. Textual criticism, as applied to the Greek New Testament, forms a special study of much intricacy and difficulty, and even now leaves room for considerable variety of opinion among competent critics. Different schools of criticism have been represented among us, and have together contributed to the final result. In the early part of the work every various reading requiring consideration was discussed and voted on by the Company. After a time the precedents thus established enabled the process to be safely shortened; but it was still at the option of every one to raise a full discussion on any particular reading, and the option was freely used. On the first revision, in accordance with the fifth rule, the decisions were arrived at by simple majorities. On the second revision, at which a majority of two thirds was required to retain or introduce a reading at variance with the reading presumed to underlie the Authorised Version, many readings previously adopted were brought again into debate, and either re-affirmed or set aside.

Many places still remain in which, for the present, it would not be safe to accept one reading to the absolute exclusion of others. In these cases we have given alternative readings in the margin, wherever they seem to be of sufficient importance or interest to deserve notice. In the introductory formula, the phrases 'many ancient authorities,' 'some ancient authorities,' are used with some latitude to denote a greater or lesser proportion of those authorities which have a distinctive right to be called ancient. These ancient authorities comprise not only Greek manuscripts, some of which were written in the fourth and fifth centuries, but versions of a still earlier date in different languages, and also quotations by Christian writers of the second and following centuries.

2. We pass now from the Text to the Translation. The character of the Revision was determined for us from the outset by the first rule, 'to introduce as few alterations as possible, consistently with faithfulness.' Our task was revision, not re-translation.

In the application however of this principle to the many and intricate details of our work, we have found ourselves constrained by faithfulness to introduce changes which might not at first sight appear to be included under the rule.

The alterations which we have made in the Authorised Version may be roughly grouped in five principal classes. First, alterations positively required by change of reading in the Greek Text. Secondly, alterations made where the Authorised Version appeared either to be incorrect, or to have chosen the less probable of two possible renderings. Thirdly, alterations of obscure or ambiguous renderings into such as are clear and express in their import. For it has been our principle not to leave any translation, or any arrangement of words, which could adapt itself to one or other of two interpretations, but rather to express as plainly as was possible that interpretation which seemed best to deserve a place in the text, and to put the other in the margin.

There remain yet two other classes of alterations which we have felt to be required by the same principle of faithfulness. These are,—Fourthly, alterations of the Authorised Version in cases where it was inconsistent with itself in the rendering of two or more passages confessedly alike or parallel. Fifthly, alterations rendered necessary by consequence, that is, arising out of changes already made, though not in themselves required by the general rule of faithfulness. Both these classes of alterations call for some further explanation.

The frequent inconsistencies in the Authorised Version have caused us much embarrassment from the fact already referred to, namely, that a studied variety of rendering, even in the same chapter and context, was a kind of principle with our predecessors, and was defended by them on grounds that have been mentioned above. The problem we had to solve was to discriminate between varieties of rendering which were compatible with fidelity to the true meaning of the text, and varieties which involved inconsistency, and were suggestive of differences that had no existence in the Greek. This problem we have solved to the best of our power, and for the most part in the following way.

Where there was a doubt as to the exact shade of meaning, we have looked to the context for guidance. If the meaning was fairly expressed by the word or phrase that was before us in the Authorised Version, we made no change, even where rigid adherence to the rule of translating, as far as possible, the same Greek word by the same English word might have prescribed some modification.

There are however numerous passages in the Authorised Version in which, whether regard be had to the recurrence (as in the first three Gospels) of identical clauses and sentences, to the repetition of the same word in the same passage, or to the characteristic use of particular words by the same writer, the studied variety adopted by the Translators of 1611 has produced a degree of inconsistency that cannot be reconciled with the principle of faithfulness. In such cases we have not hesitated to introduce alterations, even though the sense might not seem to the general reader to be materially affected.

The last class of alterations is that which we have described as rendered necessary by consequence; that is, by reason of some foregoing alteration. The cases in which these consequential changes have been found necessary are numerous and of very different kinds. Sometimes the change has been made to avoid tautology; sometimes to obviate an unpleasing alliteration or some other infelicity of sound; sometimes, in the case of smaller words, to preserve the familiar rhythm; sometimes for a convergence of reasons which, when explained, would at once be accepted, but until so explained might never be surmised even by intelligent readers.

This may be made plain by an example. When a particular word is found to recur with characteristic frequency in any one of the Sacred Writers, it is obviously desirable to adopt for it some uniform rendering. Again, where, as in the case of the first three Evangelists, precisely the same clauses or sentences are found in more than one of the Gospels, it is no less necessary to translate them in every place in the same way. These two principles may be illustrated by reference to a word that perpetually recurs in St. Mark's Gospel, and that may be translated either 'straightway,' 'forthwith,' or 'immediately.' Let it be supposed that the first rendering is chosen, and that the word, in accordance with the first of the above principles, is in that Gospel uniformly translated 'straightway.' Let it be further supposed that one of the passages of St. Mark in which it is so translated is found, word for word, in one of the other Gospels, but that there the rendering of the Authorised Version happens to be 'forthwith' or 'immediately.' That rendering must be changed on the second of the above principles; and yet such a change would not have been made but for this concurrence of two sound principles, and the consequent necessity of making a change on grounds extraneous to the passage itself.

This is but one of many instances of consequential alterations which might at first sight appear unnecessary, but which nevertheless have been deliberately made, and are not at variance with the rule of introducing as few changes in the Authorised Version as faithfulness would allow.

There are some other points of detail which it may be here convenient to notice. One of these, and perhaps the most important, is the rendering of the Greek aorist. There are numerous cases, especially in connexion with particles ordinarily expressive of present time, in which the use of the indefinite past tense in Greek and English is altogether different; and in such instances we have not attempted to violate the idiom of our language by forms of expression which it could not bear. But we have often ventured to represent the Greek aorist by the English preterite, even where the reader may find some passing difficulty in such a rendering, because we have felt convinced that the true meaning of the original was obscured by the presence of the familiar auxiliary. A remarkable illustration may be found in the seventeenth chapter of St. John's Gospel, where the combination of the aorist and the perfect shews, beyond all reasonable doubt, that different relations of time were intended to be expressed.

Changes of translation will also be found in connexion with the aorist participle, arising from the fact that the usual periphrasis of this participle in the Vulgate, which was rendered necessary by Latin idiom, has been largely reproduced in the Authorised Version by 'when' with the past tense (as for example in the second chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel), even where the ordinary participial rendering would have been easier and more natural in English.

In reference to the perfect and the imperfect tenses but little needs to be said. The correct translation of the former has been for the most part, though with some striking exceptions, maintained in the Authorised Version: while with regard to the imperfect, clear as its meaning may be in the Greek, the power of expressing it is so limited in English, that we have been frequently compelled to leave the force of the tense to be inferred from the context. In a few instances, where faithfulness imperatively required it, and especially where, in the Greek, the significance of the imperfect tense seemed to be additionally marked by the use of the participle with the auxiliary verb, we have introduced the corresponding form in English. Still, in the great majority of cases we have been obliged to retain the English preterite, and to rely either on slight changes in the order of the words, or on prominence given to the accompanying temporal particles, for the indication of the meaning which, in the Greek, the imperfect tense was designed to convey.

On other points of grammar it may be sufficient to speak more briefly.

Many changes, as might be anticipated, have been made in the case of the definite article. Here again it was necessary to consider the peculiarities of English idiom, as well as the general tenor of each passage. Sometimes we have felt it enough to prefix the article to the first of a series of words to all of which it is prefixed in the Greek, and thus, as it were, to impart the idea of definiteness to the whole series, without running the risk of overloading the sentence. Sometimes, conversely, we have had to tolerate the presence of the definite article in our Version, when it is absent from the Greek, and perhaps not even grammatically latent; simply because English idiom would not allow the noun to stand alone, and because the introduction of the indefinite article might have introduced an idea of oneness or individuality, which was not in any degree traceable in the original. In a word, we have been careful to observe the use of the article wherever it seemed to be idiomatically possible: where it did not seem to be possible, we have yielded to necessity.

As to the pronouns and the place they occupy in the sentence, a subject often overlooked by our predecessors, we have been particularly careful; but here again we have frequently been baffled by structural or idiomatical peculiarities of the English language which precluded changes otherwise desirable.

In the case of the particles we have met with less difficulty, and have been able to maintain a reasonable amount of consistency. The particles in the Greek Testament are, as is well known, comparatively few, and they are commonly used with precision. It has therefore been the more necessary here to preserve a general uniformity of rendering, especially in the case of the particles of causality and inference, so far as English idiom would allow.

Lastly, many changes have been introduced in the rendering of the prepositions, especially where ideas of instrumentality or of mediate agency, distinctly marked in the original, had been confused or obscured in the translation. We have however borne in mind the comprehensive character of such prepositions as 'of' and 'by,' the one in reference to agency and the other in reference to means, especially in the English of the seventeenth century; and have rarely made any change where the true meaning of the original as expressed in the Authorised Version would be apparent to a reader of ordinary intelligence.

3. We now come to the subject of Language.

The second of the rules, by which the work has been governed, prescribed that the alterations to be introduced should be expressed, as far as possible, in the language of the Authorised Version or of the Versions that preceded it.

To this rule we have faithfully adhered. We have habitually consulted the earlier Versions; and in our sparing introduction of words not found in them or in the Authorised Version we have usually satisfied ourselves that such words were employed by standard writers of nearly the same date, and had also that general hue which justified their introduction into a Version which has held the highest place in the classical literature of our language. We have never removed any archaisms, whether in structure or in words, except where we were persuaded either that the meaning of the words was not generally understood, or that the nature of the expression led to some misconception of the true sense of the passage. The frequent inversions of the strict order of the words, which add much to the strength and variety of the Authorised Version, and give an archaic colour to many felicities of diction, have been seldom modified. Indeed, we have often adopted the same arrangement in our own alterations; and in this, as in other particulars, we have sought to assimilate the new work to the old.

In a few exceptional cases we have failed to find any word in the older stratum of our language that appeared to convey the precise meaning of the original. There, and there only, we have used words of a later date; but not without having first assured ourselves that they are to be found in the writings of the best authors of the period to which they belong.

In regard of Proper Names no rule was prescribed to us. In the case of names of frequent occurrence we have deemed it best to follow generally the rule laid down for our predecessors. That rule, it may be remembered, was to this effect, 'The names of the prophets and the holy writers, with the other names of the text, to be retained, as nigh as may be, accordingly as they were vulgarly used.' Some difficulty has been felt in dealing with names less familiarly known. Here our general practice has been to follow the Greek form of names, except in the case of persons and places mentioned in the Old Testament: in this case we have followed the Hebrew.

4. The subject of the Marginal Notes deserves special attention. They represent the results of a large amount of careful and elaborate discussion, and will, perhaps, by their very presence, indicate to some extent the intricacy of many of the questions that have almost daily come before us for decision. These Notes fall into four main groups: first, notes specifying such differences of reading as were judged to be of sufficient importance to require a particular notice; secondly, notes indicating the exact rendering of words to which, for the sake of English idiom, we were obliged to give a less exact rendering in the text; thirdly, notes, very few in number, affording some explanation which the original appeared to require; fourthly, alternative renderings in difficult or debateable passages. The notes of this last group are numerous, and largely in excess of those which were admitted by our predecessors. In the 270 years that have passed away since their labours were concluded, the Sacred Text has been minutely examined, discussed in every detail, and analysed with a grammatical precision unknown in the days of the last Revision. There has thus been accumulated a large amount of materials that have prepared the way for different renderings, which necessarily came under discussion. We have therefore placed before the reader in the margin other renderings than those which were adopted in the text, wherever such renderings seemed to deserve consideration. The rendering in the text, where it agrees with the Authorised Version, was supported by at least one third, and, where it differs from the Authorised Version, by at least two thirds of those who were present at the second revision of the passage in question.

A few supplementary matters have yet to be mentioned. These may be thus enumerated,—the use of Italics, the arrangement in Paragraphs, the mode of printing Quotations from the Poetical Books of the Old Testament, the Punctuation, and, last of all, the Titles of the different Books that make up the New Testament,—all of them particulars on which it seems desirable to add a few explanatory remarks.

(a) The determination, in each place, of the words to be printed in italics has not been by any means easy; nor can we hope to be found in all cases perfectly consistent. In the earliest editions of the Authorised Version the use of a different type to indicate supplementary words not contained in the original was not very frequent, and cannot easily be reconciled with any settled principle. A review of the words so printed was made, after a lapse of some years, for the editions of the Authorised Version published at Cambridge in 1629 and 1638. Further, though slight, modifications were introduced at intervals between 1638 and the more systematic revisions undertaken respectively by Dr. Paris in the Cambridge Edition of 1762, and by Dr. Blayney in the Oxford Edition of 1769. None of them however rest on any higher authority than that of the persons who from time to time superintended the publication. The last attempt to bring the use of italics into uniformity and consistency was made by Dr. Scrivener in the Paragraph Bible published at Cambridge in 1870–73. In succeeding to these labours, we have acted on the general principle of printing in italics words which did not appear to be necessarily involved in the Greek. Our tendency has been to diminish rather than to increase the amount of italic printing; though, in the case of difference of readings, we have usually marked the absence of any words in the original which the sense might nevertheless require to be present in the Version; and again, in the case of inserted pronouns, where the reference did not appear to be perfectly certain, we have similarly had recourse to italics. Some of these cases, especially when there are slight differences of reading, are of singular intricacy, and make it impossible to maintain rigid uniformity.

(b) We have arranged the Sacred Text in paragraphs, after the precedent of the earliest English Versions, so as to assist the general reader in following the current of narrative or argument. The present arrangement will be found, we trust, to have preserved the due mean between a system of long portions which must often include several separate topics, and a system of frequent breaks which, though they may correctly indicate the separate movements of thought in the writer, often seriously impede a just perception of the true continuity of the passage. The traditional division into chapters, which the Authorised Version inherited from Latin Bibles of the later middle ages, is an illustration of the former method. These paragraphs, for such in fact they are, frequently include several distinct subjects. Moreover they sometimes, though rarely, end where there is no sufficient break in the sense. The division of chapters into verses, which was introduced into the New Testament for the first time in 1551, is an exaggeration of the latter method, with its accompanying inconveniences. The serious obstacles to the right understanding of Holy Scripture, which are interposed by minute subdivision, are often overlooked; but if any one will consider for a moment the injurious effect that would be produced by breaking up a portion of some great standard work into separate verses, he will at once perceive how necessary has been an alteration in this particular. The arrangement by chapters and verses undoubtedly affords facilities for reference: but this advantage we have been able to retain by placing the numerals on the inside margin of each page.

(c) A few words will suffice as to the mode of printing quotations from the Poetical Books of the Old Testament. Wherever the quotation extends to two or more lines, our practice has been to recognise the parallelism of their structure by arranging the lines in a manner that appears to agree with the metrical divisions of the Hebrew original. Such an arrangement will be found helpful to the reader; not only as directing his attention to the poetical character of the quotation, but as also tending to make its force and pertinence more fully felt. We have treated in the same way the hymns in the first two chapters of the Gospel according to St. Luke.

(d) Great care has been bestowed on the punctuation. Our practice has been to maintain what is sometimes called the heavier system of stopping, or, in other words, that system which, especially for convenience in reading aloud, suggests such pauses as will best ensure a clear and intelligent setting forth of the true meaning of the words. This course has rendered necessary, especially in the Epistles, a larger use of colons and semicolons than is customary in modern English printing.

(e) We may in the last place notice one particular to which we were not expressly directed to extend our revision, namely, the titles of the Books of the New Testament. These titles are no part of the original text; and the titles found in the most ancient manuscripts are of too short a form to be convenient for use. Under these circumstances, we have deemed it best to leave unchanged the titles which are given in the Authorised Version as printed in 1611.

We now conclude, humbly commending our labours to Almighty God, and praying that his favour and blessing may be vouchsafed to that which has been done in his name. We recognised from the first the responsibility of the undertaking; and through our manifold experience of its abounding difficulties we have felt more and more, as we went onward, that such a work can never be accomplished by organised efforts of scholarship and criticism, unless assisted by Divine help.

We know full well that defects must have their place in a work so long and so arduous as this which has now come to an end. Blemishes and imperfections there are in the noble Translation which we have been called upon to revise; blemishes and imperfections will assuredly be found in our own Revision. All endeavours to translate the Holy Scriptures into another tongue must fall short of their aim, when the obligation is imposed of producing a Version that shall be alike literal and idiomatic, faithful to each thought of the original, and yet, in the expression of it, harmonious and free. While we dare to hope that in places not a few of the New Testament the introduction of slight changes has cast a new light upon much that was difficult and obscure, we cannot forget how often we have failed in expressing some finer shade of meaning which we recognised in the original, how often idiom has stood in the way of a perfect rendering, and how often the attempt to preserve a familiar form of words, or even a familiar cadence, has only added another perplexity to those which already beset us.

Thus, in the review of the work which we have been permitted to complete, our closing words must be words of mingled thanksgiving, humility, and prayer. Of thanksgiving, for the many blessings vouchsafed to us throughout the unbroken progress of our corporate labours; of humility, for our failings and imperfections in the fulfilment of our task; and of prayer to Almighty God, that the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ may be more clearly and more freshly shewn forth to all who shall be readers of this Book.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

S. MATTHEW.

1 [1][a]THE book of the [2]generation of Jesus Christ, [b]the son of David, [c]the son of Abraham.

2 [d]Abraham begat Isaac; and [e]Isaac begat Jacob; and [f]Jacob begat Judah (Judas) and his brethren; 3 and [g]Judah (Judas) begat Perez (Phares) and Zerah (Zara) of Tamar; and Perez (Phares) begat Hezron (Esrom); and Hezron (Esrom) begat [3]Ram (Aram); 4 and [3]Ram (Aram) begat Amminadab (Aminadab); and Amminadab (Aminadab) begat Nahshon (Naasson); and Nahshon (Naasson) begat Salmon; 5 and Salmon begat Boaz of [i]Rahab (Rachab); and Boaz (Booz) begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse; 6 and [j]Jesse begat David the king (king); and [l]David (the king) begat Solomon of [m]her that had been the wife of Uriah (Urias); 7 and [o]Solomon begat Rehoboam (Roboam); and Rehoboam (Roboam) begat Abijah (Abia); and Abijah (Abia) begat [4]Asa; 8 and [4]Asa begat Jehoshaphat (Josaphat); and Jehoshaphat (Josaphat) begat Joram; [q]and Joram begat Uzziah (Ozias); 9 and Uzziah (Ozias) begat Jotham (Joatham); and Jotham (Joatham) begat Ahaz (Achaz); and Ahaz (Achaz) begat Hezekiah (Ezekias); 10 and Hezekiah (Ezekias) begat Manasseh (Manasses); and Manasseh (Manasses) begat [5]Amon; and [5]Amon begat Josiah (Josias); 11 and [t]Josiah (*Josias) begat [v]Jechoniah (Jechonias) and his brethren, at about the time of the [6]carrying they were carried away to Babylon.

12 And after the [6]carrying away they were brought to Babylon, [w]Jechoniah (Jechonias) begat [7x]Shealtiel (Salathiel); and [7y]Shealtiel (Salathiel) begat Zerubbabel (Zorobabel); 13 and [z]Zerubbabel (Zorobabel) begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor; 14 and Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud; 15 and Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob; 16 and Jacob begat [h]Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham unto (to) David are fourteen generations; and from David unto (until) the [6]carrying away (to into) Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the [6]carrying away (to into) Babylon unto [k]the Christ are fourteen generations.

18 Now the [8]birth [9]of [n]Jesus Christ was on this wise: [p]When as his mother Mary had been betrothed (was espoused) to Joseph, before they came together (together), she was found with child [r]of the [10]Holy Ghost. 19 And (Then) Joseph her husband, being a righteous (just) man, and not willing [s]to make her a public (publick) example, was minded to put her away privily. 20 But when (while) he thought on these things, behold, [u]an (the) angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is [11]†conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. 21 And she shall bring forth a son (son); and [z]thou

1 Now [i]when Jesus was 2 born in [k]Bethlehem of Judæa [n]in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came [2q]wise men from [r]the east came to Jerusalem, 2 saying, 3 Where is he that is born [s]King of the Jews? for we saw have seen [t]his star in the east, and are come to [v]worship him. 3 And when When Herod the king heard it, had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. 4 And gathering together when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people, people together, he inquired demanded of them where [w]the Christ should be born. 5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa: for thus it is written [4]by the prophet,

7 Then Herod Herod, when he had privily called the [2]wise men, and learned inquired of them carefully diligently [5]what time the star appeared. 8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search out carefully concerning diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word, word again, that I also may come and worship him. him also.

9 And they, having When they had went their way; and they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. 10 And when When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. 11 And they came when they were come into the house and house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother; mother, and they fell down down, and worshipped him; him: and opening when they had opened their treasures, treasures, [h]they offered presented unto him gifts, [j]gold, and §[i]frankincense frankincense, and [m]myrrh. 12 And [o]being warned of God [p]in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 Now And when they were departed, behold, [u]an the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I tell thee bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him. 14 And When he arose and arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt; Egypt: 15 and was there until the death of Herod: [x]that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by of the Lord through by the prophet, saying, [z]Out of Egypt did I call have I called my son. 16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the [2]wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had carefully learned diligently inquired of the [1]wise men. 17 [c]Then was fulfilled that which was spoken [2]by Jeremiah Jeremy the prophet, saying,

18 [d]A voice was heard in Ramah,
In Rama was there a voice heard,
Weeping lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning,
Rachel weeping for her children; children,
And she would not be comforted,

[k]The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
[i]Make ye ready Prepare ye the way of the Lord,
Make his paths straight.

4 Now John himself And the same John had [n]his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his food meat was [a]locusts and [b]wild honey. 5 Then went out unto to him Jerusalem, and all Judæa, and all the region round about Jordan; Jordan, 6 and they were baptized of him in the river Jordan, [c]confessing their sins. 7 But when he saw many of [f]the Pharisees and [g]Sadducees coming come to his baptism, he said unto them, [i]Ye offspring O generation of [j]vipers, who hath warned you to flee from [k]the wrath to come? 8 Bring forth therefore fruit [i]worthy of [3]fruits *meet for [3]repentance: 9 and think not to say within yourselves, [m]We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of [o]these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. 10 And even now is the axe now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: [p]every tree therefore that therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. 11 [q]I indeed baptize you [4]with water [r]unto repentance: but [s]he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not [5]worthy to bear: he shall baptize you [4][w]with the Holy Ghost Ghost, and with [x]fire: 12 whose [y]fan is in his hand, and he will throughly cleanse purge his threshing-floor; floor, and he will [a]gather his wheat into the garner, garner; [c]but the chaff he will burn up he will burn up the chaff with [d]unquenchable fire.

13 [h]Then cometh Jesus [i]from Galilee to [6]the Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. 14 But [j]John would have hindered forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? 15 But And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer [6]it to be so now: for thus it becometh [m]us to fulfil all righteousness. from out of the water: and, lo, [a]the heavens were opened [1]unto him, and he [c]saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming lighting upon him; him: 17 and, lo, [e]a voice out of the heavens, from heaven, saying, [2f]This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

4 [1j]Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness [m]to be tempted of the devil. 2 And when he had fasted [p]forty days and forty nights, he was afterward [q]hungered. an hungred. 3 And when [r]the tempter came and said unto him, to him, he said, If thou art [t]the Son be of God, command that [u]these stones become be made [3]bread. 4 But he answered and said, [v]It is written, [x]Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. 5 [z]Then the devil taketh him up into [a]the holy city; city, and he set setteth him on the [4]pinnacle of the temple, 6 and saith unto him, If thou art be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written,

[f]He shall give his angels charge concerning thee:
And on in their hands they shall bear thee up,
Lest haply at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, Again [i]it is It is written written, again, [j]Thou shalt not [k]tempt the Lord thy God. 8 [l]Again, the devil taketh him up unto into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; 9 and he said saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. 10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, [n]Satan: for [o]it is written, [p]Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and [b]him only shalt thou serve. 11 Then the devil leaveth him; him, and, behold, [d]angels came and ministered unto him.

12 Now when he Jesus had heard that [g]John was *delivered up, *cast into prison, [h]he withdrew departed into Galilee; 13 and leaving [i]Nazareth, he came and dwelt in [k]Capernaum, which is by [l]the sea, upon the sea coast, in the borders of [m]Zebulun Zabulon and Naphtali Nephthalim: 14 [o]that it might be fulfilled which was spoken [5]by Isaiah Esaias the prophet, saying,

15 [s]The land of Zebulun Zabulon, and the land of Naphtali, Nephthalim, [6]Toward by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan,
[w]Galilee of the [7]Gentiles, Gentiles;
16 [y]The people which sat in darkness
Saw a great light, great light;
And to them which sat in the region and [b]shadow of death, death
To them did light spring light is sprung up.

17 [c]From that time [d]began Jesus Jesus began to preach, and to say, [e]Repent ye; Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 [g]And Jesus, walking by [h]the sea of Galilee, he saw two brethren, Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; sea: for they were fishers. 19 And he saith unto them, Come ye after Follow me, and I will make you [m]fishers of men. 20 And they straightway left the their nets, and followed him. 21 And going on from thence thence, he saw other two brethren, [8]James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them. 22 And they straightway immediately left the boat ship and their father, and followed him.

do not [1]break through nor steal: [21] for where [thy your] treasure is, there will [thy your] heart be also. [22] [a]The [lamp light] of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. [23] [a]But if [f]thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is [the that] darkness! [24] [h]No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to [the] one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and [k]mammon. [25] [l]Therefore I say unto you, ["Be not anxious Take no thought] for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than [the food, meat,] and the body than [the] raiment? [26] [o]Behold the [birds fowls] of the [heaven, that air: for] they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; [and yet] your heavenly Father feedeth them. [p]Are [not ye of much more value ye not much better] than they? [27] [And which Which] of you by [being anxious taking thought] can add one cubit unto his [2][t]stature? [28] And why [are ye anxious concerning take ye thought for] raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: [29] [And] yet I say unto you, [that That] [x]even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. [30] [But Wherefore,] if God [doth] so clothe the grass of the field, which [to-day to day] is, and [to-morrow to morrow] is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, [a]O ye of little faith? [31] [Be not therefore anxious, Therefore take no thought,] saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? [32] [For (For] after all these things do [c]the Gentiles [seek seek:)] [d]for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. [33] But [b]seek ye first [c]his kingdom, the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; [d]and all these things shall be added unto you. [34] [c]Be not [Take] therefore [anxious no thought] for the morrow: for the morrow [will be anxious shall take thought] for [the things of] itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

[1] [g]Judge not, that ye be not judged. [2] [i]For with what [judgement judgment] ye judge, ye shall be judged: and [j]with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured [unto you, to you again.] [3] And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but [m]considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? [4] Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me [cast pull] out the mote out of thine eye; [and lo, the and, behold, a] beam is in thine own eye? [5] Thou hypocrite, [cast out first first cast out] the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

[6] [q]Give not that which is holy unto [r]the dogs, neither cast [ye] your [s]pearls before [the] swine, lest [haply] they trample them under their feet, and turn [again] and rend you.

[7] [u]Ask, [v]and it shall be given you; [w]seek, and ye shall find; [y]knock, and it shall be opened unto you: [8] for every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. [9] Or what man is there of you, [who, whom] if his son [shall ask him for shall ask bread, will he] [z]a [stone; stone?] give him [10] or if he [shall] ask [for] a fish, will [he] give him a serpent? [11] If ye then, [b]being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall [v]your Father

12 [a] All things therefore / Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do unto / to you, even so do ye also unto / do ye even so to them: for this is [b] the law and the prophets.

13 [c] Enter ye in by / at the narrow / strait gate: for wide [1] is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many be they that / there be which enter in thereby. 14 [2] For narrow / go in thereat: * Because strait is the gate, and straitened / narrow is [e] the way, that / which leadeth unto life, and [f] few be they / there be that find it.

15 [g] Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are [i] ravening wolves. 16 [j] By their fruits / Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? 17 Even so [l] every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but [m] the / a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. 19 [p] Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. 20 Therefore / Wherefore [j] by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 [q] Not every one that [r] saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall [t] enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that [v] doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.
22 [y] Many will say to me [z] in that day, Lord, Lord, did / have we not [b] prophesy by / prophesied in thy name, and [c] by / in thy name have cast out [3] devils / devils? and by / in thy name done many [4] mighty / wonderful works?
23 [y] And then will I profess unto them, I [d] never knew you: [e] depart from me, [f] ye that work iniquity.

24 [g] Every one therefore which / Therefore whosoever heareth these words / sayings of mine, and doeth them, shall be likened / I will liken him unto [h] a wise man, which built his house upon the [a] rock: 25 and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon the / a rock.
26 And every one that heareth these words / sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto [d] a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: 27 and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and smote / beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall thereof. / of it.

28 And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these words, / sayings, [h] the multitudes / people were astonished at his teaching / doctrine: 29 [k] for he taught them as one having authority, and not as their / the scribes.

8 1 And when / When he was come down from the mountain, [m] great multitudes followed him. 2 [n] And / And, behold, there came to him a leper and [o] worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. 3 And he stretched / Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway / immediately his leprosy was cleansed. 4 And Jesus saith unto him, [s] See thou tell no man; but go thy way, [u] shew thyself to the priest, and [w] offer the gift that Moses commanded, [x] for a testimony unto them.

5 And [a] when he / Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him, 6 and saying, Lord, my [5] servant lieth in the house / at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.
7 And he / Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him. 8 And the / The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not [6] worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but [a]only say [1]the word, speak the word only, and my [2]servant shall be healed. 9 For I [also] am a man [3]under authority, having under myself soldiers : soldiers under me : and I say to this one, man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my [4]servant, Do this, and he doeth it. 10 And when When Jesus heard it, [c]he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, [5]I have not found so great [e]faith, no, not in Israel. 11 And I say unto you, that That [g]many shall come from the east and [the] west, and shall [6]sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven: heaven. 12 [i]but But the sons children of the kingdom [j]shall be cast forth out into [the] outer darkness: [k]there shall be [the] weeping and gnashing of teeth. 13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and [p]as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. [r]And the his [2]servant was healed in that the selfsame hour.

14 [t]And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw [u]his wife's mother lying laid, and sick of a fever. 15 And he [x]touched her hand, and the fever left her: her: and she arose, and ministered unto him. them. 16 And when When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were [7z]possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits [a]with a his word, and healed all that were sick: 17 [e]that it might be fulfilled which was spoken [8]by Isaiah Esaias the prophet, saying, [g]Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases. sicknesses.

18 Now [h]when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, [i]he gave commandment to depart unto the other side. 19 [j]And there came [9]a scribe, a certain scribe came, and said unto him, [10]Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. 20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven air have [11b]nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. 21 And another of the his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. 22 But Jesus saith said unto him, Follow me; and leave let [d]the dead to bury their own dead.

23 [f]And when he was entered into a boat, ship, his disciples followed him. 24 And And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the boat ship was covered with the waves: but [h]he was asleep. 25 And his they disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, [i]Save, Lord; Lord, save us: we perish. 26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye [m]fearful, [n]O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and [o]rebuked the winds and the sea; and [q]there was a great calm. 27 And But the men [s]marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even [v]the winds and the sea obey him? him!

28 [w]And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gadarenes, Gergesenes, there met him two [7y]possessed with devils, coming forth out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man could might pass by that way. 29 And And, behold, they [b]cried out, saying, [c]What have we to do with thee, Jesus, [d]thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us [f]before the time? 30 Now And there was a afar a good way off from them a an herd of many swine feeding. 31 And So the [12]devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, send us suffer us to go away into the herd of swine. 32 And he said unto them, Go. whole herd (rushed of swine ran violently) down (the steep / a steep place) into the sea, and perished in the waters. 33 And they that (fed / kept) them fled, and went (away / their ways) into the city, and told (everything, / every thing,) and what was befallen to (them that were the / [1]c possessed with of the) devils. 34 And (And, / behold,) all the city (the whole) came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, [d]they besought him that he would depart (from / out of) their (borders. / coasts.)

9 1 And he entered into a (boat, / ship,) and (crossed / passed) over, and came into [i]his own city. 2 [j]And (And, / behold,) they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus [n]seeing their faith said unto the sick of the (palsy, / palsy;) [2]Son, [o]be of good cheer; [p]thy sins (are forgiven. / be forgiven) thee. 3 And (And, / behold,) certain of the scribes said within themselves, [s]This man blasphemeth. 4 And Jesus [3t]knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? 5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins (are / be) forgiven (thee;) or to say, Arise, and walk? 6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath [4]power on earth to forgive sins (then saith he to the sick of the palsy), Arise, (and) take up thy bed, and go unto (thy / thine) house. 7 And he arose, and departed to his house. 8 But when the multitudes saw it, [w]they (were afraid, / marvelled,) and [w]glorified God, which had [y]given such [4]power unto men.

9 [a]And as Jesus passed (by / forth) from thence, he saw a man, (called / named) [b]Matthew, sitting at the (place of receipt of / toll custom): and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 And it came to pass, as (he / Jesus) [5]sat at meat in the house, behold, many [a]publicans and sinners came and sat down with (Jesus / him) and his disciples. 11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, [b]Why eateth your [6]Master with [a]the publicans and sinners? 12 But when (he / Jesus) heard (it, / that,) he (said, / said unto them,) They that (are / be) [7]whole have (no need of / need not) a physician, but they that are sick. 13 But go ye and learn [e]what (this / that) meaneth, [f]I (desire / will have) mercy, and not sacrifice: for [g]I (came not / am not come) to call the righteous, [h]but (sinners. / sinners to repentance.)

14 Then (come / came) to him [k]the disciples of John, saying, [l]Why do we and [m]the Pharisees fast [8]oft, but thy disciples fast not? 15 And Jesus said unto them, [q]Can the (sons / children) of the (bride-chamber / bridechamber) mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but [r]the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and [u]then (will / shall) they fast. 16 (And / No) man putteth a piece of (undressed / *new) cloth (upon / unto) an old (garment; / garment,) for that which (should / is put in to) fill it up taketh from the garment, and (a worse rent / the rent is) made. / made worse.) 17 Neither do men put new wine into old [9v](wine-skins / bottles): else the (skins / bottles) burst, (and / the) wine (is spilled, / runneth out,) and the (skins / bottles) perish: but they put new wine into (fresh wine-skins, / new bottles,) and both are preserved.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not (arisen / risen) a greater than John the Baptist: (yet / notwithstanding) he that is (6but little / least) in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. 12 And [u]from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven *suffereth violence, and (men of violence / the violent) take it by force. 13 [u]For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. 14 And if ye (are willing to / will) receive [7]it, this is [v](Elijah, / Elias,) which (is / was for) to come. 15 [x]He that hath ears [8]to hear, let him hear. 16 But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the (marketplaces, which call / markets, and calling) unto their fellows, 17 and (say, / saying,) We (have /) piped unto you, and ye (did / have) not (dance / danced); we (wailed, / have mourned) unto you, and ye (did / have) not (9mourn. / lamented.) 18 For John came 38 Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered him, saying, [1]Master, [i]we would see a sign from thee. 39 But he answered and said unto them, [j]An evil and [k]adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of Jonah the prophet. the prophet Jonas: 40 for [n]as Jonah Jonas was three days and three nights in the belly of the [2]whale. whale's belly; [o]so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41 [q]The men of Nineveh shall stand up rise in the judgement judgment with this generation, and [s]shall condemn it: for because [t]they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and Jonas; and, behold, [3][u]a greater than Jonah Jonas is here. 42 [w]The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgement judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the ends uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and and, behold, [3][u]a greater than Solomon is here. 43 But When [y]the unclean spirit, when [4]he spirit is gone out of the a man, passeth he walketh through [z]waterless dry places, seeking rest, and findeth it not. none. 44 Then [4]he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when [4]he is come, [4]he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. 45 Then goeth [4]he, and taketh with [5]himself seven other spirits more evil wicked than [5]himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and [a]the last state of that man becometh is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this [b]evil wicked generation.

46 While he was yet speaking yet talked to the multitudes, people, behold, [e]his mother and his [g]brethren stood without, seeking desiring to speak to with him. 47 [6]And Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, seeking desiring to speak to with thee. 48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? 49 And he stretched forth his hand towards toward his disciples, and said, Behold, Behold, my mother and my brethren! 50 For [l]whosoever shall [m]do the will of my Father which is in heaven, he the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

13 1 On that The same day went Jesus out of the house, [p]and sat by the sea side. 2 And there were gathered unto him great great multitudes were gathered together unto multitudes, him, [r]so that he entered went into a boat, ship, and sat; and all the the whole multitude stood on the beach. shore. 3 And [v]he spake to them many things many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, [x]the a sower went forth to sow; 4 and as when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the birds fowls came and devoured them up: 5 and others Some fell upon the rocky stony places, where they had not much earth: and straightway forthwith they sprang sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth: 6 and [a]when the sun was risen, up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, [b]they withered away. 7 And others some fell upon [c]the among thorns; and the thorns grew sprung up, and choked them: 8 and others But other fell upon the into good ground, and yielded brought forth fruit, some [d]a an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. 9 [e]He that Who hath ears ears[7], to hear, let him hear.

R.V. [1] Or, Teacher [2] Gr. sea-monster. [3] Gr. more than. [4] Or, it [5] Or, itself [6] Some ancient authorities omit ver. 47. [7] Some ancient authorities add here, and in ver. 43, to hear: as in Mark 4. 9; Luke 8. 8.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?
11 And He answered and said unto them, [a]Unto you it is given [b]to know [c]the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. 12 [e]For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, [g]from him shall be taken away even that which he hath. 13 Therefore speak I to them in parables; because [i]seeing they see not, and hearing they hear not, [m]neither do they understand. 14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith,

[n]By hearing ye shall hear, and shall in no wise understand;
And seeing ye shall see, and shall in no wise perceive:
15 For this people's heart is waxed gross,
And their ears are [r]dull of hearing,
And [s]their eyes they have closed;
Lest haply at any time they should perceive with their eyes,
And hear with their ears,
And [t]understand with their heart,
And [u]should turn again,
And I should heal them.

16 But [v]blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear. 17 [v]For verily I say unto you, [w]That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. 18 [y]Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower. 19 When any one heareth the word of [z]the kingdom, and [m]understandeth it not, then cometh [a]the evil one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side. 20 But he that was sown upon the rocky places, this is he that heareth the word, and straightway anon [d]with joy receiveth it; 21 yet hath he not root in himself, but [f]endureth for a while: and when tribulation or persecution ariseth for the word, straightway by and by [h]he is offended. 22 And he that was sown among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and [i]the care of [k]the [1]world, and [l]the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. 23 But he that was sown upon good ground is he that heareth the word, and [m]understandeth it; which also [o]beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some [p]a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 Another parable put he forth before them, saying, [q]The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: 25 but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed [2]tares also among the wheat, and went away. 26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. 27 And the [3]servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? 28 And he said unto them, [4]An enemy hath done this. The [3]servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? 29 But he said, [x]Nay; lest haply while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather

33 Another parable spake he unto them; [n]The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in [p]three [1*]measures of meal, till it was [r]all the whole was leavened.

34 [t]All these things spake Jesus in parables unto the multitudes:
unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he nothing not unto them: 35 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken [2]by the prophet, saying,

> [v]I will open my mouth in parables;
> [x]I will utter things which have been were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

22 [b] And straightway [he Jesus] [c] constrained [the his] disciples to [enter get] into [the boat, a ship,] and to go before him unto the other side, [till while] he [should send sent] the multitudes away. 23 And [after when] he had sent the multitudes away, [g] he went up into [the a] mountain apart to pray: and when [the evening] [f] even was come, he was there alone. 24 But the [boat ship] [1] was now in the midst of the sea, [distressed by the waves; tossed with waves:] for the wind was contrary. 25 And [j] in the fourth watch of the night [he came Jesus went] unto them, walking [upon on] the sea. 26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, [o] they were troubled, saying, It is [p] [an apparition a spirit]; and they cried out for fear. 27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, [r] Be of good cheer; it is I; [r] be not afraid. 28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee [upon on] the [waters. water.] 29 And he said, Come. And [Peter went when Peter was come] down from the boat, and [t] walked [upon on the waters, out of the ship, he] [2] to [come go] to Jesus. 30 But when he saw the [wind *boisterous,] wind [3], he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried [out], saying, [w] Lord, save me. 31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and [took hold of caught] him, and [saith said] unto him, [x] O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou [y] doubt? 32 And when they were [gone up come] into the [boat, ship,] [w] the wind ceased. 33 [And Then] [a] they that were in the [boat ship] came and [c] worshipped him, saying, [d] Of a truth thou art [f] the Son of God.

34 [g] And when they [had crossed were gone] over, they came [to the land, unto into the land of] [h] Gennesaret. 35 And when the men of that place [knew had knowledge of] him, they sent [out] into all that [region country] round about, and [a] brought unto him all that were [sick diseased]; 36 and [they] besought him that they might only touch [d] the [border hem] of his garment: and [e] as many as touched were made [perfectly] whole.

15 1 [f] Then [there come came] to Jesus [h] from Jerusalem Pharisees and scribes, which were of [h] scribes, Jerusalem, saying, 2 [i] Why do thy disciples transgress [k] the tradition of [l] the elders? [m] for they wash not their hands when they eat bread. 3 [And But] he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God [because of by] your tradition? 4 For God [said, commanded, saying,] [n] Honour thy father and [thy] mother: and, [q] He that [speaketh evil of curseth] father or mother, let him [4] die the death. 5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, [That wherewith It is a gift, by whatsoever] thou mightest [have been be] profited by me [is given to God]; 6 [he shall] not [honour his father [5]. And honour his father or his mother, he shall be free.] Thus have ye [s] made [void the [6] word] of God [because of of none effect by] your tradition. 7 [u] Ye hypocrites, well did [Isaiah Esaias] prophesy of you, saying, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were [1]*b*offended, when after they heard this saying? 13 But he answered and said, *c*Every [2]plant which my heavenly Father planted not, hath not planted, *f*shall be rooted up. 14 Let them alone: *g*they are be blind guides. leaders of the blind. And *h*if the blind guide lead the blind, both shall fall into a pit. the ditch. 15 And Peter answered Then answered Peter and said unto him, *l*Declare unto us the this parable. 16 And he Jesus said, *n*Are ye also even yet without understanding? 17 Perceive Do not ye yet ye not, understand, that *o*whatsoever goeth entereth into in at the mouth passeth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught? 18 But *q*the those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth out of from the heart; and they defile the man. 19 For out of the heart come forth proceed *t*evil thoughts, *u*murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, *z*railings blasphemies: 20 *y*these are the things which defile the a man: but *b*to eat with unwashen hands defileth not the a man.

21 *c*And Then Jesus went out thence, and withdrew departed into the parts coasts of Tyre and Sidon. 22 And And, behold, *d*a Canaanitish woman woman of Canaan came out from those of the same borders, coasts, and cried cried unto him, saying, *e*Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a [3]devil. 23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, *g*Send her away; for she crieth after us. 24 But he answered and said, *h*I was am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 25 But she came Then came she and *j*worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me. 26 And But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's [4]bread bread, and to *l*cast it to the dogs. 27 But And she said, Yea, Truth, Lord: for even yet the dogs eat of *a*the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. 28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, *d*great is thy faith: *e*be it done unto thee even as thou wilt. *h*And her daughter was *e*healed made whole from that very hour.

29 *j*And Jesus departed from thence, and came *k*nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and he *m*went up into the a mountain, and sat down there. 30 And there came unto down great multitudes him great multitudes, came unto him, having with them *p*the those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and they cast them down at his Jesus' feet; and he healed them: 31 *r*insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb speaking, to speak, *s*the maimed to be whole, and the lame walking, to walk, and the blind seeing to see: and *v*they glorified *w*the God of Israel.

did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children. 39 And he sent away the multitudes, multitude, and entered into the boat, took ship, and came into the borders of [c]Magadan. coasts of Magdala.

16 1 [d]And the The Pharisees also and with the Sadducees came, and [f]tempting him [g]asked desired him to that he would shew them [h]a sign from heaven. 2 But he He answered and said unto them, [1][i]When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the heaven sky is red. 3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day to day: for the heaven sky is red and lowring. [t]Ye know how to O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the heaven sky; but ye cannot can ye not discern [p]the signs of the times. times? 4 [r]An evil A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of Jonah. the prophet Jonas. And [w]he left them, and departed.

5 And the when his disciples came were come to the other side and forgot side, they had forgotten to take [2]bread. 6 And Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed and [b]beware of [c]the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees. 7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, [3]We took It is because we have taken no [2]bread. 8 And Which when [f]Jesus perceiving it said, perceived, he said unto them, [g]O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no [2]bread? 9 [i]Do ye not yet perceive, understand, neither remember [j]the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many [4]baskets ye took up? 10 Neither [m]the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many [4]baskets ye took up? 11 How is it that ye do not perceive understand that I spake it not to you concerning [2]bread? But bread, that ye should [q]beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees. Sadducees. 12 [a]Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of [2]bread, but of [b]the teaching doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

13 [c]Now when When Jesus came into the parts coasts of Cæsarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Who Whom do men say [5]that I the Son of man is am? 14 And they said, Some say that thou art [j]John the Baptist; Baptist: some, [k]Elijah: Elias; and others, Jeremiah, Jeremias, or one of the prophets. 15 He saith unto them, But who whom say ye that I am? 16 And Simon Peter answered and said, [m]Thou art [n]the Christ, [o]the Son of [q]the living God. 17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, [s]Blessed art thou, [t]Simon Bar-Jonah: Bar-jona: for [u]flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, [v]but my Father which is in heaven. 18 And I also say say also unto thee, That that [x]thou art [6]Peter, and [y]upon this [7]rock I will build my church; and [z]the gates of [8]Hades hell shall not prevail against it. 19 And I will give unto thee [d]the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and [e]whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. 20 [h]Then charged he the his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

21 [k]From that time forth began [8][l]Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that [n]he must go unto Jerusalem, and [o]suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and [p]the third day be raised up. be raised again the third day. 22 And Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, [9*][r]Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall never not be unto thee. 23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, [b]Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art [f]a stumblingblock an offence unto me: for thou [g]mindest savourest not the things that be of God, but the things those that be of men. 24 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man would will come after me, let him [j]deny himself, and [k]take up his cross, and follow me. 25 For [k]whosoever would will save his [1]life shall lose it: and whosoever shall will lose his [1]life for my sake shall find it. 26 For [n]what shall is a man be profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and forfeit lose his [1]life own soul? or [p]what shall a man give in exchange for his [1]life soul? 27 [q]For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with [s]his angels; and [t]then shall he render unto he shall reward every man according to his [2]deeds works. 28 Verily I say unto you, There be some of them that stand standing here, which shall in no wise not [x]taste of death, [y]till they see the Son of man [z]coming in his kingdom.

17 [1] [b]And after six days Jesus taketh with him [c]Peter, and James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a an high mountain apart: apart, 2 and he was [e]transfigured before them: and [f]his face did shine as the sun, and [g]his garments became raiment was white as the light. 3 And And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elijah Elias talking with him. 4 And Then Peter answered, answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, I will let us make here three [3k]tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. Elias. 5 While he was yet speaking, yet spake, behold, [n]a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold, behold [n]a voice out of the cloud, saying, which said, [a]This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; [c]hear ye him. 6 And when [d]the disciples heard it, [e]they fell on their face, and were sore afraid. 7 And Jesus came and [h]touched them them, and said, Arise, and [i]be not afraid. 8 And lifting when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no one, man, save Jesus only.

9 [l]And as they were coming came down from the mountain, Jesus commanded charged them, saying, [m]Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead. 10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes [o]that Elijah Elias must first come? 11 And he Jesus answered and said, Elijah said unto them, Elias indeed cometh, truly shall first come, and [r]shall restore all things: things. 12 but But I say unto you, that Elijah That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but [u]did have done unto him whatsoever they listed. [v]Even so Likewise shall also the Son of man also suffer of them. 13 [w]Then understood the disciples the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 [a]And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying, 15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is [d]epileptic, lunatick, and suffereth grievously: sore vexed for oft-times ofttimes he falleth into the fire, and oft-times oft into the water. 16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and [h]they could not cure him. 17 And Then Jesus answered and said, O [i]faithless and [i]perverse generation, [j]how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with suffer you? bring him hither to me. 18 And Jesus [l]rebuked him the devil; and the [4]devil went he departed out from of him: and [m]the boy child was cured from that very hour. 19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast it him

22 [j]And while they [2]abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be delivered up betrayed into the hands of men; men: 23 and they shall kill him, and [k]the third day he shall be raised up again. And they were exceeding sorry.

24 And [o]when they were come to Capernaum, they that received [q]the [3]half-shekel tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your [4]master pay the [3]half-shekel tribute? 25 He saith, Yea. Yes. And when he came was come into the house, Jesus spake first to prevented him, saying, [r]What thinkest thou, Simon? the of kings of the earth, from whom do they receive [t]toll whom do the kings of the earth take custom or [t]tribute? from of their sons, own children, or from of strangers? 26 And when he said, Peter saith unto him, From strangers, Jesus said saith unto him, Therefore the sons are free. 27 But, Notwithstanding, lest we [u]cause them to stumble, should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast a an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find [†]a [5]shekel piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

18 1 [z]In that hour At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who then is is the [6]greatest in the kingdom of heaven? 2 And he Jesus called to him a little child, a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them, 3 and said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be [b]turn, converted, and [c]become as little children, ye [d]shall in no not wise enter into the kingdom of heaven. 4 [a]Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is the [6]greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 5 And [g]whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me: me. 6 But [i]whoso shall cause offend one of these little ones which believe on me to stumble, in me, it is profitable were better for him that [7]a great millstone should be were hanged about his neck, and that he should be sunk were drowned in the depth of the sea. 7 Woe unto the world because of [l]occasions of stumbling offences! [m]for it must needs be that the occasions offences come; [n]but woe to that man through by whom the occasion offence cometh! 8 [p]And Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot causeth thee to stumble, offend thee, cut it them off, and cast it them from thee: it is good better for thee to enter into life maimed or halt, maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into [8]the eternal everlasting fire. 9 [p]And if thine eye causeth thee to stumble, offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is good better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the [8]hell of fire. 10 See Take heed that ye despise not [v]one of these little ones; for I say unto you, that That in heaven [w]their angels do always [x]behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.[9] 11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost. 12 [y]How think ye? [a]if any a man have a an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and go unto goeth into the mountains, and seek seeketh that which goeth is gone astray? 13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth over it more more of that sheep, than over of the ninety and nine which have not gone went not astray. 14 Even

3 And there came unto him [1]Pharisees, The Pharisees also came unto him, [c]tempting him, and saying, saying unto him, [d]Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? 4 And he answered and said, said unto them, [g]Have ye not read, that he which [2]made them from at the beginning made them male and female, 5 and said, [i]For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; wife: and [k]the they twain shall become be one flesh? 6 So that Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. [n]What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. 7 They say unto him, [o]Why then did did Moses Moses then command to give a bill writing of divorcement, and to put her away? 8 He saith unto them, Moses for your because of the [q]hardness of heart your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it hath not been was not so. 9 [s]And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, [3]except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: [4]and he that whoso marrieth her when she which is put away committeth doth commit adultery. 10 The His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man is be so with his wife, it is not expedient good to marry. 11 But he said unto them, [y]All men cannot receive this saying, but save [a]they to [b]whom it is given. 12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs by of men: and there are be eunuchs, [d]which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 [b]Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should lay put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples [e]rebuked them. 14 But Jesus said, [f]Suffer the little children, and [h]forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven. 15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 [f]And And, behold, one came to him and and said, [5 6]Master, what said unto him, Good good thing shall I do, that I may [l]have [m]eternal life? 17 And he said unto him, [7]Why askest thou callest me concerning that which is thou me good? One there is there is who is good none good but one, that is, God: but [p]if thou wouldest wilt enter into life, keep the commandments. 18 He saith unto him, Which? 20 For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard. 2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for [s]a [3*]penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. 3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing in the marketplace idle; 4 and idle in the marketplace, to them he said, said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. 5 Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. 6 And [x]about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing; standing idle, and he saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? 7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard. vineyard; and whatsoever is right, 8 And [d]when even that shall ye receive. So was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his [e]steward, Call the labourers, and pay give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. 9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a [3]penny. 10 And But when the first came, they supposed that they would receive should have received more; and they likewise received every man a [3]penny. 11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the good-man holder, of the house, 12 saying, These last [†]have spent wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden of the day and [k]the [4]scorching heat. and heat of the day. 13 But he answered and said to one of them, one of them, and said, [n]Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a [3]penny? 14 Take up [p]that which is thine, thine is, and go thy way; it is my way: will to I will give unto this last, even as unto thee. 15 [q]Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? or [r]Is thine eye evil, because I am good? 16 So [t]the last shall be first, and the first last. last: for many be called, but few chosen.

followed, cried, saying, [a]Hosanna to [b]the son of David: [c]Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna [e]in the highest. 10 And [g]when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, moved, saying, Who is this? 11 And the multitudes multitude said, This is [i]the prophet, Jesus, [k]from Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

12 [m]And Jesus entered went into the temple [1]of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of [o]the money-changers, moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold [p]the doves; doves, 13 and he saith said unto them, It is written, [r]My house shall be called a the house of prayer: prayer; but [t]ye make have made it a den of robbers. thieves. 14 [u]And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; temple; and he healed them. 15 [v]But And when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children that were crying in the temple temple, and saying, [x]Hosanna to the son of David; they were moved with indignation, sore displeased, 16 and said unto him, Hearest thou what these are saying say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea: Yea; [a]did have ye never read, [b]Out of the mouth of [c]babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise? 17 And [f]he left them, and [g]went forth out of the city to [h]Bethany, into Bethany; and he lodged there.

18 [i]Now in the morning as he returned to into the city, [j]he hungered. 19 [l]And seeing when he saw [2*]a fig tree by in the way side, way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only; only, and he saith said unto it, Let there be no fruit from no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And immediately presently the fig tree withered away. 20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How did the fig tree immediately wither away? soon is the fig tree withered away!

21 And Jesus answered and said unto them, [d]Verily I say unto you, [f]If ye have faith, and [h]doubt not, ye shall not only do what is done this which is done to the fig tree, but even also if ye shall say unto this mountain, [i]Be thou taken up removed, and be thou cast into the sea, sea; it shall be done. 22 And [l]all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, [f]believing, ye shall receive.

23 [n]And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him [q]as he was teaching, and said, [s]By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority? 24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one [3]question, thing, which if ye tell me, I likewise in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things. 25 The baptism of John, [w]whence was it? [y]from heaven, heaven, or from of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, [z]Why then did ye not did ye not then believe him? 26 But if we shall say, From Of men; [d]we fear the multitude people; for all hold John as [e]a prophet. 27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We know not. cannot tell. of the them twain did the will of his father? They say, say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that That [b]the publicans and [d]the harlots go into [e]the kingdom of God before you. 32 For John came unto you [f]in the way of righteousness, and [g]ye believed him not: but [h]the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye saw it, did not even [i]repent yourselves had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 [l]Hear another parable: There was a man that was a certain householder, which planted [n]a vineyard, [p]and set a hedge about it, hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and [r]let it out to husbandmen, and [s]went into another country. a far country: 34 And when the season time of the fruits fruit drew near, he sent his [1]servants to the husbandmen, that they might [r]to receive [2]his fruits. the fruits of it. 35 [v]And the husbandmen took his [1]servants, and beat one, and killed another, and [y]stoned another. 36 [z]Again, he sent other [1]servants more than the first: and they did unto them in like manner. likewise. 37 But afterward last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son. 38 But the husbandmen, when when the husbandmen they saw the son, saw the son, they said among themselves, [c]This is the heir; come, [f]let us kill him, and take let us seize on his inheritance. 39 And they took caught him, and [i]cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed slew him. 40 [j]When therefore the lord of the lord therefore the vineyard shall come. cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen? 41 They say unto him, [l]He will miserably destroy those miserable wicked men, and [m]will let out the his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons. 42 Jesus saith unto them, [a]Did ye never read in the scriptures,

> [c]The stone which the builders rejected,
> The same was made is become the head of the corner:
> This was from the Lord, is the Lord's doing,
> And it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God [j]shall be taken away from you, and shall be given to a nation [k]bringing forth the fruits thereof. 44 [3]And [m]he that falleth whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken to pieces: but [o]on whomsoever it shall fall, [q]it will scatter grind him as dust. to powder. 45 And when the chief priests and the Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them. 46 And But [t]when they sought to lay hold hands on him, [u]they feared the multitudes, multitude, because they took him for [w]a prophet.

22 [1]And Jesus answered and [x]spake again in parables unto them again unto them, saying, by parables, and said, 2 [a]The kingdom of heaven is likened like unto a certain king, which made [b]a marriage feast for his son, 3 and [c]sent forth his [1]servants to call them that were bidden to the marriage feast wedding: and they would not come. 4 [d]Again Again, he sent forth other [1]servants, saying, Tell them that which are bidden, Behold, I have made ready prepared my [g]dinner: [h]my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come to unto the marriage feast. 5 But [k]they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise: 6 and the rest laid hold on remnant took his [1]servants, and [n]entreated them shamefully, spitefully, and [o]killed slew them. 7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth; and he sent forth his armies, and [a]destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. 8 Then saith he to his [1]servants, The wedding is ready, but they that were bidden were not [c]worthy. 9 Go ye therefore unto [d]the partings of the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage feast. 10 And those [1]servants went out into the highways, and [f]gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was filled with guests. 11 But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there [j]a man which had not on a wedding garment: 12 and he saith unto him, [k]Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless. 13 Then the king said to the [2]servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and [l]cast him out into the outer darkness; [l]there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. 14 For many are [m]called, but few are [m]chosen.

15 [o]Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how [q]they might entangle him in his talk. 16 And they sent out unto him [s]their disciples with [t]the Herodians, saying, [3]Master, [u]we know that thou art true, and teachest [v]the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for [x]thou regardest not the person of men. 17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give [z]tribute unto [a]Cæsar, or not? 18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why [c]tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? 19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a [4]penny.* 20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and [†]superscription? 21 They say unto him, Cæsar's. Then saith he unto them, [b]Render therefore unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's; and unto God the things that are God's. 22 And when they heard it, they marvelled, and [e]left him, and went their way.

23 On that day there came to him the [g]Sadducees, [5][h]which say that there is no resurrection: and they asked him, 24 saying, [3]Master, Moses said, [i]If a man die, having no children, his brother [6]shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. 25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and having no seed left his wife unto his brother; 26 in like manner the second also, and the third, unto the [7][‡]seventh. 27 And after them all the woman died. 28 In the resurrection therefore whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her. 29 But Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, [n]not knowing the scriptures, nor [p]the power of God. 30 For in the resurrection they neither [r]marry, nor [r]are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven. 31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, [w]have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32 [y]I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. 33 And when the multitudes heard it, [b]they were astonished at his teaching.

34 [d]But the Pharisees, when they heard that he had put [e]the Sadducees to silence, gathered themselves together.

35 [a]And (Then) one of them, which was [b]a lawyer, asked him a question, [c]tempting him, (and saying,) 36 [1]Master, which is the great commandment in the law? 37 (And he) Jesus said unto him, [g]Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. 38 This is the (great first) and (first great) commandment. 39 [2]And [k]a (the) second (like unto it is this, is like unto it,) [l]Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. 40 [o]On these two commandments (hangeth [q]the whole law, hang all the law) and the prophets.

41 [t]Now (While) the Pharisees [u]were gathered together, Jesus asked them [a](a question), 42 saying, What think ye of [w]the Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, [w]The son of David. 43 He saith unto them, How then doth David [a]in (the Spirit, spirit) call him Lord, saying, 44 [b]The (Lord, LORD) said unto my Lord, 24 1 [a]And Jesus went (out from out,) out of the temple, and was going on his way; and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him (for) to shew him the buildings of the temple. 2 But he answered and (And Jesus) said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, [h]There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat (on upon) [k]the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him [l]privately, saying, Tell us, [m]when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy [1o]coming, and of [2p]the end of the world? 4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, [q]Take heed that no man (lead you astray. deceive you.) 5 For [r]many shall come in my name, saying, I am t Christ; and shall (lead many astray. deceive many.) 6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye [v]be not troubled: for (all) these things [w]must (needs) come to (pass; pass,) but the end is not yet. 7 For [y]nation shall rise against nation, and [a]kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be [b](famines famines, and pestilences,) and (earthquakes earthquakes,) in divers places. 8 But (all these things All these) are the beginning of [c](travail. sorrows.) 9 Then [g]shall they deliver you up [h](unto to be) tribulation, (afflicted,) and [i]shall kill you: and [j]ye shall be hated of all (the) nations for my name's sake. 10 And then shall many (stumble, be offended,) and shall [l](deliver up betray) one another, and shall hate one another. 11 And many [n]false prophets shall (arise, rise,) [p]and shall (lead many astray. deceive many.) 12 And because iniquity shall (be multiplied, abound,) [q]the love of (the) many shall wax cold. 13 [r]But he that (endureth to shall endure unto) the end, the same shall be saved. 14 And [3]this gospel of the kingdom [u]shall be preached in (the whole all the) [4]world [b](for a testimony witness) [c]unto all (the) nations; and [d]then shall the end come.

15 When (therefore ye ye therefore shall) see the abomination of desolation, [e]which was spoken of [5]by Daniel the prophet, (standing stand) in [6][f]the holy (place (let him place, (whoso) that readeth understand), readeth, let him understand:) 16 then let them (that are which be) in Judæa flee (unto into) the mountains: 17 [i]let him (that which) is on [j]the housetop not (go come) down to take (out the things that are in any thing out of) his house: 18 (and Neither) let him (that which) is in the field (not) return back to take his (cloke. clothes.) 19 But (And) [n]woe unto them that are with (child child,) and to them that give suck in those days! 20 (And But) pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on (a the) sabbath (day): 21 for then shall be [s]great tribulation, [u]such as (hath was not been from since) the beginning of the world (until now, to this time,) no, nor ever shall be. 22 And except those days (had been should be) shortened, (no flesh would have been there should no flesh be) saved: but for [x]the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. 23 [z]Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is (the) Christ, (or, Here or there;) believe [7]it not. 24 For there shall arise [c]false Christs, and [d]false prophets, and [f]shall shew great signs and wonders; (so as to insomuch that,) (lead astray, if possible, even the) if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. 25 Behold, [k]I have told you (beforehand. before.) 26 If therefore (Wherefore if) they shall say unto you, Behold, [m]he is in the (wilderness desert;) go not forth: (Behold, behold,) he is in the (inner secret) chambers; believe [8]it not. 27 [o]For as the lightning cometh (forth from out of) the east, and (is seen shineth) even unto the west; so shall (be also) the [1s]coming of the Son of (man. man be.) 28 [t](Wheresoever For wheresoever) the carcase is, there will the [9]eagles be gathered together.

their [1]lamps. 5 Now while While the bridegroom [a]tarried, they all slumbered and slept. 6 But And [b]at midnight there is a cry, was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom! Come ye forth bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. 7 Then all those virgins arose, and [f]trimmed their [1]lamps. 8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our [1]lamps are going* out. 9 But the wise answered, saying, Peradventure Not so; lest there will not be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. 10 And while they went away to buy, the bridegroom came; and [h]they that were ready went in with him to [i]the marriage feast: and [j]the door was shut. 11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, [k]Lord, Lord, open to us. 12 [k]But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, [n]I know you not. 13 [o]Watch therefore, for ye [p]know not neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh. 14 [q]For [r]it is as when a man, the kingdom of heaven is as a man going* travelling into another a far country, who called his own [2]servants, and delivered unto them his goods. 15 And unto one he gave five †[v]talents, to another two, and to another one; [w]to each every man according to his several ability; and he [t]went straightway on took his journey. 16 Straightway Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with them, the same, and made them other five talents. 17 In like manner And likewise he also that that had received the two two, he also gained other two. 18 But he that received the had received one went away and [y]digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money. 19 Now [z]after After a long time the lord of those [2]servants cometh, and [a]maketh a reckoning reckoneth with them. 20 And so he that received the had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: lo, behold, I have gained other beside them five talents talents more. 21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and [c]faithful [3]servant: [d]thou hast been faithful over a few things, [e]I will set thee make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into [g]the joy of thy lord. 22 And he He also that received the had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: lo, behold, I have gained other two two other talents talents. beside them. 23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful [3]servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set make thee thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. 24 And Then he also that which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art [l]a an hard man, reaping [m]where thou didst hast not sow, sown, and gathering where thou didst hast not scatter strawed: 25 and I was afraid, and went away and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there [s]thou hast thine own. that is thine. 26 But his His lord answered and said unto him, Thou [u]wicked and [u]slothful [3]servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I did have not scatter; strawed: 27 thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the bankers, exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received back mine own with interest. usury. 28 Take ye away therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him that which hath the ten talents. 29 [x]For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken not shall be taken away even that which he away. hath. 30 And [b]cast ye out [c]the unprofitable [3]servant into the outer darkness: [b]there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth.

26 1 And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these (words, sayings,) he said unto his disciples, 2 [t]Ye know that after two days (is "the passover the feast of) cometh, and [v]the Son of man [w]is (delivered up, betrayed) to be crucified. 3 [z]Then were (gathered, assembled) together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto [b]the (court, palace) of the high priest, who was called [c](Caiaphas; Caiaphas,) 4 [d]and (they took counsel, consulted together) that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him. 5 But they said, Not (during the feast, on the feast day,) [e]lest (a tumult arise) there be an uproar among the people.

6 [f]Now when Jesus was in [h]Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, 7 there came unto him a woman having [3]an alabaster (cruse, box) of (exceeding, very) precious ointment, and she poured it (upon, on) his head, as he sat at meat. 8 But when (the, his) disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste? 9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and [p]given to the poor. 10 But (When) [q]Jesus (perceiving it, understood it,) he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me. 11 For [b]ye have the poor always with you; but [d]me ye have not always. 12 For in that she hath [1]poured this ointment upon my body, she did it [f]to prepare me for burial. 13 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever [2][g]this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there also this that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

14 [m]Then one of the twelve, who was called [o]Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, 15 and said, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they [7][s]thirty pieces of silver. 16 And from that time he sought opportunity [v]to betray him.

17 [w]Now on the first day of the feast unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover? 18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, [d]The [3]Master saith, [e]My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples. 19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover. 20 [h]Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve [4]disciples. 21 And as they were eating, [j]he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. 22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began to say unto him every one, Is it I, Lord? 23 And he answered and said, [n]He that dipped his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me. 24 The Son of man goeth, even as it is written of him: but [c]woe unto that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! [c]good were it for that man if he had not been born. 25 And Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Is it I, Rabbi? He saith unto him, [i]Thou hast said. 26 [j]And as they were eating, Jesus took [6]bread, and [k]blessed, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; [n]this is my body. 27 And he took [7]a cup, and [p]gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; 28 for [n]this is my [q]blood of [8]the [9]covenant, which is shed for [t]many [u]unto remission of sins. 29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you [v]in my Father's kingdom.

30 [z]And when they had sung a hymn, [a]they went out into [b]the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be [10][c]offended in me this night: for it is written, I will [f]smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad. 32 But after I am risen again, [g]I will go before you into Galilee. 33 But [i]Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be [10][c]offended because of thee, yet will I never be [10]offended. 34 [k]Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this night, [l]before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. 35 [m]Peter saith unto him, Even if I must die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 [a]Then cometh Jesus with them [b]unto [1]a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto his the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go yonder and pray. and pray yonder. 37 And he took with him [e]Peter and [f]the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and sore troubled. very heavy. 38 Then saith he unto them, [i]My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: abide tarry ye here, and [k]watch with me. 39 And he went forward a little, a little farther, and fell on his face, [l]and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let [m]this cup pass away from me: [o]nevertheless, nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt. 40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them sleeping, asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour? 41 [2k]Watch and [t]pray, that ye [u]enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. 42 Again a second time he went away, He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cannot pass away, cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, [x]thy will be done. 43 And he came again and found them and found them sleeping, asleep again: for [y]their eyes were heavy. 44 And he left them again, them, and and went away, went away again, and prayed [a]a the third time, saying again the same words. 45 Then cometh he to the his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, [e]the hour is at hand, and [g]the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46 Arise, Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that betrayeth doth betray me.

47 [i]And while he yet spake, lo, [k]Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people. 48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: take him. hold him fast. 49 And straightway forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, [c]Rabbi master; and [3d]kissed him. 50 And Jesus said unto him, [g]Friend, [h]do that for which thou art wherefore art thou come? come? Then they came came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. 51 And And, behold, one of them that which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his [j]sword, and smote the struck a [4]servant of the high priest, priest's, and struck smote off his ear. 52 Then saith said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into its his place: for [n]all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword. 53 Or [p]thinkest Thinkest thou that I cannot beseech now pray to my Father, and he shall even now send presently give me [q]more than twelve [r]legions of angels? 54 [s]How But how then should shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be? 55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a robber thief with swords and staves to seize for to take me? [v]I sat daily in the with you temple [w]teaching, and ye took me teaching in the temple, laid no hold not. on me. 56 But [s]all this is come to pass, was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. [z]Then all the disciples left forsook him, and fled.

57 [b]And [c]they that had taken laid hold on Jesus led him away to the house of [d]Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together. assembled. 58 But [f]Peter followed him afar off, off, unto [d]the court of the high priest, high priest's palace, and entered went in, and sat with [h]the officers, servants, to see the end. 59 Now the chief priests priests, and elders, and the whole [j]council all the council, [l]sought false witness against Jesus, that they might to put him to death; 60 and they found it not, But found none: yea, [m]though many false witnesses came. But came, yet found afterward [n]two, they none. At the last came two false witnesses, 61 and said, This man fellow said, [o]I am able to [a]destroy the [1]temple of God, and to build it in three days. 62 And the high priest stood up, arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? 63 [c]But Jesus held his peace. [e]And the high priest answered and said unto him, [f]I adjure thee by [h]the living God, that thou [i]tell us whether thou be [j]the Christ, [k]the Son of God. 64 Jesus saith unto him, [m]Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Henceforth [o]ye shall Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man [q]sitting at on the right hand of power, and [o]coming on in the clouds of heaven. 65 Then the high priest [t]rent his garments, clothes, saying, [v]He hath spoken blasphemy: blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard the blasphemy: his blasphemy. 66 what What think ye? They answered and said, [y]He is [2]worthy guilty of death. 67 Then [z]did they spit in his face, face, and buffet him: buffeted him; [b]and some others [c]smote him [3]with *the palms of their hands, 68 saying, Prophesy unto us, thou [f]Christ: who Christ, Who is he that struck smote thee?

69 [g]Now Peter was sitting sat without [h]in the court palace: and a maid damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus the Galilæan. of Galilee. 70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest. 71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and saith said unto them that were there, This man also was fellow was also with Jesus [m]the Nazarene. of Nazareth. 72 And again he denied with an oath, I know not do not know the man. 73 And after a little while they that stood by while came unto him they that stood came by, and said to Peter, Of a truth Surely thou also art one of them; for [o]thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And straightway immediately the cock crew. 75 And Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said, of Jesus, which said unto him, [b]Before the cock crow, thou shalt [d]deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

27 1 [g]Now when When the morning was come, all the chief priests and [the] elders of the people [l]took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: 2 and they when they bound him, and had bound him, they [n]led him away, and [p]delivered him up to Pontius [r]Pilate the governor.

3 Then [s]Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, [u]repented himself, and brought back again [w]the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, 4 saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the 4[x]innocent blood. But And they said, What is that to us? [a]see thou to it. that. 5 And he cast down the pieces of silver into [4]the sanctuary, in the temple, and departed; departed, and [e]he went away and hanged himself. 6 And the chief priests took the pieces of silver, silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into [i]the [5]treasury, since because it is the price of blood. 7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in. 8 Wherefore [j]that field was called, The field of blood, [k]unto this day. 9 [l]Then was fulfilled that which was spoken 6[by] Jeremiah Jeremy the prophet, saying, [n]And [7]they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was priced, valued, 8†[whom] certain they of the children of Israel did price value; 10 and [9]they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

[i]They all say, say unto him, Let him be crucified. 23 And he the governor said, Why, [j]what evil hath he done? But they cried out exceedingly, the more, saying, Let him be crucified. 24 So when When Pilate saw that he prevailed could prevail nothing, but rather that [b]a tumult was arising, made, that rather he took water, and [c]washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent [2]of the blood of [g]this righteous man just person: [h]see ye to it. 25 And all the people answered Then answered all the people, and said, [i]His blood be on us, and [j]on our children. 26 Then released he unto them Barabbas: but Jesus he Barabbas unto them: and when he had [l]scourged and delivered scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 [m]Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the [3o]palace, *common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band [4p]band. of soldiers. 28 And they [5]stripped him, and put on him [q]a scarlet robe. 29 And they plaited when they had platted a crown of thorns and thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand; hand: and they kneeled down bowed the knee before him, and [r]mocked him, saying, Hail, [s]King of the Jews! 30 And [u]they spat spit upon him, and took the reed reed, and smote him on the head. 31 And when after that they had mocked him, they took off from him the robe, the robe off from him, and put on him his garments, his own raiment on him, and [x]led him away to crucify him.

32 [z]And [a]as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they [6c]compelled to go with them, that he might [z]bear his cross. 33 [e]And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, The a place of a skull, 34 [f]they gave him wine vinegar to drink mingled with [g]gall: and when he had tasted it, thereof, he would not drink. 35 And when they had crucified him, [k]they they crucified him, and parted his garments among them, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots. 36 and they sat and And sitting down they [k]watched him there. there; 37 And they set up over his head his accusation written,

THIS IS JESUS [a]THE KING OF THE JEWS. 38 Then (are) there crucified with him two [d]robbers, (two thieves crucified with him,) [e]one on the right hand, and (one) another on the left. 39 And [f]they that passed by [h](railed on) reviled him, [i]wagging their heads, 40 and saying, [k]Thou that destroyest the [1]temple, and buildest it in three days, save (thyself:) thyself. m If thou (art) be [n]the Son of God, come down from the cross. 41 In like manner (Likewise) also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 [r]He saved others; [2]*t*himself he cannot save. [v](He is) If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe on him. 43 [x]He (trusteth on) trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he (desireth) will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God. 44 [z]And the robbers (The thieves) also that also, which were crucified with him (him,) cast (upon him the same reproach.) the same in his teeth.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the [3]land (until) unto the ninth hour. 46 And about the ninth hour Jesus [a]cried with a loud voice, saying, [c]Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that (is,) is to say, My God, my God, [4]why hast thou forsaken me? 47 And (some) Some of them that stood there, when they heard (it,) that, said, This man calleth (Elijah.) for Elias. 48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a (sponge,) spunge, and filled it with [g]vinegar, and put it on a reed, and [h]gave him to drink. 49 And the (The) rest said, (Let be;) let us see whether (Elijah) Elias (cometh) will come to save him.[5] 50 (And) Jesus, when (Jesus) he had [k]cried again with a loud voice, (and) [l]yielded up (his spirit.) the ghost. 51 (And,) And, behold, [n]the veil of the [1]temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and [o]the earth did (quake;) quake, and the rocks were rent; 52 and the (tombs) graves were opened; and many bodies of [b]the saints (that had fallen asleep) which slept were raised; 53 and (coming forth) came out of the (tombs) graves after his (resurrection they entered) resurrection, and went into [g]the holy (city) city, and appeared unto many. 54 [j]Now (when) the centurion, and they that were with (him) him, [l]watching Jesus, (when they) saw the earthquake, and (the) those things that were done, (they) feared (exceedingly,) greatly, saying, [o]Truly this was [6][p]the Son of God. 55 And [q]many women were there beholding (from afar,) afar off, which (had) followed Jesus from Galilee, [u]ministering unto him: 56 among (whom) which was [u]Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and [w]the mother of (the sons of Zebedee.) Zebedee's children.

57 [y](And when) When the even was come, there came a rich man (from) of Arimathæa, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: 58 (this man) He went to Pilate, and (asked for) begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded (it) the body to be given up. 59 And (Joseph took) when Joseph had taken the body, (and) he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 and [b]laid it in his own new tomb, [d]which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled [e]a great stone to the door of the (tomb,) sepulchre, and departed. 61 And (Mary Magdalene was there,) there was Mary Magdalene, and [f]the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 Now (on the morrow, which is the day after) the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, [i]the Preparation, the chief priests and (the) Pharisees (were gathered) came together unto Pilate, 63 saying, Sir, we remember that [j]that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, [m]After three days I (will) rise again. 64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, [p]lest (haply) his disciples come (by night,) and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: and so the last error will shall be worse than the first. 65 Pilate said unto them, [1]Ye have [c]a guard watch: go your way, [2]make it as it as sure as ye can. 66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, [e]sealing the stone, the guard being with and setting a them. watch.

28 1 [f]Now late on In the end of the sabbath day, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and [g]the other Mary to see the sepulchre. 2 And And, behold, there *was a great earthquake; earthquake: for [i]an the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the stone, back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. 3 [l]His appearance countenance was as like lightning, and [m]his raiment white as snow: 4 and for fear of him the watchers keepers did quake, shake, and [o]became as dead men. 5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which hath been was crucified. 6 He is not here; here: for he is risen, [q]even as he said. Come, see the place [3]where the Lord lay. 7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples, He disciples that he is risen from the dead; and lo, and, behold, [t]he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. 8 And they departed quickly from the tomb sepulchre [a]with fear and great joy, joy; and ran did run to bring his disciples word. 9 And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus [d]met them, saying, All hail. And they came and [g]took hold of his held him by the feet, and [h]worshipped him. 10 Then saith said Jesus unto them, Fear not Be not afraid: [a]go tell [b]my brethren that they depart go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 Now while when they were going, behold, some of [d]the guard watch came into the city, and told shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were come to pass done. 12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, 13 saying, Say ye, [h]His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. 14 And if this [4]come to [j]the governor's ears, we will [k]persuade him, and rid you of care secure you. 15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying was spread abroad is commonly reported among the Jews, and continueth Jews [n]until this day.

16 But Then the eleven disciples [p]went away into Galilee, unto the into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them. 17 And when they saw him, they [r]worshipped him: but some doubted. 18 And Jesus came [s]to them and spake unto them, saying, [s]All authority hath been power is given unto me [u]in heaven and on in earth. 19 [v]Go ye therefore, and [w]make † teach disciples of [x]all the nations, [v]baptizing them [y]into in [z]the name of the Father Father, and of the Son Son, and of the Holy Ghost: 20 teaching them [b]to observe all things whatsoever [c]I have commanded you: and and, lo, [e]I am with you [5]alway, even unto [6][f]the end of the world. THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

1 THE beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, [1][a]the Son of God;

2 [b]Even as it is written [2]in Isaiah the prophet, As the prophets,

[f]Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,
Who which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 [i]The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
[k]Make ye ready Prepare ye the way of the Lord,
Make his paths straight; straight.

4 [l]John came, who baptized did baptize in [m]the wilderness wilderness, and preached preach [o]the baptism of [q]repentance [r]*unto for the remission of sins. 5 And there went out unto him all the country land of Judæa, and all they of Jerusalem; and they were all Jerusalem, were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, [w]confessing their sins.

6 And John was [x]clothed with camel's hair, and [z]*had a leathern girdle with a girdle of a skin about his loins, loins; and he did eat [b]locusts and [c]wild honey. honey; 7 And he preached, saying, [d]There cometh after me he that is mightier than I, one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not [3]worthy to stoop down and unloose. 8 [f]I indeed have baptized you [4]with water; water: but [g]he shall baptize you [4]with the [5]Holy Ghost.

9 [i]And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus [j]came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John [6]in the Jordan. 10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he [c]saw [d]the heavens rent asunder, †opened, [e]and the Spirit as like a dove descending upon him: 11 and And there came [g]a voice came out of the heavens, from heaven, saying, [h]Thou art my beloved Son, in thee whom I am well pleased.

12 [j]And straightway immediately the Spirit driveth him forth into the wilderness. 13 [j]And he was there in the wilderness forty days days, [n]tempted of [p]Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and [s]the angels ministered unto him.

14 [t]Now after that John was delivered up, put in prison, Jesus [u]came into Galilee, preaching [v]the gospel of the kingdom of God, 15 and saying, [y]The time is fulfilled, and [z]the kingdom of God is at hand: [a]repent ye, and believe in the gospel.

16 [e]And passing along Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon his brother casting a net in into the sea: for they were fishers. 17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become [h]fishers of men. 18 And straightway they left the forsook their nets, and followed him. 19 And going on when he had gone a little further, farther thence, he saw James the 21 [v]And he said unto them, [x]Is the lamp a candle brought to be put under the a *bushel, or under the bed, a bed? and not to be put set on the stand a candlestick? 22 [a]For there is nothing hid, save that it should which shall not be manifested; neither was anything made any thing kept secret, but that it should come to light. abroad. 23 [c]If any man hath have ears to hear, let him hear. 24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: [e]with what measure ye mete mete, it shall be measured unto to you: and more shall be given unto you. unto you that hear shall more be given. 25 [a]For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath.

26 And he said, [d]So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed upon the earth into the ground; 27 and should sleep sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, and grow up, [g]he knoweth not how. 28 The For the earth [2]beareth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, then after that the full corn in the ear. 29 But when the fruit [3]is ripe, straightway †brought forth, immediately [h]he [4]putteth forth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 [j]And he said, How Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or in with what parable comparison shall we set it forth? compare it? 31 [5]It is like [m]a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown upon in the earth, though it be is less than all the seeds that are upon the earth, be in the earth: 32 yet But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all the herbs, and putteth shooteth out great branches; so that the birds fowls of the heaven air can may lodge under the shadow thereof. of it.

33 And [r]with many such parables spake he [t]the word unto them, [u]as they were able to hear it: it. 34 and But [w]without a parable spake he not unto them: but [v]privately to his own disciples and when they were alone, he [z]expounded all things. things to his disciples.

35 [b]And on that the same day, when even was come, he saith unto them, Let us go pass over unto the other side. 36 And leaving when they had sent away the multitude, they take him with them, took [d]even as he was, in the boat. was ship. one of [a]the rulers of the synagogue, Jaïrus by name; and seeing when he saw him, he falleth fell at his feet, 23 and beseecheth besought him much, greatly, saying, My little daughter is lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, that thou come and [d]lay thy hands on her, that she may be [1]made whole, healed; and she shall live. 24 And he Jesus went with him; and a great multitude much people followed him, and they [g]thronged him.

25 And a certain woman, [h]which had an issue of blood twelve years, 26 and had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse, 27 having heard the things When she had heard concerning of Jesus, came in the crowd press behind, and touched his garment. 28 For she said, If I may touch but his garments, clothes, I shall be [1]made whole. 29 [m]And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her that [2o]plague. 30 And straightway Jesus, perceiving Jesus immediately knowing in himself that [z]the power proceeding from him virtue had gone forth, out of him, turned him about in the crowd, press, and said, Who touched my garments clothes? 31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? 32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing. 33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what had been was done to in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. 34 And he said unto her, Daughter, [v]thy faith hath [3]made thee whole; [v]go in peace, and be whole of thy [2o]plague.

35 While he yet spake, they come there came from [w]the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying, house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why [b]troublest thou [c]the [4]Master any further? 36 But As soon as Jesus, [5]not heeding Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto [w]the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, Fear not, only believe. 37 And he suffered no man to follow with him, save [e]Peter, and James, and [f]John the brother of James. 38 And they come he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue; and he synagogue, beholdeth a seeth the tumult, and many weeping them that wept and wailing wailed greatly. 39 And when he was entered come in, he saith unto them, [i]Why make ye a tumult, this ado, and weep? the child damsel is not dead, but [j]sleepeth. 40 And they laughed him to scorn. But he, [k]having when he had put them all forth, out, he taketh the father of the child and her mother and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and goeth entereth in where the child damsel was lying. 41 And [l]taking he took the child damsel by the hand, he saith and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, [n]Arise. arise. 42 And straightway the damsel rose up, arose, and walked; for she was twelve years old. of the age of twelve years. and there came [c]a voice a voice came out of the cloud, saying, [b]This is my beloved Son: [c]hear ye him. 8 And suddenly suddenly, looking when they had looked round about, they saw no one man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 [f]And as they were coming came down from the mountain, [g]he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, [f]save when till the Son of man should have were risen again risen from the dead. 10 [k]And they kept the saying, that saying with themselves, [m]questioning among themselves one with another what the rising again from the dead should mean. 11 And they asked him, saying, [3]The scribes say Why say the scribes [o]that Elijah Elias must first come. come? 12 And he said unto answered and told them, Elijah indeed Elias verily cometh first, and [r]restoreth all things: and [t]how is it it is written of the Son of man, that he should must [u]suffer many things things, and [v]be set at nought? nought. 13 But I say unto you, that Elijah That Elias is indeed come, and [w]they have also done unto him whatsoever they listed, even as it is written of him.

14 [b]And when they he came to the his disciples, they he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them. 15 And straightway all the multitude, people, when they saw beheld him, [e]were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him. 16 And he asked them, the scribes, What question ye *with them? 17 And one of the multitude answered him, and said, [4]Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath [h]a dumb spirit; 18 and wheresoever it he taketh him, it [5]dasheth him down he †teareth him: and he foameth, and grindeth gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast it him out; and [k]they were not able. could not. 19 And he He answereth them him, and saith, 11 1 [a]And when they draw came nigh unto to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and [c]Bethany, at [d]the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth [e]two of his disciples, 2 and saith unto them, Go your way into the village that is over against you: and straightway as soon as ye enter be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, [h]whereon no man ever yet never man sat; loose him, and bring him. 3 And if any one man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye, The ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he [4]will send him [5]back hither. 4 And they went away, their way, and found a the colt tied at by the door without in a place the open where two street ways met; and they loose him. 5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt? 6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had said commanded: and they let them go. 7 And they bring brought the colt unto to Jesus, and cast on him their garments, their garments on him; and he sat upon him. 8 And many [r]spread their garments upon in the way; way: and others [6]branches, which they had cut down branches cut from the fields. off the trees, and strawed them in the way. 9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, [t]Hosanna; [u]Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord: 10 Blessed is be [w]the kingdom that cometh, [x]the kingdom of [y]our father of our father David, that cometh in the name of [w]David the Lord: [t]Hosanna [z]in the highest.

11 [b]And he Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, it being now and now the eventide eventide, was come, [d]he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

12 [f]And on the morrow, when they were come out from Bethany, [i]he hungered. was hungry: 13 [j]And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find and the God of Jacob? 27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 [c]And one of the scribes came, and having heard them questioning together, and knowing perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, What commandment is the first Which is the first commandment of all? 29 And Jesus answered, answered him, The first of all the commandments is, [f]Hear, O Israel; [1]The Lord our God, [h]the Lord is one: God is one Lord 30 and thou shalt love the Lord thy God [2]with all thy heart, and [2]with all thy soul, and [2]with all thy mind, and [2]with all thy strength. strength: this is the first commandment. 31 [m]The And the second is like, namely this, [o]Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment [r]greater than these. 32 And the scribe said unto him, Of a truth, Well, [3]Master, thou hast well said that [h]he is one the truth: for there is one God; and [t]there is none other but he: 33 and to love him with all the heart, and with all [v]the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, [w]is much more than all [x]whole burnt offerings and sacrifices. 34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. [b]And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 [c]And Jesus answered and said, as while [d]he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that [f]the Christ is the son of David? 36 For David himself said [g]in by the Holy Spirit, Ghost,

[i]The Lord LORD said unto to my Lord,
Sit thou on my right hand,
Till I make thine enemies [4a]the thy footstool of thy feet.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and [b]whence is he then his son? And [5]the common people [d]heard him gladly.

38 [e]And in his teaching he said, he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk love to go in long robes, clothing, and to have love salutations in the marketplaces, 39 and the chief seats in the synagogues, and [g]chief the uppermost places rooms at feasts: 40 they [i]which Which devour widows' houses, [6]and [j]for a pretence make long prayers; prayers: these shall receive [k]greater condemnation. damnation.

41 [l]And he Jesus sat down over against [n]the treasury, and beheld how the multitude people [p]cast [7*q]money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much. 42 And there came [8]a certain poor widow, and she cast threw in two †[s]mites, which make a farthing. 43 And he called unto him his disciples, and said saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, "This That this poor widow hath cast in more in, than all they which are casting have cast into the treasury: 44 for they all all they did cast in of their superfluity abundance; but she of her [y]want did cast in all that she had, even all her [z]living.

1 [a]And as he went forth out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, [3]Master, behold, see what manner of stones and what manner of buildings are here! 2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? [e]there shall not be left here one stone upon another, which that shall not be thrown down.

[13] [s]And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: [u]but he that endureth to shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.
[14] But when ye shall see [x]the abomination of desolation desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where he it ought not [d](let him that readeth understand), then let them that are be in Judæa flee unto to the mountains: [15] and [e]let him that is on [f]the housetop not go down down into the nor house, neither enter in, therein, to take anything any thing out of his house: [16] and let him that is in the field not return back turn back again for to take up his cloke. garment. [17] But [j]woe unto to them that are with child child, and to them that give suck in those days! [18] And pray ye that it your flight be not in the winter. [19] For in those days shall be [*]tribulation, affliction, [p]such as there hath was not been the like [r]from the beginning of the creation which [t]God created until now, and never unto this time, neither shall be. [20] And except that the Lord had shortened the those days, no flesh would have been should be saved: but for [y]the elect's sake, whom [z]he chose, hath chosen, he hath shortened the days. [21] And [c]then if any man shall say unto to you, Lo, here is the Christ; or, lo, Lo, he is there; believe [2]it him not: [22] for there shall arise [f]false Christs and false prophets, false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and [g]shall shew signs and wonders, [i]that they to seduce may lead astray, if if it were possible, even [j]the elect. [23] But [l]take ye heed: behold, [m]I have told foretold you all things beforehand.
[24] But in those days, after [p]that tribulation, [q]the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, [25] and [r]the stars shall be falling from heaven, of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in the heavens heaven shall be shaken. [26] And then shall they see [t]the Son of man coming in the clouds [v]with great power and glory. [27] And then [w]shall he send forth his the angels, and shall [y]gather together [z]his elect from [a]the four winds, from [b]the uttermost most part of the earth [a]to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now from the fig tree learn her parable: learn a parable of the fig tree; when When her branch is now become yet tender, and putteth forth its leaves, ye know that the summer is nigh; near: 29 even so ye also, So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things coming come to pass, know ye that [1]he it is nigh, even [b]at the doors. 30 [c]Verily I say unto you, This that this generation shall not pass away, until all these things be accomplished. done. 31 [f]Heaven and earth shall pass away: but [g]my words shall not pass away. 32 But of that day or and that hour [i]knoweth no one, not even man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, [k]neither the Son, [l]but the Father. 33 [o]Take ye heed, [p]watch [2]and pray: for ye know not when the time is. 34 [r]It is For the as when Son of man is as a man, [s]sojourning in another country, having who left his house, and given gave authority to his [3]servants, and [u]to each one every man his work, and commanded also [v]the porter to watch. 35 [x]Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the lord master of the house cometh, whether [a]at even, or [a]at midnight, or [b]at the cock-crowing, or [c]in the morning; morning: 36 lest [d]coming suddenly he [e]find you sleeping. 37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, [x]Watch.

14 1 [g]Now after After two days was the feast of [j]the passover passover, and the of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes [l]sought how they might take him with subtilty, by craft, and kill put him to him: death. 2 for But they said, Not during the on the feast, feast day, [n]lest haply there shall be a tumult an uproar of the people.

3 [o]And while he was being in [p]Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having [4]an alabaster cruse box of ointment of [5*]spikenard very costly precious; and she brake the cruse, box, and poured it over on his head. 4 But And there were some that had indignation among within themselves, saying, To what purpose hath and said, Why was this waste of the ointment been made? 5 For this ointment it might have been sold for above more than three hundred [6†]pence, and have been [d]given to the poor. And they [e]murmured against her. 6 But And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me. 7 For [h]ye have the poor always with you, with you always, and whensoever [j]ye will ye can may do them good: but [m]me ye have not always. 8 [n]She hath done what she could: she hath anointed my body aforehand for is come aforehand to anoint my body to [q]the burying. 9 And verily Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever [t]the this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, that this also which this that woman she hath done shall be spoken of [w]for a memorial of her.

10 [y]And [z]Judas Iscariot, [7]he that was one of the twelve, [z]went away unto the chief priests, that he to might deliver betray him unto them. 11 And they, when they heard it, when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently [f]deliver him unto them. betray him.

12 [h]And on [i]the first day of unleavened bread, when they [k]sacrificed ‡killed the passover, his disciples say said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and make ready prepare that thou mayest eat the passover? 13 And he sendeth forth [m]two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him; him. 14 and And wheresoever he shall enter go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, [a]The [1]Master saith, Where is [my [b]guest-chamber, the guestchamber,] where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? 15 And he will [himself] shew you [e]a large upper room furnished and [ready: and prepared:] there make ready for us. 16 And [the his] disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 [i]And [when it was in the] evening he cometh with the twelve. 18 And as they [2]sat and [were eating, did eat,] [k]Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you [shall betray me, even [m]he that eateth which eateth with me shall] [with betray] me. 19 [They And they] began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? [and another said, Is it I?] 20 And he [answered and] said unto them, It is [p]one of the twelve, [m]he that dippeth with me in the dish. 21 [For the The] Son of man [indeed] goeth, [q]even as it is written of him: but [s]woe [unto to] that man [through by] whom the Son of man is betrayed! [u]good were it [3]for that man if he had [not never] been born.

22 [x]And as they [were eating, he did eat, Jesus] took [4]bread, and [when he had] [y]blessed, [he and] brake it, and gave to them, and said, [Take ye Take, eat]: [b]this is my body. 23 And he took [a the] cup, and when he had [d]given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it. 24 And he said unto them, [b]This is my [h]blood of [5]the [6]covenant, [new testament,] which is shed for [i]many. 25 Verily I say unto you, I will [no more drink drink no more] of the fruit of the vine, until that day [when that] I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 [l]And when they had sung [a an] [*]hymn, [m]they went out [unto into] [n]the mount of Olives.

27 And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be [7]offended: [offended because of me this night:] for it is written, I will [d]smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered [abroad]. 28 [Howbeit, after But after that] I am [raised up, risen,] [f]I will go before you into Galilee. 29 But [g]Peter said unto him, Although all shall be [7]offended, yet will not I. 30 And [h]Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, [that thou to-day, That this day,] even in this night, before [j]the cock crow twice, [thou] shalt deny me thrice. 31 But [l]he spake [exceeding the more] vehemently, If I [must should] die with thee, I will not deny [thee. And in thee in any like manner wise. Likewise] also said they all.

32 [n]And they [come [o]unto came to] [8]a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith [unto to] his disciples, Sit ye here, while I [shall] pray. 33 And he taketh with him [r]Peter and James and John, and began [t]to be [greatly sore] amazed, and [sore troubled. to be very heavy;] 34 And [he] saith unto them, [v]My soul is exceeding sorrowful [even] unto death: [abide tarry] ye here, and [w]watch. 35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, [z]and prayed that, if it were possible, [a]the hour might pass [away] from him. 36 And he said, [c]Abba, Father, [e]all things are possible unto thee; [remove take away] [f]this cup from me: [g]howbeit nevertheless] not what I will, but what thou wilt. 37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest [thou not not thou] watch one hour? 38 [9][w]Watch [y] and [j]pray, [that ye [k]enter not lest ye enter] into temptation: the spirit [indeed truly] is [willing ready] but the flesh is weak. 39 And [o]saying and spake] again he went away, and prayed the same words. 40 And again he came, and when he returned, he found them sleeping, for asleep again, (for [a]their eyes were very heavy; heavy,) and [b]they wist not neither wist they what to answer him. 41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: [h]it is enough; enough, [i]the hour is come; behold, [k]the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 42 Arise, Rise up, let us be going: go; behold, lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 [n]And straightway, immediately, while he yet spake, cometh [p]Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. 44 Now And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely. 45 And when as soon as he was come, straightway he came he goeth straightway to him, and saith, [u]Master, Rabbi, master; and [1v]kissed him. 46 And they laid their hands on him, and took him. 47 But a certain And one of them that stood by drew his a [y]sword, and smote the a [2]servant of the high priest, and struck cut off his ear. 48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a robber, thief, with swords and with staves to seize take me? 49 [d]I was daily with you in the temple [e]teaching, and ye took me not: but [g]this is done that the scriptures might must be fulfilled. 50 [h]And they all left forsook him, and fled.

53 [q]And [r]they led Jesus away to the high priest: and there come with him together with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes. 54 [c]And [d]Peter had followed him afar off, [e]even within, into [f]the court palace of the high priest; priest: and he was sitting sat with [y]the officers, servants, and [f]warming warmed himself in the light of the fire. at the fire. 55 Now And the whole all the chief priests and [l]council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found it not. none. 56 [m]For many bare false witness against him, and but their witness [o]agreed not together. 57 And there stood up arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying, 58 [q]We heard him say, [r]I will destroy this [3]temple [s]that is made with hands, and in within three days I will build another [t]made without hands. 59 And not even But neither so did their witness agree together. 60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? 61 But [w]he held his peace, and answered nothing. [x]Again the high priest asked him, and saith said unto him, Art thou [z]the Christ, the Son of [a]the Blessed? 62 And Jesus said, I am: and [b]ye shall see the Son of man [c]sitting at on the right hand of power, and [b]coming with in the clouds of heaven. 63 And Then the high priest [f]rent his clothes, and saith, What further need we need have we of any further witnesses? 64 Ye have heard [i]the blasphemy: what think ye? And they [j]all condemned him to be [4k]worthy guilty of death. 65 [m]And some began [n]to spit on him, and [o]to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesy: and the officers received servants did strike him [p]with [5]blows the palms of their hands.

in [a]the court, palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest; priest: 67 and seeing when she saw Peter [a]warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, saith, Thou said, And thou also wast with [d]the Nazarene, even Jesus. Jesus of Nazareth. 68 But he denied, saying, [1]I neither know, nor know not, neither understand I what thou sayest: sayest. and And he went out into the [2]porch; [3]and [e]the cock crew. 69 And the a maid saw him, and began again him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them. 70 But he again denied it. And he denied it again. And after a little while again a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Of a truth Surely thou art one of them; them: for thou art a Galilæan. Galilæan, and thy speech agreeth thereto. 71 But he began to curse, curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak. 72 And straightway [h]the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word, how word that Jesus said unto him, [j]Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt [k]deny me thrice. [4]And *when he thought thereon, he wept.

15 [1][l]And straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes, scribes and the whole council, [g]held a consultation, and [r]bound Jesus, and [s]carried him away, and [u]delivered him up to [w]Pilate. 2 [x]And Pilate asked him, [y]Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering saith said unto him, [a]Thou sayest. sayest it. 3 And the chief priests accused him of many things. things: but he answered nothing. 4 And Pilate again asked him, asked him again, saying, [d]Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they accuse witness thee of. against thee. 5 But Jesus [d]no more yet answered anything; insomuch nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.

6 [i]Now at [5]the that feast he used to release released unto them one prisoner, whom whomsoever they asked of him. desired. 7 And there was one called named Barabbas, lying which lay bound with them that had [b]made insurrection, [c]men insurrection with him, who in the insurrection had committed had committed murder. murder in the insurrection. 8 And the multitude went up and crying aloud began to ask desire him to do as he was wont to do had ever done unto them. 9 And But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews? 10 For he perceived that for envy knew that the chief priests had delivered him up. for envy. 11 But the chief priests stirred up the multitude, moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them. 12 And Pilate again answered and said again unto them, What will ye then shall I that I shall do unto him [g]whom ye call the King of the Jews? 13 And they cried out again, Crucify him. 14 And Then Pilate said unto them, Why, [i]what evil hath he done? But And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him. 15 And so Pilate, wishing willing to content the multitude, people, released unto them Barabbas, Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had [m]scourged him, to be crucified.

16 [n]And the soldiers led him away within [o]the court, which is [p]the into the hall, called [6]Prætorium; and they call together the whole [7][t]band. 17 And they clothe clothed him with [v]purple, and plaiting platted a crown of thorns, they and put it on him; about his head, 18 and they began to salute him, Hail, [z]King of the Jews! 19 And they smote his him on the head with a reed, and [b]did spit upon him, and bowing their knees [c]worshipped him. 20 And when they had [e]mocked him, they took off from him [v]the purple, the purple from him, and put on him his garments. And they [f]lead his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

Alexander and [a]Rufus, to go with them, that he might [b]bear his cross.
22 [d]And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.
23 And they offered him gave him to drink wine mingled with [g]myrrh: but he received it not.
24 And when they crucify had crucified him, and [j]part they parted his garments among them, casting lots upon them, what each every man should take.
25 And [l]it was the third hour, and they crucified him.
26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, [o]THE KING OF THE JEWS.
27 And with him they crucify two robbers; thieves; the [t]one on his right hand, and the one the other on his left.[1]
28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors.
29 And [w]they that passed by railed on him, [x]wagging their heads, and saying, [y]Ha! Ah, [a]thou that destroyest the [2]temple, and buildest it in three days, 30 save thyself, and come down from the cross.
31 In like manner Likewise also the chief priests mocking him said among themselves with the scribes said, [e]He saved others; [3g]himself he cannot save.
32 Let [h]the Christ, Christ [i]the King of Israel, now come down Israel descend now from the cross, that we may [j]see and believe. [k]And they that were crucified with him reproached reviled him.
33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole [4]land until the ninth hour.
34 And at the ninth hour Jesus [n]cried with a loud voice, saying, [o]Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, [5]why hast thou forsaken me?
35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elijah. Elias.
36 And one ran, ran and filling a sponge filled a spunge full of [c]vinegar, and put it on a reed, [e]and gave him to drink, saying, Let be alone; let us see whether Elijah cometh Elias will come to take him down.
37 And Jesus [f]uttered cried with a loud voice, and [h]gave up the ghost.
38 And [i]the veil of the [2]temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.
39 [k]And when the centurion, which stood [b]by over against him, saw that he [6]so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, [m]Truly this man was [7n]the Son of God.
40 And there There were also [p]women beholding [q]from afar looking on afar off: among whom were both was [s]Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James [u]the [8]less and of Joses, and [v]Salome;
41 who, (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and [s]ministered unto him; him;) and many other women which [y]came up with him unto Jerusalem.
42 [b]And when even was now now when the even was come, because it was [c]the Preparation, preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,
43 there came Joseph of Arimathæa, a councillor of [d]honourable estate, who an honourable counseller, which himself [f]was looking waited for the kingdom of God; and he boldly went in God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and asked for craved the body of Jesus.
44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him [l]the centurion, he asked him whether he [9]had been any while dead.
45 And when he learned knew it of [l]the centurion, he granted the corpse gave the body to Joseph.
46 And he bought [m]a linen cloth, fine linen, and taking took him down, wound and wrapped him in the linen cloth, and [p]laid him in a tomb sepulchre [q]which had been was hewn out of a rock; rock; and he rolled [r]a stone against unto the door of the tomb. sepulchre.
47 And [s]Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

[2] Or, sanctuary [3] Or, can he not save himself? [4] Or, earth [5] Or, why didst thou forsake me? [6] Many ancient authorities read so cried out, and gave up the ghost. [7] Or, a son of God [8] Gr. little. [9] Many ancient authorities read were already dead.

16 1 [a]And [b]when the sabbath was past, [c]Mary Magdalene, and [c]Mary the mother of James, and [d]Salome, had [f]bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him. 2 And very early in the morning on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun was risen. 3 And they were saying said among themselves, Who shall roll us away [k]the stone from the door of the tomb sepulchre? 4 and looking up, when they looked, they see saw that the stone is was rolled back away: for [m]it was exceeding very great. 5 And [o]entering into the tomb, sepulchre, they saw [r]a young man sitting on the right side, [s]arrayed clothed in [t]a long white robe garment; and [u]they were amazed. affrighted. 6 And he saith unto them, [u]Be not amazed: ye affrighted: Ye seek Jesus, [x]the Nazarene, Jesus of Nazareth, which hath been was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold, behold the place where they laid him! him. 7 But go, go your way, tell his disciples and Peter, [c]He Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, [e]as he said unto you. 8 And they went out, out quickly, and fled from the tomb sepulchre; for trembling and astonishment they trembled and were had come upon them: and they said nothing amazed: neither said they any thing to any one man; for they were afraid.

9 [1]Now when he Jesus was risen early on the first day of the week, [n]he appeared first to [o]Mary Magdalene, [o]from out of whom he had cast out seven [2]devils. 10 [q]She And she went and told them that had been with him, [t]as they [u]mourned and wept. 11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, [e]disbelieved. believed not.

12 [g]And after these things [h]he After that was manifested appeared in [i]another form unto two of them, as they walked, on their way and went into the country. 13 [j]And they went away and told it unto the rest residue: neither believed they them.

14 And afterward Afterward [h]he was manifested appeared [l]unto the eleven themselves as they sat *at meat, meat; and he upbraided them with their [n]unbelief and [p]hardness of heart, because [q]they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen. 15 And he said unto them, [v]Go ye into all the world, and [w]preach the gospel to [y]the whole creation. every creature. 16 [z]He that believeth and [a]is baptized [b]shall be saved; but [z]he that [c]disbelieveth believeth not shall be condemned. damned. 17 And [d]these signs shall follow them that believe: [f]in believe; In my name shall they cast out [2]devils; [g]they shall speak with [3]new tongues; 18 [h]they shall take up serpents; serpents: and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall in no wise not hurt them; [i]they shall lay hands [j]on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 So then the Lord Jesus, [k]after he after the Lord had spoken unto them, he [l]was received up into heaven, and [m]sat down at on the right hand of God. 20 And they went forth, and preached everywhere, every where, [p]the Lord working with them, and confirming [r]the word [s]by the with signs that followed. following. THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

[1] FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to (draw up a narrative concerning / set forth in order a declaration of) those matters which (have been / are most surely believed) among us, [2] even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were (eyewitnesses / eyewitnesses, and) ministers of the (word / word;) [3] it seemed good to me also, having (traced / had perfect understanding) of all things (the course / accurately) from the (very) first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent (Theophilus; / Theophilus,) [4] that thou mightest know the certainty (concerning the things / of those things) wherein (thou wast / thou hast been) instructed.

[5] THERE was in the days of Herod, (the) king of Judæa, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of (Abijah / Abia): and (he had a wife / his wife was) of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. [6] And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. [7] And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now (well stricken / [4]) in years.

[8] (Now / And) it came to pass, (that / [5]) while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, [9] according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to (enter into the temple / [6] the [7] temple) of the Lord and (burn incense / burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord). [10] And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the (hour / time) of incense. [11] And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense. [12] And (Zacharias was troubled when he saw him, / when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled,) and fear fell upon him. [13] But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: (because / for) thy (supplication / prayer) is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. [14] And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. [15] For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and (he / [8]) shall drink (no / neither) wine nor [9] strong drink; and (he / [8]) shall be filled with the [10] Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb. [16] And many of the children of Israel shall he turn (unto / to) the Lord their God. [17] And (he / [8]) shall [11] go before (his face / him) in the spirit and power of (Elijah, / Elias,) to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient (to walk in / [12] to) the wisdom of the just; to make ready for the Lord a people prepared for him. [18] And (a people prepared for the Lord.)

Zacharias said unto the angel, [a]Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife [1]well stricken in years. 19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am [d]Gabriel, [e]that stand in the presence of God; and I was sent to speak unto thee, and to bring thee these good tidings. 20 And And, behold, [h]thou shalt be silent dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall come to pass, be performed, because thou believedst believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season. 21 And the people were waiting waited for Zacharias, and they marvelled [2]while that he tarried so long in [m]the [3]temple. 22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in [m]the [3]temple: and for [o]he continued making signs beckoned unto them, and remained dumb. speechless. 23 And it came to pass, that, [p]when as soon as the days of his [s]ministration were fulfilled, accomplished, he departed unto his to his own house.

24 And after these those days Elisabeth his wife his wife conceived; Elisabeth conceived, and she hid herself five months, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord done unto dealt with me in the days wherein he looked upon on me, [v]to take away my reproach among men.

26 Now And in the sixth month the angel [x]Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named [y]Nazareth, 27 [z]to a virgin betrothed espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, [b]of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. 28 And he the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou [c]that art [4*]highly favoured, [d]the Lord is with thee: [5] blessed art thou among women. 29 But And when she saw him, she was troubled at his the saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this might should be. 30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for [b]thou hast found [6]favour with God. 31 And And, behold, [c]thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and [f]shalt call his name JESUS. 32 He shall be great, and [g]shall be called the Son of [i]the Most High Highest: and the Lord God [j]shall give unto him the throne of [k]his father David: 33 and he shall reign over the house of Jacob [7][l]for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. 34 And Then Mary said said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? 35 And the angel answered and said unto her, [n]The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of [i]the Most High Highest shall overshadow thee: wherefore therefore also [8]that which holy thing which shall be born of thee [9]is to be born [10] [g]shall be called [q]holy, [r]the Son of God. 36 And And, behold, Elisabeth thy cousin thy kinswoman, Elisabeth, she also hath hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her [t]that her, who [11]was called barren. 37 For [u]no word from God with God nothing shall be void of power. impossible. 38 And Mary said, Behold, Behold, the [12]handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And [w]the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in these days those days, and went into [a]the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah; Juda; 40 and entered into the house of Zacharias Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth. 41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth [e]was filled with the Holy Ghost; Ghost: 42 and she lifted up her voice spake out with a loud cry, voice, and

David;
70 (As [d] he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began),
71 That we should be saved [f] from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;
72 [j] To perform the mercy towards our fathers,
And [m] to remember his holy [n] covenant;
73 [o] The oath which he sware unto Abraham our father, 74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him [p] without fear,
75 [r] In holiness and righteousness before him, [t] all the days of our life.
76 Yea and thou, child, shalt be called [v] the prophet of [w] the Most High:
For [x] thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to make ready his ways;
77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins,
78 Because of the [1†b] tender mercy of our God,
[2] Whereby [c] the [‡] dayspring [d] from on high hath visited us,
79 To give light to [i] them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death,
To guide our feet into [o] the way of [p] peace.
80 [r] And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was [s] in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

2 And it came to pass in those days, that there went out [w] a decree from [x] Cæsar Augustus, that all [4] the world should be [§] taxed. 2 This was the first taxing made when Quirinius was governor of Syria. 3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. 4 And Joseph also went up [g] from Galilee, out of the city of [h] Nazareth, into Judæa, unto [i] the city of David, which is called [k] Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David: 5 to be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. 6 And so it was, that, [k] while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. 7 And she brought forth her firstborn son, and [q] wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and [s] laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in [u] the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, and keeping [5‖] watch over their flock by night. 9 And, lo, the [y] angel of the Lord came upon them, and [z] the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. 10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all the people: 11 for unto you is born this day in the city of David [k] a Saviour, which is [6 l] Christ [m] the Lord. 12 And [n] this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find a babe [q] wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. 13 And suddenly there was with the angel [t] a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, that were [a]looking for the looked for redemption of in *Jerusalem. 39 And when they had accomplished performed all things that were according to [d]the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city [f]Nazareth.

14 [u] Glory to God [v] in the highest,
And on earth [7 v] peace, good will toward men.

40 [g]And the child grew, and waxed strong, strong in spirit, [1]filled with wisdom: and [j]the grace of God was upon him.

41 And Now [m]his parents went [n]every to year to Jerusalem Jerusalem every year at [o]the feast of the passover. 42 And when he was twelve years old, [p]they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast; feast. 43 and And when they had fulfilled [u]the days, as they were returning, returned, the boy child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and [m]his Joseph parents and his mother knew it not; not of it. 44 but But they, supposing him to be have been in the company, they went a day's journey; and they sought for him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance: acquaintance. 45 and And when they found him not, they returned turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking for him. 46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, [b]sitting in the midst of [d]the [2]doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions: questions. 47 and And all that heard him were amazed astonished at his understanding and his answers. 48 And when they saw him, they were astonished amazed: and his mother said unto him, [3]Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, [i]thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing. 49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that [m]I must be [4]n in about [o]my Father's house business? 50 And [p]they understood not the saying which he spake unto them. 51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth; Nazareth, and he was subject unto them: and but [b]his mother kept all these [5]sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus [c]advanced increased in wisdom and [6]†[e]stature, and in [7][c]favour with God and men. man.

20 And he closed the [3]book, and he gave it back again to the attendant, minister, and [o]sat down: and down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were [p]fastened on him. 21 And he began to say unto them, To-day This day is [r]hath [s]this scripture been fulfilled in your ears. 22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at [u]the words of grace gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth: and mouth. And they said, [x]Is not this [y]Joseph's son? 23 And he said unto them, Doubtless ye will Ye will surely say unto me this parable, proverb, [z]Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done [a]at in Capernaum, do also here in thine own thy country. 24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, [c]No prophet is acceptable accepted in his own country. 25 But of a truth I say unto you, I tell you of a truth, There were many widows many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah, Elias, when [e]the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when there came a great great famine was famine over throughout all the land; 26 and But unto none of them was Elijah Elias sent, [k]but only to [4]Zarephath, in the land save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow. 27 And [i]there were many many lepers lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, [k]but only saving Naaman the Syrian. 28 And they were all filled with wrath all they in the synagogue, as when things; they heard these things, were filled with wrath, 29 and they rose up, and [d]cast him forth thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the *brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might throw cast him down headlong. 30 But he [g]passing through the midst of them went his way. way, 31 [i]And he [j]came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. And Galilee, and [l]he was teaching taught them [m]on the sabbath day: 32 and days. And [n]they were astonished at his teaching; doctrine: [n]for his word was with authority. power. 33 And [l]in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean [5]devil; devil, and he cried out with a loud voice, 34 [6]Ah! Saying, †Let us alone; [q]what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? [t]I know thee who thou art, art; [v]the Holy One of God. 35 And Jesus [w]rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the [5]devil had thrown him down in the midst, he came out of him, having done him no hurt. and hurt him not. 36 And [b]amazement came upon all, they were all amazed, and they spake together, one with another, among themselves, saying, What is [7]this word? a word is this! [b]for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out. 37 And [d]there went forth a rumour the fame of him concerning him went out into every place of the region country round about.

38 [f]And he rose up from arose out of the synagogue, and entered into the house Simon's of Simon. house. And [g]Simon's wife's mother was holden taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her. 39 And he stood over her, and [j]rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she rose up arose and ministered unto them.

40 And Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and [b]he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. 41 [c]And [1]devils also came out from of many, [d]crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ [f]the Son of God. And rebuking he rebuking them, [e]he them suffered them not *to speak, because speak: for they knew that he was [h]the Christ.

42 [i]And when it was day, he came out departed and went [j]into a desert place: and [k]the multitudes people sought after him, and came unto him, and would have stayed him, that he should not go depart from them. 43 But And he said unto them, [m]I must [n]preach the [2]good tidings of the kingdom of God to the other cities also: for therefore was I am sent.

44 And he was preaching preached [q]in the synagogues of [3r]Galilee.

5 1 Now And it came to pass, while that, as the multitude people pressed upon him and heard to hear the word of God, that he was standing stood by [u]the lake of Gennesaret; 2 [v]and he saw two boats ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen had were gone out of them, and were [x]washing their nets. 3 And he entered into one of the boats, ships, which was Simon's, and asked prayed him to put that he would thrust out a little from the land. And [b]he sat down down, and taught the multitudes people out of the boat. ship. 4 And Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, [d]Put Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. 5 And Simon answered answering and said, said unto him, Master, [f]we have toiled all the night, and took have taken nothing: but nevertheless at thy word I will let down the nets. net. 6 And when they had this done, [h]they inclosed a great multitude of fishes; fishes: and [h]their nets were breaking; net brake. 7 and And they beckoned unto [a]their partners partners, which were in the other boat, ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, ships, so that they began to sink. 8 But Simon When Simon Peter, when he Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, [e]Depart from me; for [g]I am a sinful man, O Lord. 9 For he was amazed, astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken; taken: 10 and so were also James James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt [4l]catch men. 11 And when they had brought their boats ships to land, [o]they left forsook all, and followed him.

12 And it came to pass, while when he was in one of the cities, a certain city, [p]behold, a man full of leprosy: and when he saw Jesus, he who seeing Jesus [s]fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, [t]if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. 13 And he stretched put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; will: be thou made clean. And straightway immediately the leprosy departed from him. 14 And he charged him [w]to tell no man: but go thy way, and shew [y]thyself to the priest, and [z]offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, [a]for a testimony unto them. 15 [c]But so much the more went abroad there a report concerning fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities. 16 But And he [e]withdrew himself in the deserts, into the wilderness, and [e]prayed.

17 And it came to pass on one of those days, that a certain day, as he was teaching; teaching: and there were Pharisees and [g]doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every village town of Galilee, Galilee, 27 But I say unto you which hear, [b]Love your enemies, [c]do good to them (that which) hate you, 28 [e]bless them that curse you, and [b]pray for them (that which) despitefully use you. 29 (And / To) unto him that [h]smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and from him that taketh away thy cloke (withhold not thy / forbid not to take thy) coat also. 30 [i]Give to every (one / man) that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again. 31 And [j]as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise. 32 (And / For) [k]if ye love them (that which) love you, what thank have ye? for (even sinners / sinners also) love those that love them. 33 And if ye do good to them (that which) do good to you, what thank have ye? for (even sinners do / sinners also do even) the same. 34 And [n]if ye [o]lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? (even sinners / for sinners also) lend to sinners, to receive (again as much. / as much again.) 35 But [q]love ye your enemies, and do them good, and lend, [l](never / hoping for nothing again) [r](despairing / for nothing again); and your reward shall be great, and [s]ye shall be (sons / children) of [t]the Most High: for [v]he is kind (toward / unto) the unthankful and to the evil. 36 [x]Be ye (merciful, even / therefore merciful,) as [y]your Father also is merciful. 37 [bb](And / Judge) [c]judge not, and ye shall not be judged: and condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: [c](release, / forgive,) and ye shall be (released / forgiven): 38 [e]give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall (they / men) give [f]into your bosom. For [g]with (what / the same) measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake also a parable unto them, [i]Can the blind (guide / lead) the blind? shall they not both fall into (a pit / the ditch)? 40 [a]The disciple is not above his [2]master: but every one (when he / *that) is (perfected / perfect) shall be as his [2]master. 41 [bb]And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but [g](considerest / perceivest) not the beam that is in thine own eye? 42 (Or / Either) how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me (cast / pull) out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to (cast / pull) out the mote that is in thy brother's eye. 43 For [t](there is no / a) good tree (that bringeth / bringeth not) forth corrupt fruit; (nor again / neither doth) a corrupt tree (that bringeth / bring) forth good fruit. 44 For [u](each / every) tree is known by (its / his) own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they † grapes. 45 [p](The / A) good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and (the / an) evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth [u]that which is evil: [w]for (out /) of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 And [z]why [a]call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? 47 [d](Every one that / Whosoever) cometh (unto / to) me, and heareth my (words, / sayings,) and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like: 48 he is like a man (building a / which built an) house, (who / and) digged and went deep, and laid (a / the) foundation (upon the / on a) rock: and when (a / the) flood arose, the stream (brake against / beat vehemently upon) that house, and could not shake it: [3](because it had been well builded. / for it was founded upon a rock.) 49 [h]But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that (built a house upon / without a foundation) the earth without a foundation; built an house upon the earth; against which the stream brake, did beat vehemently, and straightway immediately it fell in; and [a]the ruin of that house was great.

7 1 After Now when he had ended all his sayings in the ears audience of the people, [b]he entered into Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurion's [1]servant, who was [2]dear unto him, was sick sick, and at the point of death. ready to die. 3 And when he heard concerning of Jesus, [c]he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, asking beseeching him that he would come and save heal his [1]servant. 4 And they, when they came to Jesus, they besought him earnestly, instantly, saying, [d]He is That he was worthy that thou shouldest do this for him: for whom he should do this 5 for he loveth our nation, and himself he hath built us [k]our a synagogue. 6 And Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, [e]trouble not thyself: for I am not [3]worthy that thou shouldest come enter under my roof: 7 wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but [4][f]say the in a word, and my [5]servant shall be healed. 8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under myself soldiers: me soldiers, and I say to this unto *one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my [1]servant, Do this, and he doeth it. 9 And when Jesus heard these things, [u]he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the multitude people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great [y]faith, no, not in Israel. 10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the [1]servant whole. whole that had been sick.

11 And it came to pass [6]soon afterwards, day after, that he went to into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and a great multitude. much people. 12 Now when he drew near came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was carried out one that a dead man carried was dead, out, [c]the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her. 13 And when the Lord saw her, [d]he had compassion on her, and [f]said unto her, Weep not. 14 And he came nigh and touched [g]the †bier: and the bearers they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, [i]Arise. 15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And [j]he gave delivered him to his mother. 16 And fear took hold there came a fear on all: and [l]they glorified God, saying, [m]That A great prophet is arisen risen up among us: us; and, That [n]God hath visited his people. 17 And this report went forth rumour of him concerning him in the whole of went forth throughout all Judæa, and throughout all the region round about.

18 [p]And [q]the disciples of John told shewed him of all these things. 19 And John calling unto him [7]two of his disciples sent them to the Lord, Jesus, saying, Art thou [s]he that cometh, should come? or [t]look we for another? 20 And when When the men were come unto him, they said, John the Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou [s]he that cometh, should come? or [t]look we for another? 21 In And in that same hour [v]he cured many of diseases their infirmities and [8][w]plagues plagues, and of evil spirits; and [z]on unto many that were blind he bestowed gave sight. 22 And he answered and Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; [z]the blind how that receive their sight, the blind see, the lame walk, [a]the lepers are cleansed, and [b]the deaf be with him: but he Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 Return to thy thine own house, and declare shew how great things God hath done for unto thee. And he went his way, publishing and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done for unto him.

40 And as it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the multitude welcomed people gladly received him; for they were all waiting for him. 41 And And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him to that he would come into his house; house: 42 for he had an one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the multitudes people thronged him.

43 And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which [1]had spent all her living upon physicians, and could not neither could be healed of any, 44 came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately the issue of her her issue of blood stanched. 45 And Jesus said, Who is it that touched me? And when When all denied, Peter said, [2]and they that were with him, him said, Master, the multitudes press multitude throng thee and crush thee. press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? 46 But And Jesus said, Some one did touch Somebody hath touched me: for I perceived perceive that power had virtue is gone forth from out of me. 47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him him, she declared in the unto him presence of before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately. 48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath [3]made thee whole; go in peace.

49 While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the [4]Master. 50 But Jesus when hearing Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: only believe, believe only, and she shall be [5]made whole. 51 And when he came to into the house, he suffered not any no man to enter in with him, go in, save Peter, and John, James, and James, John, and the father of the maiden and her and the mother of the mother. 52 And all were weeping, and maiden. wept, bewailing bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; for she is not dead, but sleepeth. 53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead. 54 But he, And he put them all out, taking and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maiden, Maid, arise. 55 And her spirit returned, came again, and she rose up arose immediately straightway: and he commanded that something be given her to eat: to give her meat. 56 And her parents were amazed astonished: but he charged them to that they should tell no man what had been was done.

1 Then And he called the twelve his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all [6]devils, and to cure diseases. 2 And he sent them forth to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal [7]the sick. 3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staff, staves, nor wallet, nor scrip, neither bread, nor neither money; neither have two coats. coats apiece. 4 And into whatsoever house ye enter, whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart. 5 And as many as receive you not, whosoever will not receive you, when ye depart from go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them. 6 And they departed, and went throughout through the villages, towns, preaching the gospel, and healing everywhere. every where.

that [a]John was risen from the dead; [8] and [a]by of some, that Elijah Elias had appeared; and [a]by of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again. [9] And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, about of whom I hear such things? And [e]he sought desired to see him.

[10] [f]And the apostles, when they were returned, declared unto told him what things all that they had done. [i]And he took them, and withdrew went aside apart to a privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida. [11] But And the multitudes perceiving it people, when they knew it, followed him: and he [n]welcomed received them, and [o]spake to unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed [o]them that had need of healing he healed. [12] And when [q]the day began to wear away; and away, then the twelve came, came the twelve, and said unto him, [t]Send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place. [13] But he said unto them, [w]Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more than but [x]five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy food meat for all this people. [14] For they were about five thousand men. And he said unto to his disciples, Make them [1]sit down in companies, about fifty each. by fifties in a company. [15] And they did so, and made them all [1]sit down. [16] And Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and [e]looking up to heaven, [f]he blessed them, and brake; brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude. [17] And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up that which of fragments that remained over to them of broken pieces, twelve baskets.

[18] [b]And it came to pass, as he was praying alone, the alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Who do the multitudes say Whom say the people that I am? [19] And they They answering said, [c]John the Baptist; but others some say, [d]Elijah Elias; and others, others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again. [20] And he He said unto them, But who whom say ye that I am? And Peter answering said, [g]The Christ of God. [21] [h]But And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell this to no man no man that thing; [22] [j]saying, [k]The Son of man must [l]suffer many things, and [m]be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, slain, and [p]the third day be raised up. be raised the third day. [23] And he said unto to them all, If any man would will come after me, let him [r]deny himself, and [s]take up his cross [u]daily, and follow me. [24] For [s]whosoever would will save his [2]life shall lose it; it: but whosoever shall will lose his [2]life for my sake, the same shall save it. [25] [v]For what is a man profited, advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose or forfeit his himself, or own self be cast away? [26] For [y]whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, [z]when he cometh shall come in [a]his own glory, and the glory of the Father, in his Father's, and of [b]the holy angels. [27] But I tell you of a truth, There there be some of them that stand standing here, which shall in no wise not [c]taste of death, [d]till they see the kingdom of God.

[28] [g]And it came to pass about an eight days after these *sayings, he took with him [h]Peter and John and James, and [i]went up into the a mountain to pray. [29] And as he was praying, prayed, the fashion of his countenance was [j]altered, and

[a]his raiment became white and dazzling. 30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elijah; 31 who appeared in glory, and spake of his [1c]decease which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. 32 Now Peter and they that were with him [e]were heavy with sleep: but [2]when they were fully awake, [h]they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. 33 And it came to pass, as they were parting from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three [3k]tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah: [m]not knowing what he said. 34 And while he said these things, there came [n]a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. 35 And [n]a voice came out of the cloud, saying, [q]This is [4]my Son, [r]my chosen: [s]hear ye him. 36 And when the voice [5]came, was past, Jesus was found alone. [u]And they held their peace, kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 [w]And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the mountain, a great multitude met him. 38 And, behold, a man of the multitude cried, saying, [6]Master, I beseech thee to look upon my son: for [a]he is mine only child: 39 and behold, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it [7cc]teareth him that he foameth, and foameth again, it hardly departeth from him, bruising him sorely. bruising him hardly departeth from him. 40 And I besought thy disciples to cast it out; and [g]they could not. 41 And Jesus answered and said, O [i]faithless and perverse generation, [j]how long shall I be with you, and bear with you? Bring thy son hither. 42 And as he was yet a coming, the [8]devil [9]dashed him down, and [10cc]tare him grievously. But Jesus [b]rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and [d]gave him back again to his father. 43 And they were all astonished at [f]the majesty of God.

[g]But while all were marvelling they wondered every one at all the things which he did, he said [i]unto his disciples, 44 Let these words sink down into your ears: [i]for the Son of man shall be delivered up into the hands of men. 45 [j]But they understood not this saying, and [l]it was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it: and they were afraid to ask him about that saying.

46 [o]And there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be [11]greatest. 47 But when Jesus [p]saw the reasoning of their heart, perceiving the thought he took a little child, and set him by his side, 48 and said unto them, [t]Whosoever shall receive this little child in my name receiveth me: and [t]whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for [v]he that is [12]least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 [x]And John answered and said, Master, we saw one [y]casting out [13]devils in thy name; and [z]we forbade him, because he followeth not with us. 50 But Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: [b]for he that is not against us is for us.

51 And it came to pass, when the days were well-nigh come that [d]he should be received up, [e]he stedfastly set his face [f]to go to Jerusalem, 52 and [h]sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of [k]the Samaritans, to make ready for him. 53 And [a]they did not receive him, because [c]his face was as though he were going as though he would go to Jerusalem. 54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we bid command [f]fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did [1h]? 55 But he turned, and rebuked them [2j], and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. 56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 And it came to pass, that, as they went [m]in the way, [n]a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. 58 And Jesus said unto him, The foxes Foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven air have [3o]nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. 59 And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. 60 But he Jesus said unto him, Leave Let [q]the dead to bury their own dead dead: but go thou and [s]publish abroad preach the kingdom of God. 61 And another also said, I will follow thee, Lord. Lord, I will follow thee; [t]but first suffer me to bid farewell to them that are them farewell, which are at home at my house. 62 But And Jesus said unto him, [x]No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

[a]by whom do [b]your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. 20 But if I [by with] [d]the finger of God cast out [1]devils, [then is no doubt] [e]the kingdom of God is come upon you. 21 When [the a] strong man [fully] armed [guardeth keepeth] his [own court, palace,] his goods are in peace: 22 [h]but when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and [j]overcome him, he taketh from him [his [k]whole all his] armour wherein he trusted, and [l]divideth his spoils. 23 [m]He that is not with me is against [me; me:] and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. 24 [o]The [When unclean spirit when [2]he the unclean spirit] is gone out of [the a] man, [passeth he walketh] through [p]waterless dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, [2]he saith, I will [turn back return] unto my house whence I came out. 25 And when [2]he [is come, cometh,] [2]he findeth it swept and garnished. 26 Then goeth [2]he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more [evil wicked] than [3]himself; and they enter [in in,] and dwell there: and [s]the last state of that man [becometh is] worse than the first.

27 And it came to pass, as he [said spake] these things, [u]a certain woman [out of the multitude company] lifted up her voice, and said unto him, [x]Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the [breasts paps] which thou [didst suck, hast sucked.] 28 But he said, Yea rather, [z]blessed are they [a]that hear the word of God, and [c]keep it.

29 And [d]when the [multitudes people] were [gathering together unto him, gathered thick together,] he began to say, [e]This [generation] is an evil generation: [h]it [seeketh after they seek] a sign; and there shall no sign be given [to it it,] but the sign of [Jonas Jonah the prophet.] 30 For [even as [i]Jonah became as Jonas was] a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation. 31 [l]The queen of the south shall rise up in the [judgement judgment] with the men of this generation, and [c]shall condemn them: for she came from the [ends utmost parts] of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; [and and,] behold, [4f]a greater than Solomon is here. 32 [g]The men of [Nineveh Nineve] shall [stand rise] up in the [judgement judgment] with this generation, and [c]shall condemn it: for [i]they repented at the preaching of [Jonah; and Jonas; and,] behold, [4f]a greater than [Jonah Jonas] is here.

33 [n]No man, when he hath lighted a [lamp, candle,] putteth it in a [cellar, secret place,] neither under [the a] *bushel, but on [the stand, a candlestick,] that they which [enter come] in may see the light. 34 [q]The [lamp light] of [thy the] body is [thine the] eye: [therefore] when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when [it thine eye] is [r]evil, thy body also is full of darkness. 35 [q]Look [Take heed] [whether that] therefore the light [that which] is in thee be not darkness. 36 If [therefore thy whole body thy whole body therefore] be full of light, having no part dark, [it shall be wholly the whole shall be] full of light, [t]as when [†]the [lamp bright with its bright shining shining of a candle] doth give thee light.

37 [Now And] as he spake, [v]a [certain] Pharisee [asketh besought] him to [5w]dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat. 38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled [y]that he had not first washed before [5w]dinner. 39 And the Lord said unto him, [b]Now do ye Pharisees [cleanse make clean] the outside of the cup and [of] the platter; but your inward part is full of [f]extortion [ravening] and wickedness. 40 [g]Ye [foolish ones, fools,] [b]did not he that made [the outside that which is without] [make that which is inside] also? 41 [Howbeit But rather] [i]give [for alms within] alms [those which [6]are within as ye have] things [‡of such ; and,] behold, [k]all things are clean unto you.

[a] in the presence of (before) the angels of God.
10 And [b] every one who (whosoever) shall speak a word [d] against the Son of man, [f] it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that [g] blasphemeth against the Holy Spirit (Ghost) it shall not be forgiven. 11 [h] And when they [i] bring you before (unto) the synagogues, and [k] the rulers, (unto) magistrates, and [k] the authorities, powers, [l] be not anxious (take ye no thought) how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say: 12 [n] for the Holy Spirit (Ghost) shall teach you in that (the) very same hour what ye ought to say.
13 And [p] one (out) of the multitude (company) said unto him, [1] Master, bid (speak to) my brother, (that he) divide the inheritance with me. 14 But (And) he said unto him, [q] Man, [r] who made me a judge or a divider over you? 15 And he said unto them, [i] Take heed, and keep yourselves from all (beware of) covetousness: [2] for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.
16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, [v] The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully: 17 and he reasoned (thought) within himself, saying, [x] What shall I do, because I have not (no) room where to bestow my fruits?
18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my [z] barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my corn (fruits) and my goods.
19 And I will say to my [3] soul, [3] Soul, thou hast much goods laid up [h] for many years; take thine ease, [j] eat, drink, and be merry.
20 But God said unto him, [m] Thou foolish one, (fool,) [h] this night [4] *[o] is thy [3] soul (*thy soul shall be) required of thee; (and the things which thou hast prepared, [p] whose shall they be? 21 So (thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?) is he [q] that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

22 And he said unto his disciples, [c] Therefore I say unto you, [c] Be not anxious (Take no thought) for your [5] life, what ye shall eat; nor yet (neither) for your (the) body, what ye shall put on.
23 For the (The) [5] life is more than the food, (meat,) and the body (is more than) raiment.
24 [j] Consider the ravens, (that ravens:) for they sow not, neither (neither sow nor) reap; which have no (neither have) store-chamber (storehouse) nor barn; and God feedeth them: [m] of how much more are ye (value are ye) better than the birds (fowls)?
25 And which of you by being anxious (with taking thought) can add a cubit unto his [6] [o] stature (to his stature one cubit)? 26 If then ye are (ye then be) not able to do even that which is least, why are ye anxious (take ye thought) concerning (for) the rest?
27 Consider the lilies, (lilies) how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin; (they spin not; and) yet I say unto you, [t] Even (that) Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.
28 But (If) then God doth so clothe the grass in the field, which to-day is, (grass, which is to day in the field,) and to-morrow (to morrow) is cast into the oven; how much more shall (will) he clothe you, [u] O ye of little faith?
29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, (and) or what ye shall drink, [t] neither [w] be ye of doubtful mind.
30 For all these things [y] do the nations of the world seek after: (but and) [y] your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.
31 (Howbeit But rather) [a] seek ye [7] [b] his kingdom, (the kingdom of God;) [c] and all these things shall be added unto you.
32 [d] Fear not, little [e] flock; for [f] it is your Father's good pleasure to give you [g] the kingdom.
33 [i] Sell that ye have, and [k] give alms; [l] make for (provide) yourselves purses (bags) which wax not old, [n] a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief draweth near, (approacheth,) neither moth destroyeth (corrupteth).
34 [r] For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
35 [s] Let your loins be girded

13 1 Now there were There were some present at that very season which some that told him of the Galilæans, whose blood [h]Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. 2 And he answered and Jesus answering said unto them, [i]Think Suppose ye that these Galilæans were sinners above all the Galilæans, because they have suffered these such things? 3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye [k]repent, ye shall all in like manner likewise perish. 4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in [m]Siloam fell, and killed slew them, think ye that they were [2]°offenders †sinners above all the men that dwell dwelt in Jerusalem? 5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye [k]repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 And he spake He spake also this parable; A certain man had [r]a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came seeking and sought fruit thereon, and found none. 7 And he said Then said he unto the vinedresser, dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: [u]cut it down; why doth it also cumber cumbereth it the ground? 8 And he answering saith said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: 9 and if it bear fruit thenceforth, well; but fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And [w]he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath day. 11 And And, behold, there was a woman which had [z]a spirit of infirmity eighteen years; years, and she was bowed together, and could in no wise lift herself up. up herself. 12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her, her to him, and said to unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. 13 And he [a]laid his hands upon on her: and immediately she was made straight, and [c]glorified God. 14 And [d]the ruler of the synagogue, being moved synagogue answered with indignation indignation, because that Jesus [f]had healed on the sabbath, answered sabbath day, and said to unto the multitude, people, [g]There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the day of the sabbath. 15 But the Lord sabbath day. The Lord then answered him, and said, Ye hypocrites, Thou hypocrite, [j]doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the [3]stall, and lead him away to watering? 16 And ought not this woman, [l]being a daughter of Abraham, whom [n]Satan had hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, to have been be loosed from this bond on the day of the sabbath sabbath day? 17 And as he when he had said these things, [p]all his adversaries were put to shame ashamed: and [q]all the multitude people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 [s]He said therefore, Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I liken resemble it? 19 It is like unto [t]a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and cast into his own garden and it grew, and became a waxed a great tree and the birds fowls of the heaven air lodged in the branches thereof. of it. 20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God? 21 [v]It is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in [x]three [4]†measures of meal, till it was [y]all the whole was leavened.

22 [a]And he went on his way through the cities and villages, teaching and [a]journeying on unto toward Jerusalem. 23 And one said Then said one unto him, Lord, are they there few [c]that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 [e]Strive [f]to enter in by at the narrow door strait gate: for many, I say unto you, shall will seek to enter in, and shall not be [1]able. 25 [l]When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, [n]Lord, Lord, open to unto us; and he shall answer and say to unto you, [o]I know you not whence ye are; are: 26 then shall ye begin to say, [q]We did eat have eaten and drink drunk in thy presence, and thou didst teach hast taught in our streets; 27 and streets. But he shall say, I tell you, [o]I know you not whence ye are; [s]depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. 28 [u]There shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see [u]Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and [u]yourselves cast forth without. you yourselves thrust out. 29 And [u]they shall come from the east east, and from the west, and from the north north, and from the south, and [y]shall [2]sit down in the kingdom of God. 30 And And, behold, [z]there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

31 In that very hour The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying to unto him, Get thee out, and go depart [b]hence: for [c]Herod would fain will kill thee. 32 And he said unto them, Go and say to ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out [3]devils devils, and perform I do cures to-day to day and to-morrow, to morrow, and the third day [d]I am shall be perfected. 33 Howbeit Nevertheless [e]I [f]must go on my way to-day walk to day, and to-morrow to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that [g]a prophet perish out of Jerusalem. 34 [h]O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, [j]which killeth killest the prophets, and stoneth stonest them that are sent unto her! thee; [b]how often would I have [d]gathered [g]thy children together, [k]even as a hen gathereth doth gather her own brood [i]under her wings, and [j]ye would not! 35 Behold, [k]your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, [m]Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 [1]And it came to pass, [p]when as he went into the house of one of the rulers of the chief Pharisees on a sabbath to eat bread, to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they were [r]watching watched him. 2 And And, behold, there was before him a certain a certain man before man him which had the dropsy. 3 And Jesus answering spake unto [t]the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, [v]Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath, or not? sabbath day? 4 But And they held their peace. his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music (musick) and dancing. 26 And he called to him one of the servants, and inquired (asked) what these things might be (meant). 27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. 28 But (And) he was angry, and would not go in: and his father therefore came his father (came) out, and intreated him. 29 But (And) he answered and (answering) said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, and I never (neither) transgressed a commandment of thine (I at any time thy commandment): and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might [d]make merry with my friends: 30 but when (as soon as) this thy son came, (was come,) [g]which hath devoured [i]thy living with harlots, thou killedst (hast killed) for him the fatted calf. 31 And he said unto him, [1]Son, [k]thou art ever with me, and all that is mine (I have) is thine. 32 But it (It) was meet that we (to) should make merry, (merry,) and be glad: for this thy brother [m]was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

16 1 And he said also unto the (his) disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had [o]a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he was wasting (had wasted) his goods. 2 And he called him, and said unto him, What is this that I hear (How is it that I hear this) of thee? render the (give an) account of thy [p]stewardship; for thou canst (mayest) be no longer steward. 3 And (Then) the steward said within himself, What shall I do, seeing that (do? for) my lord taketh away the stewardship from me (the stewardship from me: I cannot) dig; to beg I am ashamed. 4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. 5 And calling to him each (So he called every) one of his lord's debtors, he said (debtors unto him, and said) unto (to) the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? 6 And he said, A (An) hundred [2*]measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy [3]bond, (bill,) and sit down quickly (quickly,) and write fifty. 7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, A (An) hundred [4†]measures of wheat. He saith (And he said) unto him, Take thy [3]bond, (bill,) and write fourscore. 8 And his (the) lord commended [5a]the unrighteous steward (unjust steward,) because he had done [b]wisely: for [c]the sons (children) of this [6]world are for their own (in their) generation [b]wiser than [e]the sons of the (children of) light. 9 And I say unto you, [f]Make to yourselves friends [7]by means of [h]the [‡]mammon of unrighteousness; that, when it shall (ye) fail, they may receive you into the eternal tabernacles (everlasting habitations). 10 [j]He that is [l]faithful in a very little (that which is least) is faithful also in much: and he that is unrighteous (unjust) in a very little (the least) is unrighteous (unjust) also in much. 11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous [‡]mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? 12 And if ye have not been faithful in [n]that which is another's, (another man's,) who will (shall) give you that which is [8]your own? 13 [h]No [9]servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 And [q]the Pharisees, (Pharisees also,) who were [r]lovers of money, (covetous,) heard all these things; and they [s]scoffed at (derided) him. 15 And he said unto them, Ye are they that (which) [t]justify yourselves in the sight of (before) men; but [u]God knoweth your hearts: for that which is exalted / highly esteemed among men [a]is an abomination in the sight of God. 16 [b]The law and the prophets were until John: from / since that time [c]the gospel of the kingdom of God is preached, and [d]every man entereth violently / presseth into it. 17 But / And [e]it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tittle of the law to fall. / fail. 18 [f]Every one that / Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and he that / whosoever marrieth one / her that is put away from a / her husband committeth adultery.

19 Now there / There was a certain rich man, and he / which was clothed in [k]purple and fine linen, [l]faring / and fared sumptuously every day: 20 and there was a certain beggar named Lazarus / Lazarus, which [n]was laid at his gate, full of sores, 21 and desiring to be fed with [q]the crumbs that / which fell from the rich man's table; yea, even / table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. 22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and that he / was carried away by [s]the angels [t]into Abraham's bosom: and / the rich man also died, and was buried. / buried; 23 And in [w]Hades / hell he lifted / lift up his eyes, [y]being in torments, and [a]seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus [t]in his bosom. 24 And he cried and said, [b]Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and [e]cool my tongue; for [f]I am in anguish / tormented in this flame. 25 But Abraham said, [2]Son, remember that [j]thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and Lazarus in like manner / likewise Lazarus evil things: but now here he is comforted, and thou art in anguish. / tormented. 26 And [3]beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, / fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you may not be able, and that / cannot; neither can they none may cross over from thence to us. 27 And pass to us, that would come from thence. Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house; / house: 28 for I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. 29 But Abraham saith, / Abraham saith unto him, [g]They have [g]Moses and the prophets; [h]let them hear them. 30 And he said, Nay, [i]father Abraham: but if one go to / went unto them from the dead, they will repent. 31 And he said unto him, If they hear not [g]Moses and the prophets, [j]neither will they be persuaded, if / though one rise / rose from the dead.

17 1 And he said / Then said he unto his / the disciples, [m]It is impossible but that [o]occasions of stumbling / offences should / will come: but [p]woe unto him, through whom they come! 2 [r]It were well / better for him if / that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were thrown / cast into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these / offend one of these little ones to stumble. / little ones. 3 Take heed to yourselves: [u]if / If thy brother sin, / trespass against thee, [v]rebuke him; and if he repent, [x]forgive him. 4 And if he sin / trespass against thee [z]seven times in the / a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And [c]the apostles said unto the Lord, [d]Increase our faith. 6 And the Lord said, [g]If ye have / had faith as [h]a grain of mustard seed, ye would / might say unto this [i]sycamine tree, Be thou rooted up, / plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it would have obeyed / should obey you. 7 But who is there / which of you, having a [4]servant plowing or keeping sheep, / feeding cattle, will say unto him, / him by and by, when he is come in from the field, 18 [1]And he spake a parable unto them to the end to this end, that they men ought [k]always to pray, and not [l]to faint; [2] saying, There was [†]in a city a judge, which [m]feared not God, and regarded not neither regarded man: [3] and there was a widow in that city; and she came oft unto him, saying, [3]Avenge me of mine adversary. [6] And the Lord said, Hear what [5][v]the unrighteous unjust judge saith. [7] And [w]shall not God avenge [y]his own elect, [z]which cry to him day and night, and [a]he day and night unto him, though is longsuffering over them? bear long with [8] I say unto you, that he will avenge them you, [c]speedily. Howbeit Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, [d]shall he find [6]faith on the earth?

[9] And he spake also this parable unto certain [f]which trusted [g]in themselves [‡]that they were righteous, [h]and set [7]all others at nought: despised others: [10] Two men [j]went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. [11] The Pharisee [k]stood and prayed [m]thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as the rest of men, other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. [12] [b]I fast twice in the week; week, [d]I give tithes of all that I get. possess. [13] But And the publican, [e]standing afar off, [f]would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but [g]smote upon his breast, saying, God, God [8][h]be merciful to me [9]a sinner. [14] I say unto tell you, This this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for [j]every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; but abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

[15] [n]And they brought unto him also their babes, infants, that he should would touch them: but when the his disciples saw it, they [o]rebuked them. [16] But Jesus called them unto him, saying, and said, [p]Suffer the little children to come unto me, and [r]forbid them not: [p]for of such is the kingdom of God. [17] [s]Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not [u]receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he child shall in no wise enter therein.

[18] [x]And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good [10]Master, what shall I do to [b]inherit eternal life? [19] And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, even that is, God. [20] Thou knowest the commandments, [c]Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother. when he heard these things, this, he became was exceeding sorrowful; very sorrowful: for he was very rich. 24 And Jesus when Jesus saw that he seeing him was very sorrowful, he said, [b]How hardly shall they that have riches enter into [d]the kingdom of God! 25 For it is easier for a camel to enter in go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into [d]the kingdom of God. 26 And they that heard it said, Then who Who then can be saved? 27 But And he said, [e]The things which are impossible with men are possible with God. 28 And Then Peter said, Lo, [g]we have left [1]our own, all, and followed thee. 29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, [i]There is no man that hath left house, or wife, parents, or brethren, or parents, wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, 30 who shall not receive [m]manifold more [n]in this present time, and in [o]the [2]world to come eternal life. life everlasting.

31 [q]And Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, [r]we go up to Jerusalem, and [s]all the things that are written [3]by the prophets shall be accomplished unto the Son of man. concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished. 32 For he shall be [u]delivered up unto the Gentiles, and shall be [v]mocked, and shamefully spitefully entreated, and [x]spit upon spitted on: 33 and they shall scourge him, and put kill him to death: and [y]the third day he shall rise again. 34 [z]And they understood none of these things; things: and [a]this saying was hid from them, and neither they perceived not knew they the things that which were said. spoken.

35 [d]And it came to pass, that as he drew was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain [f]blind man sat by the way side begging: 36 and hearing a the multitude going pass by, he inquired asked what this it meant. 37 And they told him, that [g]Jesus of Nazareth passeth by. 38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, [a]thou son of David, have mercy on me. 39 And they that which went before [c]rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, so much the more, Thou son of David, have mercy on me. 40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, 41 Saying, [f]What wilt thou that I should shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight. 42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: [h]thy faith hath [4]made thee whole. saved thee. 43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, [k]glorifying God: and [l]all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

19 1 And [p]he Jesus entered and was passing passed through Jericho. 2 And behold, there was a man called by name Zacchæus; and he named Zacchæus, which was a the chief publican, among the publicans, and he was rich. 3 And [t]he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the crowd, press, because he was little of stature. 4 And he ran on before, and climbed up into [w]a sycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way. 5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come down; for to-day to day [b]I must abide at thy house. 6 And he made haste, and came down, and [c]received him joyfully. 7 And when they saw it, they all [e]murmured, saying, He is That he was gone in to lodge to be guest with a man that is a sinner. 8 And Zacchæus stood, and said unto the Lord, Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods [h]I give to the 11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because [h]they supposed thought that the kingdom of God was immediately to should immediately appear. 12 He said therefore, [i]A certain nobleman went into a far country, country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. 13 And he called [j]ten his [1]servants of his, ten servants, and gave delivered them ten [2*]pounds, and said unto them, Trade ye Occupy herewith [l]till I come. 14 But [m]his citizens hated him, and sent an ambassage a message after him, saying, We will not that this man have this man to reign over us. 15 And it came to pass, that when he was come back again, returned, having received the kingdom, that then he commanded these [1]servants, unto whom servants to be called he had given the money, to be called to him, unto him, to whom he had given the †money, that he might know how much what every man had gained by trading. 16 And the first came before him, Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath made gained ten pounds more. 17 And he said unto him, Well done, thou good [3]servant: because thou wast found hast been [u]faithful in a very little, [v]have thou authority over ten cities. 18 And the second came, saying, Thy pound, Lord, Lord, thy pound hath made gained five pounds. 19 And he said unto him also, likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities. 20 And [4]another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in [y]a napkin: 21 for I feared thee, because thou art [z]an austere man: thou takest up [b]that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow. 22 He And he saith unto him, [d]Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, [e]thou wicked [3]servant. Thou knewest that I am was [z]an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow; sow: 23 then wherefore Wherefore then gavest thou not not thou my money into the bank, and that [5]I at my coming should I might have required it mine own with interest usury? 24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take away from him the pound, and give it unto to him that hath the ten pounds. 25 And (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds. pounds.) 26 For I say unto you, that That [k]unto every one that which hath shall be given; but and from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away from him. 27 Howbeit But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and [n]slay them before me.

28 And when he had thus spoken, [o]he went on before, [p]going ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 [q]And it came to pass, when he drew was come nigh unto to Bethphage and [r]Bethany, at the mount that is called [s]the mount of Olives, he sent [t]two of the his disciples, 30 saying, Go your way ye into the village over against you; in the which as ye enter at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, [w]whereon no man ever yet yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither. him. 31 And if any one man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say, The say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him. 32 And they that were sent went away, their way, and found [x]even as he had said unto them. 33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt? 34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him. 35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they threw their garments upon the colt, and set Jesus thereon. 36 And as he went, they [d]spread their garments in the way. 37 And when he was now drawing nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, [e]the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice [h]for all the [1]mighty works that they had seen; 38 saying, [i]Blessed is [k]the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and [m]glory in the highest. 39 [n]And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, [2]Master, rebuke thy disciples. 40 And he answered and said, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, [p]the stones would immediately cry out.

41 [q]And when he drew nigh, was come near, he beheld the city, and [s]wept over it, 42 saying, [3][t]If thou hadst known in this day, even thou, known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now [v]they are hid from thine eyes. 43 For [w]the days shall come upon thee, when that thine enemies [x]shall cast up a [4]bank about thee, and [y]compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 [a]and shall dash thee even to with the ground, and thy children within thee; and [d]they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not [f]the time of thy [g]visitation.

45 [h]And he entered into the went temple, and began to cast out them that sold, sold therein, and them that bought; 46 saying unto them, It is written, [k]And my house shall be a My is the house of prayer: but [a]ye have made it a den of robbers. thieves.

47 [b]And he was teaching taught daily in the temple. [c]But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief principal men of the people sought to destroy him: him, 48 and they could not find what they might do: do; for the people all hung upon him, listening. all the people *were very attentive to hear him.

20 1 [f]And it came to pass, that on one of the those days, [g]as he was teaching taught the people in the temple, and preaching preached the gospel, [j]there came upon him the chief priests, the chief priests and the scribes came and the scribes upon him with the elders; elders, 2 and they spake, saying unto him, Tell us: [l]By what spake unto him, saying, us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority? 3 And he answered and said unto them, I also will ask you a question one thing; and tell answer me: 4 The baptism of John, was it [o]from heaven, or from of men? 5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, [r]Why did ye not believe him? then believed ye him not? 6 But if we shall and if we say, From Of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was [u]a prophet. 7 And they answered, that they knew not could not tell whence it was. 8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 [z]And he began Then began he to speak unto to the people this parable: parable; A certain man planted [b]a vineyard, and [c]let it out forth to husbandmen, and [e]went into another a far country for a long time. 10 And at the season he sent unto the husbandmen a [6]servant, a servant to the husbandmen, that [c]they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: [i]but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty. 11 [i]And again [j]he sent yet another [6]servant: and him also they beat, they beat him also, and [l]handled entreated him

19 [x]And the scribes chief priests and the chief priests scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him in that very hour; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he spake had spoken this parable against them. 20 [y]And they [a]watched him, and sent forth spies, which feigned should feign themselves to be righteous, just men, that they might [e]take hold of his speech, words, that so as to they might deliver him up to the rule unto the power and to the authority of [g]the governor. 21 And they asked him, saying, [2]Master, [j]we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, and neither [m]acceptest not the thou the person of any, but of a truth teachest [a]the way of God *truly: 22 Is it lawful for us to give [c]tribute unto [d]Cæsar, or not no? 23 But he perceived their [e]craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me? 24 Shew me [g]a [3†]penny. 27 And there Then came to him certain of [o]the Sadducees, [p]they which say deny that there is no any resurrection; and they asked him, 28 saying, [2]Master, Moses wrote unto us, [s]that if a If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he be childless, die without children, that his brother should take the his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. 29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died childless; without children. 30 and the second; And the second took her to wife, and he died childless. 31 and And the third took her; and likewise in like manner the seven also also: and they left no children, and died. 32 Afterward Last of all the woman also died. died also. 33 In the resurrection therefore Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them shall she be? is she for the seven had her to wife. 34 And Jesus answering said unto them, [z]The sons children of this [4]world [b]marry, and [b]are given in marriage: 35 but they that are which shall be [d]accounted worthy to attain to obtain [f]that [4]world, and the resurrection from the dead, [h]neither marry, [h]nor are given in marriage: 36 for [4]neither Neither can they die any more: for they are [k]equal unto the angels; and [l]are [m]sons the children of God, being [n]sons the children of the resurrection. 37 But Now that

Sit thou on my right hand,
43 Till I make thine enemies [t]the thy footstool of thy feet. footstool.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, and [v]how is he then his son?

45 [w]And Then in the hearing audience of all the people he said unto his disciples, 46 Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love salutations greetings in the marketplaces, markets, and the chief highest seats in the synagogues, and the [c]chief places rooms at feasts; 47 [e]which devour widows' houses, and [f]for a pretence shew make long prayers: these the same shall receive [h]greater condemnation. damnation.

21 1 [j]And he looked up, [2]and saw the rich men that were [o]casting their gifts into [q]the treasury. 2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two [*s]mites. 3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, [u]This that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all: 4 for all these did have of their superfluity abundance cast in unto the gifts offerings of God: but she of her [y]want did penury hath cast in all [z]the living that she had.

R.V. [1] Or, Teacher [2] Or, and saw them that . . . treasury, and they were rich. [3] Gr. you being brought. [4] Or, shall they put to death to be put to death. 17 [a]And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. 18 And [c]not a hair of your head shall perish. 19 In your [d]patience [e]ye shall win your [1]souls.

20 But [f]when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that [h]her desolation is at hand. 21 Then let them which are in Judæa flee unto the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter therein. 22 For these be the [m]days of [n]vengeance, [o]that all things which are written may be fulfilled. 23 [r]But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress upon the [2]land, and [v]wrath upon this people. 24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and [y]shall be led away captive into all nations: and [z]Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, [b]until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled. 25 And [d]there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, [f]and in the stars; and upon the earth [g]distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; 26 men [3]fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on the world: for [i]the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. 27 And then shall they see [k]the Son of man coming in a cloud [m]with power and great glory. 28 But when these things begin to come to pass, look up, and [q]lift up your heads; because [r]your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees; 30 when they now shoot forth, ye see it and know [b]of your own selves that the summer is now nigh. 31 Even so ye also, likewise, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand. 32 [g]Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all things be accomplished. 33 [i]Heaven and earth shall pass away: but [j]my words shall not pass away.

34 But take heed to yourselves, [k]lest haply at any time [l]your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and [p]cares of this life, and so [q]that day come on you unawares. 35 For as a snare shall it come [s]upon all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth. 36 But [t]watch ye at every season, [u]making supplication, that ye may be accounted worthy [w]to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and [x]to stand before the Son of man.

37 And [a]every day he was teaching in the temple; and [c]every night he went out, and lodged in the mount that is called [e]the mount of Olives. 38 And [a]all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

22 [1][h]Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called [j]the Passover. 2 And the chief priests and the scribes [l]sought how they might put him to death; for they feared the people.

3 [n]And [o]Satan entered into [p]Judas who was called Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve. 4 And he went away, and communed with the chief priests and [s]captains, how he might deliver him unto them. 5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

6 And he consented, promised, and sought opportunity to [a]deliver betray him unto them [1]*[b]in the absence of the multitude.

7 [f]And Then came [g]the day of unleavened bread came, on which bread, when the passover must be sacrificed. killed. 8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and make ready for prepare us the passover, that we may eat. 9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we make ready? prepare 10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall meet you a man a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house whereinto he goeth. where he entereth in. 11 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, [m]The [2]Master saith unto thee, Where is [n]the guest-chamber, guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? 12 And he will shall shew you [r]a large upper room furnished: there make ready. 13 And they went, and found [s]as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 [u]And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him. 15 And he said unto them, [t]With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer: 16 for I say unto you, I will not any more eat it, thereof, [y]until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. 17 And he received a took the cup, and [b]when he had given gave thanks, he and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves: 18 [d]for I say unto you, I will not drink from henceforth of the fruit of the vine, [y]until the kingdom of God shall come. 19 [h]And he took [3]bread, and [b]when he had given gave thanks, he and brake it, and gave to unto them, saying, [j]This is my body [4]which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. 20 And the cup in like manner Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, [c]This cup is [d]the new [5][e]covenant testament in my blood, even that which is poured out shed for you. 21 [k]But But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is [i]with me on the table. 22 For the Son of man indeed And truly the Son of man goeth, [j]as it hath been was determined: but woe unto that man through by whom he is betrayed! 23 And they began to question inquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 And [k]there arose was also a contention strife among them, which of them is should be accounted to be [6]greatest. 25 [l]And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles [o]have exercise lordship over them; and they that have exercise authority over upon them are called [p]Benefactors. benefactors. 26 [q]But ye shall not be so: but [o]he that is the greater greatest among you, let him become be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. 27 For whether is greater, [t]he that [7]sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that [7]sitteth at meat? but [v]I am in the midst of among you as he that serveth. 28 But ye Ye are they which have continued with me [w]in my temptations; temptations. 29 and And [8][x]I appoint unto you a kingdom, even as my Father as my Father hath appointed unto me, me; 30 [z]that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom; kingdom, and [a]ye shall sit on thrones judging [c]the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, [e]Satan [9]asked hath desired to have you, [f]that he might may sift you as wheat: 32 but [g]I made supplication have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and do thou, when once thou hast art turned again, converted, [i]establish strengthen thy brethren. 33 And he said unto him, Lord, with thee I am ready to go I am ready to go with thee, both to prison into prison, 35 And he said unto them, [f]When I sent you forth without purse, and wallet, scrip, and shoes, lacked ye anything any thing? And they said, Nothing. 36 And he said Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise a wallet his scrip: [1]and he that hath none, no sword, let him sell his cloke, garment, and buy a sword. one. 37 For I say unto you, that [h]this which that is written must yet be fulfilled accomplished in me, [i]And he was reckoned with among the transgressors: for [j]that which concerneth the things concerning me hath [2]fulfilment. have an end. 38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two [l]swords. And he said unto them, [m]It is enough.

39 [n]And he came out, and went, [o]as his custom was, he was wont, unto [p]the mount of Olives; and the his disciples also followed him. 40 [r]And when he was at [s]the place, he said unto them, [u]Pray that ye [w]enter not into temptation. 41 And he was parted withdrawn from them about a stone's cast cast; and [z]he kneeled down down, and prayed, 42 saying, [b]Father, if thou be *willing, remove [c]this cup from me: [e]nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done. 43 [3]And there appeared unto him [f]an angel an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him. 44 And [b]being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat became was as it were great drops of blood falling down upon to the ground. 45 And when he rose up from his prayer, he came unto the and was come to his disciples, and he found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 and said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and [c]pray, that ye enter not lest ye enter into temptation.

47 [d]While And while he yet spake, behold, behold a multitude, and he that was called [e]Judas, one of the twelve, went before them; them, and he drew near unto Jesus to kiss him. 48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss? 49 And when When they that which were about him saw what would follow, they said, said unto him, Lord, shall we smite [g]with the sword? 50 And a certain one of them smote the [4]servant of the high priest, and struck cut off his right ear. 51 But And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him. 52 And Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and [k]captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come against to him, Are Be ye come out, as against a robber, thief, with swords and staves? 53 When [q]I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched not forth your forth no hands against me: but this is [t]your hour, and [v]the power of darkness.

54 [z]And they seized Then took they him, and led him away, and brought him into the high priest's house. [y]But And Peter followed afar off. 55 [a]And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of [d]the court, hall, and had sat were set down together, Peter sat in the down midst of among them. 56 And But a certain maid seeing beheld him as he sat in the light by of the fire, the fire, and looking stedfastly earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man also was was also with him. 57 But And he denied, denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not. 58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou also art one art also of them. But And Peter said, Man, I am not. 59 And after about the space of about one hour one hour after another [g]confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this man fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilæan. 60 But And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew. 61 And the Lord turned, and [c]looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how that he he had said unto him, [e]Before the cock crow this day, thou shalt [f]deny me thrice. 62 And he Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 [h]And the men that held [1]Jesus mocked him, and beat smote him. 64 [h]And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, [i]Prophesy: Prophesy, [i]who is he it that struck smote thee? 65 And many other things spake they against blasphemously him, [l]reviling him. spake they against him.

66 [n]And as soon as it was day, [o]the assembly of the elders of the people was elders of the people and the chief gathered together, both chief priests and scribes; priests and the scribes came together, and they led him away into their [p]council, [q]saying, 67 [r]If thou art [s]the Art thou the Christ, Christ? tell us. But And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe: 68 and if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go. answer. 69 But from henceforth Hereafter shall the Son of man be seated [u]at sit on the right hand of the power of God. 70 And they Then all said, said they all, Art thou then [v]the Son of God? And he said unto them, [2][z]Ye say that I am. 71 And they said, What further need have we of need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard from of his own mouth.

23 [1][b]And the whole company multitude of them rose up, arose, and brought led him before unto Pilate. 2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this man fellow [f]perverting our the nation, and [g]forbidding to give tribute to [h]Cæsar, and saying that he himself is [3]Christ [j]a king. King. 3 [k]And Pilate asked him, saying, [l]Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, [a]Thou sayest. sayest it. 4 And Then Pilate said unto said Pilate to the multitudes, to the people, [b]I find no fault in this man. 5 But And they were the more urgent, fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Judæa, and Jewry, [d]beginning from Galilee even unto to this place. 6 But when When Pilate heard it of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilæan. 7 And when as soon as he knew that he was of belonged unto [g]Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him unto to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem in these days. at that time.

8 Now And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: [j]for he was of a long time desirous to see him, desirous to see him of a long season, [k]because he had heard concerning many things of him; and he hoped [m]to see have seen some [4]miracle done by him. 9 And Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing. 10 And the chief priests and the scribes stood, stood and vehemently accusing accused him. 11 And Herod with his soldiers men of war [t]set him at nought, and [u]mocked him, and [v]arraying arrayed him in gorgeous apparel a gorgeous robe, and sent him back again to Pilate. 12 And [x]Herod and Pilate became friends with each the same day Pilate and Herod were made other that very day friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 And Pilate Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and [a]the rulers and the people, 14 and said Said unto them, Ye have brought unto me this man, this man unto me, [c]as one that perverteth the people: and and, behold, I, [d]having examined him before you, have [e]found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him: 15 no, nor yet Herod: for [4]he I sent him back unto us; and behold, you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death hath been done by is done unto him. 16 [m]I will therefore chastise him, and release him.[1] 17 (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.) 18 [c]But they cried out all together, saying, [d]Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas: 19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and [g]for murder, was cast into prison.) 20 And Pilate spake unto them again, desiring to release Jesus; 21 but they cried, saying, Crucify, Crucify him, 22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, [h]what evil hath he done? [k]I have found no cause of death in him: [m]I will therefore chastise him, and let him go. 23 But they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed. 24 And Pilate [*w]gave sentence that it should be as they required. 25 And he released unto them him that [y]for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; [c]but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 [d]And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and laid on him the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 And there followed him a great company of people, and of women which also [h]bewailed and lamented him. 28 But Jesus turning unto them said, [i]Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. 29 For, behold, [k]the days are coming, in the which they shall say, [l]Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck. 30 [n]Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. 31 For [a]if they do these things in [b]a green tree, what shall be done in [b]the dry?

32 [e]And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 [f]And when they were come to the place, which is called †Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, [e]one on the right hand, and the other on the left. 34 [3]Then said Jesus, Father, [i]forgive them; [j]for they know not what they do. [l]And they parted his raiment, and cast lots. 35 And [n]the people stood beholding. [o]And [p]the rulers also [q]with them derided him, saying, [r]He saved others; [s]let him save himself, [t]if he be Christ, the chosen of God. 36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and [x]offering him vinegar, 37 and saying, [z]If thou be [a]the king of the Jews, save thyself. 38 [b]And there was also a superscription written over him, in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS [a]THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 And [e]one of the malefactors which were hanged [f]railed on him, saying, If thou be [g]the Christ, save thyself and us. 40 But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not even thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? 41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss. 42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me [j]when thou comest [4]into thy kingdom. 43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in [m]paradise.

believe on his name: 13 which [a]were [1]born, [b]not of [2]blood, [c]nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. 14 And [e]the Word [f]became flesh, and [3h]dwelt among us (and [i]we beheld his glory, the glory as of [4]the only begotten from the Father), full of [k]grace and [l]truth. 15 [m]John beareth witness of him, and crieth, saying, [5]This was he of whom I said, [n]He that cometh after me is become before me: for he was [6]before me. 16 And of [r]his fulness have we all received, and [s]grace for grace. 17 For [u]the law was given [7]by Moses; but [v]grace and truth came [7]by Jesus Christ. 18 [w]No man hath seen God at any time; [8x]the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, [z]he hath declared him.

19 And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent unto him priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, [e]Who art thou? 20 And [g]he confessed, and denied not; but he confessed, I am not the Christ. 21 And they asked him, What then? [i]Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou *that prophet? And he answered, No. 22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? 23 He said, I am [l]the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias. 24 [9]And they were sent from the Pharisees. 25 And they asked him, and said unto him, [n]Why then baptizest thou, if thou be not that Christ, neither Elijah, nor that prophet? 26 John answered them, saying, [d]I baptize [10]with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not; 27 even he that cometh after me, the latchet of whose shoe I am not worthy to unloose. 28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold, [o]the Lamb of God, which [12†p]taketh away the sin [q]of the world! 30 This is he of whom I said, [t]After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was [6]before me. 31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, [v]therefore am I come baptizing [10]with water. 32 And John [a]bare record, saying, [b]I saw the Spirit descending as a dove out of heaven; and [c]it abode upon him. 33 And I knew him not: but [d]he that sent me to baptize [10f]with water, he said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, [h]the same is he which baptizeth [10f]with the Holy Ghost. 34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples; 36 and looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold, [k]the Lamb of God! 37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. 38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, [m]What seek ye? They said unto him, [o]Rabbi (which is to say, being interpreted, [13]Master), where Jesus saith said unto her, Thou saidst hast well well, said, I have no husband: 18 for thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: this hast thou said in that saidst thou truly. 19 The woman saith unto him, [4]Sir, I perceive that [g]thou art [h]a prophet. 20 [i]Our fathers worshipped in [j]this mountain; and ye say, that [k]in Jerusalem is [l]the place where men ought to worship. 21 Jesus saith unto her, [m]Woman, believe me, [n]the hour cometh, when ye shall [o]neither in this mountain, nor in yet at Jerusalem, shall ye worship the Father. 22 [q]Ye worship that which ye know not: ye know not what [r]we worship that which we know: know what we worship for [r]salvation is [s]from of the Jews. 23 But [t]the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father [u]in spirit and in [v]truth: [5]for such doth the Father [z]seek to be his worshippers. seeketh such to worship him. 24 [6]God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. 25 The woman saith unto him, I know that [v]Messiah Messias cometh (which cometh, which is called Christ Christ): when he is come, [a]he will declare unto tell us all things. 26 Jesus saith unto her, [c]I that speak unto thee am he.

17 But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh even until now, hitherto, and I work. 18 For this cause therefore Therefore the Jews [b]sought the more to kill him, [c]because he not only [d]brake had broken the sabbath, but also called God said also that God [e]his own was his Father, [f]making himself equal with God.

19 Jesus therefore answered Then answered Jesus and said unto them,

Verily, verily, I say unto you, [g]The Son [h]can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father doing do: for what things soever he doeth, these the Son also doeth doeth in like manner. the Son likewise. 20 For [j]the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and [k]greater works he will shew than these will he shew him, him greater works than these, that [m]ye may marvel. 21 For as the Father [n]raiseth the dead up the dead, and [o]quickeneth them, them: even so [p]the Son also quickeneth [r]whom he will. 22 For neither [s]doth the Father the Father judgeth judge any no man, but hath [t]hath given committed all judgement judgment unto the Son; Son: 23 that all men may should honour the Son, even as they [v]honour the Father. [w]He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him. 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [x]He that heareth my word, and [y]believeth on him that sent me, hath eternal everlasting life, and [a]cometh not shall not come into judgement, condemnation; but [b]hath is passed out of from death unto life. 25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [c]The hour cometh, is coming, and now is, when [d]the dead shall hear [g]the voice of the Son of God God: and they that hear [d]shall live. 26 [h]For as the Father hath life in himself, himself; [i]even so gave he so hath he given to the Son also to have life in himself; himself; 27 and he [j]gave hath given him authority to execute judgement, judgment also, because he is [3][m]the Son of man. 28 Marvel not at this: for [c]the thousand. 11 Jesus therefore (And Jesus) took the loaves; and a when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; (likewise also / and likewise) of the fishes as much as they would. 12 And when (When) they were filled, he (saith / said) unto his disciples, Gather up the (broken pieces / fragments) which (that) remain over, that nothing be lost. 13 (So / Therefore) they gathered them (up, together,) and filled twelve baskets with (broken pieces from the fragments of) the five barley loaves, which remained over (and above) unto them that had eaten. 14 (When therefore / Then those men,) the people saw the [1]sign which he did, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, [f]This is of a truth g that prophet [i](that cometh / should come) into the world.

15 [k](Jesus therefore perceiving / When Jesus therefore perceived) that they (were about to / would) come and take him by force, to make him (king, / a king,) [n](withdrew / he departed) again into [o](the / a) mountain himself alone.

16 And when (evening came, / even was now come,) his disciples went down unto the (sea; / sea,) 17 and (they) entered into a (boat, / ship,) and (were going / went) over the sea (unto / toward) Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus (had not yet / was not) come to them. 18 And the sea (was rising / arose) by reason of a great wind that blew. 19 (When therefore / So when) they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they (behold / see) Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the (boat / ship): and they were afraid. 20 [x]But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid. 21 (They were willing therefore to receive / Then they willingly received) him into the (boat / ship): and (straightway the boat / immediately the ship) was at the land whither they (were going. / went.)

22 (On the morrow the multitude / The day following, when the people) which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other [2a]boat there, save (one, / that one whereinto his disciples were entered,) and that Jesus (entered / went) not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples (went / were gone) away (alone / alone;) 23 (howbeit there came other [3]boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they (ate the bread / did eat bread,) after (that) the Lord [b]had given thanks): 24 [c](when the multitude / people) therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they (themselves got into the [3]boats, / also took shipping,) and [d]came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus. 25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, [e]Rabbi, when camest thou hither? 26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [h]Ye seek me, not because ye saw [j](signs, / the miracles,) but because ye (ate / did eat) of the loaves, and were filled. 27 [l](Work / *Labour) not for the meat which perisheth, but for [m](the / that) meat which (abideth / endureth) unto (eternal / everlasting) life, which [p]the Son of man shall give unto you: for [q]him (the Father, even God, hath / hath God the Father) [r]sealed. 28 (They / Then) said (therefore / they) unto him, What (must / shall) we do, that we (may / might) work [s]the works of God? 29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, [t]that ye believe on him whom [4u]he hath sent. 30 They said therefore unto him, [v]What (then doest thou / sign shewest) for a sign, (thou then,) that we may see, and believe thee? what (workest thou / dost thou work)? 31 [w]Our fathers (ate the / did eat) manna in the (wilderness / desert); as it is written, [y]He gave them bread (out of / from) heaven to eat. 32 (Jesus therefore / Then Jesus) said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, (It was not Moses that gave / Moses gave you not) you the (that) bread (out of / from) heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread (out of / from) heaven. 33 For the bread of God is [z](that / he) which cometh down (out of / from) heaven, and giveth life unto the world. 34 (They said / Then said) (therefore / they) unto him, [b]Lord, evermore give us this bread. 35 (And) Jesus said unto them, [a]I am the bread of life: [c]he that cometh to me shall not hunger, never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. 36 But [f]I said unto you, That That ye also have seen me, and yet believe not. 37 [h]All that which [i]the Father giveth me shall come unto to me; and [k]him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. 38 For [l]I am come came down from heaven, not to do [n]mine own will, but [n]the will of him [p]that sent me. 39 And [r]this is the will of him Father's will that which hath sent me, that of [t]all that which he hath given me [u]I should lose nothing, but [v]should raise it up again at the last day. 40 For And this is the will of my Father, him that sent me, that [x]every one which seeth the Son, and [z]believeth on him, [a]should may have eternal life; everlasting life: and [1]I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews therefore then murmured concerning at him, because he said, [d]I am the bread which came down out of from heaven. 42 And they said, [f]Is not this Jesus, [g]the son of Joseph, whose father and mother [k]we know? how doth he now say, is it then that he saith, I am come came down out of from heaven? 43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves. 44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me [m]draw him: and [n]I will raise him up in at the last day. 45 It is written in the prophets, [p]And they shall all be be all [r]taught of God. [s]Every one man therefore that hath heard from the Father, and heard, and hath learned, hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. 46 [u]Not that any man hath seen the Father, save [w]he which is from of God, he [x]hath seen the Father. 47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [z]He that believeth on me hath eternal everlasting life. 48 [c]I am the that bread of life. 49 [b]Your fathers did eat the manna in the wilderness, and [d]they died. are dead. 50 [e]This is the bread which cometh down out of from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, [g]and not die. 51 I am the living bread [j]which came down out of from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: yea and the bread which that I will give is [m]my flesh, which I will give [o]for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore [q]strove one with another, among themselves, saying, [s]How can this man give us his flesh to eat? 53 Jesus therefore Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of [w]the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye [y]have not no life in yourselves. you. 54 He that Whoso eateth my flesh flesh, and drinketh my blood blood, [b]hath eternal life; and [c]I will raise him up at the last day. 55 For my flesh is [2]meat indeed, and my blood is [3]drink indeed. 56 He that eateth my flesh flesh, and drinketh my blood blood, [e]abideth dwelleth in me, and I in him. 57 As [h]the living Father hath [i]sent me, and [j]I live because of by the Father; Father: so he that eateth me, he also even he shall live because of by me. 58 [l]This is the that bread which came down out of from heaven: not as the your fathers did eat eat, manna, and died are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever. 59 These things said he in [4]the synagogue, as he taught [o]in Capernaum.

60 [q]Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is [t]a an hard saying; who can hear [5]it? 61 But When Jesus [v]knowing knew in himself that his disciples murmured at this, it, he said unto them, Doth this cause you to stumble offend you? 62 What then and if ye should behold shall see [y]the Son of man [a]ascending ascend up [b]where he was before? 63 [d]It is the spirit

For Jesus [f]knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and [h]who it was that should betray him. 65 And he said, For this cause have I said unto you, [j]that no man can come unto me, except it be given unto him of the Father.

66 [l]Upon this From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. 67 Jesus said therefore unto [o]the twelve, Would ye also go away? 68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou [1]hast [q]the words of eternal life. 69 And [s]we have believed and know are sure that [u]thou art [v]the Holy One of God, that Christ, the Son of the living God. 70 Jesus answered them, [x]Did not I choose you [o]the twelve, and one of you is [y]a devil? 71 Now he spake of Judas [a]the son of Iscariot the son of Simon Iscariot, for [b]he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

7 1 And after these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judæa, because [g]the Jews sought to kill him. 2 Now the [i]feast of the Jews, [j]the feast of tabernacles, was at hand. 3 [l]His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judæa, that [m]thy disciples also may behold thy works which thou doest. 4 For there is no man that doeth anything in secret, [2]and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou doest these things, [q]manifest thyself to the world. 5 [r]For even [s]his brethren did not believe on him. 6 Jesus therefore saith unto them, [t]My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready. 7 The world cannot hate you; but [c]me it hateth, because I testify of it, that [e]its works thereof are evil. 8 Go ye up unto the feast: I go not up [3]yet unto this feast; because [g]my time is not yet fulfilled. 9 And having said these things unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 But when [i]his brethren were gone up unto the feast, then went he also up, not publicly, but as it were in secret. 11 [k]The Jews therefore sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he? 12 And there was much [n]murmuring among the multitudes concerning him: for [p]some said, He is a good man; others said, Not so; but he [r]leadeth the multitude astray. 13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him [t]for fear of the Jews.

14 But when it was now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up [w]into the temple, and taught. 15 The Jews therefore marvelled, saying, [z]How knoweth this man [*]letters, having never learned? 16 Jesus therefore answered them, and said, [c]My teaching is not mine, but his [d]that sent me. 17 [e]If any man willeth to do his will, [f]he shall know of the teaching, whether it be of God, or whether I [h]speak from myself. 18 He that speaketh from himself [k]seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh the glory of him that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. 19 [n]Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you doeth the law? [o]Why seek ye to kill me? 20 The multitude answered, [p]Thou hast a [4]devil: who seeketh to kill thee? 21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I did one work, and ye all [5]marvel. 22 For this cause hath Moses therefore

But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground. ground, as though he heard them not. 7 But So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, [e]He that is without sin among you, let him [f]first cast a stone at her. 8 And again he stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground. 9 And they, when they they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning from at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman, where woman she was, standing in the midst. 10 And Jesus When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are they? did those thine accusers? hath no man condemn condemned thee? 11 And she She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said, said unto her, [d]Neither do I condemn thee: go thy way; from henceforth [e]sin no more.] go, and sin no more.

12 [h]Again therefore Jesus spake Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, [i]I am the light of the world: he that [j]followeth me shall not [k]walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life. 13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, [m]Thou bearest witness record of thyself; thy witness record is not true. 14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Even if Though I bear witness record of myself, yet [o]my witness record is true; true: for I know [p]whence I came, and [q]whither I go; but [r]ye know not cannot tell whence I come, or and whither I go. 15 [s]Ye judge after the flesh; [t]I judge no man. 16 Yea and And yet if I judge, [u]my judgement judgment is true; true: for [v]I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me. 17 Yea and It is also [y]in your law it is written, written in your law, that the witness testimony of two men is true. 18 I am he one that beareth bear witness of myself, and [b]the Father that sent me beareth witness of me. 19 They said therefore Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, [c]Ye know neither neither know me, nor my Father: [d]if ye knew had known me, ye would know should have known my Father also. 20 These words spake he Jesus in [g]the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and [h]no man took laid hands on him; because for [i]his hour was not yet come.

is not [a]from of God, [b]because he keepeth not the sabbath. But others sabbath day. Others said, [c]How can a man that is a sinner do such signs miracles? And [e]there was a division among them. 17 They say therefore unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, in that he that he hath opened thine eyes? And he He said, [i]He is a prophet. 18 [j]The Jews But the therefore Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight, sight. 19 and And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see? 20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: 21 but by what how means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: ask him; he he is of age; is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself. 22 These things said words spake his parents, [q]because they feared the Jews: for [r]the Jews had agreed already, that if any man should did [s]confess him to be that he was Christ, [t]he should be put out of the synagogue. 23 Therefore said his parents, [v]He is of age; ask him. 24 So Then they again called a second time they the man that was blind, and said unto him, [z]Give glory to God God the praise: we know that [a]this man is a sinner. 25 He therefore answered, answered and said, Whether he be a sinner, sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I [c]was blind, now I see. 26 They Then said therefore unto him, they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes? 27 He answered them, [e]I have told you even now, already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? would will ye also become be his disciples? 28 And Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but [f]we are disciples of Moses. Moses' disciples. 29 We know that God hath spoken spake unto Moses: but as for this man, fellow, [d]we know not from whence he is. 30 The man answered and said unto them, Why, Why herein is [f]the marvel, a marvellous thing, that [g]ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes. 31 We Now we know that [h]God heareth not sinners: but [k]if any man be a worshipper of God, and do doeth his will, him he heareth. 32 Since the world began it was never was it not heard that any one man opened the eyes of a man one that was born blind. 33 [l]If this man were not from of God, he could do nothing. 34 They answered and said unto him, [m]Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they [*n]cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and finding when he had found him, he said said, unto him, Dost thou believe on [1o]the Son of God? 36 He answered and said, [p]And who Who is he, Lord, that I may might believe on him? 37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and [u]he it is it is he that speaketh talketh with thee. 38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him. 39 And Jesus said, [w]For judgement came I judgment I am come into this world, [x]that they which see not may might see; and [y]that they which see may become might be made blind. 40 Those And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these things, words, and said unto him, [b]Are we also blind blind? also 41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, [d]ye would should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; see: therefore your sin remaineth.

that entereth in by the door is [1]the shepherd of the sheep. 3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. 4 When he hath put forth all his own, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. 5 And [k]a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. 6 This [2][n]parable spake Jesus [o]unto them: but they [q]understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [t]I am the door of the sheep. 8 All that [u]ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. 9 I am the door: by me if any man enter in, [x]he shall be saved, and shall [y]go in and out, and [z]shall find pasture. 10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and [b]kill, and destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might [3][d]have it more abundantly. 11 [e]I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd [4]giveth his life for the sheep. 12 But he that is [1][a] hireling, and not [a]the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, beholdeth the wolf coming, and [b]leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and [n]scattereth the sheep. 13 The hireling fleeth, because [p]he is [1]a hireling, and [q]careth not for the sheep. 14 [s]I am the good shepherd; and [t]I know my own, and [w]mine own know me, 15 [x]even as the Father knoweth me, and I know even so know I the Father; and [c]I lay down my life for the sheep. 16 And [b]other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: [c]them also I must [4][d]bring, and [e]they shall hear my voice; and [5]there shall be one flock, one shepherd. 17 [h]Therefore doth the Father love me, [i]because [j]I lay down my life, that I might take it again. 18 [l]No man taketh it from me, but [j]I lay it down [m]of myself. I have [7]power to lay it down, and [p]I have [7]power to take it again. [r]This commandment have I received of my Father.

19 [s]There was a division again among the Jews for these sayings. 20 And many of them said, [u]He hath a [8]devil, and [v]is mad; why hear ye him? 21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a [8]devil. [w]Can a [8]devil open the eyes of the blind?

22 [9]And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter. 23 And Jesus was walking in the temple [c]in Solomon's porch. 24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou hold us in suspense? [*]make us to doubt? If thou be [f]the Christ, [g]tell us plainly. 25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: [j]the works that I do [k]in my Father's name, these bear witness of me. 26 But [m]ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you. 27 [o]My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: 28 and [r]I give unto them eternal life; and [u]they shall never perish, neither shall any one snatch them out of my hand. 29 [10][y]My Father, [z]which 40 And (he) went away again beyond Jordan into the place [f]where John (was) at (the) first (baptizing baptized); and there he abode. 41 And many (came resorted) unto (him; him,) and (they) said, John (indeed) did no (sign miracle): but [g]all things (whatsoever that) John spake of this man were true. 42 And [h]many believed on him there.

11 [1] Now a certain man was sick, (Lazarus named Lazarus,) of Bethany, (of the village of the town) of [k]Mary and her sister Martha. 2 And ([t]it (It) was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was (sick. sick.) 3 (The sisters therefore Therefore his sisters) sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, [e]he whom thou lovest is sick. 4 But (when When) Jesus heard (it, that,) he said, [f]This sickness is not unto death, but for [g]the glory of God, that the Son of God (may might) be glorified thereby. 5 Now [h]Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. 6 When (therefore he heard he had heard therefore) that he was sick, [j]he abode (at that time two days two days still) in the (same) place where he was. 7 Then after (this he saith that saith he) to (the his) disciples, [n]Let us go into Judæa again. 8 The (His) disciples say unto him, [o](Rabbi, Master,) [p]the Jews (were but now seeking of late sought) to stone thee; and goest thou thither again? 9 Jesus answered, [u]Are there not twelve hours in the day? [w]If (a any) man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. 10 But [y]if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because (the light is not there is no light) [y]in him. 11 These things (spake said) he: and after (this that) he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus [c](is fallen asleep sleepeth); but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep. 12 (The disciples therefore said unto him Then said his disciples,) Lord, if he (is fallen asleep, sleep,) he (will shal) [3][c](recover. do well.) 13 (Now Howbeit) Jesus (had spoken spake) of his death: but they thought that he (spake had spoken) of taking (of) rest in sleep. 14 Then (Jesus therefore said said Jesus) unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead. 15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him. 16 [4](Thomas therefore, who is called [4]Didymus, sai Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus,) unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, [j]that we may die with him.

saying unto him, [a]Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. 33 When Jesus therefore saw her [4]weeping, and the Jews also [4]weeping which came with her, he [5][d]groaned in the spirit, and [6][t]was [e]troubled, 34 and said, Where have ye laid him? They say said unto him, Lord, come and see. 35 [g]Jesus wept. 36 The Then Jews therefore said, said the Jews, Behold [h]how he loved him! 37 But And some of them said, Could not this man, [k]which opened the eyes of him that was the blind, [m]have caused that this man even this also man should not die have died? 38 Jesus therefore again [7][n]groaning in himself cometh to the tomb. Now it grave. It was [p]a cave, and [q]a stone lay [8]against upon it. 39 Jesus saith, said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for [w]he hath been dead four days. 40 Jesus saith unto her, [y]Said I not unto thee, that, if thou believedst, wouldest believe, thou shouldest see [a]the glory of God? 41 So Then they took away the stone. stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus [d]lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou heardest hast heard me. 42 And [e]I knew that thou hearest me always: but [g]because of the multitude people standeth around stand by I said it, [h]that they may believe that thou didst send hast sent me. 43 And when he had thus thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth. 44 [j]He And he that was dead came forth, [k]bound hand and foot with [9]grave-clothes: graveclothes: and [l]his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go. 45 [m]Many therefore Then many of the Jews, [n]which came to Mary Mary, and [o]beheld [10]that had seen the things which he Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went away their ways to the Pharisees, and told them the things which what things Jesus had done.

47 The chief priests therefore Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees [d]gathered [e]Pharisees a council, and said, [f]What do we? for this man doeth many signs. miracles. 48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and [h]the Romans will shall come and take away both our [j]place and our nation. 49 But a certain And one of them, named [k]Caiaphas, [l]being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all, 50 nor do ye take account consider that [m]it is expedient for you us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not. 51 Now And this he said spake he not of himself: but [o]being high priest that year, [p]he prophesied that Jesus should die for the that nation; 52 and [q]not for the that nation only, but [r]that he might also also he should gather together into in one the children of God that are were scattered abroad. 53 So Then from that day forth they [s]took counsel that they might together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore [u]walked no more openly among the Jews, Jews; but departed went thence into the unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called [w]Ephraim; Ephraim, and there he tarried continued with the his disciples. 55 Now [y]the passover And the Jews' of the Jews was passover was nigh at hand: and [z]many went up to Jerusalem out of the country out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, [b]to purify themselves. 56 [c]They sought therefore Then sought they for Jesus, and spake one with another, among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye? That ye, that he will not come to the feast? 57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he was, were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

1 [e]Jesus therefore Then Jesus 12 six days before [b]the passover came to Bethany, [c]where Lazarus was, was which had been dead, whom Jesus he raised from the dead. 2 So There they made him a supper there: supper; and [g]Martha served; served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at meat the table with him. 3 [i]Mary therefore took Then took Mary a pound of ointment of [1]spikenard, very precious, costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment. 4 But Judas Iscariot, Then saith one of his disciples, one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him, saith, 5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred [2]pence, and [n]given to the poor? 6 Now This he said, not because that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and [n]having had the [3]bag [4]took away bag, and bare what was put therein. 7 Jesus therefore said, [5]Suffer Then said Jesus, Let her to keep it alone: against the day of my burying. burying hath she kept this. 8 For the poor ye have always always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 The [t]common Much people therefore of the Jews Jews learned therefore knew that he was there: and they came, came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, [v]whom he had raised from the dead. 10 [x]But the chief priests took counsel consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death; 11 because that [a]by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 On the morrow [6][d]a great multitude next day much people that had were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 took the branches of [c]the palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried out, [f]Hosanna: Blessed is [f]he the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord, even [a]the King of Israel. 14 And Jesus, having found when he had a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, 15 [e]Fear not, daughter of Zion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt. 16 [g]These things understood not his disciples at the first: but [i]when Jesus was glorified, then [j]remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him. 17 [k]The multitude therefore that was people with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare witness. record. 18 For this cause also the multitude went and met the people also him, [p]for that they heard that he had done this sign. miracle. 19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, [1]Behold Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing: lo, nothing? behold, [v]the world is gone after him.

20 Now And there were certain [x]Greeks [y]among those them that went came up to worship at the feast:
21 these therefore came The same came therefore to [a]Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus. 22 Philip cometh and telleth [d]Andrew: Andrew cometh, and Philip, and they and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus. 23 And Jesus answereth answered them, saying, [i]The hour is come, [j]that the Son of man should be glorified. 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [k]Except a grain corn of wheat fall into the earth ground and die, it abideth by itself alone; alone: but if it die, it beareth bringeth forth much fruit.
25 [n]He that loveth his [2]life loseth shall lose it; and [o]he that [p]hateth his [2]life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. 26 If any man serve me, let him [r]follow me; and [s]where I am, there shall also my servant be: [t]if any man serve me, [v]him will the my Father honour. 27 [b]Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, [c]save me from [d]this [3]hour. But hour: but [f]for this cause came I unto [d]this hour. 28 Father, glorify thy name. There came therefore Then came there [h]a voice out of from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. 29 The multitude people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it had thundered: others said, [l]An angel hath spoken spake to him. 30 Jesus answered and said, [m]This voice hath not come for my sake, came not because of me, but for your sakes. 31 [n]Now is [4]the judgement judgment of this world: now shall [o]the prince of this world [q]be cast out. 32 And I, [r]if I be lifted up [5]from the earth, [s]will draw [u]all men unto myself. me. 33 But this he said, [w]signifying by what manner of death he should die. 34 The multitude therefore people answered him, We have heard out of the law that [x]the Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, [b]The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man? 35 Jesus therefore Then Jesus said unto them, [c]Yet a little while is [e]the light [6]among with you. [f]Walk while ye have the light, that lest darkness [g]overtake you not: and [h]he come upon you: for that walketh in the darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.
36 While ye have the light, believe on in the light, that ye may become be the [i]sons children of light.

These things spake Jesus, and he departed, departed, and [7][m]hid did hide himself from them. 37 But though he had done so many signs miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:
38 [q]that the word saying of Isaiah Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, [u]Lord, who hath believed our report?

And to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?
39 For this cause Therefore they [c]could not believe, for because that Isaiah Esaias said again, 40 [f]He hath blinded their eyes, and he [g]hardened their heart;
Lest they should that they should not see with their eyes, and perceive nor understand with their heart,
And should turn, be converted,
And I should heal them.
41 These things said Isaiah, because Esaias, when [l]he saw his glory; glory, and [m]he spake of him. 42 Nevertheless [o]even of among the the chief rulers also many believed on him; but [q]because of the Pharisees they did not [r]confess [1][t]it, him, lest they should be [r]put out of the synagogue: 43 [v]for they loved the glory praise of men more than the glory praise of God.
44 And Jesus cried and said,
[w]He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but [x]on him that sent me. 45 And [z]he that [a]beholdeth seeth me beholdeth seeth him that sent me. 46 [c]I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me may should not abide in the darkness. 47 And if any man
[f]hear my sayings, words, and keep them believe not, [g]I judge him not: for [h]I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. 48 [i]He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my sayings, words, hath one that judgeth him: [k]the word that I spake, have spoken, the same shall judge him [l]in the last day. 49 For [n]I spake have not from spoken of myself; but the Father [q]which sent me, he hath given gave me a [r]commandment, what I should Simon's son, to betray him, him; 3 Jesus, knowing [k]that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that [n]he came forth was come from God, and [p]goeth unto God, went to God; 4 He riseth from supper, and layeth laid aside his gar-

[s]girded himself. 5 Then After that he [u]poureth water into the a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.
6 So he cometh Then cometh he to Simon Peter.
Then He
and *Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? 7 [y]Jesus answered and said unto him,
What I do [b]thou knowest not now; but thou shalt understand know hereafter. 8 [d]Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, [e]If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. 9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. 10 Jesus saith to him, He that is bathed washed needeth not [3][j]save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and [m]ye are clean, [o]but not all. 11 [p]For he knew him that who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.
12 So when after he had washed their feet, and had [s]taken his garments, and [4]sat was set down again, he said unto them, [t]Know ye what I have done to you? 13 [u]Ye call me, [5]v[v]Master, and, me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. 14 If I then, the Lord and the your Lord and [1] Master, have washed your feet; [b] ye also ought to wash one another's feet. 15 For I have given you an example, [c] that ye also should do as I have done to you. 16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [c] A The [2] servant is not greater than his lord; neither [3] one he that is sent greater than he that sent him. 17 If ye know these things, [h] blessed happy are ye if ye do them. 18 [i] I speak not of you all: I know [k] whom I [4] have chosen: but [l] that the scripture may be fulfilled, [n] He that eateth [5] my bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me. 19 From henceforth *Now [p] I tell you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, [s] ye may believe that [6] I am he. 20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [u] He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

21 When Jesus had thus said, [a] he was troubled in the spirit, and testified, and said, [b] Verily, verily, I say unto you, that [d] one of you shall betray me. 22 [e] The Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake. 23 There was at the table Now there was reclining [h] in leaning on Jesus' bosom [i] one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. 24 Simon Peter therefore beckoneth beckoned to him, and saith unto him, Tell us who it is that he should ask who it should be of whom he speaketh. spake. 25 [l] He leaning then back, [m] as he was, lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it? 26 Jesus therefore answereth, answered, [n] He it is, for to whom I shall [p] dip the give a [†] sop, and give it him. So when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he taketh and [q] giveth gave it to Judas it to Judas, Iscariot, [s] the son of Simon Iscariot. Simon. 27 And after the sop, then [u] entered Satan sop Satan entered into him. Jesus therefore saith Then said Jesus unto him, [a] That thou doest, do quickly. 28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. 29 For some of them thought, [d] because Judas had the [7] bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy what things those things that we have need of [f] for against the feast; or, that he should [g] give something to the poor. 30 He then having received the sop went out straightway immediately out: [j] and it was night.

31 When therefore Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus saith, said, [m] Now [8] is the Son of man glorified, and [o] God [8] is glorified in him; him. 32 and If God be glorified in him, [q] God shall also glorify him in himself, and [r] straightway shall he shall straightway glorify him. 33 Little children, [t] yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and [v] as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say unto to you. 34 [w] A new commandment [x] I give unto you, [y] that That ye love one another; [9] [z] even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. 35 [c] By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 Simon Peter saith said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? [f] Jesus answered, answered him, Whither I go, [g] thou canst not follow me now; [j] but thou shalt follow me afterwards. 37 [k] Peter saith said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee even now? I will lay down my life for thee. thy sake. 38 Jesus answereth, answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for me my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [o] The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

12 [v]This is my commandment, that That ye love one another, even as I have loved you. 13 [y]Greater love hath no man than this, [a]that a man lay down his life for his friends. 14 Ye are [b]my friends, [c]if ye do the things which whatsoever I command you. 15 [3]No longer do I call Henceforth I call you not [3]servants; for [g]the [4]servant [i]knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for [k]all things that I heard from have heard of my Father [l]I have made known unto you. 16 Ye did have not choose chosen me, but [p]I chose have chosen you, and appointed ordained you, that ye should go and [*]bear bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should abide remain: that [t]whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. 17 These things I command you, [v]that ye may love one another. 18 [w]If the world hateth hate you, [5]ye know that it hath hated me before it hated you. 19 [y]If ye were of the world, the world would love its his own: but because [b]ye are not of the world, but I chose have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. 20 Remember the word

And these things I said not unto you from at the beginning, [b]because I was with you. 5 But now [c]I go unto my way to him that sent me; and [f]none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou? 6 But because I have spoken said these things unto you, [h]sorrow hath filled your heart.
7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for [k]if I go not away, [m]the [2]Comforter will not come unto you; but [n]if [o]I go, depart, [p]I will send him unto you.
8 [r]And he, when he is come, he will †convict †reprove the world in respect of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgement judgment: 9 of sin, [u]because they believe not on me; 10 [v]of righteousness, [x]because I go to the my Father, and ye behold see me no more; 11 [z]of judgement, judgment, because the prince of this world [a]hath been is judged.
12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. 13 Howbeit when he, [d]the Spirit of truth, is come, [e]he shall will [f]guide you into all the truth: for he shall not speak from of himself; but [h]what things soever whatsoever he shall hear, these that shall he speak: and he shall declare unto will shew you the things that are to come. 14 He shall [l]glorify me: for he shall take receive of mine, and shall declare shew it unto you. 15 [m]All things whatsoever that the Father hath are mine: [o]therefore said I, that he taketh shall take of mine, and shall declare shew it unto you. 16 [r]A little while, and ye behold me no more; shall not see me: and [s]again again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.
17 [u]Some Then said some of his disciples therefore said one to another, among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, [x]A little while, and ye behold me not; shall not see me: and again again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, [y]Because I go to the Father? 18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? [b]We know not / we cannot tell what he saith. 19 [c]Jesus perceived / Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and [he] said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves [concerning this, that / of that] I said, A little while, and ye [behold me not, / shall not see me:] and [again / again,] a little while, and ye shall see me? 20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [that / That] [g]ye shall weep and lament, but [h]the world shall rejoice: [and] ye shall be sorrowful, but [k]your sorrow shall be turned into joy. 21 [m]A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but [when / as soon as] she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for [the] joy that a man is born into the world. 22 [s]And ye [therefore now / now therefore] have sorrow: but [v]I will see you again, and [w]your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no [one / man] taketh [away] from you. 23 And [y]in that day ye shall [1 b]ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, [d]If ye shall ask anything / Whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father, [f]he will give it you in my name. / the Father in my name, he will give it you. 24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: [i]ask, and ye shall receive, [k]that your joy may be [fulfilled. / full.]

25 These things have I spoken unto you in [2 *p]proverbs: [but] [q]the [hour / time] cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in [2 *p]proverbs, but [I] shall [tell / shew] you plainly of the Father. 26 [In / At] that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will [3 w]pray the Father for [you; / you:] 27 [x]for the Father himself loveth you, because [a]ye have loved me, and [c]have believed that I came [forth out] from [the Father. / God.] 28 [d]I came [out forth] from the Father, and am come into the world: again, [a]I leave the world, and go [unto / to] the Father. 29 His disciples [say, / said unto him,] Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no [4 † d]proverb. 30 Now [know we / are we sure] that [e]thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that [f]thou camest forth from God. 31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? 32 Behold, [i]the hour cometh, yea, is [now] come, that [j]ye shall be scattered, every man to [‡ l]his own, and [n]shall leave me alone: [o]and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. 33 These things [have I / I have] spoken unto you, that [p]in me ye [may / might] have peace. [q]In the world ye [shall] have [r]tribulation: but [t]be of good cheer; [u]I have overcome the world.

17 1 These [things / words] spake Jesus; and [z]lifting / lifted up his eyes to heaven, [he / and] said, Father, [z]the hour is come; [a]glorify thy Son, that [the / thy] Son [also] may [c]glorify thee: 2 [even as / As] [e]thou [gavest / hast given] him [authority / power] over all flesh, that [g]whatsoever / he should thou hast given him, [h]to them he should give / give eternal life to as many as thou hast [eternal life. / given him.] 3 [j]And this is life eternal, [l]that they [should / might] know thee [m]the only [n]true God, and [o]him whom thou didst send, even Jesus Christ. / Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. 4 I [have] [r]glorified thee on the [earth, / earth:] [s]having accomplished / I have finished the work which thou [hast given / gavest] me to do. 5 And now, O Father, [t]glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory [u]which I had with thee [v]before the world was. 6 [y]I [have] manifested thy name unto the men [z]whom / which thou gavest me out of the world: [b]thine they were, and thou gavest them [to] me; and they have kept thy word. 7 Now they know have known that all things [b]whatsoever thou hast given me are from thee: of thee. 8 for [d]the words For I have which thou gavest me I have given unto them, given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and knew of a truth have known surely that [g]I came forth out from thee, and [i]they have believed that thou didst send me. 9 I [1k]pray for them: [l]I [1]pray not for the world, but for those [n]whom them which thou hast given me; for [p]they are thine: thine. 10 and And [r]all things that are mine are thine, and thine are mine: mine; and [t]I am glorified in them. 11 And now I am no more in the world, and but [w]these are in the world, and [x]I come to thee. [z]Holy Father, [a]keep them in thy through thine own name [c]which those whom thou hast given me, [e]that they may be one, [f]even as we are. 12 While I was with them, them in the world, I kept them in thy name which name: those that thou hast given me: and gavest me I [j]guarded them, have kept, and [k]not one none of them perished, is lost, but [m]the son of perdition; [o]that the scripture might be fulfilled. 13 But And now I come come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they may might have [r]my joy fulfilled in themselves. 14 [s]I have given them thy word; and [u]the world hath hated them, [v]because they are not of the world, [x]even as I am not of the world. 15 I [1y]pray not that thou shouldest [a]take them [2]from out of the world, but that thou shouldest [c]keep them [2d]from [3e]the evil one. 16 [f]They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. 17 [4g]Sanctify them in the through thy truth: [j]thy word is truth. 18 [k]As thou didst send hast sent me into the world, even so sent I have I also sent them into the world. 19 And [m]for their sakes [a]I [4]sanctify myself, that they themselves also [c]may also might be [*]sanctified in through the truth. 20 Neither for these only do I [1c]pray, pray I for these alone, but for them also [f]that which shall believe on me through their word; 21 [h]that they may all be one; may all even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that [j]they also may be one in [m]us: that the world [o]may believe that thou didst send hast sent me. 22 And [q]the glory which thou hast given gavest me [s]I have given unto them; [h]that they may be one, even as we are one; one: 23 [u]I in them, and thou in me, [v]that they may be perfected into made perfect in one; and [y]that the world may know that thou didst send hast sent me, and [b]lovedst hast loved them, even as [d]thou lovedst hast loved me. 24 Father, [5]that which thou hast given me, I will that they also, whom will [g]that, where I am, they also may be [h]with me. thou hast given me, be with me where I am; [i]that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me [l]before the foundation of the world. 25 [n]O righteous Father, [p]the world knew thee not, hath not known thee: but I knew thee; have known thee, and these knew have known that thou didst send me; 26 and And [q]I made known hast sent me. have declared unto them thy name, and will make it known; declare it: that the love [t]wherewith thou lovedst hast loved me may be in them, and [w]I in them.

18 1 When Jesus had spoken these words, [z]he went forth with his disciples over [b]the [6]brook [7]Kidron, Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, himself and his disciples. 2 Now And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew [h]the place: for [i]Jesus oft-times ofttimes resorted thither with his disciples. 3 [l]Judas then, having received the a [8]band of soldiers, men and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. 4 Jesus therefore, [a]knowing all the things that were coming should come upon him, went forth, and saith said unto them, [b]Whom seek ye? 5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, was standing stood with them. 6 [c]When therefore he As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground. 7 Again therefore he asked them, Then asked he them again, [b]Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. 8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way: 9 [g]that the word saying might be fulfilled fulfilled, which he spake, Of those whom them which thou hast given gavest me have I lost not one none. 10 Simon Peter Then Simon therefore Peter [k]having a sword drew it, and struck smote the high priest's [1]servant, and cut off his right ear. Now The the [1]servant's name was Malchus. 11 Jesus therefore said Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up the thy sword into the sheath: [l]the cup which the my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 So Then the [2]band and the [3]chief captain, captain and the officers of the Jews, seized Jesus Jews took Jesus, and bound him, 13 and [o]led him away to [q]Annas first; for he was father in law to [r]Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.* 14 Now Caiaphas was he he, which gave counsel to the Jews, [t]that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 [u]And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. disciple: Now that disciple was known unto the high priest, and entered went in with Jesus into the court palace of the high priest; 16 [v]but But Peter was standing stood at the door without. So the Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, went out and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter. 17 [c]The maid therefore Then saith the damsel that kept the door saith unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not. 18 Now And the [4]servants and the officers were stood standing there, having there, who had made [5]a fire of coals; for it was cold: cold; and they were warming warmed themselves: and [e]Peter also was with them, standing stood with them, and warming warmed himself.

19 [f]The high priest therefore then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his teaching. doctrine. 20 Jesus answered him, I have spoken spake [h]openly [i]to the world; I ever taught in [6]synagogues, the synagogue, and in the temple, where all whither the Jews come together always resort; and [j]in secret spake I have I said nothing. 21 Why askest thou me? ask them that have which heard me, what I spake have said unto them: behold, these they know the things which what I said. 22 And when he had said this, thus spoken, one of the officers standing which stood by struck Jesus [7]† [m]with the palm of his hand, [n]saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? 23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me? 24 [p]Annas therefore Now Annas had sent him bound unto [p]Caiaphas the high priest.

25 [s]Now And Simon Peter was standing stood and warming warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied, denied it, and said, I am not. 26 One of the [4]servants of the high priest, being [a] kinsman of [r]him his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee [w]in the garden with him? 27 Peter therefore then denied again: and [z]straightway immediately the cock crew.

28 [a]They lead Jesus (Then led they Jesus) therefore [b]from Caiaphas (into unto) [*c]the [1]palace (hall of judgment): and it was early; and they themselves (entered went) not into the [1]palace, [c]that they might not (judgment hall, lest they should) be defiled, be defiled; [g]but (that they) might eat the passover. 29 [i]Pilate (therefore then) went out unto them, and (saith, said,) What accusation bring ye against this man? 30 They answered and said unto him, If (this man he) were not (an evil-doer, a malefactor,) we (should would) not have delivered him up unto thee. 31 Pilate therefore said (Then said Pilate) unto them, [k]Take (him yourselves, ye him,) and judge him according to your law. The Jews (therefore) said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: 32 [n]that the (word saying) of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, [o]signifying (by) what (manner of) death he should die.

33 [p]Pilate therefore (Then Pilate) entered (again) into the (into the [1]palace, judgment hall again,) and called Jesus, and said unto him, [r]Art thou the King of the Jews? 34 Jesus (answered, answered him,) Sayest thou this (thing) of thyself, or did others tell it thee (concerning of) me? 35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests (have) delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done? 36 Jesus answered, [v]My kingdom [w]is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, [x]then would my [2]servants fight, that [z]I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. 37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, [3d]Thou sayest that I am a king. [e]To this end (have I been was I) born, and to this (end cause came I) into the world, that [j]I should bear witness unto the truth. [l]Every one that is [m]of the truth [n]heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth?

And when he had said this, [d]he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, [f]I find (no crime in him. in him no fault at all.) 39 [h]But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? 40 (They cried out therefore Then cried they all) again, saying, [j]Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

19 [1]Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and [l]scourged him. 2 [m]And the soldiers (plaited platted) a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and (arrayed him in they put on him) a purple (garment; robe,) 3 and they came unto him, and said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they (struck smote) him [4q]with their hands. 4 (And Pilate Pilate therefore) went (out forth) again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him (out forth) to you, that ye may know that [s]I find no (crime fault) in him. 5 (Jesus therefore came out, Then came Jesus forth,) wearing [t]the crown of (thorns thorns,) and the purple (garment. robe.) And Pilate saith unto them, [u](Behold, Behold) the man! 6 When (therefore the chief priests the chief priests therefore) and the officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, [y]Take (him yourselves, ye him,) and crucify him: for [a]I find no (crime fault) in him. 7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and [b]by (that our) law he ought to die, because [c]he made himself the Son of God. 8 When Pilate therefore heard (this that) saying, [f]he was the more afraid; 9 and [g](he entered went again) into the [1]palace again, judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, [i]Whence art thou? But [k]Jesus gave him no answer. 10 (Pilate therefore saith Then saith Pilate) unto him, Speakest thou not unto me?

knowest thou not that I have [1]power to release crucify thee, and have [1]power to crucify release thee? 11 Jesus answered him, [a]Thou wouldest couldest have no [1]power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore [c]he that delivered me unto thee [e]hath the greater sin. 12 Upon this And from thenceforth [f]Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou release this man, let this man go, thou art not Cæsar's friend: [g]every one that whosoever maketh himself a king [2]speaketh against Cæsar. 13 When Pilate therefore heard these words, that saying, he brought Jesus out, forth, and sat down on in [i]the judgement-seat at judgment seat in a place that is called The the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. 14 Now And it was [k]the Preparation preparation of the passover: it was passover, and about the sixth hour. And hour: and he saith unto the Jews, [l]Behold, Behold your King! 15 They therefore But they cried out, [m]Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cæsar. 16 [o]Then therefore he [q]delivered him delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified.

They And they took Jesus therefore: Jesus, and led him away. 17 and And [s]he went out, [t]bearing the cross for himself, bearing his cross went forth into a place called The place the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha: 18 [u]where they crucified him, and with him two other two others, with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. 19 And Pilate [x]wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. And there was written, the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH, NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. 20 This title therefore then read many of the Jews: [z]for [a]the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and in Latin, Greek, and in Greek. Latin. 21 The Then chief priests of the Jews therefore said said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but, but that he said, I am King of the Jews. 22 Pilate answered, [b]What I have written I have written.

23 [d]The soldiers therefore, Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the his [4]coat: now the [4]coat was without seam, *woven from the top throughout. 24 They said therefore one to another, among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: [h]that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith,

> [j]They parted my garments raiment among them,
> And upon for my vesture did they they did cast lots.

These things therefore the soldiers did. 25 [n]But Now there were standing stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of †Clopas, Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. 26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and [p]the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, [r]Woman, behold, behold thy son! 27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold, Behold thy mother! And from that hour the that disciple took her unto [v]his own home.

28 After this Jesus, this, Jesus knowing that all things are were now [w]finished, accomplished, [h]that the scripture might be accomplished, fulfilled, saith, [y]I thirst. 29 There Now was set there there was set a vessel full of vinegar: [z]so and they put a sponge full of the vinegar filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and brought put it to his mouth. 30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, [b]It is finished: and he bowed his head, and [c]gave up his spirit. the ghost.

31 [f]The Jews therefore, because it was [a]the Preparation, preparation, [b]that the bodies should not remain on upon the cross upon on the sabbath day (for the day of that sabbath that sabbath day was [d]a an high day), asked of besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. 32 The Then soldiers therefore came, came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other [g]which was crucified with him: 33 but him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: 34 howbeit But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and straightway there came forthwith came there out [j]blood and water. 35 And [k]he that hath seen saw it hath borne witness, bare record, and [l]his witness record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, [m]that ye also may might believe. 36 [o]For these things came were to pass, done, that the scripture might should be fulfilled, [p]A bone of him [q]shall not be [1]broken. 37 And again another scripture saith, [s]They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 [t]And after these things this Joseph of Arimathæa, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly [u]for fear of the Jews, asked of besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. 1 [c]Now on the The first day of 20 the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, while when it was yet dark, unto the tomb, sepulchre, and seeth [e]the stone taken away from the tomb. sepulchre. 2 She runneth therefore, Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, [f]whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, sepulchre, and [h]we know not where they have laid him. 3 [i]Peter therefore went forth, and the that other disciple, and they came went toward the tomb. to the sepulchre. 4 And So they ran both together: and the other disciple outran did outrun Peter, and came first to the tomb; sepulchre. 5 and And he stooping down, and looking in, he seeth saw [n]the linen cloths clothes lying; yet entered went he not in. 6 Simon Peter therefore also Then cometh Simon cometh, Peter following him, and entered went into the tomb; sepulchre, and he beholdeth seeth the linen cloths lying, clothes lie, 7 and [r]the napkin, that was upon about his head, not lying with the linen cloths, clothes, but rolled up wrapped together in a place by itself. 8 Then entered went in therefore the also that other disciple also, disciple, [v]which came first to the tomb, sepulchre, and he saw, and believed. 9 For as yet [w]they knew not the scripture, [x]that he must rise again from the dead. 10 So Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 But Mary was standing stood without at the tomb sepulchre weeping: so, and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the tomb; sepulchre, 12 and [c]she beholdeth seeth [d]two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and one the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. 13 And they say unto her, [f]Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, [j]Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. 14 When And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and [a]beholdeth saw Jesus standing, and [b]knew not that it was Jesus. 15 Jesus saith unto her, [c]Woman, why weepest thou? [e]whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be [f]the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou hast have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. 16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turneth turned herself, and saith unto him in Hebrew, [h]Rabboni; which is to say, [1]Master. 17 Jesus saith to unto her, [2]Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended unto the to my Father: but go unto to [j]my brethren, and say to unto them, [k]I ascend unto my Father Father, and your Father, Father; and to [l]my God God, and your God. 18 Mary Magdalene [m]cometh came and telleth told the disciples, I have disciples that she had seen the Lord; Lord, and how that he had said spoken these things unto her.

19 [p]When therefore it was Then the same day at evening, [q]on that day, being the first day of the week, and [r]when the doors were shut where the disciples were, were assembled [u]for fear of the Jews, Jesus came came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, [w]Peace be unto you. 20 And when he had said this, so said, [z]he shewed unto them his hands and his side. [a]The Then disciples therefore were were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord. 21 Jesus therefore said Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as [c]the my Father hath sent me, [g]even so send I you. 22 And when he had said this, he [i]breathed on them, and saith unto them, [j]Receive ye the [3]Holy Ghost: 23 [l]whose soever sins ye forgive, remit, they are forgiven remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 But [o]Thomas, one of the twelve, called [4]Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, [d]Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and [t]put thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, them: then came Jesus, [g]the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, [g]Peace be unto you. 27 Then saith he to Thomas, [i]Reach hither thy finger, and see behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and put thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. 28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, [n]My Lord and my God. 29 Jesus saith unto him, Because Thomas, because thou hast seen me, [5]thou hast believed: [o]blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 [s]Many And many other signs therefore truly did Jesus [t]in the presence of the his disciples, which are not written in this book: 31 [v]but these are written, that ye may might [x]believe that Jesus is the Christ, [y]the Son of God; and that believing [b]ye may might have life [c]in through his name.

21 1 After these things Jesus [d]manifested shewed himself [f]again to the disciples at [h]the sea of Tiberias; and he manifested himself on this wise. on this wise shewed he himself. 2 There were together Simon Peter, and [k]Thomas called [4]Didymus, and Nathanael of [m]Cana in Galilee, and [n]the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. 3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also come go with thee. They went forth, and entered into the boat a ship immediately; and [a]that night they took caught nothing. 4 But when the day the morning was now breaking, come, Jesus stood on the beach: howbeit shore: but the disciples [e]knew not that it was Jesus. 5 [f]Jesus therefore Then Jesus saith unto them, *Children, have ye aught to eat any meat? They answered him, No. 6 [h]And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the boat, ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. 7 That disciple therefore Therefore that disciple [j]whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. So Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, [l]he girt his fisher's coat about him unto him (for he was [n]naked), and did [o]cast himself into the sea. 8 But And the other disciples came in [q]the a little boat ship; (for they were not far from the land, but about as it were two hundred cubits off), cubits,) dragging the net full of with fishes. 9 So when As soon then as they got out were upon the land, come to they see saw [1]a fire of coals there, and [2]fish laid thereon, and [3]bread. 10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now taken. caught. 11 Simon Peter therefore went [4]up, and drew the net to land, land, full of great fishes, a an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, the net was not rent. yet was not the net broken. 12 Jesus saith unto them, [w]Come and break your fast. dine. And [z]none of the disciples durst inquire of ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. 13 Jesus then cometh, and [a]taketh the [5]bread, and giveth them, and the fish likewise. 14 [b]This is now the third time that Jesus was manifested to the shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 So when they had [f]broken their fast, dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, [b]Simon, [c]son of [6]John, Jonas, [7][d]lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I [8]love thee. He saith unto him, Feed [g]my lambs. 16 He saith to him again a the second time, Simon, son of [6]John, Jonas, [7]lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I [8]love thee. He saith unto him, [i]Tend Feed [g]my sheep. 17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of [6]John, Jonas, [8]lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him [k]the third time, [8]Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, [m]thou knowest all things; thou [9]knowest that I [8]love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed [p]my sheep. 18 [r]Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, [s]thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not. 19 Now this he spake, This spake he, signifying [t]by what manner of death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, [u]Follow me. 20 Then Peter, turning about, seeth [v]the disciple whom Jesus loved following; [x]which also leaned back on his breast at the supper, and said, Lord, who which is he that betrayeth thee? 21 Peter therefore seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, [10]and what shall this man do? 22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry [c]till [d]I come, what is that to thee? [e]follow thou me. 23 This Then saying therefore went forth went this saying abroad among [f]the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said

OF THE APOSTLES.

1 THE [1]former treatise have I made, O [a]Theophilus, concerning of all that Jesus began [d]both to do and [to] teach, 2 [1]until the day in which [f]he was received taken up, after that he [h]had given commandment through the Holy [i]through the [2]Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen: 3 [l]to whom he also he also [3]shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, appearing unto being seen of them by the space of forty days, and speaking of the things concerning pertaining to the kingdom of God: 4 and, [4]*[o] being assembled together with them, [s]he charged them not to commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but [to] wait for the promise of the Father, which, said saith he, ye have heard from me: of me. 5 for [u]John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized [5][u]with the Holy Ghost [x]not many days hence.

6 They therefore, when they When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, [z]dost wilt thou at this time [a]restore again the kingdom to Israel? 7 And he said unto them, [c]It is not for you to know the [e]times or the seasons, which the Father hath [6]set within put in his own authority. power. 8 But ye shall receive [t][b]power, [c]when after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and [e]ye shall be [g]my witnesses witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa Judæa, and in [j]Samaria, and [k]unto the uttermost part of the earth. 9 And when he had said spoken these things, as while they were looking, beheld, [m]he was taken up; and [n]a cloud received him out of their sight. 10 And while they were looking looked stedfastly into toward heaven as he went, went up, behold, [p]two [q]men stood by them in [r]white apparel; 11 which also said, [t]Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye looking gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which was received is taken up from you into heaven, [v]shall [w]so come in like manner as ye beheld have seen him going go into heaven.

12 Then [y]returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is nigh unto Jerusalem, from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey off. 13 And when they were come in, they went up into [b]the an upper chamber, room, where they were abiding; abode [d]both Peter Peter, and John James, and James John, and Andrew,

Philip, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphæus, and Simon [c]the Zelotes, Zealot, and Judas the [1]brother son of James. 14 These all [d]with one accord [e]continued continued with one accord in stedfastly in prayer, prayer and supplication, [2]with [h]the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with [i]his brethren.

15 And in these those days Peter stood up in the midst of [j]the brethren, disciples, and said (and there was a multitude the number of of [3k]persons gathered together, names together were about a hundred and twenty), 16 Brethren, Men and [m]it was needful that the scripture should be brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost spake before by the mouth of David by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, [o]who which was guide to them that took Jesus. 17 For [q]he was numbered among with us, and received his [4]portion in had obtained part of [r]this ministry. 18 (Now Now this man [s]obtained purchased a field with [u]the reward of his iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out. 19 And it became was known to unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch that [v]in as that their language that field was called Akeldama, field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood. blood.) 20 For it is written in the book of Psalms,

And let no man dwell therein:

[c]His [5]office and his *bishoprick let another take.

21 Of the men therefore Wherefore of these men which have companied with us [d]all the time that the Lord Jesus [f]went in and went out [6]among us, 22 [g]beginning from the baptism of John, unto the that same day that [j]he was received taken up from us, of these must must one be one become ordained to be [k]a witness with us of his resurrection. 23 And they put forward appointed two, Joseph called [i]Barsabbas, Barsabas, who was surnamed [m]Justus, and [n]Matthias. 24 And [a]they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, [b]which knowest the hearts of all men, shew of these two the one whom whether of these two thou hast chosen, 25 to take the place That he may take in part of [f]this ministry and [g]apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell away, fell, that he might go to his own place. 26 And they gave lots [7]for forth them their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

2 1 And when [l]the day of Pentecost [8]was now fully come, they were all together with one accord in one place. 2 And suddenly there came from heaven a sound a sound from heaven as of [n]the a rushing of a mighty wind, and [p]it filled all the house where they were sitting. 3 And there appeared unto them tongues [9]parting cloven asunder, tongues [t]like as of fire; fire, and it sat upon each one of them. 4 And they were all [v]filled with the Holy Spirit, Ghost, and began [w]to speak with other tongues, [x]as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 Now And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from out of every nation under heaven. 6 And Now †[z]when this sound was heard, was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were ‡confounded, because that every man heard them speaking speak in his own language. 7 And [b]they were all amazed and marvelled, saying, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak [e]Galilæans? 8 And how hear we, we every man in our own language, tongue, wherein we were born? 9 Parthians Parthians, and [h]Medes Medes, and [i]Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judæa Judæa, and Cappadocia, in Pontus Pontus, and Asia, 10 in Phrygia Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and sojourners from strangers of Rome, both Jews and [o]proselytes, 11 Cretans Cretes and

33 [b]Being therefore / Therefore being [2][c]by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of [e]the Father [f]the promise of the Holy Ghost, [g]he hath poured / shed forth this, which ye now see and hear. 34 For [i]David ascended not / is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself,

[l]The Lord / LORD said unto my Lord,
Sit thou on my right hand,
35 Till / Until I make thine enemies the / thy foes thy footstool of thy feet.

36 Let / Therefore let [3]all the house of Israel therefore know assuredly, that [r]God hath made him / that same Jesus, [s]both Lord and Christ, this Jesus [t]whom ye crucified. whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 Now when [v]they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and / to the rest of the apostles, Men / Brethren, and brethren, [z]what shall we do? 38 And / Then Peter said unto them, [b]Repent ye, and [c]be baptized every one of you [e]in the name of Jesus Christ [f]unto / for the remission of your sins; / sins, and ye shall receive [g]the gift of the Holy Ghost. 39 For [h]to you is the / the promise is promise, / unto you, and [i]to your children, and to all [j]that are afar off, even [k]as many as the Lord our God shall call unto him. 40 And with many other words he testified, / did he testify and exhorted them, / exhort, saying, [m]Save yourselves from this [n]crooked / untoward generation. 41 They then / Then they [4]that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day [p]there were added unto them in that day about three thousand souls. 42 And [q]they continued stedfastly in the apostles' [s]teaching / doctrine and [5][t]fellowship, [u]in the / and in breaking of bread, / bread, and the / in prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul: and [w]many wonders and signs were done [6]by the apostles[7].

44 And all that believed were together, and [d]had all things common; 45 and [d]they sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all, according as / all men, any / every man had need. 46 And day by day, / they, [h]continuing stedfastly / daily [j]with one accord in the temple, and [k]breaking bread [*]from house to house, at home, they did take their food / meat [m]with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 praising God, and [n]having favour with all the people. And the Lord [o]added [8]to them [p]day by day those that / the church daily such as [q]were being / should be saved.

3 [1]Now Peter and John were [u]going up / went up together into the temple at [w]the hour of prayer, [x]being the ninth hour. 2 And a certain man [y]that was lame from his mother's womb was carried, [a]whom they laid daily at the door / gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, [d]to ask alms of them that entered into the temple; 3 who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, / temple asked to receive an alms. 4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him, / him with John, said, Look on us. 5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something from / of them. 6 But / Then Peter said, [l]Silver and gold have I none; but what I have, that / such as I have give I thee. / thee: [o]In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, / Nazareth rise up and walk. 7 And he took him by the right hand, and raised / lifted him up: and immediately his feet and his ankle-bones / ancle bones received strength. 8 And [r]leaping up, he / he leaping up stood, and began to walk; / walked, and he entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. 9 And [v]all the people saw him walking and praising God: 10 and they took knowledge of him, / knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful Gate gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And [e]as the lame man he which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in [f]the [1]porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. 12 And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this [2]man? or why fasten ye your eyes look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or godliness holiness we had made him this man to walk? 13 [i]The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, [k]the God of our fathers, [m]hath glorified his [3]Servant Son Jesus; whom [n]ye delivered up, and [o]denied before the face him in the presence of Pilate, [p]when he had was determined to release him. let him go. 14 But ye denied [r]the Holy and [s]Righteous One, One and the Just, and [u]asked for desired a murderer to be granted unto you, you; 15 and killed [v]the [4]*Prince of life; life, [x]whom God hath raised from the dead; [5]y whereof we are witnesses. 16 And [6]by [s]faith in his name his name hath [s]his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye behold see and know: yea, the faith which is [f]through by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. 17 And now, brethren, I wot that [h]in through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers. 18 But the things those things, which God [j]foreshewed before had shewed [k]by the mouth of all the his prophets, that [m]his Christ should [n]suffer, he thus hath so fulfilled. 19 [p]Repent ye therefore, and [q]turn again, be converted, that [r]your sins may be blotted out, that so there may come when the times of seasons of refreshing refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; 20 and that he may shall send the Christ [t]who hath been appointed for you, Jesus Christ, which before was preached even Jesus: unto you 21 [b]whom the heaven must receive until the times of [t]restoration restitution of all things, whereof [d]God which spake hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets which have been since the world began. 22 For Moses indeed said, truly said unto the fathers, [g]A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you from among of your brethren, [7]like unto me; [h]to him shall ye hearken hear in all things whatsoever he shall speak say unto you. 23 And it shall be, come to pass, that every soul, which shall will not hearken to hear that prophet, [j]shall be utterly destroyed from among the people. 24 Yea Yea, and [l]all the prophets from Samuel and them those that followed follow after, as many as have spoken, they also told have likewise foretold of these days. 25 [q]Ye are the sons children of the prophets, and of [s]the covenant which God [8]made with your our fathers, saying unto Abraham, [w]And in thy seed shall all the families kindreds of the earth be blessed. 26 Unto you [z]first God, having [b]raised up his Servant, Son Jesus, sent him [d]to bless you, [e]in turning away every one of you from your his iniquities.

4 1 And as they spake unto the people, [9]the priests priests, and [g]the [t]captain of the temple temple, and [i]the Sadducees Sadducees, came upon them, 2 being sore troubled because grieved that they taught the people, and proclaimed [l]in preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead. 3 And they laid hands on them, and [o]put them in ward hold unto the morrow next day: for it was now eventide. 4 But Howbeit many of them that which heard the word believed; and [s]the number of the men (came to be was) about five thousand.

5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their (rulers rulers,) and (elders elders,) and (scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem; scribes,) 6 and [b] Annas the high priest (was there,) and [c] Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high (priest. priest,) were gathered together at Jerusalem. 7 And when they had set them in the midst, they (inquired, asked,) [e] By what power, or [f] (in by) what name, have ye done this? 8 Then Peter, [g] filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and (elders, elders of Israel,) 9 if we this day (are be) examined [i] (concerning a of the) good deed done to (an the) impotent man, [1] by what means (this man he) is [2] made whole; 10 be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that [l] (in by) the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, [n] whom God raised from the dead, even (in by) [3] him doth this man stand here before you whole. 11 [p] (He This) is the stone which was [q] set at nought of you (the) builders, which (was made is become) the head of the corner. 12 (And [r] in Neither none other is there [s] salvation: is there salvation in any other:) for [t] (neither there is there any none) other [u] name under heaven, (that is heaven) given among men, (wherein whereby) we must be saved.

13 [x] Now when they (beheld saw) the boldness of Peter and John, and (had) perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. 14 And (seeing beholding) the man which was healed [z] standing with them, [a] they could say nothing against it. 15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 saying, [c] What shall we do to these men? for that indeed [a] a notable [4] miracle hath been (wrought done by through them, them) is manifest to all (them) that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it. 17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us (straitly) threaten them, [d] that they speak henceforth to no man in this name. 18 And they called them, and (charged commanded) them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. 19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, [h] Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you (rather more) than unto God, judge ye: 20 (for ye. For) [j] we cannot but speak the things which [k] we (saw have seen) and heard. 21 And (they, So) when they had further threatened them, (they) let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, [m] because of the (people; people:) for all men glorified God [o] for that which was done. 22 For the man was (more than above) forty years old, on whom this [4] miracle of healing was (wrought. shewed.)

23 And being let go, they (came went) to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and (the) elders had said unto them. 24 And (they, when they heard it, when they heard that, they) lifted up their voice to God [v] with one accord, and said, [o] [5] Lord, [6] [w] thou (that didst make the heaven art God, which hast made heaven,) and (the earth) and the sea, and all that in them is: 25 [7] who by (the Holy Ghost, by) the mouth of (our father thy servant) David (thy servant, hast didst say, said,)

5 [1]But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, 2 and [f]kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and [i]laid it at the apostles' feet. 3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath [l]Satan filled thy thine heart [*] to [4]lie [m]to the Holy Ghost, and [n]to keep back part of the price of the land? 4 Whiles it remained, did it not remain was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thy thine own power? How is it that thou hast why hast thou conceived this thing in thy thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but [t]unto God. 5 And Ananias hearing these words [v]fell down down, and gave up the ghost: and [x]great fear came upon all on all them that heard it. these things. 6 And the [5]young men arose and [y]wrapped him round, arose, wound him up, and they carried him out out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. 8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much. much? And she said, Yea, for so much. 9 But Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together [g]to tempt [h]the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and they shall carry thee out. 10 And she fell Then fell she down immediately straightway at his feet, and gave yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and they carried and, carrying her out and forth, buried her by her husband. 11 And [l]great fear came upon the whole all the church, and upon all that as many as heard these things.

wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all [b]with one accord in [c]Solomon's porch. 13 But of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but [d]the people magnified them; 14 and believers [e]were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women; 15 insomuch that they even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least by, at the least his shadow the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some one of them. 16 There also came together the multitude from the cities round about unto Jerusalem, [l]bringing sick folk, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him (which is the sect of [o]the Sadducees), and were filled with [p]indignation, 18 and laid their hands on the apostles, and [r]put them in the common prison. 19 But [t]the angel of the Lord by night [v]opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all [d]the words of [e]this life. 21 And when they heard that, [h]they entered into the temple [i]early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all [m]the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison-house to have them brought. 22 But the officers that came when they came, found them not in the prison; they returned, and told, 23 saying, The prison truly we found shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they were much perplexed concerning them whereunto this would grow. 25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are in the temple standing, and teaching the people. 26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned. 27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, 28 saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us. 29 Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We must obey God rather than men. 30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. 31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. 32 And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them. 34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space; 35 And he said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves as touching these men, what ye are about to do.

36 For [a]before these days rose up Theudas, [b]giving himself out (boasting himself) to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as [*]obeyed him, were (dispersed, scattered,) and (came brought) to nought. 37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of [f]the (enrolment, taxing,) and drew away (some of the much) people after him: he also perished; and all, (even) as many as obeyed him, were (scattered abroad. dispersed.) 38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for [k]if this counsel or this work be of men, it will (be overthrown: come to nought:) 39 but [m]if it (is be) of God, ye (will not be able to cannot) overthrow (them it); [n]lest haply ye be found even to (be fighting fight) against God. 40 And to him they agreed: and [q]when they had called the apostles unto them, [r]they beat them and charged apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that (them not to they should not) speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. 41 (They And therefore they) departed from the presence of the council, [t]rejoicing that they were counted worthy [u]to suffer (dishonour shame) for (the Name. his name.) 42 And (every day, daily) [w]in the (temple temple,) and (at home, in every house,) they ceased not to teach and (to [y]preach [z]Jesus [as the] Christ.

6 1 (Now And) in (these those) days, [a]when the number of the disciples was (multiplying, multiplied,) there arose a murmuring of [c]the (1Grecian Jews Grecians) against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in [d]the daily ministration. 2 (And Then) the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not (2fit reason) that we should (forsake leave) the word of God, and [3]serve tables. 3 (4[g]Look ye out Wherefore, therefore, brethren, from brethren, look ye out) among you seven men [i]of (good honest) report, [j]full of the (Spirit and of Holy Ghost and) wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. 4 But [c]we will (continue give ourselves stedfastly in continually to) prayer, and (in to) the ministry of the word. 5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, [d]a man full of faith and [e]of the Holy (Spirit, Ghost,) and [g]Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas [h]a proselyte of Antioch: 6 whom they set before the apostles: and [i]when they had prayed, [j]they laid their hands on them.

7 And [l]the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem (exceedingly greatly); and a great company of the priests [o]were obedient to [p]the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of (grace faith) and [s]power, (wrought did) great wonders and (signs miracles) among the people. 9 (But Then) there arose certain of them that were of the synagogue (the synagogue, which is) called the synagogue of the Libertines, and (of the) Cyrenians, and (of the) Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and (of) Asia, disputing with Stephen. 10 And [x]they were not able to (withstand resist) the wisdom and the (Spirit spirit) by which he spake. 11 Then [b]they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God. 12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and (seized caught) him, and brought him (into to) the council, 13 and [e]set up [f]false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak (blasphemous) words against [h]this holy place, and the law: 14 for we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth

[j]Brethren Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken. hearken;
[k]The God [l]of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, [n]before he dwelt in Haran, Charran, 3 and said unto him, [p]Get thee out of thy land, country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee. 4 [n]Then came he out of the land of the Chaldæans, and dwelt in Haran Charran: and from thence, [u]when his father was dead, [w]God he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell: 5 and dwell. And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: and yet he promised [b]that he would give it to him in for a possession, and to his seed after him, [d]when as yet he had no child. 6 And God spake on this wise, That [f]his seed should [g]sojourn in a strange land, land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil, evil [j]four hundred years. 7 And the nation to which whom they shall be in bondage [l]will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, [n]and serve me in this place. 8 And [p]he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and [r]so Abraham begat Isaac, and [s]circumcised him the eighth day; and [t]Isaac begat Jacob, Jacob; and [u]Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs. 9 And the patriarchs, [y]moved with jealousy against Joseph, envy, sold [b]sold him Joseph into Egypt: and but [c]God was with him, 10 and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and [f]gave him favour and wisdom before in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and [h]he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. 11 Now [i]there came a famine dearth over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance. 12 [m]But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent forth out our fathers the first time. first. 13 And [o]at the second time [q]Joseph was made known to his brethren; and [r]Joseph's race became manifest kindred was made known unto Pharaoh. 14 And [s]Joseph sent, Then sent Joseph, and called to him his father Jacob his father, to him, and all his kindred, [t]threescore and fifteen souls. 15 And So Egypt; and [x]he died, himself, [y]and Egypt, our fathers; 16 and [z]they were carried fathers, over unto Shechem, into Sychem, and laid in the tomb sepulchre that [a]Abraham bought for a price in silver sum of money of the sons of [1]Hamor in Shechem. 49 [u]The heaven Heaven is my throne,
And the earth the footstool of my feet: is my footstool
What manner of house will ye build me? saith the Lord:
Or what is the place of my rest?
50 Did Hath not my hand make made all these things?

51 [z]Ye stiffnecked and [a]uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: [b]as your fathers did, so do ye. 52 [d]Which of the prophets did have not your fathers persecute persecuted? and they killed have slain them which shewed before of the coming of [g]the Righteous Just One; [h]of whom ye have now become been now the betrayers and murderers; murderers: 53 ye who Who have received the law [2j]as it was ordained by by the disposition of angels, and [k]kept it not. have not kept it.

54 Now when When they heard these things, [m]they were cut to the heart, and they [o]gnashed on him with their teeth. 55 But he, [p]being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw [r]the glory of God, and Jesus standing [t]on the right hand of God, 56 and said, Behold, I see [u]the heavens opened, and [v]the Son of man standing [t]on the right hand of God. 57 But Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed ran upon him with one accord; accord, 58 and [e]they cast him out of the city, and [g]stoned him: and [h]the witnesses laid down their garments clothes [i]at the feet of a young man named a young man's feet, whose name was Saul. 59 And they stoned Stephen, [m]calling upon the Lord, God, and saying, Lord Jesus, [o]receive my spirit. 60 And he [q]kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, [s]Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, [v]he fell asleep. 1 And [w]Saul was [x]consenting unto his death.

And there arose on that day at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was in at Jerusalem; and [y]they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judæa and Samaria, except the apostles. 2 And devout men buried carried Stephen to his burial, and [c]made great lamentation over him. 3 But [e]Saul As for Saul, he laid waste made havock of the church, entering into every house, and [f]haling men and women committed them to prison.

4 [i]They therefore Therefore they that were scattered abroad went about every where preaching the word. 5 And Then [l]Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed unto them preached Christ unto them. the Christ. 6 [n]And the multitudes people with one accord gave heed unto those things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard, which Philip spake, hearing [q]and saw seeing the signs miracles which he did. 7 [3]For from many of those which had [s]unclean spirits, they came out, crying with loud voice, crying with a loud voice: came out of many that were possessed with them: and many that were palsied, taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed. 8 And [w]there was much great joy in that city.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man? 35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and [d]began at the same scripture, and [g]preached unto him Jesus. 36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; [i]what doth hinder me to be baptized?[1]

37 And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. 39 And when they were come up out of the water, [l]the Spirit of the Lord [n]caught away Philip; and the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cæsarea.

9 And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, 2 and desired of him letters to Damascus unto the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem. 3 And as he journeyed, it came to pass that he came near unto Damascus: and suddenly there shone round about him a light from heaven: 4 and he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? 5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. 6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, but rise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. 7 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing the voice, but seeing no man. 8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw nothing; and they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. 9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. 11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, a man of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, 12 and hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight. 13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard from many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem: 14 and here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name. 15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a [3]chosen vessel unto Peter was there, they sent two men unto him unto him, intreating him, [b]Delay not two men, desiring him that he would not *delay to come on unto us. to them. 39 And Then Peter arose and went with them. And when When he was come, they brought him into [c]the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them. 40 But Peter [g]put them all forth, and [h]kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body, the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes; eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up. 41 And he gave her his hand, and raised lifted her up; up, and calling when he had called the saints and widows, he presented her alive. 42 And it became was known throughout all Joppa; Joppa: and [l]many believed on in the Lord. 43 And it came to pass, that he abode tarried many days in Joppa [m]with one Simon a tanner.

10 1 Now there was There was a certain man in Cæsarea, Cornelius by name, Cæsarea called Cornelius, a centurion of [q]the band called the Italian [1]band, 2 a devout man, and [s]one that feared God with all his house, who which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway. 3 [t]He saw in a vision openly, as it were evidently [u]about the ninth hour of the day, day [w]an angel of God coming in unto to him, and saying to unto him, Cornelius. 4 And he, fastening his eyes upon when he looked on him, and being affrighted, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms [y]are gone come up [z]for a memorial before God. 5 And now send men to Joppa, and fetch call for one Simon, who is surnamed whose surname is Peter: 6 he lodgeth [b]with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side. side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do. 7 And when the angel that which spake unto him Cornelius was departed, he called two of his [a]household-servants, household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually; 8 and having when he had rehearsed declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 Now on On the morrow, as they were went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, [d]Peter went up [e]upon the housetop to pray, pray about [f]the sixth hour: 10 and he became very hungry, and desired would to eat have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into [j]a trance; trance, 11 and he beholdeth saw [k]the heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending, descending unto him, as it were had been a great sheet, let down by sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth: 12 wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts and creeping things of the earth, and of the earth wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the heaven. air. 13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill kill, and eat. 14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; [n]for I have never eaten anything any thing that is [o]common and or [p]unclean. 15 And a the voice came spake unto him again the second time, [r]What God hath cleansed, make that call not thou common. 16 And this was done thrice: and straightway the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Peter was much perplexed doubted in himself what [v]the this vision which he had seen might should mean, behold, [x]the men that which were sent by from Cornelius, having Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate, 18 and called called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodging lodged there. 19 And while While Peter thought on [v]the vision, [a]the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. 20 But arise, Arise therefore, and get thee down, and [c]go with them, nothing doubting. doubting nothing: for I have sent them. 21 And Then Peter went down to the men, men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and

R.V. [1] Some ancient authorities read he. [2] Or, how unlawful it is for a man &c. [3] Many ancient authorities read He sent the word unto. [4] Or, the gospel

[a] every one that whosoever believeth [on] in him shall receive [b] remission of sins.

44 While Peter yet spake these words, [c] the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. 45 And [d] they of the circumcision which believed were [amazed,] astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also [e] was poured out [f] the gift of the Holy Ghost. 46 For they heard them [g] speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 [j] Can any man forbid [the] water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost [k] as well as we? 48 And he [l] commanded them [m] to be baptized in the name of [Jesus Christ.] the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

II 1 [Now] And [the] the apostles and brethren that were in Judæa heard that the Gentiles [also had] had also received the word of God. 2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they [t] that were of the circumcision contended with him, 3 saying, [v] Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst [x] eat with them. 4 But Peter [began, and] rehearsed the matter [expounded the matter unto them] from the beginning, and expounded it by order [in order,] unto them, saying, 5 [b] I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, [a] A certain vessel [descending,] descend, as it [were] had been a great [sheet] sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even [unto] to me: 6 upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw [the] four-footed beasts of the [earth] earth, and wild [beasts] beasts, and creeping [things] things, and fowls of the [heaven.] air. 7 And I heard [also] a voice saying unto me, [Rise,] Arise, Peter; [kill] slay and eat. 8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath [ever] at any time entered into my mouth. 9 But [a] the voice answered [the second time out of] me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, [make] that call not thou common. 10 And this was done [thrice] three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven. 11 And [And,] behold, [forthwith] immediately there were three men [stood before] already come unto the house in which we were, [having been] where I was, sent from Cæsarea unto me. 12 And the Spirit [spirit] bade me go with them, [k] making no distinction. And [nothing doubting.] Moreover [i] these six brethren [also] accompanied [me;] me, and we entered into the man's house: 13 and he [told] shewed us how he had seen [the] an angel [standing in his house,] in his house, which stood [and saying,] and said unto him, Send [men] to Joppa, and [fetch] call for Simon, whose surname is Peter; 14 [n] who shall [speak unto] tell thee words, whereby [o] thou [shalt] and be saved, thou and all thy house. [all thy house shall be saved.] 15 And as I began to speak, [p] the Holy Ghost fell on them, [r] even as on us at the beginning. 16 [And I remembered] Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, [s] John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized [1] with the Holy Ghost. 17 [If then] Forasmuch then as [u] God gave unto them [w] the like gift as he did also unto us, [y] when we who believed on the Lord Jesus [Christ,] Christ; [z] who what was I, [a] that I could withstand God? 18 [And when] When they heard these things, they held their peace, and [c] glorified God, saying, [d] Then [to the] hath God also to the Gentiles [e] granted [f] repentance unto life.

19 [g] They therefore that Now they which were scattered abroad upon the [tribulation] persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as [Phœnicia,] Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, [speaking] preaching the word to none [save only to Jews.] but unto the Jews only. 20 But [And] there were some of them, [some of them were] men of Cyprus and Cyrene, [who,] which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the [2 h] Greeks also, [Grecians,] [i] preaching the Lord Jesus. 21 And [j] the hand of the the house of Mary the mother of [a]John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together [and a]were praying. 13 And [when he as Peter] knocked at the door of the gate, [f]a [maid] damsel came [*]to [answer,] hearken, named Rhoda. 14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate [h]for [joy,] gladness, but ran in, and told [that how] Peter stood before the gate. 15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she [confidently constantly] affirmed that it was even so. [And they said, Then said they,] It is [k]his angel. 16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had [opened, they opened the door,] and saw him, [and they] were [amazed.] astonished. 17 But he, [n]beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him [forth] out of the prison. And he said, [Tell Go shew] these things unto [r]James, and to [t]the brethren. And he departed, and went [to into] another place. 18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter. 19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the [guards, keepers,] and [y]commanded that they should be [1]put to death. And he went down from Judæa to Cæsarea, and [tarried there. there abode.]

20 [Now he And Herod] [†]was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: [and but] they came with one accord to him, and, [c]having made Blastus [‡]the king's chamberlain their friend, [they asked for peace, desired peace;] because [f]their country was [fed from nourished by] the king's country. 21 And upon a set day [Herod Herod,] arrayed [himself] in royal apparel, [and] sat [on the upon his] [2h]throne, and made an oration unto them. 22 And the people [shouted, gave a shout,] saying, [The It is the] voice of a god, and not of a man. 23 And immediately [b]an [the] angel of the Lord smote him, because [c]he gave not God the glory: and [e]he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 But [g]the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 [i]And Barnabas and Saul returned [3]from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their [ministration, §ministry,] [taking and took] with them [a]John [John,] whose surname was Mark.

13 1 Now there were [at in] Antioch, in the church that was there, the church that was at Antioch certain [l]prophets and [teachers, teachers;] as [m]Barnabas, and [Symeon Simeon] that was called Niger, and [o]Lucius of Cyrene, and [Manaen the foster-brother Manaen, ‖which had been brought of up with] [p]Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. 2 [And as As] they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, [q]the Holy Ghost said, [s]Separate me Barnabas and Saul [u]for the work whereunto I have called them. 3 [Then, And] when they had fasted and [v]prayed prayed, and laid their hands on them, [w]they sent them away.

4 So they, being sent forth [x]by the Holy Ghost, [went down to departed unto] Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus. 5 And when they were at Salamis, they [proclaimed preached] the word of God [z]in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also [a]John [as to] their [b]attendant. minister. 6 And when they had gone through the [whole island isle] unto Paphos, they found a certain [4d]sorcerer, [e]a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was [Bar-Jesus; Bar-jesus:] 7 which was with [g]the [proconsul, deputy] of the country, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. 42 And when they were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them [‡]the next sabbath. 43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and of the religious [l]proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, urged them [n]to continue in [o]the grace of God.

and to Antioch, 22 [a]confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them [b]to continue in [d]the faith, and that [e]through many tribulations we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. 23 And when they had [h]appointed for ordained them [i]elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, [k]they commended them to the Lord, on whom they had believed. 24 And after they had passed through throughout Pisidia, and they came to Pamphylia. 25 And when they had spoken preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia; into Attalia: 26 and thence they sailed to Antioch, [o]from whence they had been [p]committed recommended to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled. 27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, [t]they rehearsed all things that God had done with them, and [w]how that he had [y]opened [z]a the door of faith unto the Gentiles. 28 And they tarried there they no little abode long time with the disciples.

15 1 [c]And certain men which came down from Judæa and taught [g]the brethren, saying, and said, Except ye be [h]circumcised [j]after the custom manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. 2 And when When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and [n]questioning disputation with them, [o]the brethren appointed they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto [q]the apostles and elders about this question. 3 They therefore, And [r]being brought on their way by the church, they passed through both Phœnicia Phenice and Samaria, [t]declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and [v]they caused great joy unto all [w]the brethren. 4 And [y]when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church church, and [c]the apostles and the elders, and [f]they rehearsed declared all things that God had done with them. 5 But there *rose up certain of [g]the sect of the Pharisees who which believed, saying, [j]It is That it was needful [l]to circumcise them, and to charge command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 [m]And [c]the apostles and the elders were gathered together came together for to consider of this matter. 7 And when there had been much [n]questioning, disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them,

Brethren, Men and brethren, ye know how that [1]a good while ago God made choice among you, us, [q]that by my mouth the Gentiles the Gentiles by my mouth should hear [r]the word of [s]the gospel, and believe. 8 And God, [u]which knoweth the heart, hearts, [v]bare them witness, [x]giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us; 9 and [a]he made put no distinction difference between us and them, [b]cleansing purifying their hearts [d]by faith. 10 Now therefore why [e]tempt ye God, [f]that ye should to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, [i]which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? 11 But we [k]believe that we shall be saved through the grace through [m]the grace of the Lord Jesus, [a]in like of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, manner even as they.

12 And Then all the multitude kept silence; and they hearkened unto silence, gave audience to Barnabas and Paul [p]rehearsing Paul, declaring what signs miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them. 13 And after they had held their peace, [s]James answered, saying,

Brethren, Men and brethren, hearken unto me: 14 [u]Symeon rehearsed Simeon hath declared how first God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them [x]a people for his name. 15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 [b]After these things I will return,
And [1] will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down;
And I will build again the ruins thereof,
And I will set it up:
17 That the residue of men [g]may seek after the Lord,
And all the Gentiles, [i]upon whom my name is called,
18 Saith the Lord, [1]who maketh these things. [m]Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore [o]my judgement is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles [p]turn to God:
20 but that we [2]write unto them, [r]that they abstain from [s]the pollutions of idols, and from [t]fornication, and from [u]what is strangled, and from [u]blood. 21 For Moses from generations of old hath in every city them that preach him, [v]being read in the synagogues every sabbath.

22 Then it seemed good to [y]the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas called Barsabbas, and [c]Silas, chief men among [x]the brethren:

having come [a]to being assembled with one accord, to choose out men and send them send chosen men unto you with our [c]beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 [d]men that have [e]hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27 We have sent therefore [f]Judas and Silas, who themselves also shall shall also tell you the same things by word of *mouth. 28 For it seemed good [h]to the Holy Ghost, and [j]to us, [k]to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things; 29 [l]that ye abstain from [n]things sacrificed meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep fornication: yourselves, it shall be well with you. ye shall do well. [q]Fare ye well.

30 So they, when they were dismissed, came down to Antioch; they came Antioch: and having when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle. epistle: 31 And Which when they had read it, they rejoiced for the [4]†consolation. 32 And Judas and Silas, being themselves also [w]prophets, prophets also themselves. withdrew from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. 39 And there arose [b]a sharp contention, so that they parted asunder one from the other: and so [c]Barnabas took Mark with him, and sailed away unto Cyprus; 40 but Paul chose Silas, and went forth, being commended by [f]the brethren to [g]the grace of the Lord. 41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, [j]confirming the churches.

16 1 And he came also Then came he to Derbe and to Lystra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, named [n]Timothy, Timotheus, [o]the son of a Jewess which certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek. 2 The same Which was well reported of by [p]the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium. 3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and he [t]took and circumcised him because of the Jews that which were in those parts quarters: for they all knew knew all that his father was a Greek. 4 And as they went on their way through the cities, they delivered them [v]the decrees for to keep, [z]which had been that were ordained of [y]the apostles and elders that which were at Jerusalem. 5 [z]So the And so were churches were strengthened the churches established in [b]the faith, and increased in number [d]daily.

6 And Now when [g]they went through the had gone throughout region of Phrygia and Phrygia and the region of Galatia, having and been were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to speak preach the word in Asia; 7 and when After Asia, they were come over against to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia; Bithynia: and but [l]the Spirit of Jesus suffered them not: not. 8 and passing by Mysia, they And they passing by Mysia came down [m]to Troas. 9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There was a man of Macedonia stood a man of standing, beseeching Macedonia, and prayed him, and saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. 10 And when after he had seen the vision, straightway immediately [a]we sought endeavoured to go forth into Macedonia, concluding assuredly gathering that God the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Setting sail therefore Therefore loosing from Troas, we [d]made came with a straight course to Samothrace, Samothracia, and the day following next day to Neapolis; 12 and from thence to [h]Philippi, which is a city of Macedonia, *the chief city of the first of the district, [i]a Roman that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in this that city tarrying abiding certain days. 13 And [k]on the †sabbath day we went forth without the gate out of the city [l]by a river side, where we supposed there was a place prayer was wont to be of prayer made; and we [m]sat down, and spake unto the women which were come together. resorted thither. 14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, [q]one that which worshipped God, heard us: [r]whose [s]heart the Lord opened, to give heed that she attended unto the things which were spoken by of Paul. 15 And when she was baptized, [u]and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she [w]constrained us.

16 And it came to pass, as we were going went to [a]the place of prayer, that a certain maid having damsel possessed with [1c]a spirit ‡of [e]divination met us, [f]which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying. 17 The same following after soothsaying: followed Paul and us [h]cried out, us, and cried, saying, These men are the [2i]servants of [j]the Most High most high God, which proclaim shew unto you [3k]the way of salvation. 18 And us this she did for did she many days. But Paul, being sore troubled, grieved, and said to the spirit, [n]I charge command thee [o]in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And [p]it he came out that very the same hour.

Jesus, whom, said he, I proclaim *whom I preach unto you, is the Christ. 4 And [b]some of them were persuaded, believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout [e]Greeks [f]a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few. 5 [h]But the Jews, Jews which being believed not, moved with [i]jealousy, envy, took unto them [k]certain vile lewd fellows of the rabble, baser sort, and gathering gathered a crowd, company, and set all the city on an uproar; and assaulting assaulted the house of [l]Jason, they and sought to bring them forth out to the people. 6 And when they found them not, [p]they dragged drew Jason and certain brethren before unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned [1]the world upside down are come hither also; 7 whom Jason hath received: and these all act do contrary to [r]the decrees of Cæsar, saying that there is [s]another king, one Jesus. 8 And they troubled the multitude people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things. 9 And when they had taken security from Jason of Jason, and of the rest, other, they let them go.

10 And [x]the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berœa Berea: who when they were come coming thither [z]went into the synagogue of the Jews. 11 Now these These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, [a]examining and searched the scriptures daily, whether these those things were so. 12 [b]Many of them Therefore many of therefore them believed; also of the Greek honourable [c]women of honourable estate, which were Greeks, and of men, not a few. 13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed preached of Paul at Berœa also, Berea, they came thither likewise, stirring also, and stirred up and [g]troubling the multitudes. the people. 14 And then [a]immediately the brethren sent forth away Paul to go as far as it were to the sea: and Silas and but [c]Timothy Timotheus abode there still. 15 But And [d]they that conducted Paul brought him as far as unto [g]Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timothy [f]that they should Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was [m]provoked within stirred in him, as he beheld when he saw the city [n]full of idols. 17 So [o]he †wholly given to idolatry. Therefore reasoned disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the marketplace every market day daily with them that met with him. 18 And Then certain also of the philosophers of Epicurean and Stoic philosophers the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, [q]What would will this ‡babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange [2]gods: because [t]he preached [u]Jesus unto them Jesus, and the resurrection. 19 And they took hold of him, and brought him [3]unto [4]the §Areopagus, saying, May we know what this [w]new teaching is, which is spoken by thee? doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is? 20 For thou bringest certain [y]strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean. 21 (Now For all the Athenians and the strangers sojourning which were there [5]spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell tell, or to hear some new thing.) 22 And Then Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus, ‖Mars' hill, and said,

Ye men of Athens, in all things I perceive that I perceive that in all things ye are somewhat too [6d]superstitious. 23 For as I passed along, by, and observed the [e]objects of beheld your worship, devotions, I found also an altar with this inscription, [7f]TO AN THE UNKNOWN GOD. 12 But And when Gallio was [d]proconsul the deputy of Achaia, [e]the Jews with one accord made insurrection rose up with one accord against Paul, and [h]brought him before to the judgement-seat, judgment seat, 13 saying, This man fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to [l]the law. 14 But And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked [n]villany, lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you: 15 but [o]if they are questions it be a question about of words and names names, and [p]your own of your law, look to it yourselves; I am not minded ye to it; for I will to be a be no judge of these such matters. 16 And he drave them from the judgement-seat. judgment seat. 17 And they all laid hold on Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgement-seat. judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of these those things.

18 And Paul, having tarried after this Paul after this tarried there yet many days, a good while, and then took his leave of [x]the brethren, and sailed thence for into Syria, and with him [z]Priscilla and Aquila; [a]having shorn his head in [b]Cenchreæ Cenchrea: [a]for he had a vow. 19 And they he came to [d]Ephesus, and he left them there: but [e]he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. 20 And when When they asked desired him to abide a tarry longer time, time with them, he consented not; 21 but taking his leave of them, and bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, [j]if God will, he will. And set sail he sailed from Ephesus. 22 And when he had landed at Cæsarea, he [t]went up and gone up, and saluted the church, and he went down to Antioch. 23 And having after he had spent some time there, he departed, and [b]went through over all the region country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, [c]establishing strengthening all the disciples.

24 Now And a certain Jew named [f]Apollos, an Alexandrian by race, [1]a learned born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus; and he was [g]mighty in and mighty in the scriptures, came to the scriptures. had been Ephesus. 25 This man was [2][i]instructed in [j]the way of the Lord; and [k]being fervent in the carefully spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things concerning Jesus, of the Lord, knowing only [m]the baptism of John: John. 26 And And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. heard this, [a]they were baptized (into / in) the name of the Lord Jesus.
6 And [c]when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and [e]they spake with tongues, and [f]prophesied.
7 And (they were in all about twelve men. / all the men were about twelve.)
8 And [g]he (entered / went) into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, (reasoning / disputing) and persuading as to the things [j]concerning the kingdom of God.
9 [k]But when (some / divers) were (hardened / hardened,) and [l](disobedient, / believed not, but) (speaking / spake) evil of [m](the / That Way / way) before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, (reasoning / disputing) daily in the school of (one / Tyrannus).
10 And this continued (for / by) the space of [r]two years; so that [s]all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the (Lord, / Lord Jesus,) both Jews and Greeks.
11 And [v]God wrought special [1]miracles by the hands of Paul:
12 [w](insomuch / So) that (unto the / from his) (sick were carried away from his body / body were brought unto the sick) handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and [a]the evil spirits went (out / out of them).
13 (But / Then) certain (also /) of the (strolling / vagabond) Jews, [c]exorcists, [d]took upon them to (name / call) over them which had (the /) evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, (I / We) adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.
14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, (a / and) chief (of the priests, / priest,) which did (this. / so.)
15 And the evil spirit answered and said (unto them, /) [f]Jesus I [2]know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?
16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and (mastered both of / overcame) them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house [j]naked and wounded.
17 And this (became / was) known to (all, / all the) (both /) Jews and Greeks, (that dwelt / also dwelling) at Ephesus; and fear fell (upon / on) them all, and [b]the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.
18 Many also of them (And many /) that had believed came, [d](confessing, / and confessed,) and (declaring / shewed) their deeds.
19 And not a few (Many /) of them (that practised / also which used) [3]curious arts brought their books together, and burned them (in the sight of all / before all men): and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand [h]pieces of silver.
20 So [i]mightily grew the word of (the Lord / God) and prevailed.
21 Now after (After /) these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, [n]when he had passed through [o]Macedonia and Achaia, [p]to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, [q]I must also see Rome.
22 (And having / So he) sent into Macedonia two of them that [t]ministered unto him, ([u]Timothy / Timotheus) and [w](Erastus, / Erastus;) but he himself stayed in Asia [x]for a (while. / season.)
23 And (about that / the same) time [y]there arose no small stir (concerning / about that way.) [z]the Way.
24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines (of / for) [4]Diana, [b]brought no (little business / small gain) unto the craftsmen;
25 [b](whom /) he (gathered / called) (together, / together) with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this (business / craft) we have our wealth.
26 (And / Moreover) ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, [g]saying that [h]they be no gods, which are made with hands:
27 (and / So that) not only (is there danger that this our craft is / this our trade come into disrepute / in danger to be set at nought); but also that the temple of the [i]great goddess [4]Diana (be made of no account, / should be despised,) and (that she should even be deposed from her / her magnificence should be) magnificence, (destroyed, /) whom all Asia and [5]the world worshippeth.
28 And when they heard (this, / these sayings,) they were filled with full of wrath, and cried out, saying, [a]Great is [1]Diana of the Ephesians. 29 And the whole city was filled with the confusion: and they rushed with one accord into the theatre, having seized having caught [c]Gaius and [d]Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's [e]companions in travel, they rushed with travel. one accord into the theatre. 30 And when Paul was minded to enter would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not. 31 And certain also of the [2]chief officers of Asia, being which were his friends, sent unto him, and besought desiring him not to that he would not adventure himself into the theatre. 32 [f]Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was in confusion confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together. 33 [3]And they brought drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander [i]beckoned with the hand, and would have made a his defence unto the people. 34 But when they perceived knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, [l]Great is [1]Diana of the Ephesians. 35 And when the townclerk had quieted the multitude, appeased the people, he saith, said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there who that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper *a worshipper of the great goddess [1]Diana, and of the image which fell down from [4]*s*Jupiter? 36 Seeing then that these things cannot be gainsaid, spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash. rashly. 37 For ye have brought hither [v]these men, which are neither [w]robbers of temples churches, nor yet blasphemers of our your goddess. 38 If Wherefore therefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen that which are with him, have a matter against any man, [5]† the courts are law is open, and there are [b]proconsuls deputies: let them accuse implead one another. 39 But if ye seek anything inquire any about thing concerning other matters, it shall be settled determined in the regular a ‡lawful assembly. 40 For indeed we are in danger to be [6]accused concerning called in question for this day's riot, uproar, there being no cause for it: and as touching it we shall not be able whereby we may to give an account of this concourse. 41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

20 [1] And after the uproar was ceased, Paul having called sent for unto him the disciples disciples, and exhorted them, took leave of embraced them, and [g]departed for to go into Macedonia. 2 And when he had gone through over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece. sat in [the] [a] window a certain young man named Eutychus, borne down being fallen with into a deep sleep: and as Paul discoursed yet longer, being borne was long preaching, he sunk down by his sleep he with sleep, and [d] fell down from the third story, loft, and was taken up dead. 10 And Paul went down, and [g] fell on him, and embracing him said, [i] Make ye no ado Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him. 11 And when he When therefore was gone up, was come up again, and [k] had broken [the] bread, and eaten, and had talked [with them] a long while, even till break of day, so he departed. 12 And they brought the [young man] lad alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 But we, going And we went before to [the] ship, set sail for and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, intending minding himself to go [1] by land. afoot. 14 And when he met [with] us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene. 15 And sailing from we sailed thence, we and came the following next day over against Chios; and the next day we touched arrived at Samos; Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and [2] the day after next day we came to Miletus. 16 For Paul had determined to sail [past] by Ephesus, [that] because he might not would have to not spend [the] time in [Asia] Asia: for he was hastening, hasted, if it were possible for him, [d] to be at Jerusalem [f] the day of Pentecost.

17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called [to him] [l] the [3] elders of the church. 18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them,

[p] Ye yourselves know, [q] from the first day that I set foot in came into Asia, [p] after what manner I was have been with you all the time, at all seasons, 19 [s] serving the Lord [u] with all lowliness humility of mind, and with many [w] tears, and with trials temptations, which befell me by [a] the plots lying in wait of the Jews: 20 how that I [t] shrank And how kept back not from declaring unto you anything that was nothing that was profitable unto you, but have profitable, and [c] teaching publicly, shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, 21 [e] testifying both to the Jews, [the] Jews, and also to the Greeks, [Greeks] [f] repentance toward God, and [h] faith toward our Lord Jesus [4] Christ. 22 And now, behold, I go bound [j] in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: 23 save that [l] the Holy Ghost testifieth unto me witnesseth in every city, saying that [m] bonds and [n] afflictions [] abide me. 24 But [] I hold not my life none of these things move of any account, as me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, [5] so that [p] I may accomplish might finish my course, course with joy, and [q] the ministry ministry, [r] which I have received from [of] the Lord Jesus, [s] to testify [t] the gospel of [u] the grace of God. 25 And now, behold, [v] I know that ye all, among whom I went have about [w] preaching the kingdom, kingdom of God, shall see my face no more. 26 Wherefore [x] I testify unto you take you to record this day, that [y] I am pure from the blood of all men. 27 For [z] I shrank not from declaring have not shunned to declare unto you [a] the whole all the counsel of God. 28 [b] Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all [c] the flock, in over the which [e] the Holy Ghost hath made you [6] [g] bishops, [h] to feed [i] the church of overseers, [7] [j] God, which he hath [8] [k] purchased [m] with his own blood. 29 For [k] I know this, that after my departing [n] grievous wolves shall shall grievous wolves enter in among you, [o] not sparing the flock; flock. 30 and Also [p] from among of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away [the] disciples after them. 31 Wherefore [t] watch ye, Therefore watch, and remembering remember, that [v] by the space of three years I ceased not [x] to and went on our journey way; and they all, with wives and children, [b]brought us on all brought us on our way, with wives and our way, children, till we were out of the city: and [e]kneeling we kneeled down on the beach, we prayed, 6 and bade each other shore, and prayed. And when we had taken farewell; and we went on board the ship, our leave one of another, we took ship; and but they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished the voyage our course from Tyre, we arrived at came to Ptolemais, and we saluted [k]the brethren, and abode with them one day. 8 And on the morrow the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cæsarea: and entering we entered into the house of [q]Philip [r]the evangelist, who which was one of the seven, we seven; and abode with him. 9 Now this And the same man had four daughters, virgins, [t]which did prophesy. 10 And as we tarried there [2]many days, there came down from Judæa a certain prophet, named [v]Agabus. 11 And coming to when he was come unto us, and he [v]taking took Paul's girdle, he and bound his own feet and hands, hands and feet, and said, [a]Thus saith the Holy Ghost, [b]So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and [d]shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. 12 And when we heard these things, both we we, and they of that place place, [f]besought him not to go up to Jerusalem. 13 Then Paul answered, [f]What do ye, weeping mean ye to weep and breaking my to break mine heart? for [h]I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem [i]for the name of the Lord Jesus. 14 And when he would not be persuaded, [j]we ceased, saying, [k]The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after these those days we [3]took up our baggage, carriages, and went up to Jerusalem. 16 And there There went with us also certain of the disciples from of Cæsarea, bringing and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an early old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, [a]the brethren received us gladly. 18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto [d]James; and all [e]the elders were present. 19 And when he had saluted them, [g]he rehearsed one by one [k]the things which declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his [i]ministry. 20 And they, when they heard it, they [k]glorified God; the Lord, and they said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many [l m]thousands there are among the Jews of them which have believed of Jews there are which believe; and they are all [o]zealous for of the law: 21 and they have been are informed concerning of thee, that thou teachest all [q]the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, [r]telling saying that them they ought [s]not to circumcise their children, neither [t]to walk after [v]the customs. 22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will certainly hear that thou art come. 23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men [x]which have a vow on them; 24 these Them take, and [z]purify thyself with them, and be at charges for with them, [x]that they may shave their heads: and all shall may know that there is no those truth in the things things, whereof they have been were informed concerning thee, are nothing; thee: but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, keeping and keepest the law. 25 But as As touching the Gentiles which have believed, believe, [d]we have 2wrote, written and giving judgement that they concluded that they observe no such thing, save should only that they keep themselves from things sacrificed offered to idols, and from blood, and from what is strangled, and from fornication. 26 Then Paul [3]took the men, and the next day [z]purifying himself with them [f]went entered into the temple, declaring the fulfilment to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until [g]the that an offering was should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when [b]the seven days were almost completed, ended, [c]the Jews from which were of Asia, [f]when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude, people, and laid hands on him, 28 crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that [j]teacheth all men everywhere every where against the people, and [l]the law, and [l]this place: and moreover he further brought Greeks also into the temple, and [n]hath defiled polluted [l]this holy place. 29 For (For before seen seen before with him in the city [p]Trophimus the an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple. temple.) 30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they laid hold on took Paul, and [u]dragged drew him out of the temple: and straightway forthwith the doors were shut. 31 [u]And as they were seeking went about to kill him, tidings came up to unto the [4]chief captain of [w]the [5]band, that all Jerusalem was in confusion. an uproar. 32 And forthwith [y]he Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down upon unto them: and they, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, left off they left beating of Paul. 33 Then the chief captain came near, and laid hold on took him, and commanded him [a]to be bound [b]with two chains; and inquired demanded who he was, and what he had done. 34 And [c]some shouted cried one thing, some another, among the crowd multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the uproar, tumult, he commanded him to be brought carried into [e]the castle. 35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the crowd; people. 36 for For the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, [h]Away with him.

37 And as Paul was about to be brought into the castle, he saith said unto the chief captain, May I say something unto thee? And he said, Who Canst thou know Greek? 38 Art not thou then that Egyptian, which before these days stirred up to sedition and madest an uproar, and led leddest out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins that were murderers? 39 But Paul said, I am a Jew, man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and and, I beseech thee, give me suffer leave me to speak unto the people. 40 And when he had given him leave, Paul, standing licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people; and people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew language, tongue, saying, 22 1 Brethren Men, brethren, and fathers, hear ye the my defence which I now make make now unto you.

2 And (And when they heard that he spake unto them in the Hebrew language, in the Hebrew tongue to them, they were kept the more quiet silence: and he saith, saith,)

3 I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, but yet brought up in this city, city at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed and taught according to the strict perfect manner of the law of our the fathers, being and was zealous for toward God, even as ye all are this day: day. 4 and And I persecuted this Way way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. 5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and journeyed went to Damascus, to bring them also which were there unto Jerusalem in bonds, bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished. 6 And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and drew was come nigh unto Damascus, Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me. 7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? 8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest. 9 And they that were with me beheld saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me. 10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do. 11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus. 12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well reported having a good of by report of all the Jews that which dwelt there, 13 came unto me, and standing by me stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And in that very the same hour I looked up on upon him. 14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath appointed thee chosen thee, to that thou shouldest know his will, and to see the Righteous see that Just One, and to shouldest hear a the voice from of his mouth. 15 For thou shalt be a witness for him his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard. 16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on his name. the name of the Lord. 17 And it came to pass, that, when I had returned was come again to Jerusalem, and even while I prayed in the temple, I fell into a trance, was in a trance; 18 and saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: because for they will not receive of thee thy testimony concerning me. 19 And I said, Lord, they themselves know that [a]I imprisoned and [b]beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee: 20 and when the blood of Stephen thy martyr [c]thy witness Stephen was shed, [d]I also was standing by, and [e]consenting, consenting unto his death, and [d]keeping kept the garments raiment of them that slew him. 21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee forth [g]far hence unto the Gentiles.

R.V. 1 Or, received my sight and looked upon him

22 And they gave him audience unto this word; word, and they then lifted up their voice, voices, and said, [j]Away with such a fellow from the earth: for [m]it is not fit that he should live. 23 And as they cried out, and threw cast off their garments, clothes, and cast threw dust into the air, 24 the chief captain commanded him to be brought into [p]the castle, bidding and bade that he should be [r]examined by scourging, scourging; that he might know for what cause wherefore they so shouted cried so against him. 25 And when as they had tied bound him up [1]with the thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge [u]a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned? 26 And when When the centurion heard it, that, he went to the chief captain, and told him, and told the chief captain, saying, What art thou about to do? Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman. 27 And Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? And he He said, Yea. 28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this citizenship. freedom. And Paul said, But I am was a Roman free born. 29 They then which were about [z]to examine him straightway Then straightway they departed from him which should have departed from him: and the chief captain also [b]was afraid, [d]when after he knew that he was a Roman, and because [f]he had bound him.

30 But On the morrow, [g]desiring because he would have known to know the certainty, certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him, him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all the their council to come together, appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

23 1 And Paul, looking stedfastly carnestly on beholding the council, said, Brethren, Men and brethren, [f]I have lived before God in all good conscience in all good conscience before God until this day. 2 And the high priest [h]Ananias commanded them that stood by him [i]to smite him on the mouth. 3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou [k]whited [l]wall: and for sittest thou to judge me according to after the law, and [n]commandest me to be smitten [n]contrary to the law? 4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou [o]God's high priest? 5 And Paul said, Then said Paul, [q]I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, [s]Thou shalt not speak evil of a the ruler of thy people. 6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were [t]Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Brethren, Men and brethren, [v]I am a Pharisee, a the son of Pharisees: [w]touching a Pharisee: of the [x]hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. 7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the assembly multitude was divided. 8 For the Sadducees [y]say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both. 9 And there arose a great clamour cry: and some of [a]the scribes the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part stood up, arose, and strove, saying, [c]We find no evil in this man: and what but if [e]a spirit or hath an angel spoken to him, or an angel? hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God. 10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should (be) have been torn (in pieces) pulled by them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and (to) take him by force from among them, and (to) bring him into [b]the castle.

11 And [c]the night following [d]the Lord stood by him, and said, [e]Be of good cheer, cheer Paul: for [f]as thou hast testified (of) concerning me (at) in Jerusalem, so must thou [h]bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, certain of [i]the Jews banded together, and [j]bound themselves *under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. 13 And they were more than forty which (had) made this conspiracy. 14 And they came to the chief priests and (the) elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, (to) that we (taste) will eat nothing until we have (killed) slain Paul. 15 Now therefore (do) ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto (you) you, to morrow, as though ye would (inquire) judge of his case something more perfectly (more exactly) concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to (slay) kill him.

16 (But) And when [m]Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, [l]and he (came) went and entered into [q]the castle, and told Paul. 17 (And) Then Paul called (unto him one of the centurions) one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath (something) a certain thing to tell him. 18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and (saith,) said, Paul [u]the prisoner called me unto him, and (asked) prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say (to) unto thee. 19 (And) Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and (going aside asked him privately,) went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me? 20 And he said, [a]The Jews have agreed to (ask) desire thee (to) that thou wouldest to-morrow (unto) to morrow into the council, as though (thou wouldest) they would inquire somewhat (more) exactly concerning him. 21 Do not thou therefore (him more perfectly.) But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which [g]have bound themselves (under a curse,) with an oath, that (neither to eat nor to) they will neither eat nor drink till they have (slain) killed him: and now are they ready, looking for (the) a promise from thee. 22 So the chief captain then let the young man (go, charging) depart, and charged him, See thou (Tell) tell no man that thou hast (signified) shewed these things to me. 23 And he called unto him two (of the) centurions, (and said,) saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go (as far as) to Cæsarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the (night: night;) 24 and he bade them (provide) provide them beasts, that they (might) may set Paul (thereon,) on, and bring him safe unto [k]Felix [l]the governor. 25 And he wrote a letter after this (form) manner:

also to speak against him before say before thee what they had against him.[1] Farewell.
31 So Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris. 32 But on On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to [a]the castle: 33 and they, Who, when they came to Cæsarea, and delivered the letter epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him. 34 And when he the governor had read it, the letter, he asked of what [b]province he was; and was. And when he understood [c]that he was of Cilicia, Cilicia; 35 I will hear thy cause, thee, said he, [g]when thine accusers also are come: and are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's [2]palace. judgment hall.

24 [1] And [k]after five days the high priest [l]Ananias came down Ananias the high priest descended with certain the elders, and with an orator, one Tertullus; and they a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed [n]the governor against Paul. 2 And when he was called, called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying,

Seeing that by thee we enjoy much [o]peace, great quietness. and that by thy [o]providence very worthy deeds evils are corrected for this nation, are done unto this nation by thy providence, 3 we accept it in all ways always, and in all places, [x]most excellent noble Felix, with all thankfulness. 4 But, Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I intreat pray thee to that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words. 5 For we have found this man [e]a pestilent fellow, and [g]a mover of insurrections sedition among all the Jews throughout [3]the world, and a ringleader of [i]the sect of the Nazarenes: 6 [k]who moreover also hath assayed gone about to profane the temple: on whom also we laid hold:[4] whom we took, and would have judged according to our law. [7] But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took 8 from whom him away out of our hands, Commanding thou wilt be able, his accusers to come unto thee: by examining him thyself, to of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him. 9 And the Jews also joined in the charge, affirming assented, saying that these things were so.

10 And when Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, Paul answered,

Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully make my defence. 11 seeing answer for myself. Because that thou canst take knowledge, mayest understand, that [d]it is not more than there are yet but twelve days since I [e]went up to Jerusalem for to worship. 12 and [h]neither in the temple did they find me And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man or stirring man, neither raising up a crowd, nor the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city. city: 13 [j]Neither can they prove to thee the things whereof they now accuse me. 14 But this I confess unto thee, that after [m]the Way way which they call [5]a sect, heresy, [p]so serve worship I [q]the God of our my fathers, believing all things which are [r]according to the law, and which written in the law are written and in the prophets: 15 [s]having And have [t]hope toward God, which these also they themselves [6]look for, also allow, that there shall be [v]a resurrection of the dead, [w]both of the just and unjust. 16 Herein do I also [y]exercise myself And herein do I myself, to have always a conscience [z]void of offence toward God, and men alway. toward men. 17 Now [a]after [7]many years [b]I came to bring alms to [c]my nation, and [d]offerings: 18 [8]amidst offerings. Whereupon certain which they Jews from Asia found me [f]purified in the temple, with no crowd, nor yet with neither with tumult: but [h]there were certain Jews from Asia— multitude, nor with tumult. 19 [j]who Who ought to have been here before thee, and to make accusation, object, if they had aught ought against me. 20 Or else let these men themselves same here say, say what wrong-doing they found, when if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council, 21 except it be for this one voice,

[a]that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question [before by] you this day.

22 [But Felix,] And when Felix heard these things, having more [exact perfect] knowledge concerning [b]the Way, [of that way, he] saying, [and said,] deferred them, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will [determine] know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he [gave order to the commanded a] centurion that he [d]should be kept in charge, and should [to keep Paul, and to let him] have [indulgence; liberty,] and [e]not to forbid [any none] of his [friends acquaintance] to minister [or come] unto him.

24 [But And] after certain days, when Felix came with [Drusilla, [1]his wife, his wife Drusilla,] which was a Jewess, [and he] sent for Paul, and heard him concerning [i]the faith [j]in Christ [Jesus]. 25 And as he reasoned [l]of righteousness, and [2]temperance, and [the judgement judgment] to come, Felix [was terrified, trembled,] and answered, Go thy way for this time; [and] [n]when I have a convenient season, I will call [thee for unto me. thee.] 26 He hoped [withal also] [o]that money [would be should have been] given him of [Paul] Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore [also] he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him. 27 But [when after] two years [were fulfilled, Porcius Festus came succeeded by Porcius] [q]Festus; and [r]desiring [into Felix' room:] Felix, to gain favour with the Jews, [s]Felix left Paul [in bonds. bound.]

[1 Festus therefore, [3]having Now when Festus was] 25 come into [u]the province, after three days [went up to Jerusalem he ascended from] from Cæsarea. 2 [And the chief priests Cæsarea to Jerusalem. Then the high priest] and the [principal chief] men of the Jews [v]informed him against [Paul; Paul;] and they besought him, 3 [asking And desired] favour against him, that he would send for him to [Jerusalem; Jerusalem,] [w]laying wait [to kill him on the way. in the way to kill him.] 4 [Howbeit But] Festus answered, that Paul [was kept in charge should be kept] at Cæsarea, and that he himself [was about to would] depart [thither shortly. shortly thither.] 5 Let them therefore, [saith said] he, which [are of power among you among you, are able,] go down with me, and if there is anything amiss in the man, let them accuse this man, if there be any wickedness [accuse in] him.

6 And when he had tarried among them [not] [*]more than [eight or] ten days, he went down unto Cæsarea; and [on the morrow the next day] he sat [sitting] on [c]the [judgement-seat, and judgment seat] commanded Paul to be brought. 7 And when he was come, the Jews which [had come came] down from Jerusalem stood round about [him], [bringing against him many and grievous and laid many and grievous complaints against] charges, [f]which they could not [prove; Paul, prove.] 8 [while Paul said in his defence, While he answered for himself,] Neither [g]against [h]the law of the Jews, [nor neither] against the temple, nor [yet] [k]against Cæsar, have I [sinned offended any thing] at all. 9 But Festus, [[m]desiring to gain willing to do] favour with the Jews, [the Jews a pleasure,] answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me? 10 But Paul said, [I am standing before Then said Paul, I stand at] Cæsar's [[p]judgement-seat, judgment seat,] where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou [also] very well knowest. 11 [If then I am a wrong-doer, and For if I be an offender, or] have committed [anything any thing] worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if [none of those things is true, there be none of these things] whereof these accuse me, no man [can may] [4]give me up [deliver me] unto them. [t]I appeal unto Cæsar. 12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, [Thou hast Hast thou] appealed unto [Cæsar: Cæsar?] unto Cæsar shalt thou go.

13 Now when [And after] certain days [were passed, king Agrippa the king Agrippa] and Bernice [arrived at came unto Cæsarea, [5]and saluted Cæsarea to salute] Festus. 14 And [as when] they [tarried had been] there many days, Festus [laid declared] Paul's [case before cause unto] the king, saying, [x]There is a certain man left [a prisoner in bonds] by Felix:

1 And Then [j]Agrippa said unto

26 Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth his the hand, and made his defence answered for himself:

2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, that I am to make my defence because I shall answer for myself before thee this day [n]touching all the things whereof I am accused by of the Jews: 3 [4]especially because because I know thou art thee to be expert in all [p]customs and [r]questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently. 4 [t]My manner of life then from my youth up, which was from at the beginning first among [v]mine own nation, and nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews; 5 having knowledge of Which knew me from the first, beginning, if they be willing to would testify, how that [w]after the most straitest [y]sect of our [z]religion I lived [a]a Pharisee. 6 And now I stand here to be and am judged for the hope of [b]the promise made of God unto our fathers; fathers: 7 [c]unto which promise [d]our twelve tribes, earnestly instantly serving God night ‡day and day, night, hope to [e]attain. come. 27 1 And when it was determined [h]that [i]we should sail for into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the [j]Augustan unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' 1 [k]band. 2 And embarking in entering into a ship of Adramyttium, which was about we launched, meaning to sail unto the places on the coast of Asia, by the coasts of Asia; we put to sea, one [l]Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. 3 And the next day we touched at Sidon: and Sidon. And [m]Julius [o]treated Paul kindly, courteously entreated Paul, and [p]gave him leave liberty to go unto his friends and to [q]refresh himself. 4 And putting when we to sea had launched from thence, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. 5 And when we had sailed across over the sea which is off of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. 6 And there the centurion found [q]a ship of Alexandria sailing for into Italy; and he put us therein. 7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and were come with difficulty, scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not [s]further suffering us, we sailed under the lee of *Crete, over against Salmone; 8 and with difficulty coasting along it we And, hardly passing it, came unto a certain place place which is called Fair The fair Havens havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 And Now when much time was spent, and the voyage when sailing was now dangerous, because [t]the Fast fast was now already gone by, past, Paul admonished them, 10 and said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that the this voyage will be with [b]injury †hurt and much loss, damage, not only of the lading and the ship, but also of our lives. 11 But Nevertheless the centurion gave more heed to believed [d]the master and to the owner of the ship, than to more than those things which were spoken by Paul. 12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to put to sea from thence, depart thence also, if by any means they could reach Phœnix, and might attain to Phenice, and winter there; which is a an haven of Crete, looking north-east and lieth toward the south west and south-east. north west. 13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and loosing thence, they sailed along Crete, close in shore. close by Crete. 14 But after no long time not long after there [n]beat down from it ‡arose against a tempestuous wind, which is called Euraquilo: and Euroclydon. 15 And when the ship was caught, and could not face bear up into the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven. let her drive. 16 And running under the lee of a small island certain island which is called [u]Cauda, Clauda, were able, with difficulty, to secure had much work to come by the boat: 17 and Which when they had hoisted it taken up, they used helps, under-girding undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should [r]be cast upon the Syrtis, they lowered fall into the quicksands, strake the gear, sail, and so were driven. 18 And as we laboured exceedingly we being exceedingly tossed with the storm, a tempest, the next day they began [s]to throw the lightened freight overboard; the ship; 19 and the third day they we cast out with their our own hands the [6]tackling of the ship. 20 And when neither sun nor stars shone upon us for many days, in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was now then taken away. 21 And when But they had been after long without food, abstinence then Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, [u]ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have

[1]Melita. [2] And [a]the barbarians barbarous people shewed us no common little [b]kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us all, every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. [3] But And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, a viper came out there came a [2]by reason viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand. [4] And when [d]the barbarians saw the venomous beast hanging from hang on his hand, they said among one to another, among themselves, [e]No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped from the sea, [g]yet [h]Justice hath not suffered vengeance suffereth not to live. [5] Howbeit And he [i]shook off the beast into the fire, and took felt no harm. [6] But Howbeit they expected that looked when he would should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but when after they were long in expectation, had looked a great while, and beheld nothing saw no amiss harm come to him, [k]they changed their minds, and [l]said that he was a god.

[7] Now in the neighbourhood of that place In the same quarters were lands belonging to possessions of the chief man of the island, named whose name was Publius; who received us, and entertained lodged us three days courteously. [8] And it was so, came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and a fever and of dysentery: unto a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and [q]prayed, and [r]laying laid his hands on him, him, and healed him. [9] And So when this was done, the rest also others also, which had diseases in the island island, came, and were cured healed: [10] who also honoured us with many honours; and when we sailed, departed, they put on board laded us with such things as we needed. were necessary.

[11] And after three months we set sail departed in [y]a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the island, isle, whose sign was [3a]The Twin Brothers. Castor and Pollux. [12] And touching landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days. [13] And from thence we [4]made a circuit, fetched a compass, and arrived at came to Rhegium: and after one day [a]the south wind sprang up, blew, and on the second day we came we came the next day to Puteoli: [14] where we found [c]brethren, and were intreated desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we came to went toward Rome. [15] And from thence [c]the brethren, when they thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius, Appii forum, and The Three Taverns three taverns: whom when Paul saw, [f]he thanked God, and took courage.

[16] And when we entered into came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but [5j]Paul was suffered to abide dwell by himself with [a]the soldier that guarded kept him.

[17] And it came to pass, that after three days he Paul called together the [6]those that were the chief of the Jews chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, I, Men and brethren, [m]though I had done have committed nothing against the people, or "the customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans: Romans. [18] who, Who, when they had examined me, [c]desired to would have set me at liberty, let me go, [p]because there was no cause of death in me. [19] But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained [s]to appeal unto Cæsar; not that I had aught ought to accuse [t]my nation of. [20] For this cause therefore did have I [7]intreat you called for you, to see you, and to speak with me: for you: because of because that for [v]the hope of Israel I am bound with [w]this [x]chain. [21] And they said unto him, We neither received letters from out of Judæa concerning thee, nor did neither any of [z]the brethren come hither and report that came shewed or speak spake any harm of thee. [22] But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this [b]sect,

[14] *r*I am debtor both to Greeks / the Greeks, and to [3]Barbarians, / the Barbarians; both to the wise / wise, and to the foolish. / unwise. [15] So, *u*as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you also that are in Rome. / that are at Rome also. [16] For *x*I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is *y*the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew *z*first, and also to *a*the Greek. [17] For therein is revealed [4]a the righteousness of God [3]d by revealed from faith unto / to faith: [4]*e*as it is written, But the righteous / The just shall live [3]by faith.

[18] For [4]*f*the wrath of God *g*is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who [5]hold down the truth in unrighteousness; [19] *j*because *l*that which may be known of God is manifest ‡in them; for God manifested / hath shewed it unto them. 24 For [a]the name of God is blasphemed [b]among the Gentiles because of you, even [a]as it is written.
25 For circumcision indeed verily profiteth, [d]if thou be a doer of keep the law: but if thou be a transgressor breaker of the law, thy circumcision is become made uncircumcision. 26 If therefore Therefore if [f]the uncircumcision keep [g]the ordinances righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be reckoned counted for circumcision? 27 and shall not the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, [k]judge thee, who with by [l]the letter and circumcision art a transgressor of dost transgress the law? 28 For [n]he is not a Jew, [o]which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: 29 but he is a Jew, which is one [p]inwardly; and [q]circumcision is that of the heart, in [l]the spirit, and not in the letter; [r]whose praise is not of men, but of God.

3 1 What advantage then hath the Jew? or what is the profit profit is there of circumcision?
2 Much every way: first of all, chiefly, because that [u]they were intrusted with unto them were committed [v]the oracles of God. 3 For [x]what if some were without faith did not believe? [y]shall their want of faith unbelief make of none effect the faithfulness of God faith of God without effect? 4 [1]God forbid: yea, [b]let God be found true, but [c]every man a liar; as it is written,

[d]That thou mightest be justified in thy words sayings,
And mightest prevail overcome when thou [g]comest into judgement art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commendeth commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who visiteth taketh vengeance [i]with wrath? (I speak [k] after the manner of men as a man.)
6 God forbid: for then how shall [m]God judge the world?
7 [2]But For if the truth of God through my lie hath abounded more abounded through my lie unto his glory, [c]why am I also still yet am I also judged as a sinner? 8 and why not not rather (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), [e]Let us do evil, that good may come? whose condemnation damnation is just.

9 What then? [3]are we in worse case better than they? No, in no wise: for we before laid to the charge have before *proved both [h]of Jews and [i]Greeks, Gentiles, that they are all [j]under sin; 10 as it is written,

[m]There is none righteous, no, not one; one:
11 There is none that understandeth,
There is none that seeketh after God; God.
12 They have are all turned aside, gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable;
There is none that doeth good, no, not so much as one: one.
13 [s]Their throat is [t]an open sepulchre;
With their tongues they have used deceit: deceit;
[w]The poison of asps is under their lips:
14 [z]Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:
15 [a]Their feet are swift to shed blood; blood:
16 Destruction and misery are in their ways; ways:
17 And [e]the way of peace have they not known:
18 [f]There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever [h]the law saith, it speaketh saith to them that who are under the law; law: [j]that every mouth may be stopped, and [l]all the world may be brought under the judgement of God: become †guilty before God.

law there shall no flesh be [1]justified in his sight: for [2a]through by the law cometh is the knowledge of sin. [21] But now apart from the law [c]a righteousness of God without the law is [d]hath been manifested, [e]being witnessed by the law and the prophets; [22] even the righteousness of God [g]through which is by faith [3]in of Jesus Christ unto all[4] and upon all them that believe; believe: [h]for there is no distinction; difference: [23] for [i]all have sinned, and come fall short of the glory of God; [24] [k]being justified freely [l]by his grace [m]through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: [25] whom God hath [5]* [n]set forth [6]to be [p]a propitiation, propitiation through [7]faith, [r]by faith in his blood, to shew declare his righteousness, because of the passing over of [s]the righteousness for the †remission of sins done aforetime, in that are past, through [u]the forbearance of God; [26] for the shewing, To declare, I say, of his righteousness at this present season. at this time his righteousness that he might himself be [v]just, and the [v]justifier of him that [8]hath faith which believeth [3]in Jesus. [27] [w]Where then is the is boasting glorying then? It is excluded. By what manner of law? of works? Nay: but by [a]the law of faith. [28] [9]We Therefore reckon therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith [z]apart from without [10]the works deeds of the law. [29] Or [a]is God the God Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not the God of Gentiles also? also of the Gentiles Yea, Yes, of the Gentiles also: [30] if so Seeing be that [b]God is one, and he it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision [11]by faith, and [c]the uncircumcision [12]through faith. [31] Do we then make [13]the law of none void the effect [12]through faith? God forbid: nay, yea, we establish [13]the law.

4 [1] What then shall we say shall we say then [14]that Abraham, Abraham [f]our forefather according to father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? [2] For if Abraham was were justified [11]by works, he hath whereof to glory; but [h]not toward before God. [3] For what saith the scripture? [i]And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned counted unto him for righteousness. [4] Now [b]to him that worketh, worketh the reward is is the reward not reckoned [as] of grace, but [as] of debt. [5] But to him that worketh not, but [f]believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is reckoned counted for righteousness. [6] Even as David also pronounceth blessing upon describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God reckoneth imputeth righteousness apart from without works, [7] saying,

And whose sins are covered.
[8] Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not [*]reckon impute sin.

[9] Is this blessing then pronounced upon [q]the Cometh this blessedness then circumcision, circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for [t]we say, To Abraham say that faith his faith was reckoned for righteousness. [10] How then was it was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision: uncircumcision. [11] and And [x]he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision yet being uncircumcised: that [y]he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be in uncircumcision, not circumcised; that righteousness might be reckoned imputed unto them; them also: [12] and the father of circumcision to them who not only are of the are not of the circumcision circumcision, only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham Abraham, which he had in uncircumcision. being yet uncircumcised. [13] For not [2]through the promise, the law was [d]the promise that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham Abraham, or to his seed, [e]that he through should be heir of the world, the law, but through the righteousness of faith. [14] For [g]if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise [is] made of none effect: [15] for Because [j]the law worketh wrath; but [k]where there is no law, [l]neither is wrath: for no law is, there

[e]let us [6]rejoice in hope of the glory of God. 3 And not only so, but [7]let us also [6d]rejoice in our tribulations. we glory in tribulations also knowing that tribulation [e]worketh patience; 4 and patience, probation experience; and probation, experience, hope: 5 and [f]hope putteth maketh not to shame ashamed; because the love of God [h]hath been is shed abroad in our hearts through by the [8]Holy Ghost which was is given unto us. 6 For [k]while when we were yet weak, without strength, [†]in due season time [m]Christ died for the ungodly. 7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: for yet peradventure for [9]the a good man some one would even dare to die. 8 But [o]God commendeth his own love toward us, in that, [p]while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. 9 Much more then, being now justified [10][s]by his blood, shall we we shall be saved from [u]the wrath of God through him. 10 For if, [v]while when we were enemies, [w]we were reconciled to God through by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, shall we we shall be saved [10]by [y]his life; 11 and life. And not only so, [11]but we also rejoice joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through by whom we have now received [a]the reconciliation. [‡]atonement.

12 Therefore, Wherefore, as [b]through by one man sin entered into the world, and [e]death through by sin; and [f]so death passed unto upon all men, [§]for that [g]all sinned:— have sinned: 13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but [i]sin is not imputed when there is no law. 14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until to Moses, even over them that had not sinned [m]after the likeness similitude of Adam's transgression, [n]who is a the figure of [p]him that was to come. 15 But not as the trespass, offence, so also is the free gift. For if by the trespass of the through the offence of one the many died, be dead, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace grace, of the which is by one man, Jesus Christ, abound hath abounded unto [e]the many. 16 And not as through it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for [h]the judgement came of judgment was by one unto to condemnation, but the free gift came is of many trespasses offences unto [1][l]justification. 17 For if, by the trespass if *by one man's of the one, offence death reigned through the by one; much more shall they that which receive the abundance of grace and [2]of the gift of righteousness shall [o]reign in life through the by one, even Jesus Christ. Christ.) 18 So then Therefore as [p]through *by the one trespass the judgement offence of one judgment came unto upon all men to condemnation; even so through one act of righteousness †by the righteousness of one the free gift came unto upon [s]all men to unto [t]justification of life. 19 For as through the by one man's [u]disobedience the many were made sinners, even so through by the [w]obedience of the one shall the many be made righteous. 20 And Moreover [3][y]the law came in beside, entered, that the trespass offence might abound; but abound. But where sin abounded, [b]grace did abound more exceedingly much more abound: 21 that, That [c]as sin hath reigned in unto death, even so might [d]grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life through by Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 1 What shall we say then? [h]Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? 2 God forbid. We who [f]died to sin, How shall we, that how shall we any longer live are dead to sin, live any longer therein? 3 Or are ye ignorant that all we [t]who Know ye not, so many of us as ‡were baptized [m]into Christ Jesus Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? 4 We were [n]buried therefore Therefore we are buried with him through by baptism into death: that like as [p]Christ was raised up from the dead through by [q]the glory of the Father, even so we also might should walk in [a]newness of life. 5 For [b]if we have become [4]united with him by been planted together in [c]the likeness of his death, we shall be also by in the likeness of his resurrection; resurrection: 6 knowing this, that [d]our old man [f]was is crucified with him, that [g]the body of sin might be done away, destroyed, that so henceforth we should no longer be not in bondage to sin; 7 for For [i]he that hath died is dead [j]is justified §freed from sin. 8 But Now [k]if we died be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him; him: 9 knowing that [m]Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; [n]death no more hath hath no more dominion over him. 10 For [5]the death in that he died, he died unto sin [6][q]once: but [5]the life in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. 11 Even so Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be [r]dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God in Christ Jesus. through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not [v]sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof: thereof. 13 [z]neither present Neither yield ye your members unto sin as [7][z]instruments of unrighteousness; as ‖instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but [a]present yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as [7]instruments of righteousness unto God. 14 For [e]sin shall not [f]have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? [g]shall we sin, [i]because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid. 16 Know ye not, that [k]to whom ye present yield yourselves as [8]servants unto obedience, to obey, his [8]servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? 17 But [o]thanks God be to God, [9]that, whereas thanked, that ye were the [8]servants of sin, ye became obedient but ye have obeyed from the heart to that [10][r]form of teaching whereunto ye were delivered; doctrine which was delivered you.

18 and [a]being made free from sin, [b]ye became [the] [1]servants of righteousness. 19 [d]I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for [f]as ye presented your members [as] servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now present your members [i]as servants to righteousness unto sanctification. 20 For [j]when ye were [the] [1]servants of sin, ye were free in regard of righteousness. 21 [l]What fruit had ye at that time in those things [n]whereof ye are now ashamed? [o]for the end of those things is death. 22 But now [q]being made free from sin, and [r]become servants to God, [t]ye have your fruit unto sanctification, and [u]the end eternal life. 23 [v]For the wages of sin is death; but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7 1 Or are ye ignorant, Know ye not, brethren (for I speak to men that know [2]the law), how that the law hath dominion over a man for so long time as he liveth? 2 For [a]the woman that hath a husband is bound by the law to the husband while she liveth; but if the husband die, be dead, she is discharged from the law of the husband. 3 So then if, while the husband liveth, [b]she be joined married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if the husband die, be dead, she is free from the law, that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be joined married to another man. 4 Wherefore, my brethren, [e]ye also were made dead [g]to the law [i]through the body of Christ; that ye should be joined married to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, [k]that we might bring forth fruit unto God. 5 For when we were in the flesh, the [3]sinful passions, motions of sins, which were through the law, wrought did work [c]in our members [e]to bring forth fruit unto death. 6 But now we have been discharged are delivered from the law, having died to that [‡]that being dead wherein we were holden; so that we held; that we should serve [g]in newness of [h]the spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Howbeit, Nay, [k]I had not known sin, except through but by [2]the law: for I had not known [4]coveting, [§]lust, except [m]the law had said, Thou shalt not [4]covet: 8 but covet. But sin, [p]finding occasion, wrought in me through the taking occasion by the commandment, wrought commandment in me all manner of [4]coveting: concupiscence. [r]for apart from For without [2]the law sin [is] was dead. 9 And For I was alive apart from without [2]the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died; 10 and died. And the commandment, [w]which was unto life, this ordained to life, I found to be unto death: 11 for death. For sin, [x]finding occasion, through occasion by the commandment [y]beguiled me, and through by it slew me. 12 So that Wherefore [z]the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, just, and good. 13 Did Was then that which is good become made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might be shewn to be appear sin, by working death to in me through by that which is good; good;— that through the commandment sin sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful. 14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, [c]sold under sin. 15 For that which I [5]do I know ‖allow not: for [d]not what I would, that do I practise not; but what I hate, that I do. do I. 16 But if what I would not, that If then I do that which I I do, would not, I consent unto [f]the law that it is good. 17 So now Now then [h]it is no more I that [5]do it, but sin which that dwelleth in me. 18 For I know that [j]in me, that me (that is, in my flesh, flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me, me; but how to [5]do perform that which is good I is find not. 19 [a]For the good (which / that) I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I (practise. / do.) 20 But (Now) if (what I would not, that I do, / I do that I would not,) [c]it is no more I that [1]do it, but sin (which / that) dwelleth in me. 21 I find then [2](the / a) law, that, (to me who / when I) would do good, evil is (present. / present with me.) 22 For [g]I delight [3]in the law of God after [h]the inward man: 23 but I see [i](a different / another) law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity [4](under / to) the law of sin which is in my members. 24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me (out of / from) [5]*[k]the body of this death? 25 [6][m]I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then (I myself with the mind / with the mind I myself) serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

8 1 There is therefore now no condemnation to them (that / which) are in Christ (Jesus. / Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.) 2 For the law of [q]the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus (hath /) [t]made me free from the law of sin and [of] death. 3 For [v]what the law could not do, [7][x]in that it was weak through the flesh, [z](God, / God) sending his own Son [b]in the likeness of [8]sinful (flesh / flesh,) [9]and [c]as an offering †for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: 4 that [e]the [10](ordinance / righteousness) of the law might be fulfilled in us, [f]who walk not after the flesh, but after the (spirit. / Spirit.) 5 For [h]they that are after the flesh do mind [i]the things of the flesh; but they that are after the (spirit / Spirit) [j]the things of the (spirit. / Spirit.) 6 For [l]the mind of the flesh is death; but (‡to be carnally minded / the mind of the spirit) is (§to be spiritually minded / life and peace:) 7 (because / Because) ‡the carnal mind (of the flesh /) is [n]enmity against (God; / God:) for it is not subject to the law of God, [b](neither / indeed can it be:) 8 (and / So then) they that are in the flesh cannot please God. 9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the (spirit, / Spirit,) if so be that [d]the Spirit of God (dwelleth / dwell) in you. (But / Now) [e]if any man (hath / have) not [f]the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. 10 And if Christ (is / be) in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the (spirit / Spirit) is life because of righteousness. 11 But if the Spirit of [j]him that raised up Jesus from the dead (dwelleth / dwell) in you, he that raised up Christ [Jesus] from the dead shall (quicken also / also quicken) your mortal bodies [11][l](through / ‖by) his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 (So then, / Therefore,) brethren, we are debtors, [n]not to the flesh, to live after the (flesh: / flesh.) 13 (for / For) if ye live after the flesh, ye (must die: / shall die:) but if (by the spirit ye / ye through the Spirit do) [12][o]mortify the [13]deeds of the body, ye shall live. 14 For as many as are [p]led by the Spirit of God, (these / they) are (the /) [r]sons of God. 15 For [s]ye (received / have not) (not / received) [u]the spirit of bondage again (unto / to) fear; but ye (have /) received the (spirit / Spirit) of [w]adoption, whereby we cry, [y]Abba, Father. 16 [a]The Spirit (himself / itself) beareth witness with our spirit, that we are (the /) children of God: 17 and if children, then [d]heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; [g]if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified (with him. / together.)

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time [k]are not worthy to be compared with [m]the glory which shall be revealed (to us-ward. / in us.) 19 For the earnest expectation of the (creation / creature) waiteth for [m]the (revealing / manifestation) of the sons of God. 20 For the (creation / creature)

10 [1]Brethren, my heart's [3]desire and my supplication prayer to God is for them, for Israel is, that they may might be saved. 2 For I bear them witness record that [y]they have a zeal for of God, [a]but not according to knowledge. 3 For they being ignorant of [b]God's righteousness, and seeking going about to establish their own, they did own righteousness, have not subject submitted themselves to unto the righteousness of God. 4 For [d]Christ is the end of the law unto for righteousness to everyone that believeth. 5 For [f]Moses writeth that [g]the man that doeth describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things law shall live thereby. by them. 6 But [j]the righteousness which is of faith saith thus, speaketh on this wise, [k]Say not in thy thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:) 7 or, Who shall descend into the abyss deep? (that is, [b]to bring Christ up up Christ again from the dead.) 8 But what saith it? [c]The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach: preach; 9 [4]because That if [g]thou shalt [5]confess with thy mouth Jesus as the Lord Lord, Jesus, and shalt [i]believe in thy thine heart [j]that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved: 10 for saved. 14 And [h]I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye yourselves also are full of goodness, filled with [k]all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. 15 But I write
Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some measure, sort, as putting you again in remembrance, mind, [o]because of the grace that was is given to me of God, 16 that I should be [p]a the minister of Christ Jesus unto Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, [5][r]ministering the gospel of God, that [s]the [‡]offering up of the Gentiles might be made acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost. 17 I have therefore [u]my glorying in Christ Jesus whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ [v]in those things pertaining which pertain to God. 18 For I will not dare to speak of any [6]things save those [x]which Christ of those things which Christ hath not wrought through by me, [z]for the obedience to make the of the Gentiles, Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, 19 [b]in the power of Through mighty signs and wonders, in by the power of [7]the Holy Ghost Spirit of God; so that [c]from Jerusalem, and round about [e]even unto Illyricum, I have [8]fully preached the gospel of Christ; 20 yea, [9]making it my aim so Christ. Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was already named, [g]that lest I might not should build upon another man's foundation; 21 but, foundation: But as it is written,

To whom he was not spoken of, they shall came, see:
And they who that have not heard shall understand.

for the revelation *coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; Christ: 8 [a]who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be [d]unreproveable blameless [e]in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 [f]God is faithful, through by whom ye were called into unto [h]the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, through by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no †[i]divisions among you; but that ye be perfected perfectly joined together [k]in the same mind and in the same judgement. judgment. 11 For it hath been signified declared unto me concerning of you, my brethren, by them which are of the household house of Chloe, that there are [o]contentions among you. 12 Now this I mean, say, that [p]each every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of [q]Apollos; and I of [r]Cephas; and I of Christ. 13 [1][s]Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye [u]baptized into in the name of Paul? 14 [2]I thank God that I baptized none of you, save but [w]Crispus and [x]Gaius; 15 lest any man should say that ye I had baptized into my in mine own name. 16 And I baptized also [z]the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other. 17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: [a]not in with wisdom of ‡words, lest the cross of Christ should be made void. of none effect.

18 For the word preaching of the cross is to [e]them that are perishing perish [f]foolishness; but unto us [g]which are being saved it is [i]the power of God. 19 For it is written,

[m]I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
And the prudence of the prudent will I reject. will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 [b]Where is the wise? [c]where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this [3]world? [g]hath not God made foolish the wisdom of the this world? 21 For seeing after that in the wisdom of God the world through its by wisdom knew not God, it was God's good pleasure pleased God through by the foolishness of the [4]preaching to save them that believe. 22 Seeing For that the [j]Jews ask for signs, require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom: 23 but we preach [5]Christ [l]crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Gentiles Greeks foolishness; 24 but unto [6]them that which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ [m]the power of God, and [n]the wisdom of God. 25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For [7]behold ye see your calling, brethren, how that [t]not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, [8]are called: 27 but [v]God chose hath chosen the foolish things of the world, that world to he might put to shame them that are confound the wise; and [y]God chose hath chosen the weak things of the world, that he might put to world to shame confound the things that which are strong mighty; 28 and the base things of the world, and the things that which are despised, did hath God choose, yea chosen, yea, [9]and the [b]things that which are not, that he might to [c]bring to nought the things that are: 29 [d]that no flesh should glory before God. in his presence. 30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who was made unto us [h]wisdom from God, of God is made unto us wisdom, [10]and [i]righteousness righteousness, and [k]sanctification, and [l]redemption: 31 that, according as it is written, [n]He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

2 [1] And I, brethren, when I came (unto: to) you, [a]came not with excellency of [1]speech or of wisdom, (proclaiming: declaring unto) you [b]the [2]mystery: testimony of God. [2] For I determined not to know (anything: any thing) among you, save [d]Jesus Christ, and him crucified. [3] And [f]I was with you [g]in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. [4] And my [1]speech and my [3][i]preaching (were: was) not (in persuasive: with *enticing) words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of [l]the Spirit and of power: [5] that your faith should not [4]†stand in the wisdom of men, but [n]in the power of God.

[6] Howbeit we speak wisdom among (them that are: [p]the) [5]perfect: yet [r]a wisdom not of this [6]world, nor of the (rulers: princes) of this [6]world, [s](which are coming: that come) to nought: [7] but we speak God's wisdom: the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, wisdom that hath been hidden, [x]which God foreordained: ordained before the worlds: world unto our glory: [8] which none of [z]the rulers: princes of this world knoweth: knew: for [a]had they known it, they would not have crucified [b]the Lord of glory: glory. [9] but: But as it is written,

> Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard,
> And which entered not: neither have entered into the heart of man, > Whatsoever things: the things which God hath [g]prepared [i]for them that love him.

[10] [7]But (unto us: [k]God: God hath) revealed [8]them through: unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, [o]the deep things of God. [11] [p]For (who: what) among men: man knoweth the things of a man, [r]save the spirit of the man, man which is in him? even so the things of God none knoweth, save: knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. [12] But: Now [s]we have received, not [u]the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us by: of God. [13] Which things also we speak, not [c]in: of words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Spirit: Ghost teacheth; [9][10][e]comparing spiritual things with spiritual. [14] Now: But the [h]natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are [j]foolishness unto him; and: him: [k]he cannot: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually [11]judged: discerned. [15] But he that is [m]spiritual [12]‡judgeth all things, and: yet he himself is [11]§judged of no man. [16] [o]For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he (should: ‖may) instruct him? But [q]we have the mind of Christ.

3 [1] And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto [t]spiritual, but as unto [u]carnal, even as unto [v]babes in Christ. [2] [w]I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: meat: for hitherto [y]ye were not yet able to bear it: nay, not even it, neither yet now are ye able: able. [3] For: For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you [c]jealousy: envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk (after the manner of: ††as) men? [4] For [c](when: while) one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; [f]are ye not men: carnal? [5] What: Who then is Apollos? and what: and who is Paul? [h]Ministers through whom ye believed; and: believed, even as the Lord gave to him: every man? [6] [l]I have planted, [m]Apollos watered; [n]but God gave the increase. [7] So then [q]neither is he that planteth anything: any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. [8] Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: but each and every man [t]shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. [9] For we are [a]God's fellow-workers labourers together with God: ye are God's [1]*husbandry, ye are [b]God's building.

10 [d]According to the grace of God which was is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder masterbuilder, I have laid a the [f]foundation; foundation, and [g]another buildeth thereon. But let each every man take heed how he buildeth thereon. thereupon. 11 For [i]other foundation can no man lay [j]than that which is laid, [k]which is Jesus Christ. 12 But Now if any man buildeth on the build upon this foundation gold, silver, costly precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; 13 [l]each Every man's work shall be made manifest: for [n]the day shall declare it, because it is †shall be revealed [p]in by fire; [2]and [r]the fire itself shall try prove each every man's work of what sort it is. 14 If any man's work shall abide which he hath built thereon, thereupon, [u]he shall receive a reward. 15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; [w]yet so as through by fire.

16 [x]Know ye not that ye are a the [3]temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? 17 If any man destroyeth †defile the [3]temple of God, him shall God destroy; for [z]the [3]temple of God is holy, [4]which temple ye are.

18 [a]Let no man deceive himself. [c]If any man thinketh that he is among you wise among you seemeth to be wise in this [5]world, let him become a fool, that he may become be wise. 19 For [d]the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, [e]He that taketh the wise in their craftiness: own craftiness. 20 and And again, [f]The Lord knoweth the reasonings thoughts of the wise, that they are vain. 21 Wherefore Therefore [g]let no one man glory in men. For [i]all things are yours; 22 whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours; 23 and [c]ye are Christ's; and [e]Christ is God's.

4 [1]Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and [h]stewards of the mysteries of God. 2 Here, moreover, Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. 3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be [6]judged of you, or of man's [7]judgement: §judgment: yea, I [8]judge not mine own self. 4 For [m]I know nothing against by myself; [o]yet am I not hereby justified: but he that [9]judgeth me is the Lord. 5 Wherefore Therefore [q]judge nothing before the time, [s]until the Lord come, [t]who will both both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts; hearts: and [v]then shall each every man have his praise from of God.

are fools for Christ's sake, but [b]ye are wise in Christ; [c]we are weak, but ye are strong; ye have glory, but we have dishonour. are honourable, are despised.
11 Even unto this present hour [f]we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and [g]are buffeted, and [h]have no certain dwelling-place; 12 and we [i]toil, labour, working with our own hands: [j]being reviled, we bless; [l]being persecuted, we endure; suffer it: 13 being defamed, we intreat: [m]we are made as the [1]filth of the world, and are [o]the offscouring of all things, even until now. things unto this day.
14 I write not these things [q]to shame you, but to admonish you [r]as my as my beloved sons beloved children. I warn you. 15 For [u]though ye should have ten thousand tutors instructers in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus [w]I begat have begotten you through the gospel. 16 I beseech you therefore, Wherefore I beseech you, [x]be ye imitators followers of me. 17 For this cause [y]have I sent unto you Timothy, Timotheus, [z]who is my beloved and faithful child son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall put bring you in into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, [c]even as I teach everywhere every where in every church. 18 Now some are [d]puffed up, [e]as though I were would not coming come to you. 19 But [i]I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, will; and [1] will know, not the word speech of them which are puffed up, but the power. 20 For [k]the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. 21 What will ye? [l]shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love love, and a in the spirit of meekness?

5 [1] It is actually reported reported commonly that there is [n]fornication among you, and such fornication as is not even so much as named among the Gentiles, [q]that one of you hath should have his father's wife. 2 And [2][a]ye are puffed up, and [3][d]did have not rather mourn, mourned, that he that had hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. 3 For I verily, [e]being as absent in body body, but present in spirit, have *judged already, as though I were present, judged concerning him that hath so wrought done this thing, deed, 4 [k]in the name of our Lord Jesus, ye being Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus, Jesus Christ, 5 [n]to deliver such a an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, [p]that the spirit may be saved [r]in the day of the Lord [4]Jesus. 6 [t]Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that [v]a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? 7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, even as ye are unleavened. For our passover also hath even Christ our passover been sacrificed, even Christ: 8 wherefore †is sacrificed for us: Therefore let us [5]keep ‡the feast, [a]not with old leaven, neither with [b]the leaven of malice and wickedness, wickedness: but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in my an epistle [f]to have no not to company with fornicators; fornicators: 10 Yet [6][g]not altogether with [h]the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous and covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; [j]for then must ye needs go out of the world: world. 11 but [7]now I write have written unto you not to keep company, if any man [m]that is named called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a an one no, no not to eat. 12 For what have I to do with judging to judge them also that are without? [p]Do do not ye judge them that are within, within?

body, but the wife. 5 [a]Defraud ye not one the other, except it be by consent for a season, that ye may give yourselves unto fasting and prayer; and may be together again, [d]that Satan tempt you not because of your incontinency. 6 But this I say by permission, and [f]not of commandment. 7 [1]Yet [h]I would that all men were [i]even as I myself. Howbeit each man hath his own gift from God, [m]one after this manner, and another after that.

8 But I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, [n]It is good for them if they abide [o]even as I. 9 But if they have not continency, [p]let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn. 10 But unto the married [r]I give charge, yea not I, but the Lord, That the wife depart not from her husband 11 (but husband: But and if she depart, [w]let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband; and that the husband leave not his wife. 12 But to the rest say I, not the Lord: If any brother hath an unbelieving wife, and she is content to dwell with him, let him not leave her. 13 And the woman which hath an unbelieving husband, that believeth not, and if he is content to dwell with her, let her not leave him. 14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the brother: [c]else were your children unclean; but now are they holy. 15 Yet if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called [2]us [*]in peace. 16 For how knowest thou, O wife, [f]whether thou shalt save thy husband? or [†]how knowest thou, O husband, whether thou shalt save thy wife? 17 But as the Lord hath distributed to each man, as God hath called each, so let him walk. [b]And so ordain I in [c]all the churches. 18 Was any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? [e]let him not be circumcised. 19 [g]Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but [j]the keeping of the commandments of God. 20 [l]Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called. 21 Wast thou called being a servant? care not for it: [3]but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather. 22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is [q]the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is [t]Christ's servant. 23 [u]Ye are bought with a price; [v]become not servants of men. 24 Brethren, [x]let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins [y]I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as [z]one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be [a]faithful. 26 I suppose therefore that this is good by reason of the present [§]distress, namely, that [b]it is good for a man [4]so to be. 27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. 28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I would spare you. 29 But this I say, brethren, [e]the time [5]is short: it remaineth, that [g]both they that have wives may be as though they had none; 30 and they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and those they that buy, [a]as though they possessed not; 31 and those they that use the this world, as not [1d]abusing it: for [e]the fashion of this world passeth away. 32 But I would have you to be [g]free from cares without carefulness. [h]He that is unmarried is careful careth for the things [*]that of belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord: 33 but he that is married is careful careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his [2]wife. 34 And There is a difference also between the a wife and the a virgin. She that is The unmarried is careful woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married is careful careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. 35 And this I say speak for your own profit; not that I may [r]cast a [3]snare upon you, but for that which is seemly, comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. 36 But if any man thinketh think that he behaveth himself unseemly uncomely toward his [4]virgin daughter, if she be [s]past pass the flower of her age, and if need so requireth, require, let him do what he will, will; he sinneth not; not: let them marry. 37 But Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power as touching over his own will, and hath determined this so decreed in his own heart, heart to that he will keep his own [4]virgin daughter, virgin, shall do doeth well. 38 So then both he that giveth his own [4]virgin daughter her in marriage [c]doeth well; and but he that giveth her not in marriage shall do doeth better. 39 [t]A The wife is bound for by so long time the law as long as her husband liveth; but if the her husband be [5]*f*dead, she is at free liberty to be married to whom she will; only [g]in the Lord. 40 But she is happier if she abide as she is, so abide, [b]after my judgement judgment: and I think [c]that I also have the Spirit of God.

Now they do it to receive obtain a corruptible crown; but we [g]an incorruptible. 26 I therefore so run, as not not as uncertainly; so [1][h]fight I, as not not as one beating [i]that beateth the air: 27 but I [2][j]buffet keep under my body, and [l]bring it into bondage subjection: lest that by any means, after that when I have preached to others, [n]I myself should be [c]rejected. a castaway.

10 1 For I would not, brethren, Moreover, brethren, I would not have you that ye should be ignorant, how that our fathers were all all our fathers were under [q]the cloud, and all [r]passed through the sea; 2 and were all baptized [3]unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; 3 and [u]did all eat the same [v]spiritual meat; 4 and [x]did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of [a]that spiritual rock Rock that [*]followed them: and the rock that Rock was Christ. 5 Howbeit But with most many of them God was not well pleased: for [b]they were overthrown in the wilderness. 6 Now [4]these things were [†]our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as [d]they also lusted. 7 [e]Neither be ye idolaters, [f]as were some of them; as it is written, [i]The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. 8 [j]Neither let us commit fornication, [l]as some of them committed, and [n]fell in one day three and twenty thousand. 9 Neither let us tempt the [5]Lord, Christ, [q]as some of them also tempted, and [r]perished by the were destroyed of serpents. 10 Neither murmur ye, [t]as some of them also murmured, and [v]perished by were destroyed of [w]the destroyer. 11 Now all these things happened unto them [6]by way of example; and [c]they were are written for our admonition, [e]upon whom the ends of the ages world are come. 12 Wherefore [f]let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. 13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as man is can bear §common to man: but [k]God is faithful, [m]who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation make also the also make a way of to escape, that ye may be able to endure bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, [p]flee from idolatry. 15 I speak [s]as to wise men; judge ye what I say. 16 [t]The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not [a]the [7]communion of the blood of Christ? [w]The [8]bread which we break, is it not [a]the [7]communion of the body of Christ? 17 [9]seeing For that we, who are many, we being many are one [8]bread, and [y]one body: for we all partake are all partakers [10]of [the]that one [8]bread. 18 Behold Israel [z]after the flesh: [a]have are not they which eat of the sacrifices communion with partakers of the altar? 19 What say I then? that a thing sacrificed the idol is any thing, to idols is anything, or that [c]an idol or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is anything? any thing? 20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, [g]they sacrifice to [11][h]devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have communion fellowship with [11]devils. 21 [k]Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and [m]the cup of [11]devils: ye cannot be partake partakers of the [table of the Lord, Lord's table,] and of [o]the table of [11]devils. 22 Or [p]do Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? 2 Now I praise you, you, brethren, [y]that ye remember me in all things, and [a]hold fast keep the ‡traditions, [b]even ordinances, as I delivered them to you. 3 But I would have you know, that [c]the head of every man is Christ; and [d]the head of the woman is the man; and [e]the head of Christ is God. 4 Every man praying or [g]prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head. 5 But every woman praying that prayeth or [b]prophesying prophesieth [c]with her head unveiled uncovered dishonoureth her head: for it is one and the same thing that is even all one [e]as if she were shaven. 6 For if [a]the woman is be not veiled, covered, let her also be shorn: but if it is be a shame to for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be veiled. covered. 7 For a man indeed ought not to have cover his head veiled, his head, forasmuch as [h]he is the image and glory of God: but [i]the woman is the glory of the man. 8 For [j]the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man: 9 for neither Neither was the man created for the woman; but [k]the woman for the man man. 10 for For this cause ought the woman to [3]have a sign of authority §power on her head, head, [n]because of the angels. 11 Howbeit Nevertheless [o]neither is the woman man without the man, nor woman, neither the man woman without the woman, man, in the Lord. 12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but [r]all things are of God. 13 Judge ye [4]in yourselves: is it seemly comely that a woman pray unto God unveiled uncovered? 14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a dishonour to shame unto him? 15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a ‖covering. 16 But [x]if any man seemeth seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither [z]the churches of God.

1 *[a]men. 21 [b]In the law it is written, [d]By With men of strange other tongues and by the lips of strangers other lips will I speak unto this people; and not even yet for all thus will they that will they not hear me, saith the Lord. 22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to the unbelieving them that believe not: but prophesying is for a sign, serveth not to the for them unbelieving, that believe not, but to for them that believe. 23 If therefore the whole church be assembled come together into together, one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in men those unlearned that are unlearned, or unbelieving, unbelievers, [i]will they not say that ye are mad? 24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one unbelieving that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is [2]reproved by convinced of all, he is judged by all; of all: 25 And thus are [k]the secrets of his heart are made manifest; and so [l]he will fall falling down on his face and he will worship God, [n]declaring and report that God is [3]among in you indeed. of a truth.

26 What How is it then, brethren? When when ye come together, each every one of you hath [q]a psalm, hath [r]a teaching, doctrine, hath [r]a revelation, tongue, hath [t]a tongue, revelation, hath [u]an interpretation. [v]Let all things be done unto edifying. 27 If any man speaketh speak in [4]a unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that in turn by course; and let one interpret: interpret. 28 but But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God. 29 And let Let the prophets speak by two or three, and let the others [4][c]discern. other judge. 30 But if a If any thing be revelation be made revealed to another sitting that sitteth by, [i]let the first keep silence. hold his peace. 31 For ye all can may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be [5]comforted; comforted. 32 and And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets; 33 for For God is not a God the author of [6][c]confusion, but of peace; peace, as in [e]all the churches of the saints.

34 [f]Let the your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but [g]let them be in subjection, they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith [h]the law. 35 And if they would will learn anything, any thing let them ask their own husbands at home: for it is shameful for a shame a woman women to speak in the church. 36 What? was it from you that came the word of God went forth out from you? or came it unto you alone? only?

37 [j]If any man thinketh think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him take knowledge of acknowledge that the things which that I write unto you, you, that they you are the commandment commandments of the Lord. 38 [6]But if any man is be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, my brethren, [m]desire earnestly covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues. 40 But [o]let Let all things be done decently and [p]in order.

apostles; 8 and last of all, as unto one born apostles. And all he was seen of me out of due time, [a] he appeared to me also. 9 For also, as of *one born out of due time.
[c] I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because [e] I persecuted the church of God. 10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not found in [1] vain; but [i] I laboured more abundantly than they all: [j] yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11 Whether then it be Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ is be preached that he hath been raised rose from the dead, [m] how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? 13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, [o] neither then hath is Christ been raised not risen: 14 and if Christ hath be not been raised, risen, then is our preaching [1] vain, and [2] your faith also is is also [1] vain. 15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we witnessed have testified of God that [r] he raised up [3] Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead are not raised. rise not. 16 For if the dead are not raised, neither hath Christ been rise not, then is not Christ raised: 17 and if Christ hath not been be not raised, your faith is vain; [v] ye are yet in your sins. 18 Then they also which [w] are fallen asleep in Christ have are perished. 19 [4] If in this life only we have hoped in hope Christ, [b] we are of all men most pitiable. miserable.

20 But now [t] hath is Christ been raised risen from the dead, and become [f] the firstfruits of them that are asleep. slept. 21 For since [i] by man came death, [y] by man came also the resurrection of the dead. 22 For [k] as in Adam all die, so also even so in [3] Christ shall all be made alive. 23 But each every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; [b] then afterward they that are Christ's, Christ's [d] at his [5] coming. 24 Then cometh the end, when he shall deliver have delivered up [f] the kingdom to [6] God, even the Father; when he shall have abolished put down [g] all rule and all authority and power. 25 For he must reign, [h] till he hath put all his enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy that shall be [k] abolished is death. 27 For, [7] He For he hath put all things in subjection under his feet. [7] But when he saith, All saith all things are put in subjection, under him, it is evident manifest that he is excepted who excepted, which did subject put all things unto under him. 28 And when [n] all things have been subjected shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subjected to subject unto him that did subject put all things unto under him, that [p] God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead? dead, If the dead are not raised at all, rise not at all? why then are they are they then baptized for them the dead? 30 why do [8] we also stand And why stand we in jeopardy every hour? 31 I protest by [8] [*] that glorying in you, brethren, † your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, [t] I die daily. 32 If [‡] after the manner of men [u] I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, [9] what doth it profit me? 35 But some one man will say, [h] How are the dead raised up? and with what manner of body do they come? 36 Thou foolish one, fool, [l] that which thou thyself sowest is not quickened, except it die: 37 and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not the that body that shall be, but [a] bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other kind; grain: [38] but God giveth it a body even as it as it hath pleased him, and to each every seed a body of its own. his own body. [39] All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one flesh kind of flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another flesh of birds, fishes, and another of fishes. birds. [40] There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. [41] There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory. [42] [g]So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: [43] it is sown in dishonour; [j]it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: [44] it is sown a [l]natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there There is a natural body, there is also and there is a spiritual body. [45] So also And so it is written, [n]The first man Adam became was made a living soul. [q]The the last Adam became a [r]life-giving was made a quickening spirit. [46] Howbeit that is was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; then and afterward that which is spiritual. [47] [t]The first man is of the earth, [u]earthy: [v]the second man is the of Lord from heaven. [48] As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, [z]such are they also that are heavenly. [49] And [b]as we have borne the image of the earthy, [1] [c]we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

[50] Now this I say, brethren, that [e]flesh and blood [f]cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. [51] Behold, I tell shew you a mystery: mystery; [a]We shall not all sleep, [b]but we shall all be changed, [52] in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for [c]the trumpet shall sound, and [d]the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. [53] For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and [e]this mortal must put on immortality. [54] But So when [2]this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall come be brought to pass the saying that is written, [f]Death is swallowed up [3]in victory. [55] [h]O death, where is thy victory sting? O death, *grave, where is thy sting victory? [56] The sting of death is sin; and [i]the power strength of sin is the law: law. THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

1 PAUL, [a]an apostle of Christ Jesus [b]through Jesus Christ by the will of God, and [d]Timothy [4]our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, [e]with all the saints which are in the whole of all Achaia: 2 [c]Grace be to you and peace from God our Father Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the [a]God of all comfort; 4 [b]who comforteth us in all our affliction, tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them that are which are in any trouble, affliction, through the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. 5 For [g]as the sufferings of Christ abound unto us, in even so our consolation comfort also aboundeth Christ. through by 6 But And [j]whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation comfort and salvation; or whether we be comforted, it is for your comfort, salvation, which worketh is effectual *in the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. 7 and our And hope of for you is stedfast; knowing that, stedfast, knowing, that [n]as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so also are ye shall ye be also of the comfort. consolation. 8 For we would not not, have you ignorant, brethren, concerning [p]our brethren, have you ignorant of affliction trouble which befell came to us in Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, pressed out of measure, beyond our power, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life: 9 [1]yea, but we ourselves have had the [2]answer †sentence of death within in ourselves, that we [u]should not trust in ourselves, [w]but in God [x]which raiseth the dead: 10 [y]who delivered us out of from so great a death, and will doth deliver: [z]on in whom we have [3]set our hope trust that he will also still yet deliver us; 11 [c]ye also helping together on our behalf by your supplication; by prayer for us, that, that [f]for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many, many persons thanks may be given by many persons on our behalf.

12 For our glorying rejoicing is this, [i]the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness simplicity and [k]sincerity of God, godly sincerity, [l]not in with fleshly wisdom wisdom, but in by the grace of God, we behaved ourselves have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or even acknowledge, acknowledge; and I hope trust ye will shall acknowledge unto the end; even to the end; 14 as also ye did acknowledge have acknowledged us [c]in part, that [d]we are your glorying, rejoicing, even as [e]ye also are ours, ours [f]in the day of our the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence [h]I was minded to come before unto you, unto you before, that ye might have [i]a second 4‡ [k]benefit; 16 and by you [l]to pass to pass by you into Macedonia, and again from to come again Macedonia to come out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be set forward brought on my journey way unto toward Judæa. 17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I shew fickleness use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose [m]according to the flesh, that with me there should be the yea yea, yea, and the nay nay? 18 But as [o]God is faithful, true, [q]our §word toward you is was not yea and nay. 19 For [r]the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you [5]by us, even [5]by me and [s]Silvanus and Timothy, Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but [t]in him is was yea. 20 For [v]how many soever be all the promises of God, God, in him is the yea: wherefore also through are yea, and in him is [z]the Amen, unto the glory of God through by us. 21 Now he that which stablisheth us with you [6]in Christ, and hath [b]anointed us, is God; 22 [7]who hath also [d]sealed us, and [e]gave us given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 But Moreover [g]I call God for a witness record upon my soul, that [h]to spare you I forbare to come came not as yet unto Corinth. 24 Not for that we [j]have lordship dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for [m]by [8]faith ye stand. 1 [9]But 2 I determined this for with myself, [n]that I would not come again to you with sorrow. in heaviness. 2 For [o]if I make you sorry, who then is he is he then that maketh me glad, but he that the same which is made sorry by me? 3 And I wrote this very thing, same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; *e*having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all. 4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart *f*I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be made sorry, grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But *i*if any hath have caused sorrow, grief, *k*he hath caused sorrow, not to not grieved me, but *l*in part (that I press not too heavily) to part: that I may not overcharge you all. 6 Sufficient to such a one man is *m*this punishment, *punishment, which was inflicted by [1]the many; 7 so of many. So that contrariwise *q*ye should [2]rather ought rather to forgive him him, and comfort him, lest by any means perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with his overmuch sorrow. 8 Wherefore I beseech you to that ye would confirm your love toward him. 9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know *w*the proof of you, [3] *x*whether ye are be obedient in all things. 10 But To to whom ye forgive anything, any thing, I forgive also: for what I also have if I forgave any forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes have I forgiven forgave I it †in the [4]person of Christ; 11 that no advantage may be lest Satan should get gained over us by Satan: an advantage of us for *d*we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Now Furthermore, when *f*I came to Troas for the gospel of Christ, to preach Christ's gospel, and when *h*a door was opened unto me in of the Lord, 13 *j*I had no relief for rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went forth from thence into Macedonia. 14 But Now *l*thanks be unto God, which always *m*leadeth causeth us in to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest through us *a*the savour of his knowledge by us in every place. 15 For we are a sweet savour of Christ unto God, unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in *b*them that are being saved, and in *c*them that are perishing; perish: 16 *d*to the one we are a the savour from of death unto death; and *d*to the other a the savour from of life unto life. And *g*who is sufficient for these things? 17 For we are not as the many, [5] *a*corrupting which ‡corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, God speak we §in Christ.

1 *j*Are Do we beginning begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, *m*as do some, some others, *n*epistles of commendation to you you, or letters of commendation from you? 2 *p*Ye are our epistle, epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men; men: 3 being made manifest that ye are forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to an be the epistle of Christ, Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of *r*the living God; not in *s*tables of stone, but in *t*tables that are *u*hearts of flesh. fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And *v*such confidence trust have we through Christ to God-ward: 5 *y*not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything think any thing as from of ourselves; but *z*our sufficiency is from of God; 6 who also hath made us sufficient as able *a*ministers of *b*a the new [6]covenant; testament; not of *c*the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but *e*the spirit ‖giveth life. 7 But if *g*the ministration of death, [7] written, written and engraven on in stones, came [8]with glory, was glorious, *i*so that the children of Israel could not look stedfastly upon stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his face countenance; which glory g *k*was passing to be done away: 8 how shall not rather the ministration of the spirit be with glory rather glorious? 9 10 For if *n*the ministration of condemnation (is be) glory, much (rather more) doth [b]the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory. 10 For (verily even) that which (hath been was made) glorious (hath not been made had no glorious glory) in this respect, by reason of the glory that (surpasseth. excelleth.) 11 For if that which [1](passeth is done) away was [2](with glory, glorious,) much more that which remaineth is (in glory. glorious.)

12 (Having therefore such a Seeing then that we have such) hope, [j]we use great (boldness of speech, *plainness of speech:) 13 and are not as Moses, (who which) put a (veil upon vail over) his face, that the children of Israel (should could not look stedfastly stedfastly [3]on look to) the end of that which [4](was passing away: is abolished:) 14 but [n]their [5]minds were [g](hardened: blinded:) for until this very day [r]at the reading of [s]the old [6]covenant the remaineth the same vail untaken away (same veil [7]remaineth unlifted; in the reading of the old testament;) which (veil vail) is done away in Christ. 15 But even unto this day, (whensoever when) Moses is read, (a veil lieth the vail is) upon their heart. 16 (But whensoever Nevertheless when) [8]*w*it shall turn to the Lord, [v]the (veil is vail shall be) taken away. 17 Now the Lord is (the that) Spirit: and where [a]the Spirit of the Lord is, there is [b]liberty. 18 But we all, with (unveiled open) face [9]e(reflecting beholding) as (a mirror in a glass) [d]the glory of the Lord, [e]are (transformed changed) into the same image [f]from glory to glory, even as (from †by) [10]the (Lord the Spirit. Spirit of the Lord.)

4 1 Therefore seeing we have [i]this ministry, (even as) [j]we (obtained have received) mercy, we faint (not; not;) 2 but we have renounced [l]the hidden things of (shame, ‡dishonesty,) not walking in craftiness, nor [m]handling the word of God deceitfully; but [o]by (the) manifestation of the truth [q]commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 3 But (and) [t]if our gospel (is veiled, be hid,) [v]it is (veiled in hid to) [w]them that are (perishing lost): 4 in whom [a]the god of this [11]world [c]hath blinded the [5]minds of (the unbelieving, [12]that them which believe not, lest) [d]the [13]light of [e]the (gospel of the glory glorious gospel) of Christ, [f]who is the image of God, should (not dawn upon them. shine unto them.) 5 For [g]we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus (as the Lord, Lord;) and [h]ourselves as your [14]servants [15]for Jesus' sake. 6 (Seeing it is God, that For God, who said, [i]Light shall commanded the light to) shine out of darkness, (§who §hath) shined in our hearts, to give [m]the [13]light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in [o]earthen vessels, [p]that the (exceeding greatness excellency) of the power may be of God, and not (from ourselves; of us.) 8 (we We) are [t](pressed troubled) on every side, yet not (straitened; distressed;) we are perplexed, (yet but) ‖not (unto in) despair; 9 (pursued, yet persecuted, but) [u]not [16]forsaken; [v](smitten cast) down, (yet but) not destroyed; 10 [x]always bearing about in the body the [17]dying of (the Lord) Jesus, [z]that the life also of Jesus (may might) be (manifested made manifest) in our body. 11 For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus (may might) be (manifested made manifest) in our mortal flesh. 12 So then [g]death worketh in us, but life in you. 13 (But We) having [h]the same spirit of faith, according (to that as) (which it) is written, [k]I believed, and therefore (did I speak have I spoken;) we also believe, and therefore (also we) speak; 14 knowing that [n]he which raised up [18]the Lord Jesus [p]shall raise up us also (with by) Jesus, and shall [r]present us with you. 15 For [s]all things are for your sakes, that [u]the (grace, being multiplied abundant grace might) through [19]the many, may cause the thanks- (the thanksgiving of many)

16 Wherefore For which cause we faint not; but [c]though our outward man is decaying, perish, yet [d]our the inward man [e]is renewed day by day. 17 For [g]our light affliction, which is for the but for a moment, worketh for us more and a far more exceeding exceedingly an and eternal weight of glory; 18 [i]while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

5 1 For we know that if [l]the our earthly house of this [1][n]tabernacle be were dissolved, we have a building from of God, [o]a an house not made with hands, eternal, eternal, in the heavens. 2 For verily in this [q]we groan, longing earnestly desiring to be [s]clothed upon with our habitation house which is from heaven: 3 if so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. 4 For indeed we that are in this [1]tabernacle do groan, [2]being burdened; burdened: not for that [w]we would be unclothed, but that we would be clothed upon, that what is mortal [x]may mortality might be swallowed up of life. 5 Now he that hath wrought us for this very the selfsame thing is God, [b]who gave also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Being therefore Therefore we are always of good courage, and confident, knowing that, [d]whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord Lord: 7 (for [f]we walk by faith, not [g]by [3]sight); 8 we are of good courage, confident, I say, and [h]are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home present with the Lord. 9 Wherefore also we [4]make it *labour, our aim, that, whether at home present or absent, to we may be [i]well-pleasing unto accepted of him. 10 For [m]we must all be made manifest appear before the judgement-seat judgment seat of Christ; [b]that each every one may receive the things done [5]in the his body, according to what that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore [f]the fear terror of the Lord, we persuade men, men; but [h]we are made manifest unto God; and I hope that we trust also are made manifest also in your consciences. 12 [j]We are not again commending ourselves For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but [k]speak as giving give you occasion of glorying to glory on our behalf, that ye may have wherewith somewhat to answer them that which glory [t]in appearance, and not in heart. 13 For whether we [6][m]are be beside ourselves, it is unto God; to God: or whether we are of be sober mind, it is unto you. sober, for your cause. 14 For the love of Christ [p]constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if [r]one died for all, therefore then were all died; dead: 15 and that he died for all, [t]that they which live should no not longer henceforth live unto themselves, but [u]unto him who for their sakes died which died for them, and rose again. 16 Wherefore we henceforth henceforth [r]know we know no man after the flesh: even yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we know henceforth know we him so no more. 17 Wherefore Therefore if any man [7]is be [y]in Christ, [7] ‡he is [z]a new creature: [a]the old things are passed away; behold, they all things are become new. 18 But And all things are of God, [c]who hath reconciled us to himself through by Jesus Christ, and gave unto hath given to us [e]the ministry of reconciliation; 19 to wit, that God was in Christ Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, [i]not reckoning unto them their trespasses, imputing their trespasses unto them: and having hath [8]§committed unto us [e]the word of reconciliation.

20 [j]We Now then we are ambassadors therefore on behalf of for Christ, [k]as though God were intreating did beseech you by us: we beseech pray you on behalf of Christ, in Christ's stead, be ye recon-

In everything all things ye have approved yourselves to be pure clear in the this matter. 12 So although Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I wrote did it not for his cause [u]that did had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest our care for us might be made manifest unto you in the you in the sight of God might appear sight of God. 13 Therefore [w]we have were unto you. been comforted: and in our comfort we comforted your comfort: yea, joyed the more exceedingly and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit [y]hath been was refreshed by you all. 14 For [z]if in anything I have gloried I have boasted any thing to him on your behalf, I was of you, I am not put to shame, ashamed; but as we spake all things to you [c]in truth, even so our glorying also, boasting, which I made before Titus, was is found to be a truth. 15 And his [†]inward affection is more abundantly abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth [c]the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him. 16 I rejoice that in everything [d]I am of good courage confidence therefore that I have confidence in you in cerning you. all things.

8 1 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you do you to wit of the grace of God which hath been [g]given in bestowed on the churches of Macedonia; 2 how that in much proof a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and [h]their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their [4][‡]liberality. 3 For [*]according to their power, I bear witness, yea record, yea, and beyond their power, power they gave were willing of their own accord, themselves; 4 beseeching Praying [†]us with much intreaty In regard of this grace that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship in of [m]the ministering to the saints: 5 saints. 24 [2]Shew ye therefore unto them in the face Wherefore shew ye to them, and before of the churches the churches, the proof of your love, and of [a]our glorying boasting on your behalf.

9 1 For as touching [c]the ministering to the saints, [d]it is superfluous for me to write to you:
2 for I know your the readiness, [e]of forwardness of your mind, for which I glory boast on your behalf of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia hath been prepared [g]for was ready a year past ago; and [3]your zeal hath stirred up provoked [4]very many of them.
3 But Yet [i]I have have I sent the brethren, that lest our glorying on your behalf may not be made void boasting of you should in this respect behalf; that, [j]even as I said, ye may be prepared ready:
4 lest by any means, if [l]there come with me any of haply they of Macedonia come Macedonia, with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be put to shame ashamed in this confidence. same confident boasting.
5 I thought it necessary therefore to intreat Therefore I thought it necessary the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your aforepromised [‡]bounty, [§][5][q]whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, [r]as a matter of bounty, and [t]not as of [6]extortion. covetousness.

II 1 Would [that to God] ye could bear with me [in] a little [foolishness: 1nay in my folly: and] indeed *bear with me. 2 For I am jealous over you with [2a] godly jealousy: for [g]I [have] espoused you to one husband, [h]that I [might may] present you [j]as a [pure chaste] virgin to Christ. 3 But I fear, lest by any means, [l]as the serpent beguiled Eve [in through] his [craftiness, subtilty, so] your [3]minds [n]should be corrupted from the [p]simplicity [and the q]purity that is [toward in] Christ. 4 For if he that cometh [r]preacheth another Jesus, whom we [did have] not [preach, preached], or if ye receive [a different another] spirit, which ye [did have] not [receive, received], or [s]a different [another] gospel, which ye [did have] not [accept, accepted], ye [do might] well [to] bear [†]with him. 5 For I [reckon that suppose I] [w]I am not a whit behind [4]the very chiefest apostles. 6 But [y]though I be rude in speech, [b]yet am I not in knowledge; [nay, but] [in everything we have we have been throughly] made it manifest among [all men to you-ward. you in all things.] 7 Or [c]did [I commit a sin committed an offence] in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because [g]I [have] preached to you the gospel of God [for nought freely]? 8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them that I might minister unto you; 9 and them, to do you service. [And] when I was present with [you you,] and was [i]in want, [j]I was [not a burden on any chargeable to no] man: for the brethren, when they came from Macedonia, [t]supplied the measure of my want: that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in [everything I all things I have] kept myself [p]from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself. 10 [r]As the truth of Christ is in me, ‡[s]no man shall stop me of this [glorying boasting] in the regions of Achaia. 11 Wherefore? 12 But what I do, that I will do, [b]that I may cut off [5]occasion from them which desire [an] occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we. 13 For such [men] are [d]false apostles, [e]deceitful workers, [f]fashioning [transforming] themselves into [the] apostles of Christ. 14 And no marvel; for [even] Satan [fashioneth himself himself is transformed] into [i]an angel of light. 15 It is no great [Therefore it thing therefore is no great thing] if his ministers also [fashion themselves as be transformed as the] [k]ministers of righteousness; [m]whose end shall be according to their works.

to visions and [c]revelations of the Lord. 2 I know knew a man [f]in Christ, Christ above fourteen years ago ago, (whether in the body, I know not; cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I know not; cannot tell: [h]God knoweth, knoweth;) such a one [i]caught up even to [j]the third heaven. 3 And I know knew such a man man, (whether in the body, or apart from out of the body, I know not; cannot tell: [h]God knoweth, knoweth;) 4 how that he was caught up into [m]Paradise, paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not [†]lawful for a man to utter. 5 On behalf of Of such a an one will I glory: but on mine own behalf yet of myself I will not glory, [a]save but in my weaknesses, mine infirmities. 6 For if I should though I would desire to glory, [c]I shall not be foolish a fool; for I shall will speak say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should account think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth from of me. 7 And by reason of the exceeding greatness of the lest I should be exalted above measure revelations—wherefore, [p]that I should not be through the abundance of the exalted overmuch, revelations, there was given to me [i]a [5]thorn in the flesh, [j]a the messenger of Satan to buffet me, that I should not lest I should be exalted overmuch. 8 Concerning above measure. For this thing I besought the Lord [l]thrice, that it might depart from me. 9 And he hath said unto me, [n]My grace is sufficient for thee: for [p]my power strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my weaknesses, infirmities, that [s]the power of Christ may [6]rest upon me. 10 Wherefore Therefore [u]I take pleasure in weaknesses, infirmities, in injuries, reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, distresses [x]for Christ's sake: for [y]when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 [a]I am become a fool in glorying; foolish: ye have me: compelled me; for I ought to have been commended of you: for [b]in nothing was am I behind [7]the very chiefest apostles, [d]though I am be nothing. 12 Truly [e]the signs of an apostle were wrought among you [g]in all patience, by signs, in signs, and wonders, wonders, and [8]mighty works. deeds. 13 For what is there it wherein ye were made inferior to the rest of the other churches, except it be that [k]I myself was not a burden burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

For [g]we also are weak [6]† in him, but [h]we shall live with him (through, by) the power of God toward you. 5 Try your own selves, (Examine yourselves,) whether ye be in the faith; [l]prove your own selves. (Or know, Know) ye not (as to) your own selves, how that [m]Jesus Christ is in you? unless you, indeed (except) ye be (reprobate. reprobates?) 6 But I (hope, trust) that ye shall know that we are not (reprobate. reprobates.) 7 Now (we, I) pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we (may, should) appear approved, but that ye (may, should) do that which is (honourable, honest,) [7]though we be as (reprobate. reprobates.) 8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. 9 For we (rejoice, are glad,) when [q]we are weak, and ye are strong: and this (we also pray for, also we wish,) even [r]your perfecting. 10 For this cause (perfection. Therefore) I write these things while being absent, [s]that I (lest) may not when present deal [t]sharply, being present I should use sharpness, according to [u]the (authority, power) which the Lord (gave, hath given) me for building up, (for, to edification,) and not (for casting down, to destruction.)

11 [x]Finally, brethren, [8]farewell. [y]Be (perfected; perfect,) be (comforted; of good comfort,) [z]be of (the same mind; one mind,) [a]live in (peace: peace;) and the God of love and [c]peace shall be with you. 12 [c](Salute, Greet) one another with (a, an) holy kiss.

13 [f]All the saints salute you.

14 [i]The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and [j]the love of God, and [k]the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL [A.V. THE APOSTLE]

GALATIANS.

1 PAUL, [a]an apostle ([b]not from apostle, (not of men, neither through [1]man, but [d]through by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, [f]who raised him from the dead), dead;) 2 and all [g]the brethren which are with me, unto [i]the churches of Galatia: 3 [k]Grace be to you and peace [2][m]from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, 4 [o]who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of from this present [p]evil [3]world, according to the will of [q]our God and God and our Father: 5 to whom be the glory [4]for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are [t]so quickly removing soon removed from [w]him that called you in into the grace of Christ unto [y]a different gospel; another gospel: 7 [z]which is not another gospel: only another; but [b]there are be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. 8 But though we, or [c]an angel from heaven, should preach [5]unto any you any gospel [6]other than that which you other gospel unto you we have preached unto you, [d]let him be anathema. accursed. 9 As we have said before, so say I now again, If any man preacheth unto you any gospel other than that preach any other gospel unto you which ye received, [d]let ye have him be anathema. accursed. 10 For do I now persuading persuade men, or God? or do I seeking seek [h]to please men? for if I were still pleasing pleased men, I should not be a the [7][j]servant of Christ.

11 For But [l]I make known to certify you, brethren, as touching that [c]the gospel which was preached by me, that it is not after of me man. 12 [e]For I neither received neither did I receive it from of [1]man, nor neither was I taught it, but it came to me through by the revelation of Jesus Christ. 13 For ye have heard of [j]my manner of life conversation in time past [l]in the Jews' religion, how that beyond above measure [n]I persecuted the church of God, and made havock of wasted it: 14 and I advanced profited in the Jews' religion beyond above many of mine own age [8]among my countrymen, my *equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly [r]zealous for of [s]the traditions of my fathers. 15 But when it was the good pleasure of pleased God, [u]who separated me, even me [v]from my mother's womb, and [x]called me through by his grace, 16 to reveal his Son in me, [a]that I might preach him among the Gentiles heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood: 17 neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me: me; but I went away into Arabia; Arabia, and again I returned returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then [e]after three years [f]I [†]went up to Jerusalem to [9]visit see Cephas, Peter, and tarried abode with him fifteen days. 19 But other of the apostles saw I none, [10]save James [g]the Lord's brother. 20 Now touching the things which I write unto you, behold, [i]before God, I lie not. 21 [k]Then Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia. I was still unknown by face unto [a]the churches of Judæa which were in Christ: 23 but they only had heard say, He that once persecuted only, That he which persecuted us in us times past now preacheth the faith of which he once made havock; 24 and once he destroyed. And they glorified God in me.

2 1 Then [1]after the space of fourteen years after [e]I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me. and took Titus with me also. 2 And I went up by revelation; and revelation, I laid communicated before unto them the that gospel which [h]I preach among the Gentiles, but *privately before to them [i]who which [2]were of repute, reputation, [j]lest by any means I should be running, run, or [k]had run, in vain. 3 But not even neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, [m]was compelled to be circumcised: 4 3 [o]and that because of the false brethren privily unawares brought in, who [r]came in privily to spy out [s]our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, [t]that they might bring us into bondage: 5 to whom we gave place in the way of by subjection, no, not for an hour; that [v]the truth of the gospel might continue with you. 6 But from those of these [y]who [2]were reputed seemed to be somewhat somewhat, (whatsoever [4]whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: [z]God accepteth not no man's person)—they, I say, person:) for they who were seemed of repute [a]imparted to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me: 7 but contrariwise, when they saw that I had been [c]intrusted with the gospel of the [d]the gospel of the uncircumcision, even as Peter uncircumcision was committed unto me, with as the gospel of the circumcision 8 (for (For he that wrought was unto Peter; for effectually in Peter unto to the apostleship of the circumcision wrought for circumcision, the same was me also unto the Gentiles); 9 and mighty in me toward the Gentiles:) and when they perceived [f]the grace that was given James, Cephas, and John, who unto me, James and Cephas and John, they seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace [g]who [2]were reputed to be [i]pillars, [j]gave to that was given unto me, they me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, fellowship; that we should go unto the Gentiles, and they unto the heathen, circumcision; 10 only Only circumcision. they would that we should remember the poor; [b]which very thing I was also zealous the same which I also was forward to do.

11 But [c]when Cephas came Peter was come to Antioch, I resisted withstood him [d]to the face, because he stood condemned. was to be blamed. 12 For before that certain came from James, [f]he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they came, were come, he drew back withdrew and separated himself, fearing [g]them that which were of the circumcision. 13 And the rest of the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that even Barnabas Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation. 14 But when I saw that they [l]walked not uprightly according to [n]the truth of the gospel, I said unto Cephas Peter [p]before them all, If thou, being a Jew, [q]livest as do the after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, how why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews? 15 We being who are Jews by nature, and not [u]sinners of the Gentiles, 16 yet knowing Knowing that [w]a man is not justified by [5]the works of the law, [6x]save through but by the faith in of Jesus Christ, even we have believed on Christ Jesus, in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by faith in the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: [5]because for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. 17 But if, while we sought seek to be justified in by Christ, we ourselves also were are found [e]sinners, is therefore Christ a the minister of sin? God forbid. 18 For if I build up again those the things which I destroyed, I prove make myself a transgressor. 19 For I through [7]the law [g]died unto am dead to [7]the law, that I might [h]live unto God. 20 I have been am [k]crucified with Christ; Christ: [8]yet nevertheless I live; and yet no longer yet not I, but Christ liveth [l]in me: and that the life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, the faith which is in by the faith of the Son of God, [b]who loved me, and [d]gave himself up for me. 21 I do not make void frustrate the grace of God: for [f]if righteousness is come through by [1]the law, [g]then Christ died for nought. is dead in vain.

3 [1] O foolish Galatians, who did [k]bewitch hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, [l]before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly hath been evidently [o]set forth crucified forth, crucified among you? 2 This only would I learn from of you, [q]Received ye the Spirit by [2]the works of the law, or by [s]the [3]hearing of faith? 3 Are ye so foolish? [t]having begun in the Spirit, [4]are ye now perfected in made perfect by the flesh? 4 [w]Did Have ye suffer suffered [*]so many things in vain? if it be indeed yet in vain. 5 He therefore that supplieth ministereth to you the Spirit, and [y]worketh [5]miracles [6]among you, doeth he it [z]by [2]the works of the law, or by the [3]hearing of faith? 6 Even as [b]Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto †accounted to him for righteousness. 7 [7]Know ye therefore that [d]they which be are of faith, the same are [e]sons the children of Abraham. 8 And the scripture, foreseeing that [g]God [8]would justify the [9]Gentiles by heathen through faith, preached the gospel beforehand before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, [j]In thee shall all the nations be blessed. 9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham. 10 For as many as are of [2]the works of the law are [n]under a the curse: for it is written, [p]Cursed is every one which that continueth not in [q]all things that which are written in the book of the law, to do them. 11 Now But that [s]no man is justified [10]by the law in the sight of God, is evident: for, [a]The righteous just shall live by faith; 12 and And the law is not of faith: faith: but, [c]He The man that doeth them shall live in them. 13 Christ hath [e]redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become being made a curse for us: for it is written, [h]Cursed is every one that hangeth [i]on a tree: 14 that [‡]upon the the blessing of Gentiles might come the blessing of Abraham in Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Jesus; that [m]we might receive [n]the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, [p]I speak after the manner of men: men; [r]Though it be but a man's [11]‡covenant, yet when it hath been if it be confirmed, no one man maketh it void, disannulleth, or addeth thereto. 16 Now [u]to Abraham were [*]the and his seed promises spoken, and to his seed. were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, [x]And to thy seed, which is Christ. 17 Now And this I say; A ‡covenant say, that the covenant, that was confirmed beforehand by God, before of God in Christ, the law, which came was [a]four hundred and thirty years after, doth not cannot disannul, so that as [c]to it should make the promise of none effect. 18 For if the inheritance is be of the law, it is no more of promise: but [f]God hath granted gave it to Abraham by promise. 19 What Wherefore then is serveth the law? [h]It was added because of transgressions, [i]till the seed should come to whom the promise hath been was made; and it was [k]ordained through by angels [l]by in the hand of a mediator. 20 Now [m]a mediator is not a mediator of one; one, but [o]God is one. 21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for [r]if there had been a law given which could make alive, have given life, verily righteousness would should have been of by the law. 22 Howbeit But the scripture

4 is a child, [he] differeth nothing from a bondservant, servant, though he is be lord of all; 2 but is under guardians tutors and stewards governors until the term time appointed of the father. 3 So Even we also, so we, when we were children, [f]were held in bondage under [g]the [2]rudiments *elements of the world: 4 but [i]when the fulness of the time came, was come, God sent forth his Son, [i]born made [m]of a woman, born made [n]under the law, 5 that he might To [p]redeem them which that were under the law, that we might receive [q]the adoption of sons. 6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth [r]the Spirit of his Son into our your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. 7 So that Wherefore thou art no longer a bondservant, more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then [s]an heir through God. of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit at that time, [b]not knowing then, when ye knew not God, ye [d]were in bondage to did service unto them which by nature [f]are no gods: 9 but gods. But now, now after that ye have come to know known God, or rather [g]to be are known of God, [h]how turn ye back [†]again to [i]the weak and beggarly [2]rudiments, [*]elements, whereunto ye desire to be in bondage again to be in over again bondage? 10 [l]Ye observe days, and months, and seasons, times, and years. 11 I am afraid of you, [o]lest by any means I have bestowed labour upon you upon you labour in vain.

12 [q]I beseech you, brethren, Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am, for I am as ye are. [r]Ye did me are: ye have not no wrong: 13 but ye know that injured me at all. Ye know how [u]because of an through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you [x]the [3]first time: 14 and that which was a at the first. And my temptation temptation to you which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor [4]rejected; but ye received me [a]as an angel of God, even [e]as Christ Jesus. 15 [‡]Where then is that gratulation [5]of is then the blessedness ye yourselves? spake of for I bear you witness, record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your eyes own eyes, and have given them to me. 16 So Am then am I I therefore become your enemy, because [e]I [6]tell you the truth? 17 They zealously seek you in no good affect you, but not way; nay, they desire to shut you out, well; yea, would exclude §you, that ye may seek might affect them. 18 But it is good to be zealously sought in a good affected always matter at all times, in a good thing, and [h]not only when I am present with you. 19 [j]My little children, [k]of whom I am again travail in in travail birth again until Christ [o]be formed in you, 20 yea, I could wish I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for ‖I am stand perplexed about in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? 22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the [t]one by the handmaid, and [u]one a bondmaid, the other by the a freewoman. 23 Howbeit [v]the But he who railing, evil speaking, be put away from you, with all [b]malice: 32 and [c]be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, [f]forgiving each other, one another, even as God also in Christ forgave for Christ's sake hath forgiven [1] you.

5 God, as beloved dear children; 2 and [j]walk in love, [k]even as Christ also hath loved us, and [l]gave hath given himself up for [2]us, us [m]an offering and a sacrifice to God for [e]an a odour of a sweet smell. sweetsmelling savour. 3 But [q]fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, [t]let it not even be be once named among you, as becometh saints; 4 [v]nor Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, or nor jesting, [w]which are not befitting convenient: but rather [y]giving of thanks. 5 For this ye know of a surety, that [a]no fornicator, whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, [c]which who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. 6 [g]Let no man [h]deceive you with empty vain words: for because of these things cometh [k]the wrath of God upon [m]the sons children of *disobedience. 7 Be not ye therefore [n]partakers with them; them. 8 for For [o]ye were once sometimes [p]darkness, but are now now are ye light in the Lord: [s]walk as children of light light: 9 (for (For [t]the fruit of the light Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth), truth;) 10 [v]proving what is well-pleasing acceptable unto the Lord; Lord. 11 and [x]have no fellowship with the [a]unfruitful [b]works of darkness, but rather even [3]d]reprove them; 12 for the things which them. 15 [g]Look therefore carefully how ye walk, See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as unwise, fools, but as wise: wise; 16 [5][g]redeeming the time, because [i]the days are evil. 17 Wherefore be ye not foolish, unwise, but understand understanding what [n]the will of the Lord is. 18 And [p]be not drunken drunk with wine, wherein is [r]riot, excess; but [s]be filled [6]with the Spirit; 19 speaking [7]one to another to yourselves in [u]psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody with in your heart to the Lord; 20 [x]giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father [z]in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to [8]God, even the Father; 21 [b]subjecting Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of Christ. God.

22 [d]Wives, [c]be in subjection submit yourselves unto your own husbands, [f]as unto the Lord. 23 For [i]the husband is the head of the wife, as [f]Christ also even as Christ is the head of the church, being [f]himself church: and he is the saviour of the body. 24 But Therefore as the church is subject to unto Christ, [9]so let the wives also be to their own husbands [q]in everything. every thing. 25 [r]Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and [u]gave himself up for it; 26 that he might sanctify it, having cleansed and cleanse it by with [w]the [10]washing of water [y]with by the word, 27 [z]that he might present the church it to himself a glorious church, [c]not having spot spot, or wrinkle wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. 28 Even so So ought [g]husbands also men to love their own wives as their own bodies. wife loveth himself: 29 for no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as also the Christ the church; 30 because we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. 31 [h]For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to be joined unto his wife, and [k]the twain they two shall become one flesh. 32 [l]This mystery is great is a great mystery: but I speak in regard of concerning Christ and [of] the church. 33 Nevertheless do ye also severally let every one of you in particular [p]love each one so love his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she [r]fear reverence her husband.

6 1 [s]Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. 2 [v]Honour thy father and mother (which is the mother; (which is the first commandment with promise), 3 that it may be well with thee, and thou [1]mayest live long on the [2]earth. 4 And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: [a]but nurture them bring them up in the chastening nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 3 [c]Servants, be obedient unto to them that according to the flesh are your are your masters according to [4]masters, the flesh, with fear and trembling, [g]in singleness of your heart, [h]as unto Christ; 6 not in the way of with eye-service, as [k]men-pleasers menpleasers; but as the [3]servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the [5]heart; 7 with good will doing service, as unto to the Lord, and not unto to men: 8 [o]knowing that whatsoever good thing each one any man doeth, the same shall he receive again from of the Lord, [r]whether he be bond or free. 9 And, ye [4]masters, do the same things unto them, [u]and forbear [x]forbearing threatening: knowing that [y]both their †your Master and yours also is in heaven, and [w]there heaven; neither is no is there respect of persons with him.

10 6 Finally, my brethren, 7 [a]be strong in the Lord, and in [b]the strength power of his might. 11 [c]Put on [d]the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against [f]the wiles of the devil. 12 For [g]our wrestling is we wrestle not against ‡flesh and blood, but against [i]the principalities, against the powers, against [j]the world-rulers rulers of the of [i]this darkness, darkness of this world, against [m]the §spiritual hosts of wickedness [n]in the ‖high heavenly places. 13 Wherefore [o]take up unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in [q]the evil day, and, and []having done all, to stand. 14 Stand therefore, [t]having girded your loins your loins girt about with truth, and [u]having put on the breastplate of righteousness righteousness 15 and [w]having shod your feet your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; 16 withal taking up Above all, taking [x]the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all [y]the fiery darts of [z]the evil one. wicked. 17 And take [u]the helmet of salvation, and [b]the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: 18 Praying always [d]with all prayer and supplication praying [e]at all seasons [f]in the Spirit, and [i]watching thereunto in with all perseverance and [j]supplication for all the saints, saints; 19 and [i]on my behalf, for me, that utterance may be given unto me [§]in opening me, that I may open my mouth, to make known [*]with boldness mouth boldly, to make known [n]the mystery of the gospel, 20 for which I [p]am an ambassador [††q]in [9]chains; bonds: that [‡‡]therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

1 PAUL and Timothy, Timotheus, the [1]servants of Christ Jesus, Jesus Christ, to all the [e]saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the [2e]bishops and [f]deacons: 2 [g]Grace to you be unto you, and peace, peace, from God our Father Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [j]I thank my God [k]upon all my every [†]remembrance of you, 4 always in every supplication prayer of mine on behalf of for you all making my supplication request with joy, 5 [n]for your fellowship in furtherance of the gospel from the first day until now; 6 being confident of this very thing, that he which began hath begun [p]a good work in you [‡q]will perfect perform it until [r]the day of Jesus Christ: 7 even as it is right meet for me to be thus minded on think behalf this of you all, because [3§]I have you [u]in my heart, heart; inasmuch as, as both [v]in my bonds, bonds, and in [w]the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are [‖z]partakers with me of my grace. 8 For [b]God is my witness, record, [c]how greatly I long after you all in the tender mercies bowels of Christ Jesus. Jesus Christ. 9 And this I pray, that [d]your love may abound yet more and more [e]in knowledge and in all discernment; []judgment; 10 so that ye may [4††g]approve the things that [‡‡]are excellent; [a]that ye may be sincere and void of offence without unto [b]the day of Christ; 11 being filled with [d]the [5]fruits of righteousness, which are [A]through by Jesus Christ, [i]unto the glory and praise of God.

12 Now But I would have you know, ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto [l]the progress furtherance of the gospel; 13 so that [m]my bonds became manifest in Christ [6]throughout the whole [§§]in Christ are manifest in all [*]the prætorian guard, palace, and [†]to all in the rest other places; 14 and that most many of the brethren in the Lord, [7]being waxing confident through by my bonds, are more abundantly much more bold [s]to speak the word [of God] without fear. 15 [t]Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will: 16 the one do it preach Christ of love, contention, [x]knowing that I am set for [y]the defence of not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my the gospel: bonds: 17 but the other proclaim of love, Christ [a]of faction, not sincerely, thinking to raise knowing that I am set for the defence up affliction for me in my bonds. of the gospel. 18 What then? only that in notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence pretence, or in truth, Christ is proclaimed preached; and therein I, I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. 19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation, salvation [f]through your supplication prayer, and [h]the supply of [i]the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 according to my earnest expectation and my hope, [d]that in nothing shall I be put to shame, I shall be ashamed, but that with all [f]boldness, as always, so now also Christ [g]shall be magnified in my body, [i]whether it be by life, or by death. 21 For to me [l]to live is Christ, and to die is gain. 22 [1]But if to I live in the flesh, flesh,—if this is the fruit of my work, then labour: yet [2]what I shall choose [3]I wot not. 23 [c]But For I am in a strait betwixt the two, having the a desire [q]to depart depart, and to [s]be with Christ; for it which is very far better: 24 yet Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for your sake. you. 25 And [x]having this confidence, [y]I know that I shall abide, yea, abide and abide continue with you all, all for your [z]progress furtherance and [b]joy [4]in the of faith; 26 that [d]your glorying rejoicing may abound be more abundant in Christ Jesus in Jesus Christ for me through by my presence coming with to you again. 27 Only [5h]let your manner of life conversation be [j]worthy of as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that, that whether I come and see you you, or else be absent, I may hear of your state, affairs, [m]that ye stand fast in one spirit, with [o]one soul mind [p]striving together [6]for the faith of the gospel; 28 and in nothing affrighted terrified by your adversaries: which is for to them [s]an evident token of perdition, but [u]of your to you of salvation, and that from God; of God. 29 because to For unto you [v]it hath been granted given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also [u]to suffer in for his behalf: sake; 30 having the same [x]conflict which [y]ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

2 [1]If there is be therefore any comfort consolation consolation comfort in Christ, if any [c]love, if any [a]fellowship of the Spirit, if any [b]tender mercies bowels and compassions, mercies, 2 [c]fulfil ye my joy, that ye be [e]of the same mind, likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, 7 of one mind; 3 doing mind. Let nothing be done through [h]faction strife or through [j]vainglory, vainglory; but [k]in lowliness of mind each counting let each esteem other better than himself; 4 [m]not looking each of you to themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but each of you every man also to on the things of others. 5 [n]Have Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: 6 [p]who, [8]being in [r]the form of God, counted thought it not [9q]a prize robbery to be on an equality with God, God: 7 but [t]emptied made himself of no reputation, himself, taking and took upon him the form of a [10v]servant, [11w]being and was made in the *likeness of men; men: 8 and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, [a]becoming and became obedient even unto death, [c]yea, even the death of the cross. 9 [e]Wherefore also [f]God God also hath highly exalted him, and gave unto given him [i]the a name which is above every name; name: 10 that in at the name of Jesus [k]every knee should bow, [l]of things in heaven heaven, and things on earth in earth, and [12]things under the earth, earth; 11 and that [n]every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is [q]Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 So then, Wherefore, my beloved, [r]even as ye have always [t]obeyed, not [13]as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; trembling. 13 for For [w]it is God which worketh in you both to will and to work, for do of [z]his good pleasure. 14 Do all things [a]without murmurings and [b]disputings; disputings: 15 that ye may be blameless and [†]harmless, [c]children the sons of God God, [d]without blemish rebuke, [f]in the midst of [g]a crooked and perverse generation, nation, among whom *ye are seen shine [b]as [1]lights in the world, world; 16 holding forth [d]the word of life; that [e]I may have whereof to glory rejoice in [g]the day of Christ, that [h]I did have not run in vain, vain, neither labour laboured in vain. 17 Yea, and if I am be [2]†[k]offered upon the sacrifice and [l]service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all: all: 18 and in For the same manner do ye also cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

19 ‡But I hope trust in the Lord Jesus [p]to send Timothy Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state. 20 For I have no man §[u]likeminded, who will care naturally [3]truly care for your state. 21 For they all [v]seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. which are Jesus Christ's. 22 But ye know [x]the proof of him, that, [a]as a child serveth a son with the father, so he he hath served with me in furtherance of the gospel. 23 Him therefore I hope to send forthwith, presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me: me: 24 but But [g]I trust in the Lord that I myself also also myself shall come shortly. 25 But Yet I counted supposed it necessary to send to you [j]Epaphroditus, my brother brother, and fellow-worker companion in labour, and [k]fellow-soldier, and fellowsoldier, but your [4]messenger messenger, and [m]minister he that ministered to my need; wants. 26 since For he longed [5]after you all, and was sore full of troubled, heaviness, because that ye had heard that he was sick: had been sick. 27 for For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. 28 I have sent him therefore the more diligently, carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. 29 [v]Receive him therefore in the Lord with all joy gladness; and [w]hold such in honour reputation: 30 because [c]for the work of [6]Christ he came was nigh unto death, hazarding not regarding his life life, [f]to supply that which was lacking your lack in your of service toward me.

3 [1] Finally, my brethren, [7][i]rejoice in the Lord. [j]To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not irksome, grievous, but for you it is safe. 2 Beware of [m]the dogs, beware of [n]the evil workers, beware of the concision: concision. 3 for For [o]we are the circumcision, [q]who which worship [r]by the Spirit of God, God in the spirit, and [s]glory rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh: flesh. 4 [t]though Though I myself might also might also have confidence even in the flesh: if flesh. If any other man [8]thinketh to have that he hath whereof he might confidence trust in the flesh, I [u]yet more: 5 [w]circumcised the eighth day, [y]of the stock of Israel, [z]of the tribe of Benjamin, [y]a an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, [c]a Pharisee; 6 [d]as touching Concerning zeal, [e]persecuting the church; [f]as touching the righteousness which is in the law, found blameless. 7 Howbeit But [h]what things were [9]gain to me, [t]these have those I counted loss for Christ. 8 Yea verily, doubtless, and I count all things to be but loss for [n]the excellency of [o]the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have [p]suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but [10]dung, that I may gain win Christ, 9 and be found in him, [11]not having [q]a righteousness of mine mine own own, even that righteousness, which is of the law, but [r]that which is through the faith in of Christ, the righteousness which is of God [12]by faith: 10 [s]that I may know him, and [t]the power of his resurrection, and [u]the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming being conformed made conformable unto his death;

11 if by any means I (may, might) [a]attain unto the resurrection (from, of) the dead. 12 Not (that I have, as though I had) already [c]obtained, or [d]am already (attained, either, were already) perfect: but I (press on, follow after), if (so be) that I may [1]apprehend that for which also I (was, am) apprehended (by, of) Christ Jesus. 13 Brethren, I count not myself [2]yet to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, [f]forgetting (the, those) things which are behind, and (stretching, reaching) forward to the (things, those) which are before, 14 I press (on, toward) the (goal, mark) unto (for) [k]the prize of the [3]high [m]calling of God in Christ Jesus. 15 Let us therefore, as many as be [o]perfect, be thus minded: and if in (anything, any thing) [r]ye (are, be) otherwise minded, [s]even (God, this shall God reveal, shall reveal even this) unto you: 16 only, (whereunto, theless, whereto) we have already attained, (let us walk by the same rule, let us walk, let us walk. mind the same thing.)

17 Brethren, [u]be (ye imitators, followers) together of me, and mark them which (so walk, walk so) [v]even as ye have us for an ensample. 18 For (For) [w]many walk, of whom I (have) told you often, and now tell you [x]even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: 19 [y]whose end is (perdition, destruction), [z]whose (god, God) is (the, their) belly, and [b]whose glory is in their shame, who [d]mind earthly (things., things.) 20 For [f]our [4](citizenship, conversation) is in heaven; [g]from whence also we [h](wait, look) for (a, the) Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: 21 who shall (fashion, change) anew [i]the body of our humiliation, (our vile body,) that it may be [k](conformed, fashioned) to the body of his (glory, body,) [l]according to the working whereby he is able even [m]to (subject, subdue) all things unto himself.

4 (Wherefore, Therefore,) my brethren (dearly) beloved and [o]longed for, [p]my joy and [q]crown, so [r]stand fast in the Lord, my (dearly) beloved.

unto [a]all patience and long-suffering [c]with joyfulness; 12 [d]giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made [1]us meet to be partakers of [f]the inheritance of the saints in light: 13 who hath [h]delivered us out of [j]the power of darkness, and translated us into [l]the kingdom of [m]the Son of his love; 14 [n]in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of [our] sins: 15 [q]who is the image of [r]the invisible God, [t]the firstborn of every creature: 16 for by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are upon earth, visible and invisible, whether [x]thrones, or [y]dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and unto him: 17 and [c]he is before all things, and by him all things [2][e]consist. 18 And [f]he is the head of the body, the church: who is [h]the beginning, [i]the firstborn from the dead; [3]that [†]in all things he might have the preeminence. 19 [4]For it was pleased the Father that [o]in him should all [p]fulness dwell; 20 and, ‡having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him [5]unto [6]himself, [7]having made peace through the blood of his cross; through him, I say, whether they be things upon earth, or things in heaven. 21 [u]And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies [§]in your mind [x]by wicked works, yet now [7]hath he reconciled 22 [y]in the body of his flesh through death, [z]to present you holy and unblameable and unreproveable before him: 23 [d]if so be that ye continue in the faith, [e]grounded and settled, and be not moved away from [g]the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached [b]to every creature which is under heaven; [e]whereof I Paul am made a minister;

yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your [c]order, and [e]the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 [g]As therefore ye ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, him: 7 [j]rooted and [k]builded up built in him, and [m]stablished [l]in your the faith, even [n]as ye were have been taught, abounding [2q]in therein with thanksgiving.

8 [3]Take heed Beware lest there shall be any one that maketh man spoil [o]of you through his [t]philosophy and [u]vain deceit, after [v]the tradition of men, after the [4]* [w]rudiments of the world, and not after Christ: Christ. 9 for For [y]in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead [b]bodily, bodily. 10 and [c]in him ye are And ye are complete made full, who in him, which is [d]the head of all principality and power: 11 in whom [y]ye were also ye are also circumcised with [a]the circumcision not made with made without hands, in [ii]the putting off [o]of the body of the sins of the flesh, in flesh by the circumcision of Christ; 12 [k]having been buried Christ: Buried with him in baptism, wherein [m]ye were also raised also ye are risen with him through the faith [in] of [n]the working operation of God, [n]who hath raised him from the dead. 13 [q]And you, being dead through in your trespasses sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, you, hath I say, [t]did he quicken he quickened together with him, having forgiven us all our you all trespasses; 14 [v]having blotted Blotting out [5w]the bond written in handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us: us, and he hath taken took it out of the way, nailing it to the his cross; 15 [6ii]having put off from himself the And having spoiled principalities and [the] powers, [c]he made a show shew of them openly, [d]triumphing over them [f]in it.

16 Let no man therefore [g]judge you [‡i]in meat, or in drink, or [§]in respect of [a]a feast day an holyday, or [b]a of the new moon, or a of the sabbath day days: 17 [d]which are a shadow of the things to come; but [f]the body is Christ's. of Christ. 18 Let no man [‖k]rob beguile you of your prize 7 [l]by reward  [m]in a voluntary humility and worshipping of the angels, [8n]dwelling intruding in the into those things which he hath not [9]seen, vainly [o]puffed up by [p]his fleshly mind, 19 and [r]not [s]holding fast the Head, from whom which all the body, being supplied and knit together body by joints and bands having nourishment through the joints and bands, ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 If Wherefore if [x]ye died be dead with Christ from the [1*z]rudiments of the world, [a]why, as though living in the world, do ye subject yourselves are ye subject to ordinances, 21 [c]Handle not, nor taste, nor (Touch not; taste not; touch handle not; 22 (*f*all which things Which all are to perish with the using), using;) after [h]the precepts commandments and doctrines of men? 23 Which things have indeed a show shew of wisdom in [i]will-worship, will worship, and humility, and [††]severity to neglecting of the body; but are [l]not of in any [10]value against honour to the indulgence satisfying of the flesh.

3 1 [o]If then ye were raised together ye then be risen with Christ, seek [p]the those things that which are above, where Christ is, [r]seated sitteth on the right hand of God. 2 [s]Set your [‡‡]mind affection on the things that are above, not on the things that are upon the earth. 3 For [u]ye on died, are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. 4 When Christ, [x]who is [11]our life, [y]shall be manifested, appear, then shall ye also with him be manifested appear with him [z]in glory.

5 [12a]Mortify therefore [b]your members which are upon the earth; [c]fornication, uncleanness, [f]passion, inordinate affection, evil desire, concupiscence, and covetousness, the [h]which is idolatry; idolatry: 6 [j]for which things' sake cometh the wrath in Macedonia and in Achaia. 8 For from you hath [a]sounded forth out the word of the Lord, Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also [d]in every place your faith to God-ward is gone forth spread abroad; so that we need not to speak anything. any thing. 9 For they themselves report concerning shew of us what manner of [g]entering in we had unto you; you, and how [h]ye turned unto to God [i]from idols, idols to serve a the living and [j]true God; God; 10 and [k]to wait for his Son [l]from heaven, [n]whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, [p]which delivereth delivered us from [r]the wrath to come.

2 1 For yourselves, brethren, know our [t]entering entrance in unto you, [w]that it hath not been found was not in vain: 2 but having even after that we had suffered before, and been were shamefully entreated, as ye know, [y]at Philippi, [a]we waxed were bold in our God [b]to speak unto you the gospel of God in with much [d]conflict. contention. 3 For [e]our exhortation is was not of [f]error, deceit, nor of [i]uncleanness, nor [j]in guile: 4 but even as we have been approved were allowed of God [l]to be intrusted put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as [n]pleasing men, but God, God, [o]which proveth trieth our hearts. 5 [q]For neither at any time were we found using words of used we flattering flattery, words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness, covetousness; [t]God is witness; witness: 6 [u]nor seeking glory of men, of men sought we glory, neither from of you, nor from yet of others, [w]when we might have [1]*been [y]burdensome, as the [a]apostles of Christ. 7 But we were [2][b]gentle in the midst of among you, even as [c]a nurse cherisheth her own children: 8 even so, So being affectionately desirous of you, we were well pleased willing to impart have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, [f]but also our own souls, because ye were become very dear to unto us. 9 For ye remember, brethren, [b]our labour and travail: [c]working for labouring night and day, that because we might would not burden be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God. 10 Ye are witnesses, and [e]God also, [f]how holily and righteously justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves toward among you that believe: 11 as ye know how we dealt with each exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, [m]as a father with his own children, doth exhorting you, and encouraging you, and [o]testifying, his children, 12 to the end that [q]ye should would walk worthily worthy of God, [s]who [3]calleth hath called you into unto [t]his own kingdom and glory.

13 And for For this cause [u]we also thank also thank we God without ceasing, that, because, when ye received from us [4][x]the word of the message, even the word of God, God which ye heard of us, ye accepted received it [z]not as the word of men, but, but as it is in truth, the word of God, [c]which also worketh effectually worketh also in you that believe. 14 For ye, brethren, [g]became imitators followers of [h]the churches of God which are in Judæa in Judæa are in Christ Jesus: for [k]ye also have suffered the same like things of your own countrymen, [m]even as they did have of the Jews; Jews: 15 [p]who both killed the Lord Jesus, Jesus, and [r]the their own prophets, and drave out us, have †persecuted us; and they please not God, and [s]are contrary to all men; men: 16 [v]forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may might be saved; saved, [x]to fill up their sins alway: but for [z]the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being bereaved of taken from you for [5]a short season, time [d]in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more exceedingly abundantly [e]to see your face with great desire: desire. 18 because Wherefore we would fain have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; and but Satan [a]hindered us. 19 For what is our hope, or [d]joy, or crown of *rejoicing? [e]Are not even ye, before ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his [1][g]coming? 20 For ye are our glory and our joy.

3 [1]Wherefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good [j]to be left behind at Athens alone; [2]and [l]sent Timothy, Timotheus, [n]our brother brother, and [2]God's minister of God, and our minister fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith; faith: 3 that no man should be moved by these afflictions; afflictions: for yourselves know that [r]hereunto we are appointed. we are appointed thereunto. 4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you [3]beforehand before that we are to should suffer affliction; tribulation; [u]even as it came to pass, and ye know. 5 For this cause I also, cause, [w]when I could no longer forbear, [w]sent that I might I sent to know your faith, [y]lest by any some means [z]the tempter had have tempted you, and [b]our labour should be in vain. 6 But [d]when Timothy now when Timotheus came even from now unto us from you, you unto us, and brought us glad good tidings of [h]your faith and love, charity, and [j]that ye have good remembrance of us always, [l]longing desiring greatly to see us, even as we also to see you; you: 7 for this cause, Therefore, brethren, [m]we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through affliction and distress by your faith: 8 for now we live, if ye [q]stand fast in the Lord. 9 For [s]what thanksgiving thanks can we render again unto God to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God; 10 [v]night and day praying exceedingly [y]that we may might see your face, and [a]may might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now may [b]our God and Father himself, God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus, Jesus Christ, [†][c]direct our way unto you: you: 12 And the Lord [f]make you to increase and abound in love [h]one toward another, and toward all men, even as we also do toward you; you: 13 to the end he may [i]stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before [b]our God and God, even our Father, at [k]the [1]coming of our Lord Jesus Christ [m]with all his saints.[4]

4 [1]Finally then, brethren, we Furthermore then we [‡]beseech you, beseech brethren, and [§]exhort you in by the Lord Jesus, that, that as ye have [o]received of us [p]how ye ought to walk and [q]to please God, even as ye do walk,—that ye so ye would [s]abound more and more. 2 For [t]ye know what [5]charge commandments we gave you through by the Lord Jesus. 3 For this is the will of God, even [v]your sanctification, [x]that ye should abstain from fornication; fornication: 4 that each every one of you should know how to possess himself of his own [a]vessel in sanctification and [c]honour, honour; 5 not in [e]the passion of lust, lust of concupiscence, [f]even as the Gentiles [g]which know not God: God: 6 that no man [6]transgress, go beyond and [‖]defraud his brother []in the any matter: because that the Lord is [k]an the avenger in all of these things, such, as also we we also have [7]forewarned you and testified. 7 For [n]God hath not called us not for unto [o]uncleanness, but in sanctification. unto holiness. 8 Therefore He therefore [p]he that rejecteth, rejecteth [††]despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, [r]who giveth hath also his Holy Spirit unto you. given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But concerning [t]love of the brethren as touching brotherly love [u]ye have no need need not that one I write unto you: for ye yourselves are [w]taught of God [x]to love one another; another: 10 for And indeed [z]ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, bre- Macedonia: but beseech

Lord Jesus be revealed from heaven [b]with the ‡this angels of his power 8 [c]in flaming fire, fire mighty angels, rendering ‡taking vengeance to on them [d]that know not God, and to them that [e]obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: 9 who shall suffer punishment, even eternal be punished with everlasting destruction [h]from the face presence of the Lord Lord, and from the glory of his might, power; 10 [i]when he shall come [j]to be glorified in his saints, and to be marvelled at admired in all them that believed believe (because our [k]testimony unto among you [m]was believed) in [n]that day.

and by our [a]gathering together unto him; 2 to the end that ye be not quickly shaken from your mind, nor yet [d]be troubled, either [e]by spirit, or [h]by word, or [h]by epistle as from us, as that [i]the day of the Lord Christ is now present; 3 [f]let no man beguile you in any wise: for it will not be, except there come a falling away first, and [m]the man of [l]sin be revealed, [o]the son of perdition, 4 he that opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or [2r]that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the [3]temple of God, [s]setting himself forth as that he is God. 5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? 6 And now ye know that which restraineth, to the end that he might be revealed in his own season. 7 For [y]the mystery of lawlessness [z]doth already work: [4]only there is one that now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. 8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord [5]Jesus [d]shall slay with [f]the breath of his mouth, and shall bring to nought by the manifestation of his coming; 9 even him, whose coming is according to after the working of Satan [k]with all [8]power and signs and lying wonders, 10 and with all deceivableness of unrighteousness for them that perish, because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11 And for this cause [o]God shall send them a working of error, that they should believe [r]a lie: 12 that they all might be judged who believed not the truth, but [u]had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But [w]we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, [b]brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath [9][c]from the beginning chosen you to salvation through [f]sanctification of the Spirit and [10]belief of the truth: 14 whereunto he called you through our gospel, [f]to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 Therefore, brethren, [n]stand fast, and hold [p]the traditions which ye were taught, whether [q]by word, or [q]by epistle of ours.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, [t]which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good [u]hope through grace, 17 comfort your hearts, and [v]stablish you in every good work and word.

3 [1]Finally, brethren, [w]pray for us, that [x]the word of the Lord [†]may run and be glorified, even also as it is with you: 2 and [a]that we may be delivered from [‡]unreasonable and wicked men; for [c]all men have not [11]faith. 3 But [e]the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and [h]guard you from [12]the evil. 4 And [j]we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you. 5 And the Lord [l]direct your hearts into the love of God, and into [§]the patience of Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, [n]in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, [p]that ye withdraw yourselves from every [q]brother [s]that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which [13]he received of us. 7 For yourselves know [v]how ye ought to follow us: for [x]we behaved not

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

1 PAUL, [a]an apostle of Christ Jesus
Jesus Christ [3][c]by the will of God, according to [e]the promise of the life which is in Christ Jesus, 2 to Timothy, [f]my dearly beloved child: [g]Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 [k]I thank God, [l]whom I serve from my forefathers in a with pure conscience, how unceasing is my that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my supplications, prayers night and day; 4 Greatly longing desiring to see thee, remembering being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with [4]joy; 5 When been reminded of
I call to remembrance [v]the unfeigned faith that is in thee; thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and [y]thy mother Eunice; and, and I am persuaded, persuaded that in thee also.
6 For the which cause Wherefore I put thee in remembrance [b]that thou [5]stir up the gift of God, which is in thee through by the laying putting on of my hands. 7 For God gave us not hath not given us a spirit of fearfulness fear; but [i]of power power, and love of love, and [6]discipline. of a sound mind. 8 [j]Be not ashamed therefore thou therefore ashamed of [k]the testimony of our Lord, nor of [m]me his prisoner: but [o]suffer hardship be thou partaker of with the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God; 9 [p]who hath saved us, and [b]called us with a an holy calling, [d]not according to our works, but according to [b]his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus [h]before times eternal, the world began, 10 but hath is now [i]been manifested made manifest by [j]the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, Jesus Christ, [m]who hath abolished death, and hath [o]brought life and [p]incorruption immortality to light through the gospel, gospel:
11 [r]whereunto I was am appointed a [7]preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher. teacher of the Gentiles. 12 [u]For the which cause I suffer also also suffer these things: yet nevertheless [w]I am not ashamed; ashamed: for [x]I know him whom I have *believed, and [1] am persuaded that he is able to guard keep [8][z]that which I have committed unto him against [a]that day. 13 [c]Hold fast [d]the pattern form of [9][e]sound words words, [f]which thou hast heard from of me, in [g]faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 14 [10][z]That good thing which was committed unto thee guard through keep by the [11]Holy Ghost [l]which dwelleth in us.

Lord grant (give) mercy unto [a]the house of Onesiphorus (Onesiphorus); for he oft [b]refreshed me, and was not ashamed of [d]my chain (chain): 17 but, when he was in Rome, [g]he sought me out very diligently, and found me (me). 18 (The Lord grant unto him that (to) he may find mercy of the Lord in [i]that day (day): and in how many things he [l]ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

1 Thou therefore, [m]my child (son), be strengthened (strong) in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. 2 And the things [q]which (that) thou hast heard from (of) me *among many witnesses, the same [s]commit thou to faithful men, [t]who shall be able to teach others also. 3 (1 Suffer hardship with me, Thou therefore endure hardness,) as [w]a good soldier of Christ Jesus (Jesus Christ). 4 No soldier on service (man that warreth) [z]entangleth himself in (with) the affairs of this life; that he may please him who enrolled (hath chosen) him as (to be) a soldier. 5 And if also a man [c]contend in the games, he is a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not [c]crowned, except he have contended (strive) lawfully. 6 †[e]The husbandman that laboureth must be the first to partake (partaker) of the fruits. 7 Consider what I say; for (and) the Lord shall give thee understanding in all things. 8 Remember that Jesus Christ, [h]risen from the dead (Christ), [i]of the seed of David (David was raised from the dead), [k]according to my gospel: 9 [l]wherein I suffer hardship (trouble) [m]unto bonds, as a malefactor; but [n]the word of God is not bound. 10 Therefore [p]I endure all things for the elect's sake (sakes), that they also may (may also) obtain [s]the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with [v]eternal glory. 11 [w]Faithful (It is a) is the (2) saying: For [x]if we died (be dead) with him, we shall also [z]live with him: 12 [a]if we endure (suffer), we shall also reign with him: [c]if we shall deny him, he also will deny us: 13 [c]if we are faithless (believe not), yet [e]he abideth faithful (faithful): for [f]he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, [h]charging them in the sight of (before) (3)the Lord (Lord) that they [j]strive not about words (words), [k]to no profit, but to the subverting of them that hear (the hearers). 15 Give diligence (Study) to present (shew) thyself approved unto God, a workman [n]that needeth not to be ashamed, (4)handling aright (rightly dividing) the word of truth. 16 But [p]shun [r]profane and vain babblings: for they will proceed further in ungodliness (increase unto more ungodliness). 17 and (And) their word will [5]eat as doth a gangrene (canker): of whom is [u]Hymenæus and Philetus; 18 men who concerning the truth [x]have [6]erred, [y]saying that [7]the resurrection is past already (already); and overthrow the faith of some. 19 Howbeit (Nevertheless) the firm foundation of God standeth (standeth), §sure, having this seal, [b]The Lord knoweth them that are his (his): and, Let every one [d]that nameth the name of the Lord (Christ) depart from unrighteousness (iniquity). 20 Now (But) in [f]a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and [g]some unto (to) honour, and some unto (to) dishonour. 21 [j]If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and [o]prepared unto every good work. 22 But [q]flee (Flee also) [r]youthful lusts (lusts): and follow after righteousness, faith, love (charity), peace, with [t]them that call on the Lord [u]out of a pure heart. 23 But foolish and ignorant [y]questionings refuse (unlearned questions avoid), knowing that they do gender strifes. 24 And [b]the Lord's (8)servant (servant of the Lord) must not strive (strive); but [d]be gentle towards all (unto all) men, [e]apt to 8 Wherefore, [j]though I have all boldness in Christ to enjoin thee [k]that which is befitting, 9 yet for love's sake I rather beseech, being such a one as Paul [2l]the aged, and now [n]a prisoner also of Jesus Christ: 10 I beseech thee for [p]my child, Onesimus, [q]whom I have begotten in my bonds, 11 [3r]Onesimus, who was aforetime unprofitable to thee, but now is profitable to thee and to me: 12 whom I have sent back to thee in his own person, that is, my very heart: 13 whom I would fain have kept with me, that [x]in thy behalf he might minister unto me [a]in the bonds of the gospel: 14 but without thy mind I would do nothing; that thy goodness should not be as it were [c]of necessity, but of free will. 15 For perhaps [d]he was therefore parted for a season, that thou shouldest have him for ever; 16 [b]no longer as a [4]servant, but more than a [4]servant, [c]a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, [e]both in the flesh and in the Lord? 17 If then thou countest me [f]a partner, receive him as myself. 18 But if he hath wronged thee at all, or oweth thee aught, put that on mine account; 19 [i]I Paul write it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how that thou owest to me even thine own self besides. 20 Yea, brother, let me have [5]joy of thee in the Lord: [m]refresh my heart in the Lord. 21 [o]Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt do even more than I say. 22 But withal prepare me also a lodging: for [s]I hope that [t]through your prayers [u]I shall be granted unto you.

23 [v]Epaphras, my [w]fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus, saluteth thee. 24 and so do [y]Mark, Aristarchus, [z]Demas, Luke, my fellow-workers.

him, he left nothing that is not subject to put under him. But now [a]we see not yet all things subjected to put under him. 9 But we behold him see Jesus, [c]who hath been was made [1]a little lower than the angels, even Jesus, [*]because of angels the suffering of death death, [g]crowned with glory and honour honour; that he by the grace of God he should [h]taste death [i]for every man. 10 For it [j]became him, [l]for whom are all things, and through by whom are all things, [2]in bringing many sons [m]unto glory, to make the [3]captain author of their salvation [o]perfect through sufferings. 11 For both [p]he that sanctifieth and [q]they that who are sanctified [s]are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them [u]brethren, 12 saying,

[x]I will declare thy name unto my brethren,
In the midst of the [4]congregation church will I sing thy praise praise unto thee.

13 And again, [b]I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold, Behold I and the children [e]which God hath given me. 14 Since then Forasmuch then as the children are sharers in partakers of [5]flesh and blood, he also himself in like manner likewise took [g]partook part of the same; that [h]through death he [6]might [i]bring to nought destroy [j]him that [7]had the power of death, that is, the devil; 15 and [6]might deliver all them who [k]through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. 16 For verily not of angels doth he take hold, †he took not on him the nature of angels; but he [m]taketh hold of took on him the seed of Abraham. 17 Wherefore it behoved in all him in all things things it behoved him [n]to be made like unto his brethren, [o]that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest [q]in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation reconciliation for the sins of the people. 18 [8]For [9]in that he himself hath suffered [b]being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

3 [1]Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of [d]a the heavenly calling, consider [f]the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, even profession, Christ Jesus; 2 who was faithful to him that [10]‡appointed him, [k]as also was Moses Moses was faithful in all [11]his house. 3 For he hath been this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, by so much inasmuch as he that who [12]built hath builded the house hath more honour than the house. 4 For every house is [12]builded by some one man; but [r]he that [12]built all things is God. 5 [t]And Moses indeed verily was faithful in all [11]his house house, [v]as a servant, [w]for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be to be spoken spoken after; 6 but Christ [y]as a son, son over [11]his own house; [a]whose house are we, if we hold fast our boldness the confidence and the glorying rejoicing of our the hope firm [d]unto the end.

7 Wherefore, even as Wherefore (as the Holy Ghost saith, tion, though we thus speak: 10 for For [a]God is not unrighteous to forget [b]your work and the love labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have [d]ministered unto to the saints, and still do minister. 11 And we desire that each every one of you may do shew the same diligence unto the [1]fulness to the full assurance [e]of hope even to unto the end: 12 that ye be not sluggish, slothful, but [g]imitators followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, since because he could swear by none no greater, [i]he sware by himself, 14 saying, [j]Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee. 15 And thus, so, after [l]having he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise. 16 For men verily swear by the greater: and in every dispute of theirs an oath for confirmation []the oath is final for confirmation. 17 Wherein God, being minded to shew more abundantly willing more abundantly to shew unto [o]the heirs of the promise [p]the immutability of his counsel, [2]interposed with confirmed it by an oath: 18 that by two immutable things, in which [t]it is it was impossible for God to lie, we may might have a strong encouragement, consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of upon the hope [v]set before us; us: 19 which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, [a] hope both sure and stedfast stedfast, and entering which entereth into that which is [w]within the veil; 20 [x]whither as a the forerunner Jesus entered for us, [y]having become a is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek. Melchisedec.

7 1 For this [z]Melchizedek, Melchisedec, king of [a]Salem, priest of [b]God Most the most High, high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him, him; 2 to whom also Abraham divided gave a tenth part of all (being first, all; first being by interpretation, interpretation King of righteousness, and then after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; 3 without father, without mother, [†c]without genealogy, descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life, life; but made like unto the Son of God), God; abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom Abraham, [f]the even the patriarch patriarch, Abraham gave a the tenth out of the chief spoils. 5 And verily [h]they indeed that are of the sons of Levi that Levi, who receive the priest's office have office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though these have they come out of the loins of Abraham: 6 but he [k]whose genealogy [‡]descent is not counted from them hath taken received tithes of Abraham, and hath blessed [m]him that hath had the promises. 7 But And without any all dispute contradiction the less is blessed of the better. 8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there one, he receiveth them, [q]of whom it is witnessed that [s]he liveth. 9 And, And so to say, through Abraham even Levi, as I may so Levi also, who receiveth who receiveth tithes, hath paid tithes; 10 for tithes, payed tithes in Abraham. For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchizedek Melchisedec met him.

11 "Now if there was If therefore perfection through were by the Levitical priesthood (for under it hath the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should arise rise after the order of Melchizedek, Melchisedec, and not be reckoned called after the order of Aaron? 12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also [3]of the law. 13 For he of whom these things are said [4]belongeth spoken pertaineth to another tribe, from of which no man hath given gave attendance at the altar. 14 For it is evident that our Lord hath sprung sprang [c]out of Judah; as to Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing con-

9 Not according to the [1]covenant that I made with their fathers
In the day [that when] I took them by the hand to lead them [forth] out of the land of Egypt;
[For because] they continued not in my [1]covenant,
And I regarded them not, saith the Lord.
10 [h]For this is the [1]covenant that [2]I will make with the house of Israel
After those days, saith the Lord;
I will [*]put my laws into their mind,
And [i]on their heart also will I write them: [write them †in their hearts:]
And I will be to them a God,
And they shall be to me a people:
11 And they shall not teach every man his [fellow-citizen, neighbour,]
And every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord:
For [o]all shall know me,
From the least to the greatest [of them].
12 For I will be merciful to their [iniquities, unrighteousness,] [r]And their sins [and their iniquities] will I remember no more.
13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. [But Now] [u]that which [is becoming old decayeth] and waxeth [aged is nigh unto vanishing old is ready to vanish] away.

9 [1 Now even Then verily] the first covenant had also [‡]ordinances of divine service, and [z]its sanctuary, [a worldly a sanctuary of this world. sanctuary.] 2 For there was [c]a tabernacle [prepared, made;] the first, wherein [3*were* was] [c]the candlestick, and [g]the table, and [4h]the shewbread; which is called [§]the [Holy place. sanctuary.] 3 And after [i]the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the [Holy of holies Holiest of all;] 4 [having a Which had the] golden [5a]censer, and [b]the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein [6*was*] [c]a the golden pot [holding the that had] manna, and [d]Aaron's rod that budded, and [e]the tables of the covenant; 5 and [above it over it the cherubims] [f]cherubim of glory overshadowing [shadowing] 7[g]the [mercy-seat mercyseat]; of which [things] we cannot now speak [severally. particularly.]

6 Now [these things having been when these things were] thus [prepared, ordained,] [i]the priests [go in continually went always] into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the [services; service of God.] 7 but [But] into the second [went] [j]the high priest [alone, alone] [j]once [in the every] year, not without blood, [k]which he [offereth offered] for himself, and for the [8]errors of the people: 8 the Holy Ghost this signifying, that [m]the way into the [holy place hath not yet been holiest of all was not yet] made manifest, while as the first tabernacle [is was] yet [standing; standing:] 9 which [is was] a [parable figure] for the time [now present; then present,] according to [in] which [are were] offered both gifts and [sacrifices sacrifices,] [n]that [cannot, as could not make] touching the conscience, make the worshipper him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience; [perfect,] 10 [being Which stood] only (with [in] [p]meats and [drinks drinks,] and [q]divers [washings) washings, and] carnal ‖ordinances, imposed [on them] until [a the] time of reformation.

11 But Christ [having being] come [a an] high priest [s]of [9]the good things to come, [through [t]the by a] greater and more perfect tabernacle, [v]not made with hands, that is to say, not of this [creation, building;] 12 [nor yet through Neither by] [w]the blood of goats and calves, but [x]through [by] his own [blood, blood he] [y]entered in [a]once [for all] into the holy place, [b]having obtained eternal [redemption redemption] [tion. for us.] 13 For if [d]the blood of [goats bulls] and [bulls, of goats,] and [f]the ashes of [a an] heifer sprinkling [them that have the unclean, been defiled, sanctify unto sanctifieth to] the [cleanness purifying] of the flesh: 14 how much more shall [j]the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit [b]offered himself without [*]blemish [d]cleanse [1]purge unto God, [d]cleanse [1]purge your conscience [e]from dead works [f]to serve the living God? 15 And for this cause he is [g]the mediator of [a]the new [2]covenant, [h]that [a]death having taken place by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first [2]covenant, [l]they that have been called which are may might [n]receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. 16 For where a [2]testament is, there must also of necessity [3]† be the death of him that made it. the testator. 17 For [r]a [2]testament is of force [4]where there hath been after men are dead: death: [5]for doth it ever avail otherwise it is of no strength at all while he that made it liveth? 18 Wherefore even the testator liveth. Whereupon neither the first covenant hath not been testament was ‡dedicated [x]without blood. 19 For when every commandment had been Moses had spoken by Moses unto every precept to all the people according to the law, he took [z]the blood of the calves and the of goats, [a]with water water, and §scarlet wool wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself, and all the people, 20 saying, [b]This is the blood of the [2]covenant testament which God commanded to hath enjoined you-ward. 21 Moreover [c]the tabernacle and unto you. he sprinkled all the vessels of the ministry he sprinkled in with blood both the tabernacle, and all the like manner with the blood. 22 And vessels of the ministry. according to the law, I may almost say, all things are cleansed by the law purged with blood, blood; and [h]apart from without shedding of blood there is no remission.

23 It was necessary therefore therefore necessary that [j]the copies of the patterns of things in the heavens should be cleansed purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24 For Christ entered is not not entered into a the holy place places [k]made with hands, like in pattern to which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear before the face in the presence of God [l]for us: 25 nor yet that he should offer himself often; often, as [a]the high priest entereth into [c]the holy place year by every year with blood not his own; of others 26 else For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now [i]once [j]at in the [6]end of the ages world [k]hath he been manifested appeared to put away sin [7]by the sacrifice of himself. 27 And inasmuch as [m]it is [8]appointed unto men once to die, and but [o]after this cometh judgement; the judgment: 28 so Christ also, having been was once offered [p]to bear the sins of [q]many, shall appear many; and unto them [s]a second time, [t]apart from sin, to them that that look for him shall he appear the second "wait for him, time without sin unto salvation.

10 [1]For the law having [v]a shadow [w]of the good things to come, and not the very image of the things, [9]v they can never with the same those sacrifices year which by year, which they offer continually, they offered year by year continually make perfect them that draw nigh. 2 Else the comers thereunto perfect. For then ‖would they not have ceased to be offered, offered? because that the worshippers, worshippers having been once cleansed, would once purged should have had no more conscience of sins? sins. 3 But [c]in those sacrifices [d]there is a remembrance again made of sins year by every year. 4 For [f]it is impossible not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins. 5 Wherefore [g]when he cometh into the world, he saith, both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, becoming whilst ye became partakers with companions of them that were so used. 34 For [a]ye both had compassion on them that were of me in my bonds, and [b]took joyfully the spoiling of your possessions, goods, knowing [1d]that [2]ye *in yourselves that ye have in heaven possession and an abiding one. [e]a better and an enduring substance. 35 Cast not away therefore your boldness, confidence, which hath great [h]recompense recompence of reward. 36 For [i]ye have need of patience, that, [j]having after ye have done the will of God, ye may might [k]receive the promise.

37 For [m]yet a very little while,

[n]He and he that cometh shall shall come will come, and shall will not tarry.

38 [p]But [3]my righteous one Now the just shall live by faith:

And but if he shrink any man draw back, my soul hath shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not [4]of them that who shrink draw back unto perdition; but of them that have faith unto believe to the [5]saving of the soul.

II 1 Now faith is [6]the †assurance †substance of things hoped for, the [7]proving evidence of [w]things not seen. 2 For therein by it the elders had witness borne to them. obtained a good report. 3 By Through faith we understand that [z]the [8]worlds have been were framed by the word of God, so that what is things which are seen hath not been were not made out of [b]things which do appear. 4 By faith [c]Abel offered unto God [d]a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through by which he had witness borne to him obtained witness that he was righteous, [9]God bearing witness [10]in respect testifying of his gifts: and [h]through by it he being dead ‡yet [j]speaketh. 5 By faith [k]Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and [he] was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he hath had witness borne to him this testimony, had been well-pleasing unto God: 6 and pleased God. But without faith it is impossible to be well-pleasing unto please him: for he that cometh to God [e]must believe that he is, [e]and that he is a rewarder of them that seek after diligently seek him. 7 By faith [f]Noah, being warned of God concerning of [g]things not seen as yet, §moved with godly fear, [f]prepared an ark to the saving of his house; through by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of [l]the righteousness which is according to by faith. 8 By faith [o]Abraham, when he was called, obeyed called to go out unto into a place [q]which he was to should after receive for an inheritance inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. 9 By faith he became a sojourner sojourned in [r]the land of promise, as in a land not his own, strange country, [11s]dwelling in tents, tabernacles [t]with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: 10 for he looked for [u]the a city which hath [v]the foundations, [x]whose [12]builder and maker is God. 11 By Through faith even [y]Sarah also Sara herself received power strength to conceive seed seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, since because she counted judged [a]him faithful who had promised promised: 12 wherefore also Therefore sprang there sprang even of one, and [c]him as good as dead, [d]so many as the stars of heaven the sky in multitude, and as the sand, sand which is by the sea shore, shore innumerable.

13 These all died [13]‖in faith, [g]not having received the promises, but [i]having seen them and greeted them from afar, and afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and having confessed that they were [m]strangers and pilgrims on the earth. 14 For they that say

[b]My son, [c]regard not thou the chastening of the Lord, Nor faint when thou art reproved of him:
6 For [f]whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth,
And scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 [6]It is for chastening that ye endure; [h]God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? 8 But if ye are without chastisement, [j]whereof all have been made partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

JAMES.

1 [a]JAMES, a [7]servant of God and [b]of the Lord Jesus Christ, to [d]the twelve tribes which are of [f]the Dispersion, scattered abroad, [8]greeting.
2 [h]Count it all joy, my brethren, My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into [i]manifold divers [9]temptations;
3 knowing this, that [j]the proof trying of your faith [k]worketh patience.
4 And But let patience have its her perfect work, that ye may be [n]perfect and entire, lacking in wanting nothing.
5 But [o]if If any of you lacketh lack wisdom, [q]let him ask of God, [r]who that giveth to all liberally men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.
6 But [c]let him ask in faith, [e]nothing doubting: for wavering. For he that doubteth wavereth is like [g]the surge a wave of the sea driven by with the wind and tossed.
7 For let not that man think
10 that he shall receive anything of the Lord;
8 [t]a doubleminded man, A double minded man is [m]unstable in all his ways.
9 But let Let the brother of low degree glory in his high estate ‖rejoice in that he is exalted:

away. 11 For the sun ariseth with is no sooner the scorching wind, and risen with a burning heat, but it [a]withereth the grass; grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his goings. ways.

12 [b]Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he hath been approved, is tried, he shall receive [d]the crown of life, [e]which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. 13 [g]Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted [1]of God: for God [2]cannot be tempted with [3]*evil, and he himself tempteth no neither tempteth he any man: 14 but each every man is [4]tempted, when he is drawn away by of his own lust, and enticed. 15 Then the lust, [k]when it when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and [n]the sin, when it is fullgrown, finished, bringeth forth death. 16 Be Do not deceived, err, my beloved brethren. 17 [p]Every good [5]gift and every perfect boon gift is from above, coming and cometh down from [r]the Father of lights, [t]with whom can be is no variation, variableness, neither shadow that is cast by of turning. 18 [u]Of his own will he [v]brought begat he us forth by with the word of truth, [w]that we should be a kind of [x]firstfruits of his creatures.

19 [6]*Ye know this, Wherefore, my beloved brethren. But brethren, let every man [z]be swift to hear, [b]slow to speak, [c]slow to wrath: 20 for the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God. 21 Wherefore [c]putting away lay apart all filthiness and overflowing of fluity [7]wickedness, naughtiness, and receive [g]with meekness the [8]implanted engrafted word, [i]which is able to save your souls. 22 But be ye [l]doers of the word, and not hearers only, deluding deceiving your own selves. 23 For if any one is be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding [9]his natural face in a mirror glass: 24 for he beholdeth himself, and goeth away, his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. 25 But he that whoso looketh into the perfect law, [e]the law law of liberty, and so continueth continueth, being not a hearer that forgetful therein, he forgetteth, but a doer that worketh, hearer, of the work, [f]this man shall be blessed in his doing. †deed. 26 If any man [10]thinketh among himself [h]while he to be religious, and you seem bridleth not his tongue tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's [i]religion is vain. 27 Pure religion and undefiled before our God and the Father is this, [j]to To visit [l]the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and [m]to keep himself [o]unspotted from the world.

2 1 My brethren, [11]hold have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, [q]the Lord of glory, with [s]respect of persons. 2 For if there come into unto your [12]synagogue ‡assembly a man with a gold ring, in fine goodly clothing, and there come in also a apparel, poor man in vile clothing raiment; 3 and ye have regard respect to him that weareth the fine gay clothing, and say unto him, say, Sit thou here [s]in a good place; and [a]ye say to the poor man, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool: footstool: 4 [13]are ye not divided then partial [14]in your own mind, yourselves, and are become [d]judges with of evil thoughts? 5 Hearken, my beloved brethren; brethren, [f]did not God choose them that are chosen the poor as to the world to be [h]rich in faith, and heirs of ‖[j]the kingdom [k]which he hath promised to them that love him? 6 But ye [m]have dishonoured despised the poor man. THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF

PETER.

I 1 PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect who are strangers sojourners of [a]the Dispersion in scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, 2 Elect according to [c]the foreknowledge of God the Father, [e]in through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and [f]sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: [g]Grace to you unto you, and [i]peace peace, be multiplied.

3 [k]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who which [m]according to his *abundant great mercy hath begotten [o]begat us again unto a living lively hope [p]by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 unto To [s]an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and [t]that fadeth not away, [u]reserved in heaven [†]for you, 5 who are kept by the power of God are guarded [w]through faith unto [a] salvation [y]ready to be revealed in the last time. 6 Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, season, if need be, ye have been put to grief in are in heaviness through [b]manifold [1]temptations, 7 that [c]the proof trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth perisheth, [e]though it is proved by be tried with [f]fire, might be found unto [g]praise and glory honour and honour glory at the revelation appearing of Jesus Christ: 8 [j]whom not having seen having not seen, ye love; [k]on in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and [2]full of glory: 9 receiving [b]the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. 10 Concerning Of which salvation [d]the prophets sought have inquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you: 11 searching [h]what time what, or what manner of time [j]the Spirit of Christ which was in them did point unto, signify, [l]when it testified beforehand [n]the sufferings [3]of Christ, and the glories glory that should follow them. 12 [g]To Unto whom it was revealed, that [r]not unto themselves, but unto you, did they us they did minister these the things, which now have been announced are now reported unto you through by them that have preached the gospel unto you [t]by with the [5]Holy Ghost sent forth down from heaven; [x]which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore [4]girding gird up the loins of your mind, [a]be sober sober, and set your hope perfectly on hope ‡to the end for the grace that [6]is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; 14 as children of obedience, obedient children, [d]not fashioning yourselves according to [7]your the former lusts [h]in the time of your ignorance: 15 but [7]like [i]as he which hath called you is holy, be ye yourselves also so be ye holy [l]in all man-

[a]blessing; for [b]hereunto were ye knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing. 10 For,
[c]He that would love life,
And see good days,
Let him refrain his tongue from evil,
And his lips that they speak no guile:
11 And let him turn away from evil, eschew

12 For the eyes of the Lord are upon over the righteous,
And his ears are open unto their supplication. prayers
But the face of the Lord is upon *against them that do evil.
13 And [o]who is he that will harm you, if ye be zealous followers of that which is good? 14 [r]But and if ye should suffer for righteousness' sake, blessed happy are ye: and "fear not be not afraid of their fear, terror, [w]neither be troubled; 15 but [y]sanctify in your hearts Christ as the Lord God in your Lord: being hearts: and be [z]ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason concerning of the hope that is in you, yet [a]you with meekness and †[b]fear: 16 [c]having a good conscience; that, [d]wherein ye are whereas they speak spoken against, evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be put to shame who revile ashamed that falsely accuse your manner of life conversation good in Christ. 17 For [h]it is better, if the will of God should so will, be so, that ye suffer for well-doing well doing, than for evil-doing evil doing. 18 Because For Christ also [i]suffered for sins [k]once, hath once suffered for sins, the righteous just for the unrighteous, unjust, [l]that he might bring us to God; being put to death [m]in the flesh, but quickened [o]in by the spirit; Spirit: 19 in By which also he went and [o]preached unto the spirits in prison, prison; 20 which aforetime sometime were disobedient, [r]when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, [c]while the ark was a preparing, [2]wherein few, that is, [d]eight souls, souls were saved through water: by water. 21 which also The like [3]after a true likeness [f]doth now save you, figure whereunto even baptism doth also now even baptism, not save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but [g]the [4]interrogation answer of a good conscience toward God, [k]through God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ; Christ: 22 [i]who is on the right hand of God, having gone into heaven. gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; [j]angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

4 [1]Forasmuch then as [k]Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, [l]arm ye also likewise yourselves with the same [5]mind; mind: for [m]he that hath suffered in the flesh [n]hath ceased [6]from sin; 2 [p]that [7]ye he no longer should live [q]the rest of your his time in the flesh to [s]the lusts of men, but [t]to the will of God. 3 For the time past of our life [v]may suffice us [x]to have wrought the desire will of the Gentiles, and to have when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, winebibbings, excess of wine, revellings, carousings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries: 4 wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them into to the same [8]excess of [e]riot, [f]speaking evil of you: 5 who shall give account to him that is ready [g]to judge the quick and the dead. 6 For unto for this end cause [9][i]was the gospel preached even to the also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But [n]the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore of sound mind, sober, and [p]be sober watch [q]unto [10]prayer: prayer. 8 And above all things being have fervent in your love charity among yourselves; for yourselves: [t]love charity covereth a ††shall cover the multitude of sins: sins.

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF

PETER.

1 3*[a]SIMON Peter, a [4]servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained [5][c]a like precious faith with us [e]through the righteousness †of [6]our [f]God and our Saviour Jesus Christ: 2 [h]Grace to you and peace be multiplied [i]unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord; 3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him [n]that hath called us [7]‡by his own glory and virtue: 4whereby he hath granted unto us his precious and exceeding great promises: that through these ye might be [p]partakers of [8]the divine nature, [r]having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust. 5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add in your faith [s]supply [v]virtue; and in your virtue [w]knowledge; 6 and in your knowledge [9][y]temperance; and in your temperance [z]patience; and in your godliness; 7 and in your godliness [a]love of the brethren; and in your love of the brethren [b]love. 8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you to be not idle neither barren nor [b]unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 But he that lacketh these things [d]is blind, [10]seeing only what is near, having forgotten and cannot see afar off, and hath [g]the cleansing from his old sins. 10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence [j]to make your calling and [k]election sure: for if ye do these things, [l]ye shall never stumble: 11 for thus an entrance shall be richly supplied unto you [m]abundantly into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent [o]always to put you in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in [q]the present truth which is with you. 13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this [s]tabernacle, [t]to stir you up by putting you in remembrance; 14 [u]knowing that shortly I must put off my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me. 15 Moreover I will endeavour that at every time ye may be able after my [11]decease to have these things always in remembrance. 16 For we did not follow [c]cunningly devised [d]fables, when we made known unto you [e]the power and [12][f]coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but [a]we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. 17 For he [1]received from God the Father honour and glory, when there [2]came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, [e]This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: 18 and this voice we ourselves heard [3]come out of heaven, when we were with him in [g]the holy mount. 19 And [f]we have the word of prophecy made more sure; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, [k]as unto a lamp shining in a [4]dark place, until the day dawn, and [m]the day-star arise in your hearts: 20 knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any [5]private interpretation. 21 For [g]no prophecy ever came not []in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake []from God, being moved by the [7]Holy Ghost.

2 But [u]there arose false prophets also among the people, [v]even as among you also there shall be false teachers, who [z]privily shall bring in [8]damnable heresies, even denying the Master that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. 2 And many shall follow their [†]pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of the truth [b]shall be evil spoken of. 3 And through covetousness shall they [c]with feigned words [g]make merchandise of you: [i]whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. 4 For if God spared not the [l]angels that sinned, but [9]cast them down to [10]hell, and [n]delivered them into chains of darkness, [r]to be reserved unto judgement; 5 and spared not the ancient world, but [b]saved Noah with seven others, the eighth person, [12]a preacher of righteousness, when he brought [c]in the flood upon the world of the ungodly; 6 and [d]turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, [f]having made them an ensample unto those that after should [h]live ungodly; 7 and [i]delivered just Lot, sore distressed by the lascivious life of the wicked: 8 (for [l]that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, 13 [n]vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;) 9 [p]the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished: 10 but chiefly [r]them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and [t]despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid [t]to rail at dignities: 11 [w]whereas angels, though which are greater in power and might, bring not [x]railing accusation [§]against them before the Lord. 12 [z]But these, as natural brute beasts, made [16]to be taken and destroyed, railing in matters whereof they speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption; 13 suffering wrong as [c]the hire of wrong-doing; men that count it pleasure [f]to riot in the day-time, Spots they are and blemishes, [h]in themselves while they feast with you; 14 having eyes full of [19]‖[k]adultery, and [m]that cannot cease from sin; enticing unstedfast souls; having a heart exercised with covetous practices; cursed children: 15 forsaking Which have forsaken the right way, [a]they went and are gone astray, having followed following [c]the way of Balaam the son of the Beor, Bosor, who loved [d]the hire wages of wrong-doing unrighteousness; 16 but he was rebuked for his own transgression iniquity: [g]a the dumb ass spake speaking with man's voice and stayed forbad the madness of the prophet. 17 [i]These are springs wells without water, and mists driven by a clouds that are carried storm; [j]for with a tempest; to whom the blackness mist of darkness hath been reserved. is reserved for ever. 18 For, For [k]uttering when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they entice in allure through the lusts of the flesh, by through much lasciviousness, wantonness, those who are just [n]escaping that were *clean escaped from them that who live in error; error. 19 promising While they promise them [r]liberty, [s]while they themselves are bondservants the servants of corruption; corruption: for of [2]whom a man is overcome, of the same is he also brought into in bondage. 20 For if, if [u]after they have escaped the defilements pollutions of the world [v]through the knowledge of [3]the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein therein, and overcome, [y]the last state is become latter end is worse with them than the first. beginning. 21 For [b]it were had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after know- they have ing known it, to turn back from [e]the holy commandment delivered unto them. 22 It has But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The [h]dog turning is turned to his own vomit again, again; and the sow that had was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

3 1 This is now, beloved, the second second epistle, beloved, epistle that I I now write unto you; and in both of them which [j]I stir up your sincere mind pure minds by putting you in way of remembrance; 2 [l]that ye should may be mindful remember of the words which were spoken before by [n]the holy prophets, and of the commandment of the Lord and Saviour through your apostles. us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour

3 knowing this first, that [4][b]in the there last days mockers shall come with mockery, shall come in the last days scoffers, [e]walking after their own lusts, 4 and [f]saying, Where is the promise of [h]his [5]coming? for, from for the day that since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. 5 For this they wilfully willingly are forget, ignorant of, that there were by the word of God the heavens from were of old, and an the earth [t]compacted †standing out of the water and [6]amidst water, [m]by the word of God; in the water: 6 by which means Whereby the world that then was, [o]being overflowed with water, [p]perished: 7 but [q]the heavens that now are, and the earth, which are now, and the same word have been [7]stored up for are kept in store, fire, being reserved reserved unto fire against the day of judgement judgment and [t]destruction perdition of ungodly men.

8 But forget not this one thing, But, beloved, be not ignorant of this beloved, one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and [w]a thousand years as one day. 9 [x]The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, [z]as some men count slackness; but [a]is longsuffering to you-ward, us-ward, [c]not wishing willing that any should perish, but [d]that all should come to repentance. 10 But [f]the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which [g]the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and [i]the [8]elements shall be dissolved melt with fervent heat, and the earth the earth also and the works that are therein shall be [9]burned up. 11 Seeing then that these things are thus all to be dissolved, all these things shall [k]what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy living conversation and godliness, 12 [m]looking for and [10]earnestly desiring ‡hasting unto the [5]coming of the day of God, by reason of which wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and [o]the [8]elements man sin, [a]we have an [1b]Advocate advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: [2] and [d]he is the propitiation for our sins; sins: and not for ours only, but [e]also for the sins of the whole world. [3] And hereby know we we do know that we know him, if we [h]keep his commandments. [4] He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, [j]is a liar, and [j]the truth is not in him: him. [5] but But whoso [k]keepeth his word, in him verily hath is [m]the love of God been perfected. [n]Hereby perfected: hereby know we that we are in him: him. [6] he He that saith he [p]abideth in him [r]ought himself also so to walk to walk, even as he walked.

[7] Beloved, [t]no new commandment write I Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but [v]an old commandment [w]which ye had from the beginning: the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye heard. have heard from the beginning. [8] Again, [y]a new commandment write I I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you; you: because [b]the darkness is passing away, past, and [d]the true light already now shineth. [9] He that saith he is in the light, and [ff]hateth his brother, is in the darkness even until now. [10] He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none *[i]occasion of stumbling in him. [11] But he that hateth his brother is in the darkness, and [l]walketh in the darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because the that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

[12] I write unto you, [m]my little children, because [n]your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake. [13] I write unto you, fathers, because ye know have known [f]him which is that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because [g]ye have overcome the evil wicked one.

[2] I have written write unto you, little children, because [c]ye know have known the Father. [14] [2]I have written unto you, fathers, because ye know have known [f]him which is that is from the beginning. [2]I have written unto you, young men, because [g]ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the evil wicked one. [15] [i]Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. [l]If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. [16] For all that is in the world, [o]the lust of the flesh, and [q]the lust of the eyes, and [s]the vainglory pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. [17] And [u]the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

[18] Little children, [x]it is the last hour time: and as ye have heard that [z]antichrist cometh, shall come, even now have there arisen are there [a]many antichrists; [c]whereby we know that it is the last hour. time. [19] [e]They went out from us, but they were not of us; for [gg]if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, [h]that they might be made manifest [3]how that they all are not were not all of us. [20] And But ye have [j]an anointing unction from [k]the Holy One, [4]and [m]ye know all things. [21] I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and [5]because that no lie is of the truth. [22] Who is the a liar but [o]he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? This He is [z]the antichrist, even he that denieth the Father and the Son. [23] [p]Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: he that confesseth the Son hath the Father [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: [b]whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither [9]knoweth known him. 7 My little Little children, [c]let no man lead you astray: deceive you [e]he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous: righteous. 8 [f]He He that doeth committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. To For this end was the Son of God purpose the Son of God was manifested, [i]that he might destroy the works of the devil. 9 [k]Whosoever is begotten born of God doeth no sin, doeth not because commit sin; for his seed abideth remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is begotten born of God. 10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, [n]neither he that [p]loveth not his brother. 11 For [r]this is the [‡]message which that ye heard from the beginning, [t]that we should love one another: another. 12 not Not as [v]Cain Cain, who was of the evil that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? [x]Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, [z]if the world hateth hate you. 14 We know that [b]we have passed out of from death into unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death. 15 [g]Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that [i]no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. 16 Hereby know perceive we the love, love of God, because [l]he laid down his life for us: and [o]we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 17 But [p]whoso hath the this world's goods, and beholdeth seeth his brother in have need, and [s]shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, [v]how doth dwelleth the love of God abide in him? 18 My little children, let us not [a]love in word, neither with the in tongue; but in deed and in [c]truth. 19 Hereby shall And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall [1*]assure our heart hearts before him, 20 whereinsoever For if our heart condemn us; because us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. 21 Beloved, [h]if our heart condemn us not, [i]we have boldness then have we confidence toward God; God. 22 and And [k]whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and [m]do the those things that are pleasing in his sight. 23 And this is his commandment, [o]that That we should [2]believe in on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and [q]love one another, [r]even as he gave us commandment. 24 And [t]he that keepeth his commandments abideth dwelleth in him, and he in him. And [u]hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he gave hath given us.

4 1 Beloved, [x]believe not every spirit, but [y]prove try the spirits, spirits whether they are of God: because [b]many [c]false prophets [d]are gone out into the world. 2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: [y]every Every spirit which that confesseth that [h]Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: 3 and every spirit [f]which that [3]confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is the that spirit of the antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it cometh should come; and even [o]now it is in the world already. already is it in the world. 4 Ye are of God, [m]my little children, and have overcome them: because [q]greater is he that is in you, than [s]he that is in the world. 5 [t]They are of the world: therefore speak they [as] of the world, and [v]the world heareth them. 6 We are of God: [x]he that knoweth God heareth us; he who is not of God heareth us not. us not. By this we know Hereby know we [b]the spirit of truth, and [d]the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, [e]let us love one another: for love is of God; and [f]every one that loveth is begotten born of God, and knoweth God. 8 [g]He that loveth not knoweth not God; for [i]God is love. 9 Herein was In this was manifested manifested [4]in toward us, that [l]God hath because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. 10 Herein is love, [n]not that we loved God, [l]but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be [p]the propitiation for our sins. 11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought ought also to love one another. 12 [s]No man hath beheld seen God at any time: if time. If we love one another, God abideth dwelleth in us, and [v]his love is perfected in us: us. 13 [w]hereby Hereby know we that we abide dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. 14 And [z]we have beheld seen and bear do witness testify that [a]the Father hath sent the Son to be the Saviour of [e]the world. 15 [f]Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God abideth dwelleth in him, and he in God. 16 And [i]we know and have have known and believed the love which that God hath [4]in to us. [k]God is love; and [l]he that abideth dwelleth in love abideth dwelleth in God, and God abideth in him. 17 Herein [m]is love made perfect with us, †our love made perfect, that [n]we may have boldness in the day of judgement; judgment: because [p]as he is, even so are we in this world. 18 There is no fear in love: love; but [r]perfect love casteth out fear, fear: because fear hath punishment; and he torment. He that feareth is not [m]made perfect in love. 19 [u]We love, love him, because he first loved us. 20 [w]If a man say, I love God, and [y]hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, [1]cannot how can he love God [b]whom he hath not seen. seen? 21 And [c]this commandment have we from him, That [f]he who loveth God love his brother also.

5 1 [h]Whosoever believeth that [i]Jesus is the Christ [k]is begotten born of God: and [l]whosoever every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him. 2 [m]Hereby By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and do keep his commandments. 3 For [p]this is the love of God, that we [r]keep his commandments: and [s]his commandments are not grievous. 4 For [t]whatsoever is begotten born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that hath overcome overcometh the world, [u]even our faith. 5 And who Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth [w]that Jesus is the Son of God? 6 This is he that came [y]by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not [2]with the by water only, but [2]with the by water and [2]with the blood. 7 And [b]it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because [d]the Spirit is the truth. (7) For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. 8 For And there are three who that bear witness, witness in the Spirit, earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and the these three agree in one. 9 [i]If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God is this, [t]that which he hath borne witness concerning testified of his Son. 10 He that believeth on the Son of God [n]hath the witness in him himself: he that believeth not God [p]hath made him a liar; [a]because he hath not believed in believeth not the witness record that God hath borne concerning gave of his Son. 11 And the witness is this: this is the record, that God gave unto hath given to us [d]eternal life, and [e]this life is in his Son. 12 [g]He that hath the Son hath the life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not the life.

13 [j]These things have I written unto you, you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, even unto you that and that ye may [n]believe on the name of the Son of God. 14 And this is [o]the boldness which confidence that we have toward *in him, that, [q]if we ask anything any thing according to his will, he heareth us: 15 and if we know that he heareth us hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which that we have asked desired of him. 16 If any man see his brother sinning sin a sin which is not unto death, [3]he shall ask, and [3]God will he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. [x]There is [4]a sin unto death: [z]not concerning this do I I do not say that he should make request. shall pray for it. 17 [a]All unrighteousness is sin: and there is [4]a sin not unto death.

18 We know that [c]whosoever is begotten born of God sinneth not; but [e]he that was is begotten of God [f]keepeth [5]him, himself, and the evil that wicked one toucheth him not. 19 We And we know that we are of God, and [h]the whole world lieth in the evil one. wickedness. 20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and [j]hath given us an understanding, that we may know [k]him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and [m]eternal life. 21 My little Little children, [o]keep guard yourselves from idols. Amen.

1 [a]THE elder unto the elect lady and her children, [c]whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that [d]know have known [e]the truth; 2 [f]for the truth's sake, which abideth dwelleth in us, and it shall be with us for ever: 3 [i]Grace, mercy, peace shall be with us, ever. Grace *be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 [l]I rejoice rejoiced greatly that I have found certain of thy children walking in truth, even as we received as we have received a commandment from the Father. 5 And now I beseech thee, lady, [n]not as though I wrote to thee a new new commandment, commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, [p]that we love one another. 6 And [r]this is love, that we should walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, [t]even That, as ye have heard that from the beginning, ye should walk in it. 7 For [v]many deceivers [w]are gone forth entered into the world, even [b]they that who confess not that Jesus Christ cometh is come in the flesh. [b]This is the a deceiver and the an antichrist. 8 Look to yourselves, [g]that ye we [1]lose not the those things which [2]we have [†]wrought, but that ye we [h]receive a full reward. 9 Whosoever [3]j goeth onward transgresseth, and abideth not in the teaching doctrine of Christ, [k]hath not God: he God. He that abideth in the teaching, [k]the same doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. 10 If any one cometh there come any unto you, and bringeth bring not this teaching, [m]doctrine, receive him not into your house, and neither give him no greeting: bid him God speed: 11 for he that giveth greeting [o]partaketh in biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil works. deeds.

12 [q]Having many things to write unto you, I would not write them with paper and ink: [s]but I hope trust to come unto you, and [to] speak [‡]face to face, [u]that your §our joy may be fulfilled. full. 13 The children of thine thy elect sister salute greet thee. Amen.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF

JOHN.

1 [a]THE elder unto Gaius the the wellbeloved beloved, Gaius, [b]whom I love ‖in the truth.
2 Beloved, I pray that in all things wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth. 3 For [c]I [4]rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and bare witness unto thy truth, testified of the truth that is in thee, even as

5 Beloved, thou doest a faithful (faithfully) work in whatsoever thou doest toward [b]them that are brethren

JUDE.

1 [a]JUDAS, (JUDE,) a [3]servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James,
[4][c]to them that are called, [d]beloved in (sanctified by) God the Father, and [f]kept for (preserved in) Jesus Christ: (Christ, and called:) 2 [g]Mercy unto you, and [i]peace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, while I was giving (when I gave) all diligence to write unto you of our [l]common salvation, I was (it was) needful constrained (for me) to write unto you exhorting (you, and exhort) [m]to contend earnestly (that ye should earnestly contend) for you for all the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. 4 For privily, even [b]they (unawares,) who were before (set forth unto (ordained to)) of old this condemnation, ungodly men, turning [e]the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and [h]denying [5]our (the) only Master (Lord God, and Lord, our Lord) Jesus Christ.

hath kept reserved in everlasting bonds chains under darkness unto the judgement judgment of the great day. 7 Even as [b]Sodom and Gomorrah, Gomorrha, and [c]the cities about them, having in like manner them in like manner, with these given giving themselves over to fornication, and [f]gone going after *strange flesh, are set forth [1]as for an example, suffering the punishment vengeance of eternal fire. 8 Yet in like manner Likewise also these also in filthy their dreamings dreamers defile the flesh, and set at nought despise dominion, and [i]rail speak at evil of [2]dignities. 9 But Yet [k]Michael [l]the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed [n]about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing judgement, accusation, but said, [o]The Lord rebuke thee. 10 [q]But these rail speak at whatsoever things evil of those things which and but what they understand know naturally, like the creatures without reason, as brute beasts, in these things are they [3]destroyed. they corrupt themselves. 11 Woe unto them! for they went have gone in [u]the way of Cain, and [4]ran riotously [x]in greedily after the error of Balaam for hire, reward, and [y]perished in the gainsaying of Korah. Core. 12 These are they who are [5]hidden rocks spots [a]in your love-feasts feasts of charity, when they feast with you, [b]shepherds that without fear feed themselves; feeding themselves without fear: [d]clouds they are without water, [g]carried along by about of winds; autumn trees trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, [i]plucked up by the roots; 13 [k]wild Raging waves of the sea, foaming out [m]their own [6]shame; [o]wandering stars, [p]for to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness hath been reserved for ever. 14 And to these also Enoch, [s]the seventh from Enoch also, Adam, prophesied, prophesied of these, saying, [u]Behold, the Lord came cometh with [7]ten thousands of his holy ones, saints, 15 [a]to execute judgement judgment upon all, and to convict convince all the ungodly that are ungodly among them of all their works of ungodliness ungodly deeds which they have [d]ungodly wrought, committed, and of all [e]the their hard things speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him. 16 These are murmurers, complainers, [g]walking after their lusts (and own lusts; and [h]their mouth speaketh great swelling words), [j]shewing respect of words, having men's persons for the sake in admiration because of advantage.

17 But [y]e, beloved, [m]remember ye the words which have been were spoken before by of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; 18 how that they said to you, [p]In the last time there shall be told you there should be mockers in the last mockers, walking time, who should walk after [8]their own ungodly lusts. 19 These are be they who make separations, separate themselves, [9]r sensual, [s]having not the Spirit. 20 But ye, beloved, [t]building up yourselves on your most holy faith, [v]praying in the Holy Spirit, Ghost, 21 [w]keep yourselves in the love of God, [z]looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. 22 [10]And on of some have mercy, [11]who are in doubt; 23 and compassion, making a difference: some save, [c]snatching others save with fear, pulling them out of [e]the fire; and on some have mercy [f]with fear; hating even [h]the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 [j]Now unto him that is able [l]to guard keep you from stumbling, falling, and [n]to present you set you faultless before the presence of his glory [q]without blemish in with exceeding joy, 25 to [r]the only wise God our Saviour, through Jesus Christ our Lord, [t]be glory, glory and majesty, dominion and power, before all time, both and now, now and [12]for evermore. ever. THE REVELATION

OF S. JOHN THE DIVINE.

1 THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God [1] a gave him unto him, c to shew unto his [2] servants, even the servants things which must shortly come to pass: and d he sent and signified [3] it by his angel unto his servant John: 2 f who bare witness record of the word of God, and of h the testimony of Jesus Christ, even and i of all things that he saw. 3 j Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of the this prophecy, and keep the those things which are written therein: o for the time is at hand.

4 JOHN to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be to unto you, and peace, from t him u which is is, and v which was was, and [4] which is to come; and from x the seven Spirits which are before his throne; 5 and from Jesus Christ, who is y the faithful witness, and z the firstborn first begotten of the dead, and a the ruler prince of the kings of the earth. Unto b him that loveth loved us, and [5] c loosed washed us from our sins [6] by in his own blood; 6 and he hath made us to be [c] a kingdom, to be e priests unto f his God and his Father; to him be g the glory and [i] the dominion [7] for ever and ever. Amen. 7 Behold, l he cometh with the clouds; and b every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him; and all the tribes kindreds of the earth shall mourn over wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write;

These things saith [k]he that is holy, [l]he that is true, [m]he that hath the key of David, [o]he that openeth, and none shall shut, and that shutteth, and none openeth; 8 I know thy works: behold, I have [1]set before thee [q]a door opened, which none can shut, that thou hast a little power, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name. 9 Behold, I will give them of [t]the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and they are not, but do lie; behold, [v]I will make them to come and worship before the feet, and to know that [x]I have loved thee. 10 [y]Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of [2]trial, that is to come upon all the [3]world, to [4]try [cc]them that dwell upon the earth. 11 Behold, [d]I come quickly: [f]hold fast that which thou hast, that no man take [h]thy crown. 12 [c]He that overcometh will I make [i]a pillar in the [5]temple of my God, and he shall go out no more: and I will write upon him [j]the name of my God, and [k]the name of the city of my God, [k]the new Jerusalem, [l]which cometh down out of heaven from my God, and [n]I will write upon him my new name. 13 [c]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

These things saith the [f]Amen, [h]the faithful and true witness, [i]the beginning of the creation of God: 15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: [j]I would thou wert cold or hot. 16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spew thee out of my mouth. 17 [n]Because thou sayest, I am rich, and have gotten riches, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art the wretched one, and miserable, and poor, and [p]blind, and naked: 18 I counsel thee [r]to buy of me gold refined by fire, that thou mayest be rich; and [s]white garments, that thou mayest be clothed, and [u]that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, [p]that thou mayest see. 19 [w]As many as I love, I reprove and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. 20 Behold, I stand at the door, and [z]knock: [a]if any man hear my voice, and open the door, [b]I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. 21 To him that overcometh will I grant to sit down with me in my throne, even as [g]I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne. 22 [c]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard [b]the second living creature saying, Come[2]. 4 And beast say, Come and see. another horse came forth, [j]a red horse: there went out another horse that was red: and to him that sat thereon it was given power was given to him that sat thereon [k]to take [3]peace from the earth, and that they should slay kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard [b]the third living creature saying, Come[2]. And I saw, beast say, Come and see. beheld, and behold, lo, [c]a black horse; and he that sat thereon on him had a balance pair of balances in his hand. 6 And I heard as it were a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, beasts say, *e*A [4]measure of wheat for a [5]penny, and three measures of barley for a [5]penny; and the oil and the wine [g]hurt see thou hurt not the oil and thou not. the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of [b]the fourth living creature saying, Come[2]. beast say, Come and see. 8 And I saw, looked, and behold, behold, [i]a pale horse: and he that sat upon him, his name his name that sat on him was Death; Death, and Hades Hell followed with him. And there power was given [†]unto them authority over the fourth part of the earth, to kill [k]with sword, and with famine, hunger, and with [6]death, and [l]by the wild with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath under [m]the altar [o]the souls of them that had been were slain [q]for the word of God, and for [r]the testimony which they held: 10 and they cried with a great loud voice, saying, [u]How long, O Master, Lord, [v]the holy and true, [x]dost thou not judge and [z]avenge our blood on [a]them that dwell on the earth? 11 And there was given them to each one [d]a white robe. white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, [f]that they should rest yet for a little time, season, [h]until their fellow-servants fellowservants also and their brethren, which that should be killed even as they were, [i]should [7]be fulfilled.

12 And I saw beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and and, lo, [l]there was a great earthquake; and [m]the sun became black as [n]sackcloth of hair, and the whole moon became as blood; 13 and [o]the stars of the heaven fell unto

14 And [b]the heaven was removed departed as a scroll when it is rolled up together; and [c]every mountain and island were moved out of their places.
15 And the kings of the earth, and the princes, great men, and the [1]chief rich captains, men, and the rich, chief captains, and the strong, mighty men, and every bondman bondman, and freeman, every free man, [d]hid themselves in the caves dens and in the rocks of the mountains;
16 [e]and they say said to the mountains and to the rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of [f]him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:
17 for [g]the great day of their his wrath is come; and [h]who is shall be able to stand?

7 1 After this And after these things I saw four angels standing at on the four corners of the earth, holding [k]the four winds of the earth, [n]that no wind should the wind should not blow on the earth, or nor on the sea, or upon nor on any tree.
2 And I saw another angel ascend ascending [p]from the sunrising, east, having [q]the seal of the living God: and he cried with a great loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,
3 saying, [t]Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we shall have sealed the servants of our God [v]on in their foreheads.
4 And [w]I heard the number of them which were sealed, a hundred and forty and four thousand, sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and sealed out forty and four thousand of every tribe all the tribes of the children of Israel.

8 [p]the seventh seal, there followed a was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour. 2 And I saw [q]the seven angels [r]which stand stood before God; and there were to them given unto them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood [1][u]over at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should [2]*add offer it unto with [w]the prayers of all the saints upon [x]the golden altar which was before the throne. 4 And [y]the smoke of the incense, which came [3]with the prayers of the saints, went ascended up before God out of the angel's hand. 5 And the angel [4]taketh took the censer; censer, and [a]he filled it with the fire of the altar, and cast it [5]upon †into the earth: and [b]there followed [c]thunders, were voices, and voices, thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 And the first The first angel sounded, and there followed [g]hail and [h]fire, fire mingled with blood, and they were cast [5]upon the earth: and [j]the third part of the earth was burnt up, and the third part of [b]the trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were [e]a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea [h]became blood; 9 and there died the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, even they that had life; and had life, died; and the third part of [j]the ships was were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and [m]there fell from heaven a great star, a great star from heaven, burning as a torch, it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon [o]the fountains of the waters; 11 and the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters [s]became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, [t]because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of [v]the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; that so as the third part of them should be was darkened, and the day should not shine shone not for the a third part of it, and the night in like manner. likewise.

13 And I saw, and I beheld, and heard [6]an eagle, angel flying in mid through the midst of heaven, saying with a great loud voice, [z]Woe, woe, woe, for them that dwell on the earth, to the inhabiters of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, who which are yet to sound. sound!

shall rejoice over them, and make merry; merry, and [a]they shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets [c]tormented them that dwell dwelt on the earth. 11 And after the three days and a an half [e]the breath Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which beheld saw them. 12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, [i]Come up hither. And [j]they went up into ascended up to heaven [k]in the a cloud; and their enemies beheld them. 13 And in that the same hour there was was there [l]a great earthquake, and [n]the tenth part of the city fell; fell; and there in the were killed in the earthquake [1]seven thousand earthquake were slain *of men seven persons thousand: and the rest remnant were affrighted, and [q]gave glory to [r]the God of heaven.

15 And [x]the seventh angel sounded; and [y]there followed were great voices in heaven, and they said, saying, [a]The kingdom kingdoms of the this world is are become the kingdom kingdoms of our Lord, and of [c]his Christ; Christ: and [d]he shall reign [2]for ever and ever. 16 And the four and twenty elders, [f]which sit sat before God on their thrones, seats, [g]fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, 17 saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God, the God Almighty, [i]which art and which art, and wast, and art wast; to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and [j]didst hast reign. reigned. 18 And the nations were wroth, angry, and [m]thy wrath came, is come, and [n]the time of the dead to dead, that they should be judged, and the time that to give their thou shouldest reward to unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and to [q]them that fear thy name, the small and the great; and [r]to destroy them that which [t]destroy the earth.

19 And [b]there was opened the temple of the temple of God was God that is in heaven; opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple [d]the ark of his [3]covenant; testament: and there followed were lightnings, and voices, and thunders, thunderings, and an earthquake, and [f]great hail.

12 1 And a great sign was there appeared a great seen [‡]wonder in heaven; a woman [g]arrayed clothed with [h]the sun, and [h]the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars; 2 and she was being with child; and child [m]she crieth out, cried, travailing in birth, and in pain pained to be delivered. 3 And there was seen appeared another sign [‡]wonder in heaven; and behold, behold, a great [o]red dragon, [p]having seven heads and [s]ten horns, and upon his heads [t]seven seven crowns upon his diadems. heads. 4 And his tail draweth drew [u]the third part of the stars of heaven, and [w]did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was about ready to be delivered, that when she was delivered, [z]he for to devour her child as soon might devour her child. 5 And she was as it was born. brought delivered of a son, forth a man child, [b]who is was to rule all the nations with a rod of iron: and her child was [e]caught up unto God, and unto to his throne. 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that there they may nourish her they should feed her there [h]a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: [k]Michael and [l]his angels going forth fought to war with against the dragon; and the dragon warred fought and his angels; 8 and they prevailed not, not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. 9 And [o]the great dragon was cast down, out, [p]the that old serpent, he that is called the Devil Devil, and Satan, [s]the deceiver of which deceiveth the whole [4]world; world: [t]he the seven angels seven [a]golden bowls vials full of the wrath of God, [c]who liveth [1]for ever and ever. 8 And [e]the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and [g]none no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels should be finished. were fulfilled.

16 [1]And I heard a great voice out of the temple, temple saying to [l]the seven angels, Go ye, your ways, and [m]pour out [n]the seven bowls vials of the wrath of God into upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his bowl into vial upon the earth; and [2]it there fell became a noisome and grievous [r]sore upon the men which had [t]the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his bowl into vial upon the sea; and [2]w it became as the blood blood of a dead man; man: and [a]every [3]living soul died, even died things that were in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his bowl into vial upon [d]the rivers and the fountains of the waters; [4]and [2]f it they became blood. 5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying, say, Thou [j]Righteous art thou, art righteous, O Lord, [k]which art art, and which wast, [t]thou Holy One, and shalt be, because thou didst thus [5]judge: hast judged thus. 6 For [n]they poured out have shed the blood of [p]saints and prophets, and [q]blood thou hast thou given them given them blood to drink; for [r]they are worthy. 7 And I heard another out of [t]the altar saying, Yea, O say, Even so, Lord God, the God Almighty, [v]true and righteous are thy judgements. judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his bowl vial upon the sun; and [6]it power was given unto him [6]it to scorch men [z]with fire. 9 And men were [*]scorched with great heat: and heat, [b]they blasphemed the name of the God God, which hath the power over these plagues; plagues: and [d]they repented not [f]to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his bowl vial upon [h]the throne seat of the beast; and [i]his kingdom was darkened full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, 11 and they blasphemed [j]the God of heaven because of their pains and [k]their sores; and [d]they sores, repented not of their works. deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his bowl vial upon [o]the great river, the river river Euphrates; and [p]the water thereof was dried up, [q]that the way might be made ready for of the kings that come from the sunrising. of the east might be prepared. 13 And I saw coming three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of [u]the dragon, and out of the mouth of [v]the beast, and out of the mouth of [x]the false prophet, three [y]unclean spirits, prophet. as it were [z]frogs: 14 for For they are the [b]spirits of [7]devils, [c]working signs; which miracles, which go forth [8]unto the kings of the earth and of the whole [9]world, [e]to gather them together unto to the war battle of [f]the that great day of God, the God Almighty. 15 (Behold, Behold, [h]I come as a thief. Armageddon.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his bowl upon vial into [u]the air; and there came forth a great voice out of the temple, temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, [w]It is done: done. 18 And there were [z]lightnings, voices, and voices, thunders, and thunders lightnings; and [y]there was a great earthquake, [a]such as was not since [10]there were men men were upon the

and purple, and scarlet, and [1]decked with gold, and precious stone, and pearl! 17 for [b]in one hour so great riches [c]is made desolate. And [d]every shipmaster, and every one that saileth any whither, in ships, and mariners, sailors, and as many as [2]gain their living by trade by sea, stood afar off, 18 and [h]cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, [k]What city is like unto this great city! 19 And they cast [m]dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, wailing, saying, Woe, woe, the Alas, alas, that great city, [n]wherein were made rich all that had their ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for [q]in one hour is she made desolate. 20 [r]Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye saints, and [1]ye apostles, holy apostles and ye prophets; for [t]God hath judged your judgement avenged you on her.

21 And [3]v a strong mighty angel [w]took up a stone as it were like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with a mighty fall violence shall Babylon, [x]the great city, that great city Babylon be cast thrown down, and shall be found no more at all. 22 And [c]the voice of harpers harpers, and minstrels musicians, and flute-players of pipers, and trumpeters trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, [4]of whatsoever craft, craft he be, shall be found any more at all in thee; and [g]the voice sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee; 23 and the light of a lamp candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and [j]the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for [l]thy merchants were the princes great men of the earth; for [m]with by thy sorcery sorceries were all the nations deceived. 24 And [o]in her was found the blood of prophets prophets, and of saints, and of [r]all that have been were slain upon the earth.

19 [1]After And after these things I heard [a]as it were a great voice of a great multitude much people in heaven, saying, [s]Hallelujah Alleluia; [f]Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, belong to unto the Lord our God: 2 for [g]true and righteous are his judgements; judgments: for he hath judged [j]the great harlot, whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and [t]he hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand. 3 And a second time again they [5]say, Hallelujah. said, Alleluia. And [o]her smoke goeth rose up [6]for ever and ever. 4 And [p]the four and twenty elders and the four living creatures beasts fell down and worshipped God that sitteth sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Hallelujah. Alleluia. 5 And a voice came forth from out of the throne, saying, [u]Give praise to Praise our God, all ye his servants, and [x]ye that fear him, the both small and the great. 6 And I heard as it were [y]the voice of a great multitude, and as [z]the voice of many waters, and [b]as the voice of mighty thunders, thunderings, saying, Hallelujah Alleluia: for the Lord our God, the Almighty, God omnipotent [d]reigneth. 7 Let us rejoice be glad and be exceeding glad, rejoice, and let us give the glory unto honour to him: for [e]the marriage of the Lamb is come, and [f]his wife hath made herself ready. 8 And [h]it was given to her was unto her granted that she should array herself be arrayed in fine linen, bright clean and *pure white: for the fine linen is [i]the righteous acts righteousness of the saints. 9 And he saith unto me, Write, [k]Blessed are they which are bidden to called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, [n]These are the true words sayings of God. 10 And [p]I fell down before at his feet to worship him. shall be [a]priests of God and of Christ, and [c]shall reign with him [1]a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are finished, expired, [e]Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, 8 and shall come forth go out [g]to deceive the nations which are in the four corners quarters of the earth, [j]Gog and Magog, [k]to gather them together to the war battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. 9 And [o]they went up over on the breadth of the earth, and compassed [q]the camp of the saints about, and [r]the beloved city: and [t]fire came down from God [2]out of heaven, and devoured them. 10 And the devil [v]that deceived them was [w]cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where are also [y]the beast and the false prophet; prophet are, and they shall be tormented day and night [3]for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat upon on it, from whose face [e]the earth and the heaven fled away; and [e]there was found no place for them. 12 And I saw the dead, the great small and the small, standing great, stand before the throne God, and the [i]books were opened: and another book was opened, which is [j]the book of life: and [k]the dead were judged out of the those things which were written in the books, [o]according to their works. 13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and [q]death and Hades gave hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man [o]according to their works. 14 And [q]death and Hades hell [t]were cast into the lake of fire. This is [v]the second death, even the lake of fire. 15 And if any whosoever was not found written in the book of life, [b]he life was cast into the lake of fire.

21 1 And I saw [d]a new heaven and a new earth: for [f]the first heaven and the first earth are were passed away; and the sea is no more. there was no more sea. 2 And I John saw [4][h]the holy city, [i]new Jerusalem, [l]coming down out of from heaven from God, [m]made ready God out of heaven, prepared [n]as a bride adorned for her husband. 3 And I heard a great voice out of the throne heaven saying, Behold, [p]the tabernacle of God is with men, and he shall will [5][s]dwell with them, and they shall be his peoples, people, and God himself shall be with them, [6]and be their God: God. 4 and [u]he And God shall wipe away every tear all tears from their eyes; and [z]death shall be no more; there shall be no more death, [z]neither shall there be mourning, sorrow, nor crying, nor pain, any neither shall there be any more pain: more: for the first former things are passed away. 5 And [a]he that sitteth on sat upon the throne said, Behold, I [b]make all things new. seven last plagues; and he spake with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee [a]the bride, the wife of the Lamb's wife. 10 And [b]he carried me away in the Spirit to [c]a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, 11 [d]having the glory of God: and [e]her light was [f]like unto a stone most precious, even as a jasper stone, clear as crystal: 12 And had a wall great and high; having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: 13 on the east were three gates; and on the north three gates; and on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. 14 And the wall of the city had twelve [m]foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. 15 And he that spake with me [r]had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof. 16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs: the length and the breadth and the height of it are equal. 17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure [w]of a man, that is, [y]of the angel. 18 And the building of the wall was of [b]jasper: and the city was pure gold, [b]like unto clear glass. 19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, [3]sapphire; the third, [4]a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald; 20 the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprase; the eleventh, a [4]jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst. 21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; each one of the several gates was of one pearl: and [g]the street of the city was pure gold, [5]as it were transparent glass. 22 And [i]I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God the Almighty, and the Lamb, are the temple of it. 23 And the city [j]hath no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for [k]the glory of God did lighten it, [6]and the Lamb is the light thereof. 24 And [l]the nations of them which are saved shall walk [7]amidst the light of it: and the kings of the earth [n]do bring their glory and honour into it. 25 And [p]the gates thereof shall in no wise be shut at all by day: (for [q]there shall be no night there): 26 And they shall bring the glory and the honour of the nations into it: 27 And [s]there shall in no wise enter into it anything [8]unclean, or he that [9]maketh an abomination, or maketh a lie: but only they which are written in the Lamb's [t]book of life.

22 1 And he shewed me [u]a pure river of [v]water of life, bright as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of [10]the Lamb, 2 In the midst of [x]the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there [11]a tree of life, bearing twelve manner of fruits, yielding her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were [d]for the healing of the nations. 3 And [e]there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and

In the midst of the street thereof, and on either side of the river, was the tree of life* [11] Or, a tree [12] Or, crops of fruit [13] Or, no more anything accursed

[a]his servants shall do him service; or serve him: [4] and [c]they shall see his face; and [e]his name shall be on or in their foreheads. [5] And [g]there shall be no night no more there; and they need no light of lamp, or candle, [i]neither light of the sun; for [k]the Lord God shall give or giveth them light: and [m]they shall reign [1]for ever and ever.

[6] And he said unto me, [q]These words or sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord, or the Lord God of [r]the spirits of holy the prophets, or prophets, [s]sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly come to pass, or be done. [7] And behold, or Behold, [v]I come quickly. [w]Blessed quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the words or sayings of the prophecy of this book.

[8] And I [a]John am he that heard and saw these things, and saw these things, or heard them. And when I had heard and saw, or seen, [c]I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things. [9] [c]And he saith or Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am [a] fellow-servant with thee or thy fellowservant, and with or of thy brethren the prophets, and with or of them [w]which keep the words or sayings of this book: worship God.

[10] And he saith unto me, [g]Seal not up the words or sayings of the prophecy of this book or book: for the time is at hand. [11] [h]He that is unrighteous, or unjust, let him do unrighteousness or be unjust [2]still: and he that or which is filthy, let him be made filthy [2]still: and he that is righteous, let him do righteousness or be righteous [2]still: and [k]he that is holy, let him be made holy [2]still. [12] Behold, or And, behold, [m]I come quickly; and [o]my [3]reward is with me, [p]to render to each or give every man according as his work is or shall be. [13] [b]I am the [4]Alpha and the Omega, [d]the first or beginning and the last, or end, [f]the beginning or first and the end, or last. [14] Blessed are they that [h]wash or do his [5]robes, or commandments, that they may have [4]the right to come to [j]the tree of life, and [l]may enter in by or through the [5]gates into the city. [15] [n]Without or For are [6]the without are dogs, [p]and the sorcerers, and the fornicators, or whoremongers, and the murderers, and the idolaters, and every one that or whosoever loveth and [6]maketh a lie.

[16] [t]I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things [7]for or in the churches. I am [x]the root and [y]the offspring of David, and the bright, or bright and [z]the morning star.

[17] [8]And the Spirit and [b]the bride say, Come. And he that let him heareth, or let him that heareth say, Come. And [d]he that let him is athirst, or let him come: he that athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the [e]water of life freely.

[18] For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, [f]If any man shall add [9]unto them, or these things, God shall add [9]unto him the plagues which or that are written in this book: [19] and if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part from or out of [*]the tree or book of life, and out of [j]the holy city, and from the things [10]which are written in this book.

[20] He which testifieth these things saith, Surely or Yea: [l]I come quickly. Amen: Even so, [n]come, Lord Jesus. [21] The grace of the our Lord Jesus Christ [11]be [12]with the saints, or you all. Amen.

A.V. [*] Or, from the tree of life.

List of readings and renderings preferred by the American Committee, recorded at their desire. See Preface to New Testament.

CLASSES OF PASSAGES.

I. Strike out "S." (i.e. Saint) from the title of the Gospels and from the heading of the pages.

II. Strike out "the Apostle" from the title of the Pauline Epistles, and "of Paul the Apostle" from the title of the Epistle to the Hebrews; strike out the word "General" from the title of the Epistles of James, Peter, 1 John, and Jude; and let the title of the Revelation run "The Revelation of John."

III. For "Holy Ghost" adopt uniformly the rendering "Holy Spirit."

IV. At the word "worship" in Matt. ii. 2, etc., add the marginal note "The Greek word denotes an act of reverence, whether paid to man (see chap. xviii. 26) or to God (see chap. iv. 10)."

V. Put into the text uniformly the marginal rendering* "through" in place of "by" when it relates to prophecy, viz. in Matt. ii. 5, 17, 23; iii. 3; iv. 14; viii. 17; xii. 17; xiii. 35; xxi. 4; xxiv. 15; xxvii. 9; Luke xviii. 31; Acts ii. 16; xxviii. 25.

VI. For "tempt" ("temptation") substitute "try" or "make trial of" ("trial") wherever enticement to what is wrong is not evidently spoken of; viz. in the following instances: Matt. iv. 7; xvi. 1; xix. 3; xxii. 18, 35; Mark viii. 11; x. 2; xii. 15; Luke iv. 12; x. 25; xi. 16; xxii. 28; John viii. 6; Acts v. 9; xv. 10; 1 Cor. x. 9; Heb. iii. 8, 9; 1 Pet. i. 6.

VII. Substitute modern forms of speech for the following archaisms, viz. "who" or "that" for "which" when used of persons; "are" for "be" in the present indicative; "know" "knew" for "wot" "wist"; "drag" or "drag away" for "hale."

VIII. Substitute for "devil" ("devils") the word "demon" ("demons") wherever the latter word is given in the margin (or represents the Greek words δαίμων, δαιμόνιον); and for "possessed with a devil" (or "devils") substitute either "demoniac" or "possessed with a demon" (or "demons").

IX. After "baptize" let the marg. "Or, in" and the text "with" exchange places.

X. Let the word "testament" be everywhere changed to "covenant" (without an alternate in the margin), except in Heb. ix. 15—17.

XI. Wherever "patience" occurs as the rendering of ὑπομονή add "stedfastness" as an alternate in the margin, except in 2 Cor. i. 6; James v. 11; Luke viii. 15; Heb. xii. 1.

XII. Let ἀσσάριον (Matt. x. 29; Luke xii. 6) be translated "penny," and δηνάριον "shilling," except in Matt. xxii. 19; Mark xii. 15; Luke xx. 24, where the name of the coin, "a denarius," should be given.

XIII. Against the expression "the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ" add the marginal rendering "Or, God and the Father" etc.; viz. in Rom. xv. 6; 2 Cor. i. 3; xi. 31; Eph. i. 3; Col. i. 3; 1 Pet. i. 3. And against the expression "our God and Father" add the marg. "Or, God and our Father"; viz. in Gal. i. 4; Phil. iv. 20; 1 Thess. i. 3; iii. 11, 13; Jas. i. 27. And against the expression "his God and Father" add the marg. "Or, God and his Father", viz. in Rev. i. 6.

XIV. Let the use of "fulfil" be confined to those cases in which it denotes "accomplish," "bring to pass," or the like.

* In the present edition these marginal notes are transferred to the foot of each page. (See Preface to the edition with marginal references.)
